THE ROYAL WRAP:
ASCOT POINT TO POINT

James Doyle and Ameet Tikare with Blue Point at Royal Ascot | racingfotos.com

By Emma Berry

Conditions for Royal Ascot went from black rainclouds to an altogether more agreeable sunlit second half, lifting hearts, drying the ground and allowing macs and brollies to be cast aside. The one creature to be completely unmoved by such radically different backdrops was Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal). Come rain or shine, he stole the show as both a much-needed warm-up act and a dazzling star of the finale.

Choisir (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) was flown halfway around the world to snare the audacious Ascot sprint double, which has been attempted in the meantime but took 16 years to be replicated by Godolphin's increasingly heroic 5-year-old, who must now be considered the best sprinter anywhere in the world.

Not long after Choisir's epic feat, a young Kate Sigsworth reported for duty in Darley's nominations department at Dalham Hall Stud. Her elder brother Matthew worked just across the road at Cheveley Park Stud and still does. Along with their regular jobs, which for Kate also involves appearances on Racing TV, the siblings indulge in a spot of pinhooking. At the Tattersalls December Sale of 2014, they selected a Shamardal weanling from Linda and Reddy Coffey's Oak Lodge & Springfield House Stu, paying 110,000gns for the son of the Royal Applause (GB) mare Scarlett Rose (GB).

At Book 1 less than a year later, he was sold through their family's West Moor Stud for 200,000gns to Kate's former boss, John Ferguson. It was good business on both sides of the equation. The Sigsworths made a tidy profit for their client and Godolphin has Blue Point, who has been skilfully coaxed by Charlie Appleby to excel at Ascot and Meydan--arguably the two most important stages for the horse's owner, Sheikh Mohammed--and, perhaps even more importantly, will be one of the most enticing prospects to enter stud next season.

"On pedigree before we went to the sales, I'd picked out three Shamardals," Sigsworth recalled. "One of them was Blue Point and I just loved the way he moved as well as his demeanour. He had quite a big head and a great big backside. At that stage his front end hadn't really caught up, but what really drew me to him was the way he moved. He was quite a nervous horse when we first got him home but he was always very gentle and kind, and very easy to do."

BLUE POINT as a foal
Kate Sigsworth

She added, "It's given us great pleasure to follow him. Having worked at Darley in nomination sales and shown all those brilliant stallions from the days when I was there, to think that I've had even the smallest nugget to do with a stallion who could end up standing at Dalham Hall Stud is unbelievable."

One of the most refreshing aspects of the Blue Point story is that he is still dazzling us on the racecourse at the age of five. This is not a reflection of him being slow to come to hand. He made his winning juvenile debut, a 'TDN Rising Star' performance, the week before Royal Ascot three years ago and made six 2-year-old starts in all, winning the Gimcrack S. and finishing second in the Middle Park and the Richmond S., and then third in the Dewhurst.

The two horses to which he was runner-up--Mehmas (Ire) and The Last Lion (Ire)--were both bustled off to stud the following year, while Churchill (Ire) and Lancaster Bomber, who finished ahead of him in the Dewhurst, stuck around a little longer. Blue Point went on to appear at three consecutive Royal meetings, twice beating Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in the King's Stand before pulling off this year's remarkable follow-up act in the Diamond Jubilee. Furthermore, he landed the G1 Al Quoz Sprint on Dubai's biggest day earlier this year, having been withdrawn at the start when favourite for that race 12 months earlier after banging his head and suffering a nosebleed.

With his restricted book, Shamardal has been pretty much off limits to breeders outside the Darley fold for several seasons now, his fee having been listed as private for the last four years, and his reputation as an elite sire is growing steadily all the while. His son Lope De Vega (Ire) is already widely recognised as a high-calibre stallion on his own right, while Shadwell's Mukhadram (GB) is making progress with his first two crops on the track and recorded a first Royal Ascot winner of his own, Thanks Be (GB), who also notched notable firsts at the meeting for her owner Emma Capon, jockey Hayley Turner and trainer Charlie Fellowes.

Shamardal has long been famed for imparting his noble Roman nose to his offspring, but it is clear that looks are not the only thing transmitted through those genes. He's a stallion whose range increases with each passing season: witness the fact that this year his best performers include not just a crack sprinter, but the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Castle Lady (GB), and Saturday's thrilling Chesham and Wokingham S. heroes Pinatubo (GB) and Cape Byron (GB), while grandchildren, through sire and damline respectively, include Irish 2000 Guineas winner Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) and Oaks runner-up Pink Dogwood (Ire).

A closer look at Blue Point's pedigree drops several hints as to his durability, including as it does two horses famed for their toughness. His grandsire is the 'Iron Horse' himself, Giant's Causeway, who lit up the summer of 2000 with his winning streak that started at Royal Ascot in the St James's Palace S. and continued through the Eclipse, Sussex, Juddmonte International and Irish Champion S. A little less celebrated but no less hardy was his dam's half-brother Tumbleweed Ridge (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). His 10 wins from 58 starts included five Group 3 victories in a career spanning eight seasons. Admittedly, he wasn't top drawer, but his solid constitution was something that we don't often get a chance to see in colts these days before they are signed up at stud. We've seen it in Blue Point, whose achievements add more than a dash of class to a division in which this is sometimes lacking. Darley already has Shamardal's sons French Navy and Bow Creek at stud in Ireland and France, but the arrival of Blue Point to one of its stallion barns, whenever that may be, will be a day to be celebrated.

Breathtaking Performances

Royal Ascot was far from just the Shamardal show. Those dependable brothers Galileo (Ire) and Sea The Stars (Ire) played their roles with their usual aplomb. The latter perhaps just had bragging rights with his two Group 1 winners--Crystal Ocean (GB) and the indefatigable Stradivarius (Ire)--but the manner of Japan's win in the G2 King Edward VII S. suggested that the son of Galileo and Newsells Park Stud's classy matriarch Shastye (Ire) (Danehill) is surely a Group 1 winner-in-waiting.

Galileo’s sons Frankel (GB), Gleneagles (Ire) and Nathaniel (Ire) were also represented by Ascot winners. Frankel’s Baghdad (Fr), bred by Haras de Saint Pair, was winning at Royal Ascot for the second year running for Mark Johnston, while his other winner The Grand Visir (GB) cemented a memorable spell for trainer Ian Williams. The excellent dual-purpose trainer notched a first Royal Ascot winner just days after a listed victory for his Melbourne Cup hopeful and new signing, Gold Mount (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}), who, under his previous name of Primitivo had won at Royal Ascot three years ago.

For freshman Gleneagles it was of course an important breakthrough stakes win in the Windsor Castle S., while Nathaniel’s Dashing Willoughby (GB) provided a first Royal Ascot and group win for his owners Mick and Janice Mariscotti, of whom we will hear more in Tuesday’s TDN, as well as continuing a terrific week for his sire after the G1 Prix de Diane success of the Kilcarn Stud-bred Channel (Ire). Her success also started a memorable week for trainer Francis Graffard and jockey Pierre-Charles Boudot, who claimed the G1 Coronation S. with Watch Me (Fr), an important first Group 1 winner for Haras de Bouquetot’s Olympic Glory (Ire), himself a son of the aforementioned Choisir.

One of the most pleasing aspects of the meeting for breeders on more modest budgets was an excellent week for Bated Breath (GB), whose trio of Royal Ascot winners—Biometric (GB), Daahyeh (GB) and Space Traveller (GB)—was followed up by Saturday’s Santa Anita victory of Simply Breathless (GB) in the GIII Wiltshire S. The Highgate Stud-bred 4-year-old had in fact posted her final British win at Ascot for Clive Cox last September, with subsequent GI EP Taylor S. winner Sheikha Reika (GB) (Shamardal) behind her in fourth that day, before she was transferred to Neil Drysdale’s barn in California.

Mummy’s Boys

All Ascot races are competitive but none offers quite such a spectacle as the 30-runner cavalry charge that is the Royal Hunt Cup. Afaak (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) improved on an admirable second last year to nose out Clon Coulis (Ire) (Vale Of York {Ire}) and become a Royal Ascot winner just like his dam, Ghanaati (Giant’s Causeway), a grand-daughter of the Queen’s Height Of Fashion (Fr) (Bustino {GB}) who won the G1 Coronation S. after landing the 1000 Guineas in 2009.

South Pacific (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) is another with a strong family link to the Royal meeting as his half-brother Most Improved (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) won the G1 St James’s Palace S. in 2012 for Brian Meehan, while another, Ectot (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) was a Group/Grade 1 winner in France and America.

Going one better than their late dam Tonnara (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) when it comes to supplying Royal Ascot winners, however, is Lynnwood Chase (Horse Chestnut) who, coincidentally, was a resident of Richard Gibson's Chantilly stable at the same time as Gerry Oldham's homebred Tonnara. Bought as a yearling for Anthony Oppenheimer by Hugo Lascelles for €140,000, Lynnwood Chase had already been represented by the G3 Tercentenary S.-winning Lemon Drop Kid brothers Pisco Sour and Cannock Chase, and the mare, who died earlier this year, was given a posthumous tribute by her daughter Star Catcher (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), the first of the family to score at the meeting in the colours of her breeder when winning the G2 Ribblesdale S. Lynnwood Chase died after foaling a colt by another winner of the Tercentenary S., Time Test (GB), and she also has a yearling filly by Frankel at Oppenheimer’s Hascombe & Valiant Studs.

The Torch Passes

Amid the clamour surrounding Hayley Turner’s win—the first for a female jockey at Royal Ascot for 32 years—it should not be overlooked that it was a special, if not poignant, day for the filly’s owner Emma Capon, who lost her grandmother only last week, and for her husband Simon, whose sister was diagnosed with cancer on the morning of Thanks Be’s win. The Capons, with Emma’s father Tom Wilson, have recently bought Glebe Stud near Newmarket and have set up a new consigning venture, Skyline Thoroughbreds, with former Newsells Park Stud yearling manager Gerry Meehan at the helm.

Thanks Be has been entered for the forthcoming July Sale at Tattersalls but it would be no surprise to see her withdrawn after breaking her maiden in such dramatic fashion.

RISE HIGH
g.2014 MYBOYCHARLIE x LANA GIRL

Just as longstanding owner-breeder Julia Scott has recently handed over to new owners at Glebe Stud, Luca and Sara Cumani have done the same at Bedford House Stables, where Thanks Be is now trained by Charlie Fellowes. On the same day that the most recent Royal Ascot winner from the historic yard was registered, it was pleasing to see Luca Cumani’s notable training career, which came to a close earlier this year, acknowledged by his inclusion, with Sara, in the Royal Procession.

It’s unlikely to be the last we’ll see of the couple at the course as their breeding operation continues in earnest and was on Thursday represented by five-length Chelmsford winner Kirstenbosch (GB) (Mount Nelson [GB]), who is now unbeaten in two starts for the Cumanis under the tutelage of James Fanshawe.

Egans At The Double

David Egan must be congratulated for his first Royal Ascot victory in a terrific week for his boss Roger Varian, who saddled Daahyeh to win the G3 Albany S. with Egan aboard, as well as posting a final-day double with Defoe (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and Cape Byron for Sheikh Mohammed Obaid.
It would be easy for Egan, who turned 20 last week, to trade on his family ties: with former trainer Sandra Hughes as his mother, jockey John Egan his father, former champion jockey-turned-trainer Richard Hughes as an uncle and the late Dessie Hughes as his grandfather, he won't find connections hard to come by. But what marks him out as a young jockey to follow closely in the coming years, alongside his obvious talents as a rider, are his cool head and exemplary manners. Youngsters wishing to follow his path should be shown videos of his post-race interviews as an example of how to conduct oneself in the media glare.

It perhaps won't be long before we hear more of the Egan name as Friday was also a memorable day for another member of the family, David's younger brother Philip, who graduated from Ireland's Racing Academy and Centre of Education (RACE) that same morning. Watch this space.

Casamento's Classic Strike
We started this round-up with one of Shamardal's sons and we'll end with another: Casamento (Ire). A resident for one year at Ljungstorps Stud in Sweden after leaving the Darley roster, the strapping chestnut was repatriated this year to stand at the Hickey family's Sunnyhill Stud alongside Doyen (GB) and Lucky Speed (Ger). It's a farm better known for its excellent National Hunt record but Casamento is enjoying rather a good season with his Flat runners.

On Guineas weekend in Newmarket, his son Communique (Ire) beat subsequent Coronation Cup and Hardwicke S. winner Defoe when landing the G2 Jockey Club S., while a fortnight ago Amade (Ire), trained in France by Italian expat Alessandro Botti, won the GII Belmont Gold Cup and is now being aimed towards the Melbourne Cup.

The latest success for Casamento came on Sunday at San Siro, where his daughter Lamaire (Ire) won the G2 Oaks d'Italia for her owner-breeder, Razza Dormello Olgiata, which is owned by the Marchese Nicolo Incisa della Rocchetta, the son of Federico Tesio's business partner in his famous breeding enterprise.

In earning her first black-type victory in Sunday’s G2 Oaks d’Italia, Laimaire became just the latest success story in a current purple patch for her sire Casamento and grandsire Shamardal.

Off to a 3 1/2-length winning start last August, Laimaire dropped to second in conditions company next out and was subsequently put away for the winter. Returning a winner when uptipped for a mile for the first time on Mar. 10, she had to settle for third next out in the Listed Premio Seregno S. On Apr. 6. Off the board for the first time when sixth in the G3 Premio Regina Elena Shadwell (Italian 1000 Guineas) on Apr. 28, she appeared to enjoy the added trip when given an extra two furlongs in the Listed Premio Mario Incisa della Rocchetta on May 26 and hit a career high when trying her longest trip yet on Sunday. Biding her time in early, Laimaire found a seam with about three furlongs to run. She commenced a sustained rally and hit the line just in time to nip Must Be Late by a short head.

POTEMKIN BATTLES TO WIRTSCHAFT WIN
Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach (Ire)), winner of the 2016 G1 Premio Roma, registered four victories in seven starts last term and closed his 2018 campaign with a win in Baden-Baden’s Oct. 21 G3 Baden-Wurttemberg-Trophy and a fifth in Marseille-Borely’s Nov. 11 Listed Grand Prix de Marseille last time. Lining up without the benefit of a previous run this year, the veteran gelding nonetheless enjoyed hefty support at the tills and went postward as the 2-1 second favourite for Sunday’s G3 32nd Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft at Dormund, a race he annexed in 2016 and in which he ran fourth last year. Dictating on the front end throughout, he was stoked up when threatened soon after turning for home and maintained a high tempo under a drive inside the final quarter mile to bravely hold his closest pursuer Palace Prince (Ger) (Areion (Ger)) by a half-length.

Pedigree Notes
Potemkin is the leading light out of the dual stakes-placed Praia (Ger) (Big Shuffle), whose first produce is stakes-winning G3 Preis der Winterkonigin placegetter Paraisa (Ger) (Red Ransom), and he is kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt by Desert Emperor (GB) (Camelot (GB)), a yearling colt by Dubawi (Ire) and a 2019 colt by Sea the Stars (Ire). His Listed Nereide Rennen-winning second dam Prada (Ger) (Lagunas (GB)) produced G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Paita (GB) (Intikhab), herself the dam of G3 Prix d’Hedouville winner and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Pirika (Ire) (Monsun (Ger)).

Prada is also the dam of G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Puntilla (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), who in turn is the dam of the MGSW dual G2 Oettingen-Rennen victor Pas De Deux (Ger) (Saddex {GB}). Other notable descendants of Prada include South Africa’s MG1SP G3 Man O’ War Sprint winner Pinnacle Peak (SAf) (Querari {Ger}).

Villa Rosa placed twice at stakes level last year and ran ﬁfth in the May 4 Listed Prix Gold River, splitting 12-furlong conditions wins at Maisons-Laffitte on Apr. 15 and at ParisLongchamp last time on May 30. Villa Rosa broke to the fore before settling in ﬁfth going by the judge ﬁrst time here. Improving one spot on the home turn, she was nudged along to challenge inside the quarter-mile marker and kept on resolutely under mild urging in the latter stages to claim a career high in the shadows of the post.

Villa Rosa is one of six scorers, and becomes the ﬁrst stakes winner, produced by nine-time winner Villa Joyeuse (Fr) (Kahyasi (Ire)) and she is full to the yearling colt Joyeux Noel (Fr) (Doctor Dino (Fr)) and a half to Listed Prix Lord Seymour runner-up Zemindari (Fr) (Zanzibari). She shares her second dam Cupids Hill (Sallust (GB)), herself a half-sister to G3 Queen Anne S. and G3 Hungerford S. victor Ardoon (Ire) (Track Spare (Ire)), with dual G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud hero and G1 Hong Kong Vase-winning sire Ange Gabriel (Fr) (Kaldounevees (Fr)).

Last off the bridle in the straight, the 6-5 favourite was shaken up approaching the ﬁnal furlong and quickened smartly under whipless rousting in the closing stages to deny La La Land (Ger) (Outstrip (GB)) by a head in the dying strides. She is the latest foal and one of four winners out of an unraced half-sister to stakes-winning GIII Valley View S. third High Maintenance (GB) (Danehill) and to the dam of last week’s Listed Prix La Sorellina victress Stone Tornado (GB) (Toronado (Ire)). SECOND GROUP 1 FOR LYS GRACIEUX

SECOND GROUP 1 FOR LYS GRACIEUX

Evergreen 5-year-old mare Lys Gracieux (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)) collected a second Group 1 win as the only female in Sunday’s G1 Takarazuka Kinen, a “Win and You’re In” qualifier for the G1 Longines Breeders’ Cup Turf, under Australian jockey Damian Lane. Lys Gracieux had been runner-up four times at the highest level before she at last broke through in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in November, and she was subsequently second in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase.

She was second to the year-younger colt—and the 2017 Japanese champion juvenile—Danon Premium (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) on seasonal debut in the G2 Kinko Sho at Chukyo on Mar. 10, and was sent off at 4-1 for this after checking in third in Sha Tin’s G1 QEII Cup on Apr. 28.

Breaking sharply from the extreme outside post 12, Lys Gracieux was about three wide heading into the first bend but had worked her way up to sit a length second behind the favoured Kiseki (Jpn) (Rulership (Jpn)). Shadowing that rival all the way down the backstretch, Lys Gracieux took dead aim on him after turning for home. Despite failing to switch leads she overtook her rival with ease and galloped clear to win by three lengths. Kiseki stayed on to be a game second.

The 25-year-old Lane, who was winning his second Japanese Group 1 in addition to last month’s Victoria Mile, said of his tactics, “She broke well and I thought I might as well use that to my advantage. I was very confident turning in that she had plenty left in the tank and I was worried that there were a lot of good horses chasing and I thought that they would challenge but she was just too strong.”

Pedigree Notes

Lys Gracieux is out of the three-time French listed winner Liliside (Fr) (American Post (GB)), who is herself a full-sister to stakes winner Lily America (Fr). Other sisters have produced the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani winner Ming Zhi Cosmos (Fr) (Duke of Marmalade (Ire)), G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post (GB)) and last year’s G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Lily’s Candle (Fr) (Style Vendome (Fr)). Lily’s Candle is also eventually headed to Japan, having been bought by Katsumi Yoshida for €1.1-million at last year’s Arqana December sale.

HOLLENDORFER BAN RAISES MORE QUESTIONS THAN IT ANSWERS

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

Only time will tell if The Stronach Group (TSG)’s June 22 banishment of trainer Jerry Hollendorfer from Santa Anita Park and all other TSG tracks is a step in the right direction in terms of improving equine safety in the midst of the California track’s 30-horse fatality crisis. But in the short term, the ruling-off has raised more questions than answers.

Chief among them are how did Hollendorfer morph so quickly from a Hall-of-Fame trainer into a persona non grata in the eyes of TSG management?

Four horse deaths at Santa Anita in a six-month span were obviously the tipping point. The Los Angeles Times also reported two Hollendorfer trainees have died at TSG-owned Golden Gate Fields during the same time frame.

But if TSG wants to create a truly transparent trainer responsibility code, it owes the public—and other trainers stabled at its nationwide portfolio of tracks—more clarity and specifics about what Hollendorfer was allegedly doing that contributed to those fatalities. Did the sheer number of recent fatalities alone trigger Hollendorfer’s ban? Or is the 73-year-old, multi-decade mainstay on the annual North American winningest trainer list simply out of step with the rapidly changing times in terms of horse care? Cont. p3

A LETTER FROM ASCOT: UP THE STRETCH AWARDS by Dave Johnson

Originally these “Tip of the Top Hat” awards after the five-day Royal Meeting at Ascot were entitled DOWN THE STRETCH AWARDS. But since the Ascot homestretch is uphill, I have renamed these presentations as the UP THE STRETCH AWARDS...also known as the “Stretchies.”

WALL HORSE AWARD to Nagano Gold (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}), who might have won the G2 Hawdwicke S. because he was bothered twice by Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) Saturday.

When I was calling races at Fairmount Park and Cahokia Downs way back in the last century, when I would see a horse in real trouble, I would immediately scribble the name on the wall as soon as I shut off the microphone. Yes, the wall was a mess at the end of a season, but I think it showed a profit of horses to watch next time out. Nagano Gold would have been on that wall. He was cut off at the start, lost several lengths, and forced to race far behind in the early going of the mile and a half trip. Cont. p5

TSG’s statement issued on Saturday stated “Individuals who do not embrace the new rules and safety measures that put horse and rider safety above all else, will have no place at any Stronach Group racetrack. We regret that Mr. Hollendorfer’s record in recent months at both Santa Anita and Golden Gate Fields has become increasingly challenging and does not match the level of safety and accountability we demand. Effective immediately, Mr. Hollendorfer is no longer welcome to stable, race or train his horses at any of our facilities.”

Surely there is more to this story. Dr. Dionne Benson, TSG’s recently hired chief veterinary officer, did not return a Sunday voicemail message from TDN requesting comment prior to deadline for this column. Neither did Hollendorfer.

But according to Horse Racing Nation, Hollendorfer did say on the Sunday morning “Track Talk” radio show based in San Diego that “in our barn, I didn’t break any rules or anything like that...We were totally cooperative with the vets and the people coming around to look at the horses in every single situation.”

Racetracks that use “house rules” to try and weed out alleged wrongdoers are almost always in a “damned if they do, damned if they don’t” situation.

People complain endlessly about how racing’s regulatory bodies at the state level are toothless when it comes to getting rid of rule breakers and problem-causers, because the cases are often appealed, reduced, or overturned via the courts.

Yet when a racetrack steps up to assert its private-property rights to exclude anyone they like, some of those very same complainers leap to defend the ruled-off person, pointing out how such banishments don’t afford the accused a due-process shot at defending themselves.

In this case, perhaps it’s telling that the trainers’ organization that represents Hollendorfer doesn’t even know what to make of his banishment.

Jim Cassidy, the president of California Thoroughbred Trainers (CTT), said in a Sunday phone interview that he can’t comment one way or the other on whether the CTT is supportive of Hollendorfer.

“That’s difficult to say,” Cassidy told TDN. “We’re going to have a board meeting later on this week to have a discussion about what we can do, or if there is anything we can say or do. We can’t do much since this is private property, and [TSG] can have who they want or don’t want here. So there’s not much of legal consequence that we can do about it. We can make a stink about it, but it’s just the way it is.”

When asked if even the most safety-conscious trainers have developed a mentality that one bad step could ruin their careers and reputations, Cassidy said most CTT horsemen are adapting willingly to the new, hyper-sensitive racing landscape.

“Mostly, everybody’s taking care of business the way they should be,” Cassidy said. “That means everybody is trying to do the right thing. They’ve taken steps here to try to protect everybody and the horses--great steps. As far as the protesters and all of that, we try to ignore it the best we can. Nobody’s happy about it because they think it’s unfair. You just hold your breath and hope everything goes smoothly, day to day to day.”

Asked to comment on whether he felt TSG was shifting the safety narrative away from Santa Anita and putting the onus on trainers, Cassidy said this:

“The racing surface, since we’ve gotten rid of all the rain, has been in great shape. As far as blaming the trainers, it seems everybody wants to blame the trainers, no matter what the situation is. We take [flak] because when one guy has a problem, we’re all pointed at. If people are looking at you with wide eyes, everybody has to be very careful. But even if you’re very careful, you can still have an accident. It’s inevitable. There’s nothing we can do about that. You just have to take all the corrective measures you can to make sure that you’re not doing anything blatant.”

Both TSG and the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) have mandated a slew of changes to training and racing protocols over the past half year. Is there anything the CTT believes those organizations should be doing differently?

“To be quite honest with you, I don’t know what else they could possibly do,” Cassidy said. “They’re pulling out all the stops. They’re watching these horses from morning until evening when the races are over. There are veterinarians all over the place watching horses. The trainers are watching their own horses. I’ve never seen it cared for like this before.”

The SoCal racing now shifts to Los Alamitos Race Course, and Hollendorfer has been welcomed to race there by track management.

“Los Alamitos will gladly provide stalls to Jerry Hollendorfer, a Hall of Fame trainer and an unexcelled horseman,” Edward Allred, the track’s owner, said in a press release issued after the trainer’s TSG ban was announced. “Unless forbidden by the CHRB, we intend to permit entries from Hollendorfer. We do not feel he should be a scapegoat for a problem which derives from a number of factors.”

In May, Hollendorfer announced an intention to race a string of horses on the New York Racing Association (NYRA) circuit. He currently has 16 stalls at Belmont, but only eight are occupied.

“Mr. Hollendorfer is currently utilizing stall space at Belmont Park and was approved for stalls at Saratoga Race Course for the 2019 summer meet,” read a statement, in part, issued Sunday by Pat McKenna, NYRA’s communications director. “NYRA will honor those agreements and he will be permitted to stable and enter horses at both Belmont and Saratoga.”

Then, starting his bid, Nagano Gold was sawed off again by the same horse who bothered him at the start, Masar! The “wall horse” miraculously finished second the Defoe (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in a brave performance helped by a forced, but magnificent, stop-and-go and stop-and-go ride by Christophe Soumillion. A “wall horse” indeed.

THE WIG AWARD. Not one wag in the press box can remember when it started, so that means it was a long long time ago. Certainly before the present monarch. There are 10 ladies and gentlemen, all dressed alike, who actually ride many of the horses in the Royal Procession each day. For some crazy reason, each of these equestrians wear black riding caps, with a blonde wig sewn into the helmet, making it look like all of the riders are blonde and curly, too! I guess it is to give more attention to the folks in the carriages, but it seems a bit foolish in 2019. Then again, it is a part of the show of the unforgettable five-day fantasy and reality of Royal Ascot.

BEST PERFORMANCE BY A HORSE goes to Godolphin’s Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) who won both the G1 King’s Stand S. and the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. in the space of four days! You won’t see anything like that happen in the colonies.
BEST PERFORMANCE BY A TRAINER to the conditioner of the above dual Group 1 performer, plus many other stars. Charlie Appleby, who has climbed the ladder at Godolphin from groom, to traveling lad, to assistant trainer, to trainer. He has won multiple graded events all over the world, including three Breeders’ Cup races over the past two years. Bravo!

BEST PERFORMANCE BY A JOCKEY is easy. The most recognizable jockey in England, and perhaps one of the greatest to every ride, Frankie Dettori. At age 48, he replaced Ryan Moore as the top jockey at the meet (it used to be called the Ritz Club Trophy) for 2019. Well done, Frankie. Please stay healthy and come back next year.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE AWARD goes to the excellent Frankie Dettori. He is famous here for his “flying dismount” from the saddle following an important stakes victory. But Frankie is the first to admit that he copied his now-famous trademark from Angel Cordero, Jr.
Dettori picked it up when he came to ride in the United States about 1980, whilst Cordero was doing that same bit of showmanship at NYRA tracks years before that time.

DAD OF THE WEEK following Father’s Day was Shamardal (Giant’s Causeway) who, at age 17, made a great impact on the meeting and this country as the sire of many important winners.

LUNCH OF THE WEEK in the press box. Spicy Orzo, with red peppers. Who would have thought something so simple was so tasty?

ROOKIE AWARD to David Egan, who turned 20 years old Tuesday, won the G3 Albany S. on Daahyeh (GB) (Bated Breath (GB)) while his father, John, was riding at Newmarket. He is the nephew of outstanding rider Richard Hughes. David won the 2017 Apprentice title here in England, and now has a Royal Ascot winner.

THE ME TOO AWARD to underappreciated Haley Turner, who became only the second woman ever to ride a winner at The Royal meeting when she piloted longshot Thanks Be (GB) (Mukhadram (GB)) to capture The Sandringham S. (Handicap) Friday.

THE JOHN HENRY AWARD (for old timers) goes again to the 93-year-old monarch of England and #1 Ascot racegoer since 1945. Every racing day she is there. With a nod to the great Tom Durkin, she is “the incomparable, invincible, unbeatable, Queen Elizabeth II.”

Congratulations to the 2019 “Stretchie” winners.

Majestic Eagle, a front-running maiden winner over the Santa Anita turf course last May, grabbed the first graded score of his career with a dramatic late move in Sunday’s GIII American S. in Arcadia. Unhurried early, Majestic Eagle settled off the pace around the first turn. He improved his position down the backstretch while racing three wide behind a half-mile in :47.09 set by longshot Snazzy Dresser (Soldat). Four wide at the top of the lane as a host of rivals lined up to challenge the pacesetter, Majestic Eagle found his best stride in the final yards to nip rail-skimming Law Abidin Citizen and favored Sharp Samurai on the line.

“My horse broke good and I knew Sharp Samurai was the horse to beat,” winning jockey Rafael Bejarano said. “I tried to put just a little pressure on him early and then I took hold of my horse. I followed Sharp Samurai around the [far] turn and when we got clear, he was really running. [Trainer] Mr. [Neil] Drysdale told me this horse doesn’t like the stick, so I hand rode him and he really responded.”
Drysdale said the victory may have changed his plans for the 4-year-old.

“We were thinking about gelding him tomorrow, but maybe we will change our minds,” Drysdale said.

Majestic Eagle opened the year with a third-place effort down the hill in a Jan. 27 optional claimer. Second over the American’s one-mile distance and course in a May 4 optional claimer, he was fifth over the main track in the May 25 GII Triple Bend S. last time out.

Pedigree Notes:
Breeder Bobby Flay purchased Double Tapped for $340,000 at the 2013 Keeneland November sale. Majestic Eagle was her first foal. Carrying a full-sibling to the American winner, the mare sold to Bridlewood Farm for $1.3 million at the 2015 Keeneland November sale. That in-utero foal is now the stakes-placed filly Double Medal.

Double Tapped, a half-sister to Grade I winner Paddy O’Prado (El Prado {Ire}) and a full to champion Untapable, produced a filly by Curlin in 2017, a filly by Uncle Mo in 2018 and a filly by Empire Maker in 2019.

Untapable produced colts by Frankel (GB) in 2018 and 2019, while her graded-stakes-winning dam Fun House produced a colt by Gun Runner this year.

Acclimate went from starter allowance win to graded stakes win with a wire-to-wire victory in the GIII San Juan Capistrano S. on Santa Anita’s closing-day card Sunday. Stretching out beyond nine furlongs for the first time in his career, the bay gelding went right to the early lead and was well in hand through quick early fractions. Four lengths in front after three-quarters in 1:09.76, his lead quickly diminished after a mile in 1:34.95, but he skipped clear again. He carried a three-length advantage into the stretch and held on gamely to hold off the late charge of Oscar Dominguez.

The fast fractions weren’t a concern for winning trainer Phil D’Amato.

“When this horse gets comfortable, he keeps clipping those steady fractions,” D’Amato said. “Even though he was going fast, he was kind of doing it the right way. He didn’t look like he was all out.

He continued, “I knew when they were coming to him at the half-mile pole and Martin [Garcia] kind of turned him loose and he opened up again, we had a shot. Hat’s off to Martin. He rode a brilliant race. This is very special. Growing up, this was my favorite race. I used to find a way to get out of school, my mom would take me, and I would go sit there past the wire, so to win this is a pretty cool feeling.”

Majestic Eagle (outside) surges to the lead | Benoit
Acclimate, who earned his first win versus $20,000 maiden claimers over the main track at Los Alamitos last September, defeated state-bred foes to win a Feb. 7 allowance over the Santa Anita turf and was a front-running winner over nine furlongs of the Arcadia lawn in a May 31 starter allowance last time out.

Pedigree Notes:
Acclimate is the first graded stakes winner for his sire, 2011 champion older horse and multiple Grade I winner Acclamation (Unusual Heat). The 13-year-old stallion, who stands at Harris Farms in California, has been represented by a pair of stakes winners, Take the One O One and Heck Yeah.

Acclimate’s unraced dam, Knows No Bounds, sold to Patsy Berumen and Robert Riggio for $3,000 as an 11-year-old at the 2015 Barretts October sale. The mare was consigned by Havens Bloodstock as agent for Berumen and the Ellwood Johnston Estate. The same connections sold Acclimate to Tim Henry for $30,000 at the 2015 Barretts October Yearling sale.

Knows No Bounds produced a filly by Misremembered in 2018. Acclimate’s third dam is Grade I winner Fancy’n Fabulous.

CONSTITUTION FILLY CRUISES TO RISING STARDOM AT SANTA ANITA

Amalfi Sunrise (Constitution) drew in from the also-eligible list and drew off in the stretch to run to even-money backing and be named a ‘TDN Rising Star’ Sunday at Santa Anita. The $40,000 KEESEP yearling and $185,000 OBS April acquisition (:9 4/5) fired a :47 flat (1/37) warning shot from the gate June 14, and broke well from her outside draw to keep front-running Save the Story (Will Take Charge) in her sights from second. She ranged up to that foe heading for home, and scampered clear in the lane under very confident Norberto Arroyo, Jr. handling to romp by 6 1/4 lengths with another 7 1/4-length chasm back to third. Amalfi Sunrise is the fourth winner for her first-crop sire (by Tapit), and could have been the fifth if fellow firster Surveillance (Constitution) hadn’t run up on horses and been forced to steady abruptly, settling for fourth in the second race on the card. The winner is half to UAE Group 3-placed Gotti (More Than Ready) and a yearling colt by Violence. Her dam Soot Z (Empire Maker), a daughter of GSW/GISP Bella Chiarra (Phone Trick), sold for $92,000 at this year’s Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale in foal to Tiznow.

Faraway Kitten began the year with a solid third place effort in the Mar 9 Rushaway S. at Turfway. Placed back on the turf for a $50,000 tag at Churchill May 12, the bay outclassed the field by open lengths before completing the trifecta in a June 2 optionalclaimer. Dispatched as the 6-5 favorite here, the Ramsey homebred was away slowly and raced unhurried well off the pacesetter through splits of :23.14 and :46.73. Faraway Kitten loomed menacingly behind horses into the stretch but was blocked behind a wall of horses before rider Orlando Mojica swung him to the inside and he burst to the lead along the rail to edge Bizzee Channel by a length. The winner has an unraced juvenile full-brother and his dam was bred to We Miss Artie last season. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Nobrag Justfact finished a notable second over this course a year ago in the track’s marquee race, the Mystic Lake Derby S. In his two starts of 2019, he was a non-threatening seventh in an Apr. 10 optional claimer at Keeneland and a troubled second here May 31 in an optional claimer event. Sent to the post at 6-1 in a large field, the bay settled into a stalking trip along the rail as the leaders set even fractions of 23.75 and 47.02. Under patient handling turning for home, Nobrag Justfact shifted to the outside of pacesetter Ibaika and surged by that rival in the final furlong. The winner is a half-brother to the unraced juvenile filly At Ease (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) and a filly by Time Test (GB) born this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

With seven of his eight wins having come at this trip, including a comfortable last-out score over former stablemate What's on the agenda in the GIII Daytona S. over course and distance May 25, Eddie Haskell appeared close to a sure thing on paper here. Wrestling a bit with rider Kent Desormeaux early as What's on the agenda sped away, he had his work cut out for him heading for home, but hit another gear in midstretch to collar the pacesetter late. “There were some anxious moments from the quarter pole to about the eighth pole where the leader was going as fast as me and I had asked ‘Eddie’ to go,” Desormeaux noted. “He sustained his kick and that made the difference. Eddie won the race. He flicks his ears up a lot when he knows he’s open; I put my feet up ‘alligator’ style because I’m not sure which way he’s going. He responds so well to my hand gestures and when I encourage him to go, he just explodes. He literally can fly.”

ENDORSED (c, 3, Medaglia d’Oro--Dance Card (GISW, $502,200), by Tapit) was highly regarded last year after rallying to score at first asking at the Spa in August and earning an 89 Beyer Speed Figure. He could only manage sixth in the GI Champagne S. here Oct. 6, but had been recently flattered by a pair of runners who came out of his debut: third finisher Principled (Medaglia d’Oro) annexed a local maiden special weight May 11, while fourth finisher Borracho (Uncle Mo) was third in the GI Woody Stephens S. LONG WEEKEND (c, 2, Majesticperfection–Liza Too {SP, $116,448}, by Olmodavor), pounded down to 8-5 in what appeared to be a loaded baby race, avoided trouble when another foe lost his rider and out-finished that loose horse to win well at first asking. A $225,000 OBSAPR acquisition after a speedy-but-easy :20 3/5 breeze, the bay colt showed four local spins—most recently a 1:00 4/5 (4/23) drill from the gate June 12—in preparation for this first go. Away in about third, Long Weekend soon took over and sped clear. Dennis’ Moment (Tiznow), meanwhile, who was highly touted by trainer Dale Romans in a pre-race interview, was squeezed along the fence and lost rider Robby Albarado. Long Weekend wasn’t seriously threatened from there by anyone aside from the loose horse, who kept on running to finish within about a half length of him.
