SOVEREIGN SPRINGS IRISH DERBY SURPRISE

There was a shock of major proportions in Saturday’s G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby as Ballydoyle’s pacemaker Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) went out of sight of his stablemates and refused to stop en route to a six-length success. Partnered by the Epsom Derby-winning Padraig Beggy, the 33-1 shot who was 10th in the June 1 G1 Epsom Derby had Norway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for company until shaking loose approaching the last two furlongs. Despite the steady advance of the 5-4 favourite Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the gulf was too wide and it was another big-priced Derby victory for the rider of Wings of Eagles (Fr) (Pour Moi {Ire}). Norway dropped back to third, 2 1/2 lengths away, in a renewal that will long be remembered for the way it turned pre-race logic on its head. Whatever the starting price of the winner, it was still a one-two-three for the sire and Aidan O’Brien in their favourite Classic, a sixth time that the trainer had filled the first three places and a 13th victory for the stable in total.

“It’s great to have horses to compete here and there is no hiding place,” the master of Ballydoyle commented. “Sovereign is a very genuine, well-bred horse who stays very well and the pace was always solid and upfront.” Sovereign had looked more of a St Leger type than a Derby colt when galloping remorselessly to a 14-length maiden win on his third start over an extended mile on heavy ground at Galway and backed up that impression when fourth after cutting out the running in the G2 Beresford S. at Naas in September.

SISKIN RULES IN THE RAILWAY

Khalid Abdullah’s decision to put his faith in Ger Lyons reaped early reward on Saturday as Siskin (First Defence) maintained his unbeaten sequence in The Curragh’s G2 GAIN Railway S. Always travelling easily for Colin Keane tracking the front pair, the May 24 Listed Marble Hill S. scorer strode to the front passing the two pole and quickly subdued Monarch of Egypt (American Pharoah) before putting 2 1/2 lengths between him and Ballydoyle’s ‘TDN Rising Star’. “First and foremost it’s a huge result to be training for these people in the first place,” Lyons said after welcoming back the heavily-backed 4-6 favourite. “To get a good one so early in our career with them is a bonus. You don’t win over here until you win, because of who you are taking on.”

Siskin, who had beaten the subsequent Listed Chesham S. fifth Harpocrates (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) convincingly on debut over this trip at Naas on May 11, had dealt with the same stable’s eventual G2 Norfolk S. sixth King Neptune (War Front) in the Marble Hill over this course and distance. Kept away from Royal Ascot with this in mind, the homebred categorically justified that patience.

Third to Guaranteed (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) after adopting the same tactics in the nine-furlong G3 Eyrefield S. at Leopardstown a month later, he had acted as one of the targets for Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) in both the G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown Apr. 6 and the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial back there May 12. Eight-lengths runner-up on testing ground in the former contest, he had narrowed the margin to three when third in the Derrinstown but there was nothing in his Epsom effort when used to set the tempo to suggest he had this kind of performance in his armoury.

Whereas Beggy had come from the clouds on Wings of Eagles at Epsom two years ago, this was a case of cut-and-dried hard running from the front to provide the bullseye for Anthony Van Dyck et al. By the time Norway began to suffer for attempting to lay close to him, Sovereign was already in an unassailable lead turning for home with Ryan Moore drawing the remainder out of hibernation a long way out of their ground. As the chestnut hit the line still thundering, the assembled crowd fell mostly silent as the fancied colts just trailed in his wake. While it was nigh-on impossible to predict beforehand, the end result could be argued to have had a sense of inevitability about it in hindsight, with numerous regally-bred Galileos employed for pacemaking by the stable throughout the years.

At some point, one of them was going to rewrite the script and there was a precedent in the nine-length G1 1000 Guineas victory of Homecoming Queen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) at 25-1 in 2012. Sovereign’s winning time was also impressive on a track that suits forward-going types.

Beggy, who was also narrowly denied on the outsider Rostropovich (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in this 12 months ago, was in no doubt that this victory took precedence over his Epsom highlight. “I’m over the moon. This would be more important to me as an Irishman growing up wanting to win it and it was my main aim as an apprentice,” he explained. “I am very lucky and it’s down to a big group of people, but mainly to Aidan O’Brien who put me on this horse. I got into a lovely comfortable rhythm and always felt I could go quicker. He really enjoyed it here—he’s a big galloper and kept going. I did think something would come to me, but when I saw the screen I knew I was clear and just needed to keep him organised to the line.”

O’Brien added, “He did have very good 2-year-old form and won at Galway, which is a tough track and you have to stay very well. He’s a quick breaker--tactically quick--and doesn’t mind bowling along and keeps galloping. If there is any chink in the armour, it will be exposed here and you have to stay and that’s the way it was. He handles soft ground as well as fast.

Looking at it, the first two got away from them and Anthony Van Dyck didn't look like he stopped galloping going to the line. Padraig's a great fellow who works hard like everybody day in day out and he's a great rider."

Of future targets for the first and second, O'Brien added, “He could be a Leger horse or could go to France [for the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris] or the [July 27 G1] King George. He won't mind going the Leger trip. He's a solid horse to have, because he'll jump and he'll go along in any kind of good race. Ryan's horse ran very well. We were going to decide with him after this whether we go to the Grand Prix de Paris or the King George. I'd say they are still options, as there was nothing wrong with the run.”

Pedigree Notes

Sovereign is out of Barronstown Stud's Devoted To You (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who raced at or around a mile for this stable and also won a Galway maiden on testing ground at two by a wide margin. Second in the G2 Debutante S. and the G3 Park Express S., she is a half-sister to four stakes winners including the GIII Honeybee S. scorer Humble Eight (Seattle Battle), she is in turn the dam of the listed-winning Sadler’s Wells full-siblings Stage Call (Ire) and Humilies (Ire), while the third dam is the G3 Fillies’ Mile third Morning Devotion (Affirmed). Her trio of group winners are Balanchine (Storm Bird), the heroine of this Classic in 1994, the G2 Jockey Club S. scorer Romanov (Ire) (Nureyev) and the G2 Sun Chariot S. winner Red Slippers (Nureyev).

Red Slippers, who produced the G1 Prix de Diane heroine West Wind (GB) (Machiavellian), is also the second dam of the dual G1 Dubai World Cup hero Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) and the G2 May Hill S. winner and G1 1000 Guineas third Ihtimal (Ire) (Shamardal). Also connected to the dual Australian Group 1 winner Trust in a Gust (Aus) (Keep the Faith {Aus}) and the Japanese Group 1 performer Shonan Mighty (Jpn) (Manhattan Cafe {Jpn}), Devoted To You's duo to follow are also by Galileo and are a 2-year-old colt named Dawn Rising (Ire) and a yearling filly.

“Credit to Juddmonte, because they let me do what I wanted to do with him,” Lyons said. “I didn’t want to go to Ascot—I could have been rushed into that, but they let me do what I wanted. I’m just one of those lucky lads, because things are falling together for us. We have the best jockey in the country riding for us and Juddmonte are on the team now. My job is to just use the experience we’ve had in 20 years looking for these horses. We should know what we’re doing at this stage and it’s nice to have one.”

His trainer is aiming at the Aug. 9 G1 Phoenix S. over the same course and distance. “The plan was to come and then go to the Phoenix,” he added. “If we got beat today then we had to make a second plan, but at the moment we’re still on track. I’ve been beat in the Coventry and it’s a lonely place to be in second or third. I love having winners in Ireland. If we have to travel, I’ll travel, but I want to win races in Ireland. It is very much a case of so far, so good. Hopefully we can get this guy in one piece to the Phoenix and hopefully he’s still the best around at the time. I keep expecting Aidan to pull one out of the hat, because he normally does and when he does none of us will be surprised. But hopefully I can win that Group 1.”

Pedigree Notes
The dam Bird Flown (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)), who won a race over seven furlongs on soft ground at Clairefontaine for Andre Fabre in 2013 and raced at a mile, is a half-sister to the listed scorer and G2 Hardwicke S. runner-up Barsanti (GB) (Champs Elysees (GB)). She is also a half-sibling of Rising Tornado (Storm Cat), who was responsible for the multiple Grade I-winning champion Close Hatches and the GI Kentucky Oaks third Lockdown also by First Defence. Close Hatches is in turn the dam of Tacitus (Tapit), winner of this year’s GII Wood Memorial and GII Tampa Bay Derby who put himself in the elite of America’s 3-year-olds by finishing third in the GI Kentucky Derby and runner-up in the GI Belmont S.

The listed-placed second dam Silver Star (GB) (Zafonic) is a full-sister to the G1 Dewhurst S.-winning champion Xaar (GB) from the family of the GI United Nations H. hero Senure (Nureyev), the Group 1-winning sire Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) and Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili (GB)), who is making a name for himself at Banstead Manor Stud. Bird Flown’s yearling filly is by Flintshire (GB), while she also has a filly foal by Noble Mission (GB).

SUPHALA ON TOP IN THE CHLOE

André Fabre is slowly building Lady Bamford’s Suphala (Fr) (Frankel {GB}) towards important targets and the latest step was taken in her stride as she captured the G3 Arqana Prix Chloe at Chantilly on Saturday. Following the G1 Prix Saint-Alary third and 8-5 favourite Imperial Charm (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in fourth early, the 19-5 shot worked her way past her and the outsider Romanciere (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) inside the last 100 metres en route to a neck success from the latter.

Having beaten the subsequent dual Classic-placed Commes (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) over a mile here in September, Suphala was runner-up to the eventual G1 Coronation S. heroine Watch Me (Fr) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) in the seven-furlong G3 Prix Impatience at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 10 prior to running ninth in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches at ParisLongchamp on May 12. Successful in the Listed Prix Volterra back over the latter course and distance June 10, the chestnut is back on a winning run after tough spring consignments and gaining confidence as a result.

Pedigree Notes

Suphala’s dam is the Listed Prix de Lieurey scorer and GII Noble Damsel H. third Sefroua (Kingmambo), who has already produced the Listed Criterium du Bequet winner and G3 Prix du Calvados third Sivoliere (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). The second dam is the G1 Coronation S. heroine Sophisticat (Storm Cat), a daughter of the brilliant Serena’s Song (Rahy) whose presence had been felt during the same afternoon courtesy of Godolphin’s impressive Listed Empress Fillies’ S. winner Summer Romance (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). She has an unraced 2-year-old colt Sitoutvabien (Fr) (Golden Horn {GB}), followed by a yearling filly by Le Havre (Ire) and a 2019 filly by Almanzor (Fr).

MAVEN PROVIDES THE AMERICAN PHAROAH BREAKTHROUGH

After a rare winless Royal Ascot, the irrepressible Wesley Ward went to Chantilly on Saturday to do something significant in providing American Pharoah with his first European black-type winner courtesy of Richard Ravin’s Maven in the G3 Connolly’s Redmills Prix du Bois. Breaking much better than the hot favourite and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Hurricane Ivor (Ire) (Ivawood {Ire}), the Apr. 19 Aqueduct maiden special weight scorer kept finding on the front end for Mickael Barzalona and found the line in time to deny Jolie (Fr) (Power {GB}) in a photo. At the line, Maven had a head to spare as the 21-10 favourite, with the disappointing Hurricane Ivor only seventh.

Pedigree Notes
Taken out of the G2 Norfolk S. due to the rain-softened ground, Maven is the only known foal out of the triple stakes winner Richies Party Girl (Any Given Saturday). She is a half-sister to the GII Crown Royal American Turf S. winner Strategic Partner (Kris S.) and Light From Above (A.P. Indy), who threw the stakes winner and GI Las Virgenes S. runner-up Light the City (Street Sense). Invincible Army

Minutes after Speak In Colours (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}) had proven the worth of the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. when winning the Listed Dash S. at The Curragh, Invincible Army (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) provided a further boost to that form in Saturday’s G3 Betfair Exchange Chipchase S. at Newcastle. Only seventh and never dangerous at Royal Ascot, Saeed Manana’s 4-year-old was on a recovery mission having been considered one of the leading protagonists for last Saturday’s showcase after his May 15 G2 Duke of York S. success. Allowed to tank to the front by P J McDonald from the outset, the 10-11 favourite gave plenty to see off Laugh a Minute (GB) (Mayson {GB}) and score by 2 1/4 lengths.

Invincible Army has now won pattern races on Tapeta, the Polytrack having captured the G3 Sirenia S. at Kempton at two, soft turf when adding Ascot’s G3 Pavilion S. to his tally last May and good-to-firm turf as he blitzed through the Duke of York on his penultimate start. “He didn’t run his race at Ascot.

He’s run moderate races there before and it might just be that he’s not an Ascot horse,” commented the owner’s representative Philip Robinson. “That was the way it should have been and what we expected. It will probably be a bit quick after two quick races to run in the July Cup, so we’ll probably wait. If he goes back on the grass we want to make sure we get some cut in the ground, so we might wait for Haydock [the Sept. 7 G1 Sprint Cup] or we might look at France [the Aug. 4 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville] if they get a bit of cut out there. We’ll have a chat with the owner, but at least he’s come back and shown his full capability again.”

Pedigree Notes

Invincible Army’s dam is the G1 Falmouth S. heroine Rajeem (GB) (Diktat {GB}), a daughter of Magic Sister (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) whose descendants include five other black-type performers headed by this year’s G3 Fred Darling S. winner Dandhu (GB) (Dandy Man {Ire}). Magic Sister is in turn a full-sister to the G1 Prix Morny winner Hoh Magic (GB) from the immediate family of the G2 Prince of Wales’s S. scorer Crimson Beau (GB) (High Line {GB}). Rajeem’s 2-year-old colt is by Australia (GB), while she also has a 2019 full-brother to Invincible Army in the offing.

LIMATO PREVAILS IN THE CRITERION

Now a veteran of the stage, Paul Jacobs’ Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) provided his usual crowd-pleasing turn again on Saturday as he registered a seventh pattern-race victory in Newmarket’s G3 Randox Health Criterion S. Freshened up after a fourth to Invincible Army (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) on his seasonal bow in the May 15 G2 Duke of York S., the 11-4 favourite travelled with all his customary menace under Harry Bentley tracking the leading duo throughout the early stages.

Still in hand with the race at his mercy with two furlongs remaining, the bay who carried a five-pound penalty was made to stretch by Glorious Journey (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) but gave the impression he was in more control than the neck winning margin suggests. Trainer Henry Candy was certainly of that opinion. “He’s a character first and foremost and loves the whole thing,” he said. “Harry said he was going too easily and he had to go on when he did, but he was adamant there was plenty more to come if things had got serious.”

Over this trip, Limato boasts two renewals of the G2 Challenge S. on Newmarket’s Rowley Mile strip, a G1 Prix de la Foret on a turning track at Chantilly and a G2 Park S. at Doncaster.

He also has a G1 July Cup to his tally over six having mastered the sprinters on this track three years ago. Also runner-up to Mecca’s Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) on his sole effort over five furlongs in the 2016 G1 Nunthorpe S., he had endured a fallow period for the first half of 2018 and it was largely a confidence-restoring success in the Listed Hopeful S. on this course in August that had put him back on track.

“The horse is so intelligent and so full of enthusiasm and in my experience it’s very rare to have one who maintains that at this level for so long--he’s probably the only one I’ve had,” Candy said. “He’s not far off the top level and has really not deteriorated very much at all, he’s incredible.

That was a very good effort to give away five pounds and seven is his trip, but he’s reliant on the weather. Mr Jacobs wants to go to the [G3] Minstrel [S. at The Curragh July 20] and that could be ideal for him over a stiff seven. The [July 50 G2] Lennox [S. at Goodwood] is also a very attractive race and I know Mr Jacobs wants to win a third Challenge [at Newmarket Oct. 11]. He feels very much at home on these two tracks, which are like his gallop at home with two dips. He is the yard, he means everything.”

Pedigree Notes

Limato is the second and so far sole black-type performer out of Come April (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), whose dam So Admirable (GB) (Suave Dancer) is a full-sister to the G1 Eclipse S. hero Compton Admiral (GB) and a half to the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Summoner (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) and the G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Twyla Tharp (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells). The latter is in turn the dam of the four-times Group 1-winning The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Come April also has the unraced 2-year-old colt Hakkinen (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

BUCKHURST HAS INTERNATIONAL PRIDE
Lloyd Williams’s colours are becoming ever more commonplace in Ireland and on The Curragh’s hallowed terrain where they were carried to Derby glory last summer it was Buckhurst (IRE) (Australia [GB]) who continued the momentum in Saturday’s G3 Dubai Duty Free Full of Surprises International S. Following a winning mile debut at Leopardstown on Apr. 6 with a fifth in the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial there on May 12 and a runner-up finish in the G3 Gallinule S. over this course and distance on May 24, the progressive 3-year-old was benefitting from the withdrawal of the Listed Wolferton S. winner Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal [GB]) due to the quickening ground.

Following the leading pair under Wayne Lordan, the 2-1 favourite ground his way to the front passing the two-furlong pole and saw off fellow sophomores Blenheim Palace (IRE) (Galileo [IRE]) and Georgeville (GB) (Dawn Approach [Ire]) on either side to score by 1 1/2 lengths and a neck.

“He’s a very straightforward colt who stays well and as he hasn’t had much experience I was happy to bowl a little bit wide,” his rider explained. “He’s exciting and can keep progressing.”
Pedigree Notes
Buckhurst is the last known foal out of the Bloomsbury Stud-bred Artful (Ire) (Green Desert), who also has the Listed Rose Bowl S. winner Duplicity (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux (GB)) to her credit. The second dam is the listed-winning Gold Dodger (Slew O’Gold) whose G3 C. L. Weld Park S.-winning daughter Chintz (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)) produced the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouilans and G1 Sussex S. hero The Gurkha (Ire) from a mating with Australia’s sire Galileo (Ire). The third dam is Brooklyn’s Dance (Fr) (Shirley Heights (GB)) who captured the G3 Prix Cleopatre before throwing six black-type winners, most notably the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe heroine Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote (GB)). Among her descendants is the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Silasol (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and the recent G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Pollara (Ire) (Camelot (GB)).

Impressive when winning the Listed Norsk Derby here in August, Square de Luynes was a work in progress at the time and described as fragile by trainer Niels Petersen who holds the bay in the highest regard. Keen initially until gaining a lead, he was sent to the front in a virtual canter passing the two-furlong pole and Rafael Schistl had time to look around and stroke his mane as he dismissed his rivals with ease.

Pedigree Notes
The dam is the Listed Warwickshire Oaks winner Power Girl (Ger) (Dashing Blade (GB)), who also produced the listed scorer and G3 Prix Fille de l’Air runner-up Glowing Cloud (GB) (Dylan Thomas (Ire)). The second dam Picara (Ger) is a full-sister to the G1 Deutsches Derby and G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Philipo (Ger) (Prince Ippi (Ger)), with this being the family of another Deutsches Derby hero in Pik Konig (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}). Power Girl also has an unraced 2-year-old full-sister to Square de Luynes named Queen Khaledesi (Fr) and a yearling filly by Morandi (Fr) named Rue Pavee (Fr).
MORGAN READYED FOR SAINT-CLOUD TEST

After France’s mini heatwave, Sunday’s temperatures promise to be more manageable for those assembled for the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud which appears at the mercy of the fillies and mares. Godolphin’s former stayer Morgan Le Faye (GB) (Shamardal) heads the home contingent, having proved a revelation since being shortened up by Andre Fabre in 2019. Bloodless wins in the 10 1/2-furlong Listed Prix Zarkava at ParisLongchamp on Apr. 7 and the G2 Prix Corrida here on May 20 have been gained either side of another in the G3 Prix Allez France over a mile and a quarter also at ParisLongchamp on Apr. 28 and a rise in trip is certainly no hindrance. Third in the Arc meeting’s marathon G1 Prix du Cadran and in the 15-furlong G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Chantilly in October, the 5-year-old is the epitome of versatility.

“I imagine Frankie had the choice--he’s friendly with both sets of owners,” commented Denford Stud’s Richard Evans. “Frankie felt it was a falsely-run race at Newmarket and we should just write it off. We’ll find out if it was this weekend, but it looks a very good race. She certainly deserves a Group 1. She’s come up against them all--Enable, Sea of Class, Magical--but the closest she’s come was in this last year and you’d have to think this might be her best chance again.”

In the British Champions Fillies & Mares, fellow ‘TDN Rising Star’ and stablemate Lah Ti Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was a further 3/4 of a length away in third getting weight-for-age and she also has a question to answer as she bids to rebound from a below-par effort. Only sixth in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom on May 31, Lord Lloyd-Webber’s G1 St Leger runner-up is perhaps better judged on her return win a renewal of the May 16 G2 Middleton S. at York that is working out well.

“TDN Rising Star” Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) returns after a break having disappointed when fourth in the May 18 London Gold Cup at Royal Ascot, Khalid Abdullah’s May 18 London Gold Cup winner follows the route that former Juddmonte star Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) went down as a 3-year-old when taking this in 2008 at its traditional home of Maisons-Laffitte.

Almost the king of the all-weather following his impressive dismissal of Wissahickon (Tapit) in the Easter Classic on Lingfield’s Polytrack Apr. 19, Matterhorn had performed with credit on turf thereafter when second over a mile and a quarter in the G2 Huxley S. at Chester May 10 and G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown 13 days later. Only 10th dropping back to this trip for the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last Tuesday, the bay was more comfortable around these turns and stayed on strongly to deny the Royal Hunt Cup flop New Graduate for a first black-type success.

Tanaghum is also the dam of this year’s G3 Sandown Classic Trial winner Bangkok (Ire) (Australia {GB}), the G3 Curragh Cup winner Tactic (GB) (Sadler’s Wells) and the Listed Prix Joubert winner and G3 Prix Minerve runner-up Yaazy (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), as well as being the second dam of the four-times Group 1-winning Ribchester (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). The second dam Mehthaaf (Nureyev) captured the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and is kin to the G1 July Cup hero Elnadim (Danzig), as well as to Only Seule (Lyphard) who produced the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Prix de la Foret heroine Occupandiste (Ire) (Kaldoun {Fr}). Labelled a ‘TDN Rising Star’ after her smooth two-length defeat of the subsequent winner Bredenbury (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) in a Yarmouth maiden on soft ground over this trip June 13, Summer Romance looked a complete natural on this first black-type foray as she dominated proceedings. Always traveling strongly restrained behind the leading duo, the grey moved with ease to the fore with two furlongs remaining and when given the command surged clear for an emphatic success.

“She gave me a nice feel on bad ground on her debut and has definitely progressed again,” jockey James Doyle said. “She has a really good turn of foot. She is quite enthusiastic and wears a hood in her work, so you have to keep lid on her. She doesn’t look like the finished article, she’s going to grow and fill her frame. She rides like there is still more to come, even though she dropped down and won by six.” Trainer Charlie Appleby added, “We’ve always liked her--she breezed very well at the sale and has been very straightforward since she came in. She’s a nice scopey filly who time is only going to benefit and probably didn’t learn a lot the first time. I don’t know what she beat there, but she couldn’t have been more impressive and a step up to seven is the way forward. I’ve spoken to His Highness and I would like to give her a little more time and just wait for the seven-furlong races. The [Aug. 10 G3] Sweet Solera [also at Newmarket] is an option for her. We'll try and space these runs out now into the autumn.”

Achieving the second-highest price at €800,000 at the recent Arqana Breeze-Up Sale, Summer Romance is a half-sister to the G1 Moyglare Stud S., G1 Coronation S. and G2 Queen Mary S. heroine Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj (GB)). The dam Serena’s Storm is a half to this year’s G1 Prix d’Ispahan hero Zabeel Prince (Ire) (Lope de Vega (Ire)), the Australian group 2 winner Puissance de Lune (Ire) (Shamardal) and her Listed Haras de Bouquetot Fillies Trial-winning full-sister Queen Power (Ire) (Shamardal).

The third dam Serena’s Sister (Rahy), who produced the graded-stakes winning sire Doubles Partner (Rock Hard Ten), is a full-sibling of the champion Serena’s Song who in turn is the dam of seven stakes performers headed by G1 Coronation S. heroine Sophisticat (Storm Cat) and her G1 Oaklawn H.-winning full-brother Grand Reward. Serena’s Storm’s yearling filly is by Iffraaj (GB), while she also has a filly foal by Dark Angel (Ire).

Holding sway until shaken up when threatened with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 5-1 chance ran on gamely under forceful urging in the closing stages to deny Separate (GB) (Cable Bay (Ire)) by a half length. The third foal and winner for stakes-winning G3 Prix de Saint-Georges third Place In My Heart (GB) (Compton Place (GB)), the bay is a half-sister to G2 Queen Mary S. and G2 Flying Childers S. victresss Heartache (GB) (Kyllachy (GB)), the dual stakes-placed Heartwarming (GB) (Showcasing (GB)) and a yearling colt by Adaay (Ire). Adding to Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez and Joseph O’Brien’s success in Friday’s G1 Pretty Polly S. with Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler of the World (Ire)), Speak In Colours became the first of this year’s Royal Ascot protagonists to bounce out of the meeting and win. Fourth in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. a week previously, the grey was maintaining his usual solid standard having captured the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. in August and been second in the May 25 G2 Greenlands S. over this course and distance. Content to track the early tempo racing prominently, he was committed over two furlongs from home and pulled out enough to hold on as a clutch closed in late.

“That was a nice performance and we’re delighted,” commented trainer Joseph O’Brien, who has an eye on the July 30 G2 Lennox S. “He’ll have a little break now and we’ll pick something in five to six weeks’ time. He was maybe running out of gas in the last 100 yards, which was to be expected so soon after Ascot but we got away with it. He has lots of options and we’d like to try seven furlongs at some stage. There is lots of money on offer at Goodwood.”

Speak In Colours is the first foal out of a half-sister to the four-times group scorer Tullius (Ire) (Le Vie Dei Colori {GB}) whose exploits included wins in the G2 York S. and G2 Sandown Mile and a runner-up finish in the G1 Lockinge S. The third dam is the multiple stakes winner Meringue Pie (Silent Screen) who produced the GIII Cherry Hill Mile scorer Pie In Your Eye (Spend a Buck) and the listed winner and G1 Prix Jean Prat third Monsagem (Nureyev). Maglietta Fina also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Pretty In Grey (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) and a yearling filly by Mayson (GB).

Insignia of Rank had posted an improved effort when winning a valuable 10-furlong handicap fitted with first-time blinkers here May 25 before running fifth of six in the Listed Silver S. over the same course and distance next time June 7. With headgear off in the 12-furlong Cork Derby H., the bay faded late to be third under topweight and this was a dramatic reduction in trip as he tried again for black-type. Settled under cover behind the leading pair after the early stages, he had daylight just in time to reel in the year-younger long-time leader Old Glory in the leading pair after the early stages, he had daylight just in time to reel in the year-younger long-time leader Old Glory in the shade of the post.

Insignia of Rank is a half-brother to the listed-placed sprinter Mayleaf Shine (IRE) (Mayson (GB)) from the family of the G1 Prix du Cadran hero Chief Contender (IRE) (Sadler’s Wells), the four-times top-level scorer Denon (Pleasant Colony) and the G1 Phoenix S. winner Aviance (IRE) (Northfields). The latter is in turn the dam of the G1 Coronation S. heroine Chimes of Freedom (Private Account), later responsible for the G1 Metropolitan H.-winner sire Aldebaran (Mr. Prospector) and the GI Atto Mile S. winner Good Journey (Nureyev).

WYLIE TO ASSIST CTS SELECTION

By Paul Vettise

The talents of widely-respected New Zealand bloodstock agent Ric Wylie have been snapped up by a South African auction house to assist in the compilation for next year’s Cape Premier Yearling Sale catalogue.

The Matamata-based horseman has accepted an invitation to join the Cape Thoroughbred Sales (CTS) team in September to inspect and select yearlings.

“They approached me and asked if I’d be an independent assessor of their yearlings, which is a natural progression of what I did when I was with New Zealand Bloodstock,” Wylie said. “My speciality is breeding and conformation and I’m keen to take the opportunity. We’ll be going to the farms and looking at the yearlings and passing on the assessments to the sales company.

“I have built up a few friendships including Jehan Malherbe, from Form Bloodstock, and Mike de Kock, through competition at auctions around the world.

“Through them, Adrian Todd, who is one of the movers and shakers of the South African industry and used to run Cape Thoroughbred Sales, first mooted it to me a couple of years ago. He said he’d like to get me involved, but last year it didn’t really suit, but this year it’s come to fruition and it suits my schedule. I’m flying there the Saturday after the Baden-Baden Sale in Germany to hit Johannesburg and Cape Town to start on the Monday for the first two weeks of September.”

Wylie has been involved in the thoroughbred business for more than four decades and consults to a wide group of owners and breeders around the world. They include the Hong Kong Jockey Club, Valachi Downs’ Kevin Hickman and Alan Osburg, the original owner of Group 1 winner and producer Exceed And Excel.

“I also manage several portfolios of horses here in New Zealand that are nurtured through to racing careers in Australia, Singapore, Hong Kong as well as in New Zealand,” Wylie said.

Wylie has a lengthy and varied thoroughbred background.

“I have over 40 years in the industry working with such great trainers as John Hawkes in Australia and Ivan Allan in Singapore and Hong Kong,” he said. “These platforms and individuals like Trevor Lobb, and the late Keith Gudsell, have given me a plethora of experience from some of the best yearling judges in the world. Also, I am continually competing against great judges like Mike de Kock and Angus Gold, which gives me confidence that I have learned my lessons well. Pedigrees have always fascinated me and developed further through my friendship with Leslie Harrison, when managing the Australian horses for his boss, Lord Howard de Walden of Slip Anchor, Diesis and Kris fame.”

Major triumphs for Wylie have included involvement in securing multiple Group 1 winner Pakistan Star (Ger) (Shamardal {USA}) on behalf of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, former Australian Horse of the Year Octagonal (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) for Hawkes and Hong Kong Derby winner Holy Grail (NZ) (Deputy Governor {USA}) for Allan.

“Young horses can be a varied science as the different training regimes and facilities influence one’s final decisions,” Wylie said. “Types and pedigrees differ around the world, what suits Newmarket or Chantilly may not be suitable on Singapore or Hong Kong training tracks, so understanding the requirements of the future experiences that the horse will encounter are paramount to my choices. My speciality is conformation and assessing what a horse may develop into. Foals can change dramatically from May to March in their growth and a successful sale depends on a satisfied buying bench.”

Multiple Group 1 winner and leading sire Tavistock (NZ) (Montjeu {Ire}) was also bred and sold by Bloomsbury Stud when the Matamata farm was managed by Wylie.
NYRA WILL NOT ACCEPT ENTRIES FROM HOLLENDORFER

by Bill Finley

According to a report in the Daily Racing Form from David Grening, Hall of Fame trainer Jerry Hollendorfer will not be allowed to participate at the NYRA tracks. The latest news came about a week after NYRA announced that Hollendorfer would indeed be allowed to race in New York.

A NYRA spokesperson told the TDN that there would be no comment Saturday evening. Whether or not Hollendorfer would be able to race in New York became an issue after he was banned at Santa Anita shortly after a fourth horse he trained during the recently concluded meet at the Southern California track had to be euthanized.

A day after the Santa Anita ban was announced, NYRA issued a press release that said: "(Hollendorfer) is currently utilizing stall space at Belmont Park and was approved for stalls at Saratoga Race Course for the 2019 summer meet. NYRA will honor those agreements and he will be permitted to stable and enter horses at both Belmont and Saratoga."

Officials at Los Alamitos, which kicked off a 10-day meet Saturday, announced shortly after the Santa Anita ban went into effect that Hollendorfer would be able to race and stable at their track. Del Mar has yet to make any public announcements regarding Hollendorfer’s status for the meet there. Cont. p3

AFTER AN 84-YEAR RUN, CURTAIN TO COME DOWN ON SUFFOLK DOWNS SUNDAY

by Bill Finley

The first race-ever run at Suffolk Downs was a $1,000 maiden won by a horse named Eddie Wrack, his victory a popular one as he was sent off at 3-1 by an on-track crowd estimated at 35,000 people at the newly opened Boston track the Associated Press called “immense and lavish.” They came that day, July 10, 1935, to welcome and celebrate a new track and one that was sure to be a centerpiece of what was emerging as a booming area when it came to Thoroughbred racing.

The feature that day was the $5,000 Commonwealth Cup, won by Boxthorn, who had run 16th earlier in the year in the Kentucky Derby. He was ridden by Don Meade, the same Don Meade who won the infamous 1933 Derby aboard Brokers Tip after the “fighting finish” with jockey Herb Fisher that included the two slashing each other with their whips as their mounts neared the wire. NYRA Will Not Accept Entries from Hollendorfer cont. from p1

Hollendorfer had two starters on Saturday's card at Los Alamitos, Grecian Fire (Unusual Heat) and He Will (Cyclotron), both of which were entered in the Bertrando Stakes.

According to the DRF, at least four of the six horses Hollendorfer has based at Belmont Park were in the process of being officially transferred to his assistant, Don Chatlos Jr., who now has his own trainer's license. NYRA steward Braulio Baeza told Grening that transfer was not complete as of mid-afternoon Saturday. Some of Hollendorfer’s best horses are owned by Larry Best, who has spent lavishly at the sales in recent years.

"They'll be in Don's name, he is now the trainer, he has his own insurance, everything," Hollendorfer told Grening. "I'm going to be forced to do that because my counsel told me that he understood if we entered horses that we could enter them but they would be scratched. How they would do that I don't know. I didn't want to take a chance on Larry's horses getting to run."

When asked by Grening if he transferred his horses voluntarily, Hollendorfer said, "No."

As for Del Mar, which opens July 17, a spokesperson for the track said, "We have been in consultations with Jerry Hollendorfer and his attorney. We are still trying to work out an arrangement that would satisfy all parties, but we are not there yet."

Curtain to Come Down on Suffolk Downs cont. from p1

The mood will be quite different Sunday at Suffolk Downs, where a much smaller crowd will come to say a final goodbye to a track that lasted for 84 years but in the very end couldn't find a formula that worked to keep live racing alive. Soon after the horses cross the wire for the 12th race, the $50,000 John Kirby Stakes for Massachusetts-breds, the wrecking ball and the bulldozers will move in and start the process of turning the racetrack property into housing and a shopping district.

Suffolk’s fate was sealed in 2014 when it was announced that Suffolk’s application to open a casino was rejected. Instead the license was granted to a group headed by Steve Wynn, which would build a shiny new casino just a few miles down the road in Everett. To keep its simulcast license, Suffolk started to run abbreviated meets of six days or so starting in 2015. But even that is no longer possible as the property has been sold to a developer, HYM Investments, which is ready to go on its new project.

"When I first got my license in 1985 it would have been crazy to think there would no longer be any racing in New England some day," said trainer Mike Gorham, once an annual leader in the Suffolk standings, who now trains at Delaware Park and Laurel. Gorham has four horses entered on the final card.

"There was so much racing between Suffolk, Rockingham and the Massachusetts fairs," Gorham continued. "We even had a time where Suffolk ran during the day and Rockingham ran at night and they had no problem filling all the races. If you had told me back then that we'd get to point where there would be no more racing I would [have] told you you were crazy. This is going to be a sad day." Cont. p4

Those who have been around New England racing even longer than Gorham can remember a time when there was more than just Suffolk Downs and Rockingham in New Hampshire. Maine had Scarborough Downs. In Rhode Island, there was Lincoln Downs and Naragansett. Vermont’s track was called Green Mountain. In addition to Suffolk Downs, Massachusetts had a thriving fair circuit that included at times as many as six tracks. After Suffolk closes, there will no longer be any racing, not just in Massachusetts but in the entire New England region.

All that will remain is a harness track, Plainridge Park, which did not get a casino, either, but was allowed a license to have slot machines on the premises.

"There has been a 25- to 30-year shift in the landscape," said Suffolk’s COO Chip Tuttle. "Live racing was popular and profitable and now, while it still has some level of popularity, it is far less profitable. You can see it in other jurisdictions as well as here. The wagering dollars that were concentrated on live racing are now diffused in multiple ways. We were a Double A horse racing franchise aspiring to be a Triple A franchise in a very major league town. There are lot of people who live in this area who will pay attention to the Saratoga meet but they didn't have a ton of interest in $5,000 claimers racing in November. That sounds harsh, but part of it was the elongated racing schedule with lower-level purses. The market for that level of racing was just not here."

As New England bettors gravitated more and more to the simulcast signals from the major league tracks and then took their dollars to ADWs, where with a couple of clicks of their mouse, they could choose a $75,000 allowance race at Belmont over a $3,500 maiden claimer at Suffolk, handle continued to decline and that led to an even worse product. Curtain to Close on Suffolk Downs cont.

The original description of Suffolk Downs as "immense and lavish" didn't last long. To be kind, it became an unpretentious, blue-collar track over the years. Call it hardscrabble. To be more truthful, it turned into a dump, its patrons more often referring to it as "Sufferin' Downs" rather than by its actual name. Still, it had the sort of character and toughness that is a part of the fabric of all of Boston. When on-track betting was the only option available, the Boston horseplayers would still find their way out to Suffolk, no matter that it might have been a raw day in February with temperatures in the teens and the feature was a $10,000 claimer. That they might curse out a jockey who had just lost on a 2-5 shot and grumble that they had just witnessed another boat race at a place where it was known that not every race was always on the up-and-up, was, somehow, all a part of the charm.

Under the ownership of Buddy LeRoux, a former owner of the Red Sox who is among the most unpopular people in the long annals of Boston sports history, Suffolk closed for the 1990 and 1991 seasons because LeRoux was unhappy with the level of financial help the state was willing to give him. After a two-year hiatus, Suffolk was rescued by owner and breeder James B. Moseley, who not only reopened the track but spent the type of money needed to see to it that it was no longer such an eyesore.

Suffolk made a nice comeback, highlighted by two straight victories by Cigar in the Massachusetts Handicaps in 1995 and 1996. But eventually, despite the efforts of a dedicated management team led at the time by Lou Raffeto and Moseley's commitment to the track, the economic realities of a small track without a large handle sitting on a valuable piece of property caught up with Suffolk Downs.

So, on Sunday, they will gather for one last day of racing and to say goodbye. Cont. p6
"Even though everybody has had a long time to get ready for this inevitability, it still has a tinge of sadness to it," Tuttle said. "We're trying to make this weekend as much of a celebration of the 84-year legacy as anything else and we are looking to send racing off in style."

Suffolk's owners are seriously interested in revitalizing Massachusetts racing at the old Great Barrington Fair, which is in the far corner of Western Massachusetts. Great Barrington, which once proudly hailed itself as the "Belmont of the Berkshires," has not raced since 1989, but there are plenty of reasons for trying to reopen the place. It would allow Suffolk's owners to stay involved in the off-track betting business and possibly open the doors some day for a sports betting license. There's also the money out there to make the project viable.

When Suffolk was shut out of the casino business, some of the money derived at the state's casinos was put into a horse racing development fund in hopes of keeping the sport alive in the Bay State. Tuttle estimated that there is about $13 million in the fund, but that won't do New England horsemen any good if they have no place to race.

The Stronach Group has also mentioned its intention to some day build a racetrack in Massachusetts, but has had little to say of late as to whether or not those plans are still on the table.

Thanks in part to the Race Horse Development Fund money, Suffolk will go out with an excellent card. A total of $397,000 in purse money will be given away, and the smallest purse on the card is a $6,500 claimer with a $20,000 pot. With that type of money available, prominent trainers such as Christophe Clement, Michael Matz, George Weaver and Joe Sharp will be among those filling the last two cards of the 2019 season that consisted of six days of racing.

"If we could win at least one race over the weekend that would be great and, hopefully, we can win a couple more," Gorham said. "The last time we won one up there there were probably 30 people in the winner's circle and it was for a $5,000 claimer. I hadn't had 30 people in the winner's circle in a long, long time. I think everyone we knew that was there and [had] been a part of New England racing wanted to get into that winner's circle so they could feel like they were a part of history."

Wet Your Whistle kept his hot streak alive with a late-running upset score in the GI Highlander S. at Woodbine Saturday. Despite a pair of bullet works on the Fair Hill all-weather, most recently breezing a half-mile in :47 2/5 (1/28) June 22, and his hot streak, the gelding was let go at 11-1 in this major jump up in class. Caboosing the field, the dark bay bided his time as Yorkton ticked off early fractions of :22.44 and :44.87. Six wide in the lane, Wet Your Whistle closed resolutely, swiftly picking off rivals to register his fourth straight win and first at the graded level.

“'You know he just learned to settle himself down just enough,' said winning trainer Michael Trombetta. ‘He’s a high-strung type of individual and he’s learned to run when he’s supposed to and it’s been a lot fun. He is one of those kind of horses. He can do five-and-a-half [furlongs] and probably up to a mile. I think he definitely prefers one turn, but there’s lots of options for him. You know, he will do synthetic as well. So there are lots of choices.’"

California raider One Bad Boy was anything but in the Queen’s Plate, proving an extra quarter-mile was no problem with a front-running score in Woodbine’s $1 million Ontario-bred feature. Shipping in early to get a work in over the Woodbine all-weather, the ridgling covered a half-mile in :47 4/5 (13/67) June 22 and was given a 7-2 chance while removing blinkers for this first try beyond a mile. Breaking sharply from post five in this 14-horse affair, the dark bay cruised along under Flavien Prat with ears pricked, setting opening splits of :24.42 and :49.52. Favored Avie’s Flatter moved in, turning the pressure up through three-quarters in 1:14.18. The chalk drew alongside the pacesetter entering the far turn and a brief battle ensued, but One Bad Boy still had something left in the tank and extended clear of his rival in the final sixteenth to score.

 “[Avie’s Flatter] was next to me, so I knew he was the horse to beat,” said Prat. “By the eighth-pole, I asked him to reengage and he drove away. So from that point, I thought I was going to win.”

“It was awesome, very awesome,” said co-owner Greg Hall. “We were a little worried about his ability to run the mile-and-a-quarter, but you saw that...he started pulling away, so we’re very excited about that.”

Pedigree Notes:

One Bad Boy is the 18th black-type winner for his sire Twirling Candy. His half-sister and barnmate Ms Bad Behavior (Blame) is a stakes winner and multiple graded stakes-placed for these same connections. Their multiple stakes-winning dam Cumulonimble is also responsible for the unraced juvenile filly Blessed Truly (Souper Speedy) and a yearling colt by Palace Malice.

Dunbar Road has been promising from the start and earned her much-deserved first graded stakes win with ease Saturday in Belmont’s GII Mother Goose S. Hammered down to 1-5 favoritism, the bay kept tabs on the leaders from a ground-saving third as longshot Classic Fit clocked an opening quarter in :24.34. Shuffled back a bit and moving off the rail as the half went up in :49.13, the $350,000 KEESEP buy was in between horses near the back on the backstretch run, but rider Jose Ortiz never panicked. Remaining patient in the saddle, Ortiz got the opening he was waiting for while moving out wide at the top of the stretch and Dunbar Road simply exploded, powering past her competition to win for fun.

"With her being a young horse, she needs to get something out of it, and today was a perfect day because it was an easy race for her. I knew with the amount of horse that I had, I was going to find something to work with," Ortiz said. "She was traveling comfortably and I felt like she was always there for me. When she got out of there, I was close to them and I just liked that she showed a good turn of foot. This will set her up for later."

"I think she'll go to Saratoga following this and we'll see what happens up there," said owner Peter Brant. "Chad [Brown] likes to see how they come out of the race first and she's going really well and training really well. I hope she'll be in the thick of things. She looks like a two-turn horse. We'll run where she needs to run. I personally feel rewarded for having a little patience having missed out on not getting into the field for the Kentucky Oaks. I know Chad really wanted to go in that race and wherever he wanted to go is fine with me, but when she didn't get in I wanted to come back to New York."

Dunbar Road earned her diploma by an impressive 8 3/4 lengths on debut at Gulfstream Mar. 3, but came up a half-length short next out when second as the favorite in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks, which put her on the also-eligible list for the GI Kentucky Oaks May 3. Failing to draw into that field, she ran in a track-and-trip allowance May 30, where she crushed an overmatched field by 5 1/2 lengths.

Pedigree Notes:
Dunbar Road is the 23rd graded stakes winner and 38th black-type winner for her top sire Quality Road. She is bred on the same Quality Road/A.P. Indy cross that produced MGISW filly Bellafina. Her dam Gift List is a daughter of SW Private Gift (Unbridled), who is a half-sister to GI Mother Goose S. and GI Kentucky Oaks victress Secret Status (A.P. Indy); and MGISW Alumni Hall (A.P. Indy). A half-sister to MSW & GSP Secret Someone (A.P. Indy), Gift List produced two winners from two foals of racing age. The 11-year-old mare has had just one foal since Dunbar Road, the juvenile filly On the Good List (Speightstown), who was purchased by DJ Stable for $175,000 at the Fasig-Tipton October Sale and displays a trio of breezes at Belmont for trainer Linda Rice, most recently covering three panels in :37.95 (16/27) over the training track June 24. Gift List was bred to Uncle Mo this spring.

On this card at Woodbine two years ago, Holy Helena triumphed over males in Canada’s richest race for Ontario-breds, the $1 million Queen’s Plate. So, it was only appropriate that she visited the Woodbine winner’s circle on 2019 Queen’s Plate day after taking the GII Dance Smartly S. beneath Javier Castellano, who also rode GII Synchrony (Tapit). Away well from her rail draw, the heavy favorite was content to sit in second, keeping a watchful eye on Rock My Love (Ger), who loped along through leisurely early fractions. The Stronach homebred maintained her position as Get Explicit (Get Stormy) moved past her to tackle the pacesetter. That rival did not last long, however, and Holy Helena steadily gained on the leader in the lane, sweeping past in the final sixteenth to score. Starship Jubilee shadowed the winner’s move to be second.

“I liked the way she did it today, the way she settled,” said Castellano. “I didn’t panic at the three-eighths because somebody moved outside me. I just sat still and made one run.

The way she did it [was] phenomenal, the way she finished—unbelievable.”

“I’m saying the Canadian air does a lot of good for her,” said owner Frank Stronach. “Mike [Doyle, locally-based Stronach Stable manager] had her here for a week and a half and I think things are great—they work well together. Javier is such a great rider. He didn’t panic.”

Heroine of the 2017 Woodbine Oaks and Queen’s Plate, Holy Helena won Gulfstream’s GII The Very One S. and Belmont’s GII Sheepshead Bay S. last term. Off the board in her seasonal bow in Hallandale’s GII La Prevoyante S. Jan. 26, she captured her second straight renewal of that venue’s The Very One S. Mar. 2 and was fourth last time in Belmont’s GII New York S. June 7.

Pedigree Notes:
Holy Helena’s dam and fellow Stronach homebred Holy Grace is a daughter of stakes winner My Marchesa (Stately Don); and a half-sister to MGSW Mark One (Alphabet Soup) and GSW Rookie Sensation (Unbridled’s Song). She is also responsible for GSW & MGISP ‘TDN Rising Star’ Holy Boss (Street Boss); and her recent produce includes the unraced juvenile colt Holy Max (Silver Max) and a Ghostzapper colt born May 14 of this year.

Multiple graded-stakes winner
Synchrony took his show on the road Saturday, securing his first win north of the border in the GII King Edward S. at Woodbine’s Queen’s Plate card. Javier Castellano settled the bay on the fence in mid-pack through an opening quarter in :23.65 and allowed him to ease back into last through a half in :46.34. Swung out four wide turning for home, Synchrony gobbled up ground in the lane, sweeping to the front in the final sixteenth to score with ease.

"I'm very fortunate to ride the horse," said Castellano. “I think he showed some class in the race. I think I had a lot of trouble on the backside, early in the race and I kind of switched him up a little bit. I was able to ride with a lot of patience and I think I rode the best horse in the race. I wanted to show he improved today and he really did it.”

Synchrony won the GIII Fair Grounds H. and GII Mervin Muniz Memorial H. in New Orleans last term, as well as the GII Oceanport S. and GII Red Bank S. at Monmouth Park. Kicking off this season with a successful title defense in the Fair Grounds H. Feb. 16, the homebred checked in third behind divisional leader and MGISW Bricks and Mortar (Giant’s Causeway) in the Mervin Muniz Mar. 23. He closed to be seventh behind that foe in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs on the First Saturday in May and missed by a neck last time in the GII Monmouth S. back in Oceanport May 25.

Pedigree Notes:
Josephine Abercrombie’s Pin Oak Stud purchased Synchrony’s MSP second dam Stylish Society (Forty Niner) for $675,000 at the 1999 Keeneland November Sale carrying a foal by Awesome Again. In 2003, she produced the winner’s dam Brownie Points, who went on to win a Grade III and several listed stakes. In addition to Synchrony, Brownie Points has produced two other black-type winners in this year’s GIII Honeybee S. victress Chocolate Kisses (Candy Ride {Arg}), a $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling purchase by John Oxley; and stakes winner Point System, who is by Pin Oak stallion Broken Vow. The 16-year-old mare is also responsible for the unraced juvenile colt All Set (More Than Ready), a yearling colt by the late Pioneerof the Nile and a Mastery colt born Apr. 23 of this year. Synchrony also shares a female family with undefeated juvenile Fore Left (Twirling Candy), who recently annexed Belmont’s Tremont S.
Stormy Embrace, heavily favored to punch her ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, fought off a longshot bid on the turn and asserted her superiority down the stretch to capture her second straight GII Princess Rooney S., the centerpiece of Saturday’s Summit of Speed card at Gulfstream.

Romping by six lengths in a 15-1 upset of this event last summer, the chestnut was a troubled third at 1-2 in the Florida-bred Sheer Drama S. Sept. 8 before finishing a no-factor 11th in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint. A neck second in the GII Sugar Swirl S. Dec. 15, she was third in the GIII Hurricane Bertie S. Jan. 26 before rebounding with a comprehensive success in the state-bred Musical Romance S. over track and trip May 18.

Off with the vast majority of betting dollars here, Stormy Embrace was not away all that well, but quickly showed her tactical speed to sit a close third in the three path under Wilmer Garcia past a :22.65 quarter. Going on with it through a half in :45.45, the favorite was quickly set upon by Trenchtown Cat nearing the straightaway. Stormy Embrace drifted wide off the turn, carrying her challenger out several paths, but found another gear once leveling off and always had the measure of her pursuer down to the wire. Trenchtown Cat was well clear for the place.

“God bless her, the best thing about her is she’ll do whatever you want,” said winning trainer Kathleen O’Connell. “She’s got speed, but if you ask her she’s going to go overboard. Wilmer’s got a great set of hands and he really fits her well.”

Pedigree Notes:

Stormy Embrace, one of just two graded stakes winners--along with GII Play the King S. and GIII Appleton S. hero Reporting Star--by 2006 GI Hopeful S. winner Circular Quay, is out of two-time winner Stormy Allure, a half-sister to MSW/MGSP Executive Allure (Bold Executive) out of SW Ready and Alluring. Bought for $6,500 at Keeneland November in 2012, Stormy Embrace is responsible for a juvenile New Year’s Day colt who sold for $130,000 at OBS June after breezing a quarter-mile in :21 flat, as well as a yearling filly by Caleb’s Posse.

Phantom Boss ran to the hype, garnering his first black-type win in the GIII Bashford Manor S. at Churchill Downs Saturday. Missing by a neck to next-out Tremont S. winner Fore Left (Twirling Candy) on debut at Santa Anita May 19, he went wire-to-wire next out against fellow Cal-breds in Arcadia to graduate by 2 1/2 lengths June 2.

Favored in this black-type bow and return to open company, the chestnut tracked from third, running off the fence as fellow California raider Verb zipped through an opening quarter in :21.84. Second-choice Rowdy Yates stuck his nose in front on the backstretch run, but Verb stuck with him as Phantom Boss ranged up three wide. Phantom Boss swept past the top two in the final sixteen and Rowdy Yates surged late in an attempt to get to him, but it was too late. Phantom Boss crossed the line three-quarters of a length clear of that foe with Verb hanging on for third.

“I told my wife this is the best place in the world to be,” said winning conditioner Jose Periban. “It is such a beautiful track and I hope to be back here in the spring. When we debuted this horse in open company and he only got beat a nose I knew we had something special. I told the owners that he could have a very bright future. Today’s performance was unbelievable. I love Kentucky and can’t wait to come back.”

Pedigree Notes:
Phantom Boss is the sixth graded stakes victor and ninth black-type scorer for his sire Shackleford. The winner is the first foal out of Bossy Belle, whose only foal since is a yearling filly by Empire Way. She was most recently bred back to the same stallion.

Diamond Oops, after over-achieving in a pair of turf stakes this spring, returned to the main track to pull off a mild upset in the GIII Smile Sprint S. Saturday at Gulfstream.

A debut winner two years ago in Hallandale, the bay repeated in the Kiss a Native S. before running sixth in the GII Saratoga Special S. Conquering the Buffalo Man S. in his juvenile finale, he was sixth in a local optional claimer in his only start as a 3-year-old last July. Returning on turf in the Crystal River S. May 27, he finished well to be third, and was fifth, beaten just 3 3/4 lengths by division leader World of Trouble (Kantharos) in the GI Jaipur Invitational S. 12 days later.

Supported down to be the fourth choice here off of a 20-1 morning-line quote, the gelding stalked the pace from the center of a three-horse second flight behind a :22.74 quarter. Patiently handled by Julien Leparoux on the turn, he angled four deep approaching the top of the lane, swept to the fore inside the sixteenth pole and edged away from favored pace player Jalen Journey, who held second to give trainer Kathleen O’Connell a one-two finish. Fast Pass won a blanket photo for third.

“He broke very, very sharp and I kind of let the speed go a little bit,” Leparoux said. “I sat behind them around the turn. It got tight so he sort of stepped back a little, but when I gave him a little room he gave me a big run.”
Pedigree Notes:
Diamond Oops is the 28th graded stakes winner for Lookin At Lucky and the second stakes winner out of SW dam Patriotic Viva, following Patriotic Diamond (Hat Trick {Jpn}). That mare, trained by Diamond Oops’s conditioner Patrick Biancone, was bought for $25,000 at the 2017 Keeneland January sale. Her juvenile Stay Thirsty colt hammered for $170,000 at OBS April after breezing a furlong in :10 1/5, and she has a yearling filly by Texas Red.

My Mertie pulled off a double-digit upset in Arlington's Gill Chicago H. Stumbling a bit and brushed by her outside neighbor at the break, the bay saved ground near the back of the pack through a :22.60 first quarter. Progressing a bit through a half in :45.30, she launched a three-wide bid turning for home and collared Hotshot Anna late to score.

Already a stakes winner against fellow Illinois-breds, My Mertie won an off-the-turf event at against open-company at Arlington Sept. 2. Fourth in an optional claimer on the dirt at Keeneland Oct. 6, she resurfaced May 12 in a six-panel event on the local synthetic, where she finished a non-factor fifth.

Pedigree Notes:
My Mertie's stakes-winning dam Kate the Great is also responsible for stakes winner Katie the Lady, MSP Super Soldier and SP Blue Sky Kowboy. The 20-year-old's most recent foal is an unraced 2-year-old colt named Hunter’s Treasure (Chitoz).

CHRB REVIEW PANELS TO BE IN PLACE AT LOS AL & DEL MAR
The California Horse Racing Board will establish five-member review panels, similar to the one in place during the last two weekends at Santa Anita, for the upcoming Los Alamitos Summer Thoroughbred Meet June 29-July 14 and the Del Mar Summer Meet July 17-September 2.
“Los Alamitos and Del Mar have shown their strong commitment to helping improve horse and rider safety by agreeing to these panels,” said CHRB Chairman Chuck Winner.
“We look forward to working with them during their meets.”
Established at the direction of Governor Gavin Newsom, the five-member panel at Santa Anita scrutinized veterinarians' lists, stewards' lists and other available information for horses scheduled to race, in order to heighten efforts to protect the safety of horses and riders. Over the two weekends the panel was in operation at Santa Anita, a total of 38 horses were either scratched from races or denied entry to races pursuant to the panel’s recommendations.

The Los Alamitos and Del Mar panels will perform the same function.
At Los Alamitos, as at Santa Anita, a five-member team will evaluate horses identified by the racing office as intended for entry in races yet to be drawn. Cont. p16

It will identify those horses considered to be at elevated risk and recommend they be denied entry. Los Alamitos has agreed to accept the panel’s recommendation when finalizing entries. The panel will also be in place at Del Mar’s meet. Instead of evaluating horses pre-entry, however, the panel members will evaluate horses after the races have been drawn. Any horse they consider to be at elevated risk will be scratched by the stewards.

LANERIE & ASMUSSEN TAKE CHURCHILL SPRING TITLES

Jockey Corey Lanerie entered Saturday’s closing day program at Churchill Downs with a commanding 41 to 29 lead over Miguel Mena, clinching his 17th riding title at the 38-day spring meet. The 44-year-old jockey has won six of the last eight spring meet titles.

“It’s been refreshing to get things back on track,” Lanerie said. “A lot of trainers and owners have supported me throughout my career here at Churchill Downs and we’ve been working hard every day to get back to the top.”

Conditioner Steve Asmussen secured his record-extending 21st leading trainer title in Louisville with 27 victories. The Hall of Famer registered his 700th career victory during this meet when Rocky Tough won June 22. Asmussen saddled a trio of Grade I winners during the spring meet in La Troienne S. victress She’s a Julie (Elusive Quality), Churchill Downs S. winner Mitole (Eskendereya) and Humana Distaff heroine Mia Mischief (Into Mischief).

The owner title was still up for grabs at the start of Saturday’s card with a three-way tie between Calumet Farm, Maggi Moss and Ken and Sarah Ramsey with six wins each. Calumet had two entered Saturday and the Ramseys had one.

PLETCHER WORKS GRADE I CONTENDERS

Todd Pletcher breezed several Grade I-bound horses Saturday, including his GI Belmont Derby-bound pair of Social Paranoia (Street Boss) and Spinoff (Hard Spun). The colts worked in company over Belmont’s inner turf, completing four panels in :48.80 (4/6).

“I thought it was a good work for him,” Pletcher said of Social Paranoia, who was last seen finishing third in Belmont’s GII Pennine Ridge S. “He's run well all three times this year. I'm hoping a mile and quarter will give him a little bit of a better chance. I think it's a very competitive race, but at his best he's very good. I don't think he has an electrifying turn of foot, so I think the mile and a quarter distance should help him.”

As for Spinoff, who has been campaigned exclusively on dirt thus far and enters the July 6 Belmont Derby off a sixth in the GI Belmont S. June 8, the conditioner said, "I thought both of his turf works were good. Trying him on the turf was something that was always in the back of our minds. Assuming everything is good coming out of this work, we'll point for the Belmont Derby."

Pletcher added, "I'm not committing to a turf campaign yet. Even if he runs well, that doesn't mean he's going to stay on the turf. I was looking at options following the Belmont as I'm not sure he gave me everything he had in that race. By the time I walked back to the barn, he wasn't blowing hard or drinking any of his water. He was only beaten a couple of lengths but watching him comeback and cool out and bounce out of the race, I'm not sure he gave me everything, so we'll see how he performs in here."

Pletcher also worked Clint Maroon (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who is first on the reserve list for the Belmont Derby and holds an entry in the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale. The colt, who breezed a half-mile over the inner in :48.70 (2/6), will be entered in the Belmont Derby if a spot becomes available. Otherwise, he will run in the July 4 Manila S. Cont. p17
Grade I winner Vino Rosso (Curlin) breezed in company with GII Brooklyn Invitational S. winner Marconi (Tapit), covering a half-mile on the Belmont training track in :48.70 (8/83). Vino Rosso is pointing for the Aug. 3 GI Whitney S. at Saratoga, while Marconi is targeting for next Saturday’s GII Suburban H.

"I thought both horses worked very well," said Pletcher. "They make good workmates. Marconi seems to be in a good rhythm at the moment, his confidence is at an all-time high and he just seems to be improving. I don’t think six months ago he would have been capable of breezing with a horse as good as Vino Rosso and staying with him the whole way. We know he likes Belmont after his last two wins here and the Suburban is a prestigious race with a good purse for a horse with a stallion’s pedigree. Vino Rosso will ship to Saratoga [Sunday] to begin preparations for the Whitney."

Also on the worktab for Pletcher Saturday was TDN Rising Star Intrepid Heart (Tapit), who breezed four furlongs in :50.75 (55/83) on the Belmont training track. Last seen finishing eighth in the Belmont, the gray is under consideration for either the July 26 Curlin S. or July 27 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga.

"He had his first work back today," said Pletcher. "Purposefully, we went a little bit on the easy side. We'll play it by ear. He's eligible for the Curlin and Jim Dandy so we'll see how he trains."

SCHRODINGER (Justin Phillip) brought $550,000 at OBS March after blistering the co-second fastest eighth of the sale in :9.4. The Kaleem Shah-owned colt, originally a $70,000 FTKOCT pick-up, has drilled two bullet works in the past five weeks for trainer Simon Callaghan, including a swift :47 flat (1/77) half-mile out of the gate at Santa Anita June 15. He is the first starter for his dam Cersei (Malibu Moon), an unraced daughter of Phipps Stables’ Grade I-winning mare Oh What a Windfall (Seeking the Gold) from the family of champion 3-year-old filly Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold). Magic Dance, tabbed as a ‘TDN Rising Star’ off an eye-catching runaway debut win at Churchill Downs June 7, stayed perfect while adding her first stakes victory here. The half-sister to recent GI Acorn S. heroine and fellow ‘Rising Star’ Guarana (Ghostzapper), off as the 1-5 favorite, sat just off a pair of dueling leaders through a sharp opening quarter in :21.51. She hit the gas while three/four wide on the far turn, and fought her way past a very game Cholula Lips in the stretch to record a career high. Josie (Race Day), second behind Magic Dance on debut, graduated impressively at Churchill Downs earlier this week.

Magic Dance’s dam Magical World was campaigned by her breeder Phipps Stable and trainer Shug McGaughey and is a daughter of GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff heroine Pleasant Home (Seeking the World). This is the hugely potent Phipps family of the likes of Grade I winners Sky Beauty, Point of Entry, Pine Island, et al. Magical World produced a Pioneerof the Nile colt in 2018, but was barren when bred back to Into Mischief. Cont. p2

“This is a very special win for us for Three Chimneys Farm and this horse was broke at my parent’s ranch in Laredo, Texas,” winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. “She proved today that the three-quarter distance was no problem.”

Jockey Ricardo Santana Jr. added, “She got herself into a perfect position early on in the race. She was ready to run today and fought back against [Cholula Lips] on our inside. That was a very nice performance.” Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Line Judge turned the tables on Transatlantic Kiss in capturing the second stakes win of his career. The bay hadn’t visited the winner’s circle since Jan. 1 of this year when he notched an optional claimer at Delta Downs. After two stakes efforts, including a narrow defeat in the Mar. 3 Owner Appreciation S. over that same course, he was claimed from trainer Thomas Amoss in an optional claimer May 30 here where he completed the exacta behind Transatlantic Kiss. The second longest shot on the board in his first start for Peter Miller, he ran contentedly mid-pack early on as the leaders flashed through fractions of :22.51 and :44.90. Fanned five-wide into the lane, he cruised to the wire well in hand. His dam has a yearling colt by Goldencents and was bred to Maclean’s Music. An upset winner of last September’s G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp, The Black Album was purchased privately from his breeder before finishing eighth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf in one last start for conditioner Jane Soubagne under the Twin Spires Nov. 2. Resurfacing as a member of the Brisset barn to round out the trifecta behind Queen’s Plate runner-up Avie’s Flatter (Flatter) in Keeneland’s GIII Transylvania S. Apr. 5, he was seventh in Churchill’s GII American Turf S. May 4 and a well-beaten sixth in the GII Penn Mile June 1. Sporting blinkers for the first time here, the dark bay was away more alertly and settled into a midpack spot as Inventing Blame cruised along by himself up front. Creeping closer heading for home, he tipped out to challenge the pacesetter at the head of the lane but never fully shook that one off while earning the narrow decision late. The winner’s dam is a half to British MGSW Trumpet Major (Ire) (Arakan). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Desert Isle broke through emphatically over course and distance last September, and had last been seen taking a first-level allowance on the front end at Delaware May 27. Hung a bit wide from her outside draw down the long backstretch, the dark bay sat perched three or four deep around the bend and started to advance nearing the head of the lane. She took a few strides to level off once they straightened, but she kept finding despite struggling with her leads to hold off longshot Miss Sea late. A fitting winner on this card, Desert Isle is not only a half to 2009 Queen’s Plate winner Eye of the Leopard, but also to the dam of this year’s Woodbine Oaks winner and Queen’s Plate contestant Desert Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}). She has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother named Palace Coup (Bernardini). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Uni, off since flying late to capture the GI Matriarch S. Dec. 2, made a successful 5-year-old debut with an easy last-to-first score in the Perfect Sting S. Saturday at Belmont.

A stakes winner in France, the chestnut ran third in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational in her Stateside debut and captured the GII Sands Point S. two starts later. Fourth in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. in her sophomore finale, she went a perfect four-for-four as a 4-year-old, including graded tallies in the course-and-distance GIII Noble Damsel S. and the Matriarch.

Hammered down to 45 cents on the dollar here, Uni caboosed the five-horse group and was always under a good hold from Joel Rosario behind modest splits of :23.92 and :47.63. Angled into the clear while advancing at the top of the stretch, the favorite needed minimal urging to sweep past Mrs. Ramona G inside the furlong grounds and was just given a reminder or two from Rosario in the final sixteenth to finish the job.

“She went easy most of the way and then towards home she took me for a ride," Rosario said. “She finished well. She really looked the best among the field on paper, and showed it today. She's just a runner. She's able to make a big move and got the job done.”

Itsmyluckycharm had crossed the wire first in six of her last seven--mostly on the grass--and aired in the rained-off and sloppy Portofino Bay S. over this same track and trip last time June 7. Backed as the favorite after some more wet weather, the dark bay broke well from the fence but was out-footed slightly into a midpack spot. Pushed along to take closer order entering the bend, the homebred tipped out for clear sailing in the lane, split rivals and kicked home with big strides to collar Calinas Song late.

“She’s just a filly that won’t be denied,” said winning conditioner and breeder Eddie Plesa, Jr. “Every once in a while you come up with a horse that they don’t want to get beat, and she’s that horse. She just does what she has to do to get up there and win the race.” The winner’s dam Hard Hat was purchased for $60,000 in foal to Broken Vow at the 2014 Keeneland November sale. The filly she was carrying brought $145,000 as a weanling 12 months later and, now named Underestimate, was a $145,000 horse of racing age at Keeneland April this spring. Hard Hat--a half to GISW Albert the Great (Go For Gin)--has a year-younger full-sister to Itsmyluckycharm also campaigned by the Plesas. She was bred back to Broken Vow before bringing $62,000 at the 2018 OBS Winter Mixed Sale from Gainesway Farm, and produced another Broken Vow filly in 2018 followed by a daughter of Gainesway’s Tapit this spring. OM (h, 7, Munnings--Rare Cat, by Tabasco Cat), narrow runner-up in the 2016 GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint, rallied late to secure second in the GI Jaipur S. behind the sprint sensation World of Trouble (Kantharos) on Belmont Stakes day. Facing softer competition in here, the 2018 GIII Thunder Road S. winner was well backed as the favorite. Stalking the pace of :22.41 and :44.71, the tempo increased turning for home as the multiple graded stakes winner launched his bid from the fifth path. LASTING LEGACY (h, 5, Tapizar -- Sweet Tune, by Woodman) scored impressively in his first two tries back in 2017, garnering 'TDN Rising Star' status, and was fifth as the favorite in the Steel Tapizar sprint one week after his second. Switched from Jason Servis to Steve Asmussen's barn after that, the chestnut was sent to the sidelines following that effort, the bay resumed with a sparkling effort in his route bow there in August, finishing third in his seasonal bow at Churchill Downs May 4. Gaining an additional half-furlong in distance in this maiden contest, the Ontario-bred was the narrow post time favorite at 2-1. Closely tracking the early pace on the inside, he weakened late to be third, beaten two lengths. Installed the fifth choice at 10-1, he took control in the final sixteenth and was a length clear of Adult in the Room (The Factor) at the wire. Out of multiple graded-winner Delta Princess (A.P.
