HENLEY’S JOY GIVES BLOOM ANOTHER BIG BELMONT WIN

by Alan Carasso

As recently as four Saturdays ago, the silks of owner Jeffrey Bloom found themselves in the Belmont winner’s circle on one of horse racing’s biggest days following a stunning victory from the partnership-owned Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) in the GI Ogden Phipps S. on the Belmont S. undercard. Bloom was back at it again Saturday afternoon in Elmont, as Henley’s Joy (Kitten’s Joy) sat handy to the pace and kicked home best of all to annex the $1-million GI Belmont Derby Invitational S.

“It’s such a big race to win and it’s so important, but for this particular horse,” said Bloom. “He’s had the worst racing luck and he’s just been so honest, so many rough trips, it was just so gratifying to see him be able to show everybody how talented he is. He’s had so many near misses in situations where things didn’t go right and he answered the call today in a big spot.”

Fastest away from gate six, Henley’s Joy led the Belmont Derby field under the wire for the first time, but Jose Lezcano was content to surrender the lead to GII Penn Mile hero Moon Colony (Uncle Mo), who pressed through to take command entering the clubhouse turn. That Casse runner was ultimately joined to his outside by Ballydoyle’s Blenheim Palace (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)), who pulled several lengths clear of Henley’s Joy and Social Paranoia (Street Boss) after a half-mile in :47.80.

‘ROSE’ CEMENTS SPOT AS DIVISIONAL HEAVY IN BELMONT OAKS by Alan Carasso

Putting her lone other appearance in Grade I company squarely in the rear-view mirror, Ashbrook Farm and BBN Racing LLC’s Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy) assumed the mantle of this country’s most talented sophomore turf filly with a fast-finishing victory in Saturday’s GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. on Long Island. Just Wonderful (Dansili (GB)) narrowly outfinished GIII Wonder Again S. winner Cambier Park (Medaglia d’Oro) for second, while the latter’s stablemate, favored Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope de Vega (Ire)), resented an attempt at rating tactics and was beaten a furlong out.

“The Japanese horse [Jodie (Jpn) (Daiwa Major)] wanted to go, so I was happy to be second and my filly relaxed beautiful for me the whole race,” said Leparoux. “I knew at the quarter-pole I had a lot left. She made a big run at the end. It was nice.”

Produced three wide off the home corner by Manny Franco, the latter swooped and wrested command from Moon Colony, but Henley’s Joy, switched out three deep to deliver his challenge a furlong down, surged to the lead with a little more than a sixteenth of a mile to race and held firm. Rockemperor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), last for the opening mile, came home under a full head of steam, covering his final quarter-mile in a race-fastest :22.14 to be a highly promising third while covering 24 feet (about 2 1/2 lengths) more than the winner. Social Paranoia ran 35 feet more than Henley’s Joy.

“I had a very good trip,” said winning jockey Jose Lezcano, who enters Sunday’s closing-day program with a one-race lead over Luis Saez in the jockey’s championship. The horse seemed very comfortable. Around the backside, I was a little worried he was kind of jumping off the bridle. When I asked him to take off, it was easier because of how he broke out of the gate. It’s been a very good meet. All the trainers have given me great opportunities and I’m very grateful for them.”

A dual stakes winner at two, including the Pulpit S. in December, Henley’s Joy missed by a neck in the Jan. 5 Gulfstream stakes named for his sire before a 10th to future Classic winner War of Will (War Front) in the GII Risen Star S. Feb. 16. A hard-charging second to recent Queen’s Plate runner-up Avie’s Flatter (Flatter) in the GII Transylvania S. at Keeneland Apr. 5, the chestnut was a tough-trip eighth to Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the GII American Turf at Churchill May 4 and was exiting a fourth to TDN Rising Star Demarchelier (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in this track’s GIII Pennine Ridge S. June 1. The latter took a bad step at the half-mile, was eased out of the race and vanned off the track. Daily Racing Form reported that he will undergo surgery for a lateral condylar fracture of his right foreleg. Cont. p4

Pedigree Notes:
The second Belmont Derby winner in three years for Kitten’s Joy (Oscar Performance, 2017), Henley’s Joy was a $20,000 purchase out of the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale before Bloom went to $50,000 for the colt in a private transaction after he worked an eighth of a mile in :10 3/5 for last year’s OBS April Sale. Henley’s Joy is the 13th Grade I/Group 1 winner for his sire and the fourth from a Storm Cat-line mare (Stephanie’s Kitten, Hawkbill, Bobby’s Kitten). He is the 45th GSW for Kitten’s Joy. Though his second dam is blank, Henley’s Joy’s turf GSW third dam was a half-sister to Golden Pheasant (Caro {Ire}), winner of the 1990 GI Arlington Million for Bruce McNall, Wayne Gretzky and legendary trainer Charlie Whittingham. Blue Grass Music is the dam of Henley’s Joy’s 2-year-old full-brother Replacement Cost, a $150,000 OBS October yearling purchase by De Meric Sales, agent, and a yearling full-brother.

But ridden along hands-and-heels into the final furlong, Concrete Rose claimed Jodie at will and sprinted hard to record an open-length victory. Just Wonderful, slow from the stalls and hampered at midway, ran on from second-last to finish a very good second.

Newspaperofrecord, favored in spite of consecutive losses, was rank behind the leaders early and drifted out badly with about six furlongs to race, bothering Cafe Americano (Medaglia d’Oro) and Coral Beach (Ire) (Zoffany (Ire)). Allowed to stride and settled slightly better into the final half-mile, she loomed boldly at the entry to the stretch, but called it a day soon after.

“She didn’t want to rate at all, she was all over the place,” trainer Chad Brown commented. “It was no fault of Irad’s, the filly just wouldn't cooperate. So, we tried it, it didn’t work, and that’s that.”

A maiden winner at first asking at Saratoga last August, Concrete Rose added a three-length success in the GII Jessamine S. at Keeneland Oct, 10, but was done in by the boggy Churchill turf when eighth to Newspaperofrecord in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in November. The dark bay resumed with a half-length success in the GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Mar. 9 and turned the tables on her Breeders’ Cup conqueror with a 3 3/4-length victory in the GIII Edgewood S. at Churchill May 3.

The victory was the first Grade I on this circuit for trainer Rusty Arnold since sending out Victory Ride (Seeking the Gold) to win the 2001 Test S. All being equal, Concrete Rose is expected to contest the $750,000 Saratoga Oaks Aug. 2 and the $750,000 Jockey Club Oaks at Belmont Sept. 7. Cont. p7

The third Grade I winner for her sire and second this year, Concrete Rose was a $19,000 buyback out of the 2016 Keeneland November sale before changing hands for $20,000 as a Keeneland September yearling the following fall. Originally led out unsold at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale after breezing an eighth of a mile in :10 2/5, Concrete Rose was sold privately for $61,000.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

by Alan Carasso

Third, but placed second in a rough-and-tumble renewal of the GI Kentucky Derby on the first Saturday in May, Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) was not persevered with along the rest of the Triple Crown trail, with an eye on the second half of the season.

Sent off the 1.15-1 favorite for Saturday’s GIII Dwyer S., the diminutive chestnut followed the script to the letter, punching home late en route to an eye-catching defeat of Final Jeopardy (Street Sense). Rowayton (Into Mischief) parlayed a ground-saving trip into a third-place effort, albeit while no menace to the impressive winner.

Dropped out the back door by John Velazquez, Code of Honor caboosed the field as last-out Easy Goer S. hero Majid (Shackleford) set a leisurely tempo up ahead. Still content with his spot at the tail of the field as they raced into the sweeping far turn, Code of Honor was allowed to tack on to the peloton with Velazquez sitting chilly while following the move of the hard-ridden ‘TDN Rising Star’ Mihos (Cairo Prince) on the swing for home. Locked and loaded behind runners at the top of the lane, Code of Honor was angled off heels and to the outside of Final Jeopardy and covered his final two furlongs in a swift :23.57 to seal the deal in convincing style. Final Jeopardy made what appeared to be a winning move turning for home, only to be swamped late.

“I think that’s exactly the way he wants to run; to just drop back out of it a bit and, depending on the pace, making one run like that,” said Shug McGaughey, winning his third Dwyer and first since Coronado’s Quest took the 1998 running. “I thought he was a pretty easy winner today. Hopefully, we have a horse to come back with and we’ll see what happens down the road.”

Impressive beneath Johnny V to win his maiden on his Aug. 18 debut at the Spa, Code of Honor bombed the start of the GI Champagne S. Oct. 6 and did exceptionally well to finish second. Forced to miss the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile after spiking a raceday temperature, the colt passed on the GII Remsen S. and was a disappointing fourth to Mihos in the Jan. 5 Mucho Macho Man S. over Gulfstream’s one-turn mile. Taking advantage of a pace meltdown to post a 9-1 upset of the GII Fountain of Youth S. Mar. 2, he was third behind Maximum Security (New Year’s Day) in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 30 when the race was not run to suit. A 14-1 shot in the Derby, he came with a run up the fence and was bothered by the wayward Maximum Security at the quarter pole, then could not quite sustain the bid and was home third before being promoted.

McGaughey indicated that the July 27 GII Jim Dandy S. could be next for Code of Honor en route to the GI Runhappy Travers S. Aug. 24.

Pedigree Notes:

Code of Honor is the only stakes winner from three stakes performers and 29 winners to date from the first crop of his sophomore sire, who is a full-brother to the incomparable Frankel (GB). Code of Honor’s dam, the 2005 GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. winner Reunited, has also produced 2016 GII Best Pal S. winner Big League (Speightstown) and has a yearling colt by Karakontie (Jpn). Suburban S. cont.
Making just the eighth start of his career at the age of six, Preservationist was the recipient of a perfect ride from Junior Alvarado to earn his first graded-stakes success in Saturday’s valuable GII Suburban S.
Preservationist was part of the early mix along with longshot Realm (Haynesfield) and Pavel, but when a keyed-up Catholic Boy tugged Javier Castellano to the front with fully 7 1/2 furlongs to travel, Alvarado was only too happy to take hold of Preservationist and assume a stalking role from second. Catholic Boy traveled strongly through the middle stages of the Suburban, covering the half in a sensible-enough :48.09 and six furlongs in a manageable 1:11.69, with Preservationist still on hold in behind. But when last year’s GI Travers S. and GI Belmont Derby hero vacated the rail for the two path, Alvarado aggressively sent Preservationist underneath him and into the lead at the five-sixteenths pole. In front at the quarter pole, the Centennial runner called on his considerable stamina and was going away at the finish. Pavel plugged on at one pace to be third.
“I was trying to give a nice, confident ride to my horse,” said the winning jockey. “At the five-sixteenths pole, when it was time to pick it up, I asked him, and he was there for me. He gave me a nice run in the end.”

Perfect in two starts at five in 2018, Preservationist was third in a sloppy 6 1/2-furlong allowance at Aqueduct Jan. 5 before stretching out to a mile to score by a head Feb. 2. He caught wet underfoot conditions yet again for his May 23 return to action and responded with a handy 1 1/2-length tally.

Pedigree Notes:

Preservationist is the 70th stakes winner by Arch, whose top runners include champions Blame in the U.S. and Arravale in Canada. Flying Dixie, dam of the Suburban winner, had only two foals before her death in 2013. Preservationist was a $485,000 Keeneland September yearling and the other, Madiba (Candy Ride [Arg]), was a $700,000 Keeneland September yearling and is still running, most recently winning at Prairie Meadows July 3. The extended family is deep, with Flying Dixie being a half-sister to Hungry Island (More Than Ready), a multiple Grade II stakes winner and multiple Grade I-placed, as well as to graded winner Soaring Empire (Empire Maker) and graded-placed Tokyo Time (Medaglia d’Oro). Flying Dixie’s granddam is GI Ashland S. winner Chic Shirine (Mr. Prospector), whose exploits on the track were outdone by her production as a broodmare. She is the dam of GSWs Waldoboro (Lyphard) and Tara Roma (Lyphard), as well as the granddam of a slew of graded stakes winners, including GI winners Serra Lake (Seattle Slew), Somali Lemonade (Lemon Drop Kid), and Verrazano (More Than Ready). This is a longtime Emory Hamilton family, top and bottom. Not only did Hamilton breed Preservationist, but she bred Flying Dixie, her dam Flying Passage, and her dam Chic Shirine, while her family’s King Ranch bred fourth dam Too Chic and fifth dam Remedia. The same goes for Preservationist’s top side, with Hamilton or her family members breeding Arch, his dam Aurora, and her dam Althea.

Making his first appearance outside of Grade I or Group 1 company since annexing last October’s GII Phoenix S. at Keeneland, Promises Fulfilled looked like a pace and class standout here on paper, and he proved just that. Out-breaking his competition, including likely presser and making it to the rail from his outside draw, the hulking chestnut cruised through splits of :23.16 and :46.09—well within the scope of a runner who’d posted a :43.68 half before finishing third in the GII Woody Stephens S. here last June. Challenged by Warrior’s Club and Killybegs Captain past the quarter pole, he left them in his wake in upper stretch and powered away convincingly from there to stamp his ticket for this year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint.

“We were hoping she would run like that,” said trainer Bob Baffert, who has now won three of the six runnings of the Great Lady M. at Los Alamitos. “When [Van Dyke] asked her to go he had a lot of horse. I really thought she would run better last time at Churchill Downs, but (jockey) Mike Smith said she struggles on that surface. A lot of horses are weird on that surface. I like coming here. Los Alamitos has a great surface and it is fair. Horses can win on the lead or from off the pace.”

Jaywalk is back! Adding blinkers, the champion juvenile filly took the field wire-to-wire for a dominant score in the GIII Delaware Park Oaks Saturday.

Taking up her preferred position at the head of affairs, the 7-5 second-choice ticked off early fractions of :24 flat and :47 3/5. Challenged by favored Fashion Faux Pas briefly turning for home, the gray quickly dismissed that rival and rolled clear to win for fun.

Jaywalk won the Eclipse Award as last term’s top juvenile filly after dominant scores in both Belmont’s GI Frizette S. in October and the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 2. A disappointing fourth as the favorite in the GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream on seasonal bow Mar. 2, the $190,000 KEESEP buy was third when heavily bet again in Keeneland’s GI Ashland S. Apr. 6. She crossed the line sixth in the GI Kentucky Oaks last time May 3, but was disqualified and placed last for coming out at the start and causing Positive Spirit (Pioneerof the Nile) to clip heels and somersault.

Pedigree Notes:
Jaywalk is the only graded winner for her second-crop sire Cross Traffic, who was the leading freshman sire last term thanks to the Eclipse winner’s accomplishments. The winner is a half-sister to SW & GSP Danzatrice; the unraced juvenile filly Magnanimous (Karakontie {Jpn}); a yearling filly be Empire Maker and a 2019 colt by that Gainesway stallion. She hails from the family of MGSW & MGISP millionaire Mission Impazible (Unbridled’s Song) and graded winners Forest Camp (Deputy Minister) and Spanish Empire (Pleasant Colony). 2016 GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint third Pure Sensation scored a hat trick of victories in Saturday’s GIII Parx Dash S. in front-running fashion after saluting in the 2016 and 2017 editions at Parx. The 6-5 crowd’s pick asserted from the bell and zipped a first quarter in :22 flat while pressed by Vision Perfect (Pollard’s Vision) and Smokin Nitro off his right flank. The latter briefly made a race of it at the top of the lane, but Pure Sensation found another gear and stretched away to win--while drifting a bit--by 4 1/4 lengths. Rocket Heat made up some late ground to take second, 4 1/2 lengths ahead of Smokin Nitro.

The Patricia Generazio homebred landed his third GII Turf Monster S. (2015, 2017, 2018) last September locally, and completed the trifecta in the Belmont Turf Sprint Invitational S. Oct. 6 before being shelved. In charge from pillar to post over the Gulfstream lawn when making his 8-year-old bow Apr. 12, the gray hung on to win the Pennsylvania Governor’s Cup S. over yielding turf at Penn National last time June 1.

Pedigree Notes:
In addition to Pure Sensation, six-time stakes winner Pure Disco has produced Gulfstream black-type winner Salute the Colonel (Colonel John), as well as a 3-year-old filly by Street Sense and juvenile filly Pure Bode (Bodemeister).

Gentle Ruler hit the board, but was winless in her initial seven career starts at two and three, but appears to have taken her game to the next level this season. A winner fresh out of the box in a muddy, off-turf Gulfstream maiden over 8 1/2 furlongs Mar. 28, she followed up with another victory while stretching to 12 furlongs in a Keeneland turf allowance Apr. 24. Given her propensity for a route of ground, she was returned to the 1 1/2-mile distance in Churchill’s Keertana S. May 25 and duly obliged with another off-the-pace victory. Installed the 7-2 second choice for this change in venue, she was allowed to settle in a ground-saving sixth through opening fractions of :23.12, :48.57 and 1:12.79. Powering through along the inside turning into the stretch, Gentle Ruler overtook Theodora B. and raced away in the late stages to best her rival by 2 3/4 lengths. Gaining (GB) rounded out the trifecta.

Pedigree Notes:
A half-sister to stakes placed Winilicious (Lawyer Ron) and Maxinkuckee Miss (Langfur), Winikins is responsible for 10 foals, seven of them winners. The 18-year-old mare aborted in 2016, however, produced a filly by Lea in 2017 and a colt by Ironicus the following season. This term, she foaled a colt by Lea.

Illinois-bred Sir Anthony, who upended Audible (Into Mischief) as a 25-1 shot in December’s GIII Harlan’s Holiday S. at Gulfstream, returned to winning ways under the lights Friday night. Piloted for the first time by GI Kentucky Derby and Queen’s Plate-winning jockey Flavien Prat, the chestnut was unhurried and dropped far back and out of the picture in the early going.

Lady Apple justified even-money favoritism with a gritty score in the GIII Iowa Oaks Friday evening. Pressing Ulele from second through opening splits of :23.36 and :47.39, the bay drew on even turns with the pacesetter at the top of the stretch and the stage was set. The pair battled stride-for-stride down the lane, both refusing to yield, but Lady Apple pushed past a relentless Ulele in the dying strides for a narrow success.

Lady Apple took a few tries to break her maiden, finally breaking through at fifth asking at Oaklawn Feb. 7, and has been on a roll since. Following suit with an optionalclaimer score in Hot Springs Mar. 23, she won the GIII Fantasy S. there Apr. 12 and was most recently third in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 3.

Pedigree Notes:

Out of GSP Miss Mary Apples, Lady Apple is a half-sister to MSW Miss Red Delicious, who produced GSW Nootka Sound (Lonhro {Aus}) and SP Follow No One (Uncle Mo); and SW & GSP Dr. Diamonds Prize. Her 4-year-old half-sister Bint Huwaar (More Than Ready) was a $390,000 KEESEP yearling turned $1-million OBSAPR juvenile, purchased by Alessandro Marconi and Al Aasfa Racing. Miss Mary Apples is also responsible for the juvenile colt Apple Empire (Empire Maker), who is a maiden of three starts for breeder KatieRich Farms and trainer Mark Hubley. The 19-year-old mare did not produce a foal in 2018, but had a More Than Ready filly Feb. 24 of this year.
BROWN AIMS FOR THIRD TITLE AT THE SPA
by Mike Kane

Saratoga Springs, N.Y. -- As he begins his quest for a third training title at Saratoga Race Course, Chad Brown is well aware that he will be measured against himself. It's a tough assignment.

Brown claimed his first title in 2016, and finished second, 40-39, to perennial champ Todd Pletcher in 2017. During the rain-soaked 2018 meet, when 50 races were washed off the turf--the surface where Brown dominates--he ran away from the competition with a record-setting 46 victories. Pletcher was next with 19 wins.

Success at Saratoga is a big deal for every trainer. For Brown, 40, who grew up in Mechanicville, 15 miles from the historic track, there is even more incentive, or pressure, to perform well. He makes no secret that a primary focus of his now massive stable is the 40-day Saratoga season, which opens July 11.

During an interview in his office in the Horse Haven barn area across Union Avenue from the track, the three-time Eclipse Award winner smiled and acknowledged that the goal is for a repeat of 2018.

"But that said, we are flush with a lot of talented race horses right now and maybe we got a lot of the rain out of the way. You would think the law of averages would bring us to a better weather pattern into the meet. Last year, we had a remarkable meet, but, man, the first week to two weeks were very wet, particularly the first week. The fact we were still able to have the meet that we had with so much wet weather we had was really remarkable. It's probably unrealistic to think that we can go eight weeks all with good weather. That is part of it; we have a lot of turf horses. I am sure there are some areas where we won't do quite as well, but there are some other areas where we might do better at when you put the whole meet together."

In 2016, Brown never seemed able to relax, even when it was clear that he was on his way to the first title. The 2017 trainers standings were decided on the final day. But last year he said he was able to enjoy what he and his team were accomplishing.

"During the meet, especially the last couple weeks of the meet, I, personally, tried to slow things down as much as I could to try and take it all in and appreciate the success of our operation, of all of our hard-working staff that were really getting their personal gratification about succeeding, about winning," he said. "That meet last year, like all the meets before it, was a result of long-term preparation by our team. And to see it coming together, successfully, I did stop and observe this and appreciate it as much as we could. We all know we can't stop time. Things are going to keep moving forward every minute, every hour, every day. I feel I got a lot of satisfaction out of it. I don't have any regrets about how much I appreciated it, how much I enjoyed it last year."

In late May it was announced that Brown had agreed to a $1.6-million settlement with the U.S. Department of Labor for violations that included failure to pay overtime to some of his employees. The settlement figure was for back wages, liquidated damages and penalties. Part of the agreement, Brown said, is that he is prevented from talking about the case.

"I can't comment on it, unfortunately," he said. "I just want to move on from it."

This is Brown's 12th full season as a trainer after working for five years for the late Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel, who he considers his mentor. With little to show in his nascent career, Brown's request for Saratoga stalls in 2008 was initially turned down by NYRA.

He did manage to pick up some, though, and won with the first horse he saddled, Star Player (Tale of the Cat), in the first race on opening day. By season's end his stats—six wins from 18 starts and 50% in the money—were yielding attention and new clients. According to Equibase, Brown has 282 career wins from 1,100 starts at Saratoga, 25.6%, and his runners have hit the board at a 58.9% clip. Brown has 29 graded stakes wins at Saratoga, nine of them in Grade I races, and a total of 59 stakes wins.

Much like Saratoga itself, Brown understands he is graded against his previous accomplishments, especially at his home track, where he became a fan of the sport.

"I have accepted that as being part of professional sports. So, I don't think there is anything unfair about it," he said. "I think another way to term is: it's a challenge you accept when you enter a profession like this in professional sports. If you are successful and running a championship team or championship organization, you are often expected to keep raising the bar, or at the very least, repeat. I accept that as part of the deal."

Two of Brown's stable stars, Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway) and defending champ Robert Bruce (Chi) (Fast Company (Ire)) are headed to the GI Arlington Million and won't race at the Spa. Bricks and Mortar has returned from a career-threatening injury to win five straight races, three of them Grade I races. Brown said it was possible that Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel (Ire)), third behind Bricks and Mortar and Robert Bruce in the GI Manhattan S., may run in the Million or the GI Fourstardave S., also Aug. 10 at Saratoga. The unbeaten GI Acorn S. winner Guarana (Ghostzapper) is a candidate for the GI Coaching Club American Oaks July 20 and, if she handles the 1 1/8 miles, could go on to the GI Alabama S. Aug. 17. Rushing Fall (More Than Ready) is on course for the GI Diana S.—which Brown has won four times, the last three in a row—July 13. He estimated that about two dozen of his 80 2-year-olds are likely to race during the Saratoga meet.

Once again this summer, Brown aims to be on top of the Saratoga trainer’s standings when the meet ends Sept 2.

"I am confident that we are in a very good position because we have a deep bench of talented, healthy horses, knock on wood, right now that I can see having good meets here," he said. "The advantage of doing it this many years in a row is like a golfer going to a certain course every year. You have certain courses that you know. For us, I am not going to say I know this course better than anyone but I am doing this a little while now and I know this course very well. I know every hole that is coming. I know where the fairways are and how the greens flow. So, I try to adapt my game, my roster, to what is about to happen."

LOS ALAMITOS CANCELS THURSDAY CARD

California’s Los Alamitos has canceled the card for Thursday, July 11, due to a lack of sufficient entries. Programs with nine races each are tentatively scheduled for next Friday through Sunday, which will be the final days of the brief summer meet that began June 29. Two other days, June 27-28, were also cancelled.

SUNDAY INSIGHTS: WELL-BRED CASSE DUO DEBUT AT ELLIS

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

3rd-EP, Msw, $50k, 2yo, f, 5 1/2fT, 2:46 p.m. ET

Trainer Mark Casse unveils two auspiciously bred juveniles on Sunday’s card at Ellis. Carrying the silks of Tracy Farmer’s GI Belmont S. victor Sir Winston (Awesome Again), CARA CATERINA (Bernardini) fetched a price tag of $500,000 as a yearling at the Keeneland September Sale. The bay enters the starting gate hoping to follow in the hoofprints of her Grade I winning full-siblings, To Honor and Serve and Angela Renee. Both precocious juveniles, Angela Renee graduated in her debut at Belmont as a 2-year-old before capturing Santa Anita’s GI Chandelier S. later that season, while To Honor and Serve was a MGSW at two before adding highest-level wins at three and four.

Cara Caterina’s stablemate Battleofwinterfell (Declaration of War) hails from the family of multiple Sovereign Award winner Nothernnette (Northern Dancer) and European champion 2-year-old and important stallion Storm Bird (Northern Dancer). The Marc Detemple-owned filly has been breezing consistently over the Keeneland oval, clocking a half-mile in :47 3/5 (4/30) out of the gate June 20. She is a half-sister to stakes winner Giada Vegas (Scat Daddy). TJCIS PPS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

IOWA DERBY, $250,000, Prairie Meadows, 7-5, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:43.07, ft.

1--TOP LINE GROWTH, 116, g, 3, by Tapizar
   1st Dam: Orinoquia (SW & GISP, $210,042), by Whywhywhy
   2nd Dam: Nice Boots Baby, by Storm Boot
   3rd Dam: Foxfire Lass, by Premiership

1ST BLACK TYPE WIN. O/B-The Elkstone Group LLC (MD);
T-Kelly Rubley; J-Julian Pimentel. $149,100. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $196,503.

2--Shang, 122, c, 3, Shanghai Bobby--Humble Janet, by Humble Eleven. ($90,000 Ylg '17 FTKOCT). O-William & Corinne Heiligbrodt; B-Cloyce C. Clark (LA); T-Steven M. Asmussen. $49,700.

3--Winning Number*, 119, c, 3, Speightstown--Charge of Angels, by Distorted Humor. ($140,000 Wlg ’16 KEENOV; $70,000 Ylg ’17 KEESEP). O-James D. Spry; B-Hill ’n’ Dale Equine Holdings, Inc (KY); T-Brian S. House. $24,850.

Margins: HD, 3/4, 2. Odds: 3.80, 10.00, 17.10.

Also Ran: Fluminense, Night Ops, Mr Money Bags, And Seek, Millontown, Thetrashmanscoming. Scratched: Dazzling Truths, Visitant, Proverb. *DQ’d from first.

Top Line Growth crossed the line second in the Iowa Derby, but was promoted to first after Winning Number was disqualified for interference following a stewards inquiry and jockey claim of foul. Biding his time in mid-pack as Winning Number clocked a half-mile in :48 flat, the gelding made rapid progress on the backstretch run to sit second turning for home. He kept after the pacesetter in the lane, but could not get to him, coming up two lengths short. However, after an inquiry and objection, Winning Number was taken down and placed third for interfering with third-place finisher Shang, making Top Line Growth the new winner and Shang the runner-up.

Romping by 9 1/2 lengths when unveiled in a $40,000 maiden claimer at Laurel Apr. 22, Top Line Growth was fifth next out in the Sir Barton S. at Pimlico May 18. He returned to winning ways with an eight-length restricted allowance score at Laurel June 8. Top Line Growth is the seventh black-type winner for his sire Tapizar, who was represented by his first champion last year in Monomoy Girl. He is out of SW & GISP Orinoquia, who also produced SP Kitchen Fire (First Defence). Her recent produce includes a yearling filly by Mshawish and a 2019 filly by Dialed In. Also Ran: Saratoga Vision, Marva, The Good Witch, Bayerly Seen, Reiterate, Nite Brite.

Fast Scene invaded from her Presque Isle home base to post an impressive 2 1/2-length victory on debut here June 15, and became the first black-type winner for her first-crop sire (by Medaglia d'Oro) with an even sharper tally in Saturday's My Dear S. Having returned to Erie after her unveiling to breeze a half-mile in :47 4/5 over the Tapeta, the dark bay split horses early here to take over and post splits of 21.80 and :45.62 en route to a dominant performance.

“She was looking at the other horse next to her, but as soon as she put her feet on the ground, she just picked it up,” said winning jockey Rafael Hernandez in a post-race interview. “She was awesome, unbelievable today.”

Scooter Davis, assistant to trainer and co-owner Tim Hamm, added, “Scott Spieth worked her at Presque Isle and the first thing he said was, ‘This filly has a good mind on her.’ She’s fast, but we thought even if she wasn’t on the lead, she could rate and go on. She’s got a lot of ability, for sure... Hopefully we’ll come back here, she seems to like it.”

Fast Scene is out of a full-sister to the good SW/GISP turf sprinter Supreme. Her second dam is a full to GI Kentucky Derby hero Monarchos. Scenic Drive produced a Mineshaft filly last year and a Gun Runner colt this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.
Margins: NK, NO, NK. Odds: 10.70, 1.80, 2.60.
Also Ran: Scraps, Sovereign Warrior, Starship Aramis, Vow Me Now.

Stirling Drive hasn’t seen the winner’s circle since taking the Juvenile Turf S. at Gulfstream Park West last November. In his previous start, the Florida-bred faltered home in ninth in a June 23 optional claimer over this turf course. Wheeling back fairly quickly here, he broke keenly and stalked the pacesetter through a swift pace in :23.89 and :48.13. Hustled around the turn under rider Samy Camacho, he struck the front in mid-stretch and gamely prevailed in a blanket four-horse finish. He is the first winner for his Group II winning dam, who is the mother of a yearling brother to Stirling Drive. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

  O/B-Calumet Farm (KY); T-Michael J. Maker. $19,400.
3--Kelsey’s Cross, 118, f, 3, Anthony’s Cross--Amy’s Allie, by Trippi.
  O-Sanford Bacon and Patrick L. Biancone Racing, LLC; B-T. Wynn & Mary Jolley (FL); T-Patrick L. Biancone. $9,700.
Margins: NK, NO, NK. Odds: 10.70, 1.80, 2.60.
Also Ran: Vow to Recover, La Australiana, Bello Porte, Indicia, Jolie Bay.

The sixth choice at 16-1, Zaria has made it a habit of winning every other start. Last seen when fourth in an optional claimer going a sixteenth farther over this course June 22, the bay was coming off a blowout victory Apr. 26 at Tampa Bay Downs on the dirt. Her only previous stakes try came in Tampa Bay Downs Stakes Mar. 9 GIII Florida Oaks when she finished well behind Saturday’s GII Belmont Oaks winner Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy).

In the Martha Washington, Zarina settled mid-pack on the inside. Hugging the rail, she was shuffled back through fractions of :24.52 and :48.47. She shifted outside on the turn, moving very wide to mow down the leaders. She hit the front with Red Rounder gunning for her in turn, but managed to hold sway for her first stakes score by a neck.

The winner’s dam is from a longtime Florida-based family and counts Floridian stakes winners His Honor (Honor Grades), Tiger Belle (Tiger Ridge), and D’nied Permission (D’wildcat) among her immediate relatives. Zarina is the mare’s first stakes winner. Point Judith has a juvenile full-brother to Zarina named Danville, as well as a 2019 filly who is a full-sister. Her yearling filly, named Cape Elizabeth, is by Creative Cause. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Also Ran: Manitoulin, Archaggelos, Positivist. Scratched: Sonneteer, Colonel Juan, Douglas Road, Warrioroftheroses, Dark Templar, Pizmo Time.

A stakes winner in his native France, Canessar captured the Laurel Turf Cup S. in his American debut in September of 2017. Runner-up in both the GII Belmont Gold Cup and GII Stars ‘N Stripes S. last term, he was sixth in Keeneland’s GII Elkhorn S. Apr. 20 and fourth last time in the Belmont Gold Cup June 7. Heavily favored to get the job done in this class drop, the gray scraped the paint near the back of the tightly bunched group through three-quarters of a mile in 1:12.16. Tipped out to launch a bid on the backstretch run, he was still last at the top of the stretch, but swung out four wide, powering past his rivals in an instant to win going away. The winner’s youngest sibling is a juvenile filly by Dawn Approach (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

2--Regally Irish, 122, c, 3, Regal Ransom--Irish Score, by Even the Score. O/B-Isabelle Haskell de Tomaso (NJ); T-H. Graham Motion. $15,000.

3--Don’s Marsh, 118, g, 7, Don Six--Saucy Broad, by Belong to Me. O/B-Patricia Generazio (NJ); T-Brenda McCarthy. $7,500.

Margins: 1HF, 1 1/4, 1 1/4. Odds: 0.10, 5.10, 22.00.

Also Ran: Lucky Balladier, Passport, Locano.

A winner of the GIII Kent S. some 51 weeks ago, the versatile Golden Brown scored his third win Saturday from as many tries this year while besting a relative to this event=’s namesake. Up late to grab a second-level open optional claimer on the local main track May 11, the dark bay was last seen besting GSW Irish Strait (English Channel)--a half-brother to Irish War Cry (Curlin) himself--in the turfy and state-bred-restricted Dan Horn S. June 23. Backed like a sure thing despite the fairly quick turnaround, Golden Brown found a perfect pocket spot into the first turn. He tipped out to tackle Regally Irish at the head of the lane, and leveled off with the help of a right-handed reminder to kick away and canter under the wire.

“They kept it a little tight on him on the rail so I was definitely concerned. But I knew Paco Lopez would find a way out eventually,” said winning conditioner Pat McBurney. “Otherwise I liked seeing him sit off horses a little bit. He did it pretty easily. We’ll see how he’s acting before we decide what’s next. We let him eat some grass this morning and I was terrified we weren’t going to get him back in the barn before he got loose. He was coming out of his skin, ready to go. We’ll give him a few days and see. If he continues to tear the barn down we’ll have to find something for him, because for him in 10 or 12 days I’m going to work him six furlongs, a mile, anyway and let him gallop out. He always tells us the story.”

The winner has a 2-year-old half-brother by Flatter; a yearling half-sister to Tapizar; and a foal half-brother by Midnight Storm. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Margins: 3/4, 1 3/4, HF. Odds: 3.00, 4.90, 38.20.

Also Ran: Schiff’s Corner, Joe G’s Payback, Lauralee Cocodree, Sister Chloe, Ashley Astry.

Sent off as the second-choice in the field of eight fillies, newcomer Sarah’s Passion broke alertly and enjoyed a stalking trip a few lengths behind the early pacesetter through a :22.09 opening quarter. Ranging up to the leader around the turn, she overtook that rival mid-stretch and held the closing Todayisnottheday at bay under the wire. The victress has a yearling half-brother by Court Vision and a half-sister to Goldencents born this past season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

5th-Belmont, $80,000, Msw, 7-6, 2yo, 6fT, 1:08.87, fm. MONTAUK DADDY (c, 2, Daddy Long Legs--Snow Fashion, by Old Fashioned) became the first North American winner for his sire (by Scat Daddy), who previously stood in Chile, with a good-looking victory at Belmont Saturday. Originally led through the ring unsold at OBS April despite breeze in a sharp :20 3/5, the juvenile was purchased by trainer Linda Rice post sale for $160,000 on behalf of Chris Fountoukis and Richard McCourt’s McCourt Racing. He was the first North American starter for his sire when flying late for second in his debut in a rained-off event going a sloppy five panels at Belmont June 21. Dispatched as the 3-1 second-choice in this first try on the grass, the chestnut seized the early advantage under Jose Lezcano and was chased by 18-1 shot Now Is (Sidney’s Candy) through a swift :21.50 first quarter. That foe closed in on the leader momentarily turning home, but Montauk Daddy had plenty left in the tank and shrugged off that foe to earn his diploma by 1 3/4 lengths. Now Is faded to fifth, but Time for Trouble (English Channel) produced a strong late rally to close the gap a bit in the final sixteenth. Favoried Invader (War Front), a full-brother to GISW Fog of War, could only manage sixth. Montauk Daddy is the second foal and second winner out of Snow Fashion, who has not produced anything since. EASY FOR ENABLE IN THE ECLIPSE

Never out of her comfort zone during Saturday’s G1 Coral-Eclipse, Khalid Abdullah’s Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) who was later described as “85-90%” by trainer John Gosden, put all doubts about the 10-furlong trip aside with what amounted to a relative cruise around Sandown on her comeback run. Never in any kind of trouble at any point of the contest, the remarkable umpteenth public champion to brandish these renowned pink and green silks was handed an ideal lead by Ballydoyle’s Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) for as long as Frankie Dettori could keep her under restraint. With Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) labouring in behind, the dual Arc heroine was cajoled to the head of affairs before two out and under a hand ride kept drawing the sting from her old rival with a degree of comfort that was surprising even allowing for her past achievements. At the line, it was to Magical’s credit that she got to within 3/4 of a length of the winner, who had been the subject of a significant gamble into 4-6 before the off. Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}) was two lengths away in third.

“It has been a long preparation and she’d only started to come in the last two weeks,” Gosden said. “I told Frankie that if she got tired to look after her, so I couldn’t be more thrilled with her. She’s an exceptional athlete.” Cont. p2

JAPAN’S GROWING CONFIDENCE IN INTERNATIONAL MARKET by Emma Berry

CHITOSE, Japan--When it comes to breeding and racing Thoroughbreds, there’s no doubt that Japan does it properly. When it comes to sales, however, the Japanese do things a little differently.

A yearling sale in July is nothing new but a full session of youngsters not yet weaned is a format unseen anywhere else in the bloodstock sales world, but it is one which appears to work very well in Hokkaido.

"In Japan, traditionally buyers always preferred to buy their racehorses as foals, though gradually they are coming around a bit more to the yearling market," said the JRHA’s international representative Naohiro Goda as we ventured out on Saturday morning to view foals at Japan’s two biggest breeding operations. Our first port of call was to Teruya Yoshida’s Shadai Farm, followed by a preview of an even bigger draft from his brother Katsumi’s Northern Farm, situated right next door to the Shadai Stallion Station, which is owned by all three Yoshida brothers--Haruya included--under the Shadai Corporation banner. Cont. p14

HENLEY’S JOY STRIKES IN BELMONT DERBY

The G1 Belmont Derby Invitational S. went the way of Henley’s Joy (Kitten’s Joy) at Belmont on Saturday. Click or tap here to go straight to TDN America.

It may be that Enable was not at her best in her three starts last season, but she still managed to pull off a rare double in the French autumn showcase, win a Breeders’ Cup Turf and beat Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the G3 September S. There is a feeling that she has more to give on this evidence, as at no stage last summer was she giving the signals that she was capable of a performance of this ilk. A perfect storm converged here, with Frankie Dettori arriving in Esher on the back of a vintage Royal Ascot and a G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud success for good measure and Enable blossoming after a dousing of recent summer rain.

Regal Reality was up to the same tricks as he had been before the G3 Brigadier Gerard S., planting himself on the Rhododendron Walk and having to be taken a mile and a quarter down to the start to avoid going past the racecourse stables. Enable was unperturbed at the start as the consummate professional she has always been and after the first 100 yards the race’s tapestry had already been sewn as Enable and Magical followed a pacemaker who had the ability to win a G3 Hampton Court S. and place in a G1 Belmont Derby last year. Enable treated this like a strong piece of work on the Newmarket Heath as she emulated her sire who had also taken it on his seasonal bow for the same stable in 2012.

Ending a 27-year drought for her sex in this race, Enable was perhaps ushering in a new era for them as a result of her dynamic display. “It’s been a long time since Kooyonga won for the fillies and with two fantastic mares being one-two here it’s put that one to rest,” Gosden said. “We had never intended to go early with her and we talked about Ascot but we had some rain two weeks ago and she clicked into mode at home. As I said at Saint-Cloud last week, we could not have been happier with her and I judged it at about 85-90%, as you don’t run in the Eclipse too short of work. The step back up to a mile and a half for the [July 27 G1] King George will probably suit her as well and as she races she’ll tighten and harden like any great athlete in competition. She is a filly that we can hopefully get to the King George, York [for the Aug. 21 G1 Juddmonte International] and Longchamp [for the Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe]. It has always been the plan, those four races, so this has been a good start. She had been doing beautiful bridle work at home, as we couldn’t crank her up after eight months off.”

Training Enable comes with some gravity now and Gosden was aware of that as he added, “We all feel responsibility with one like her. We don’t bother her too much, but we are watching her the whole time. She is one of those proud athletes who tells you what she wants and you listen, you don’t boss her around. She knows when its time for racing and gets mentally into the zone. This is deeply fulfilling, a sense of relief initially and then joy later on, and we are incredibly lucky to train a filly like this.

Pedigree Notes...

Enable’s family has another potential star in the firmament in the recent G2 Prix Eugene Adam winner Headman (GB) (Kingman {GB}), which adds weight to a dynasty already renowned for its potency courtesy of the exploits of Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Headman is a grandson of the G2 Prix de Royallieu winner and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Dance Routine (GB) (Sadler’s Wells), a full-sister to Enable’s listed-winning and group-placed dam Concentric (GB). Also the dam of the G2 Prix de Pomone runner-up Contribution (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and this year’s G3 Musidora S. runner-up Entitle (GB) (Dansili {GB}), Concentric also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Portrush (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a yearling colt by Sea the Stars (Ire) and a 2019 full-brother to Enable.

It’s a great honour.”

Aidan O’Brien paid tribute to Magical, who never buckled in the vain pursuit and was staying on strongly on the uphill climb to the line. “We’re delighted—she ran a great race,” he said. “We might give her a little rest, as we decided to let her take her chance here after she came out of Ascot well. She ran her race and it’s possible we’ll bring her back for the autumn. The winner is a great filly who is beautifully-bred, trained and ridden and it’s a privilege to be here to see her.”

ENBIHAAR GAINS HER REVENGE

Run down late by Dramatic Queen (Kitten’s Joy) at York last time, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum’s Enbihaar (Ire) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}) was able to reverse the form after another tussle in Saturday’s G2 bet365 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock. Having beaten Klassique (GB) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) in Goodwood’s Listed Daisy Warwick Fillies’ S. over this 12-furlong trip May 4, the lightly-raced bay had gone under by a half-length when appearing to be outstayed after attempting to make all in the May 25 G3 Bronte Cup over another two furlongs on the Knavesmire. Content to track Dramatic Queen this time as the duo reversed roles, the 5-2 second favourite gained a slight edge a furlong from home and gamely held her familiar rival at bay to score by a neck, with the well-supported 13-8 market-leader Klassique four lengths back in third.

Jockey Dane O’Neill said of the winner, who was providing John Gosden with a record eighth win in the race, “She’s a tough, tough filly—a smashing, gorgeous-looking filly. I wouldn’t say her job is done—I’m sure we can get better out of her.”

Enbihaar is a half-sister to Godolphin’s G2 International Topkapi Trophy runner-up Silent Attack (GB) (Dream Ahead) and to the listed-placed King Bolete (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). The dam Chanterelle (Fr) (Trempolino), who has the unraced 2-year-old colt Motamayiz (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}), is a full-sister to the G3 Prix du Calvados scorer Cox Orange, who is in turn the dam of the Listed Masaka S. winner and G1 1000 Guineas third Vista Bella (GB) (Diktat {GB}).

Their respective dam Spectacular Joke (Spectacular Bid) landed the Prix Maurice de Gheest when it was a Group 2 before producing the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Amonita (Anabaa).

Kurious | Racing Post

Kurious, whose debut win last June had been followed by an outing in Royal Ascot’s G2 Queen Mary S. which set her back as she trailed in ninth and was on the shelf for almost five months, is now firmly back on track for the Henry Candy stable which excels with these types. Cont. p6
“She was very calm and settled in herself—she seemed on top of her game and was very happy,” her trainer said. “She is very courageous, as well being able. She is definitely getting sounder and stronger. I would not be in too much of a hurry doing too much more with her during the height of summer. We got away with it today, as she definitely wants a bit of ease in the ground. We will probably be looking at a bit of an autumn campaign.”

Pedigree Notes...
The winner is the last known foal and now one of three group scorers out of the unraced Easy To Imagine (Cozzene) after last year’s G1 Nunthorpe S. hero Alpha Delphini (GB) (Captain Gerrard {Ire}) and the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp winner Tangerine Trees (GB) (Mind Games {GB}). The second dam Zarani Sidi Anna (Danzig) was placed four times in pattern-race company, most notably when runner-up in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. and third in the G1 Coronation S. in 1993. She is also the dam of the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint S. runner-up Base Commander (Officer), while her listed-winning dam Emmaline (Affirmed) is a half-sister to the GI Santa Anita H.-winning champion Bates Motel (Sir Ivor) and his G3 Horris Hill S.-winning full-brother Super Asset.

DURANCE BEST IN HAMBURG HEAT
Improving at a rate of knots, Gestut Ebbesloh’s Durance (Ger) (Champs Elysees {GB}) continued her momentum to put her stamp on Saturday’s G3 Mehl Mulhens Trophy at Hamburg. Providing a timely boost to Sunday’s G1 Deutsches Derby favourite Laccario (Ger) (Scalo {GB}), who she had trailed when fourth in Dusseldorf’s Listed Derby-Trial May 26, the homebred who had subsequently taken the Listed Preis Dusseldorf June 15 put herself among the finest of her generation and sex with this performance. Cont. p7

Congratulations to Hot To Trot Racing and connections of KURIOUS winner of the Gr.3 Sprint Stakes over 5f at Sandown Park yesterday.

Tracking the leading trio early, the 3-1 was angled stand’s side after turning for home and gained the advantage overall passing the furlong pole en route to a 1 1/4-length success from Anna Pivola (Ger) (Pivotal (GB)).

Pedigree Notes...

Durance is one of seven black-type performers out of the unraced Djidda (Ger) (Lando (Ger)), whose leading performers prior to this were the G3 Hamburger Flieger Trophy winner Dabbitse (Ger) (Soldier Hollow (GB)), the dual stakes scorer Dextera (Ger) (Royal Dragon) and the multiple listed-placed Devilish Lips (Ger) (Konigstiger (Ger)). The latter is in turn the dam of the G2 Meilen Trophy hero Dragon Lips (Ger) (Footstepsinthedesand (GB)) and the listed winner Dynamic Lips (Ire) (Excellent Art (GB)) who was also third in the G2 German 1000 Guineas. HOT PROPERTY

Now that connections are sure they have found the ideal metier for ‘TDN Rising Star’ Too Darn Hot (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)), his opponents in Sunday’s renovated G1 Prix Jean Prat had better watch out. Last year’s champion juvenile has gone from Derby prospect to ultimate miler to now seven-furlong sprint-miler in the space of just a month and a half, but his talent almost certainly remains undiminished. He looked to have that freak quality as he romped through the G3 Solario S., G2 Champagne S. and G1 Dewhurst S. at two and despite his stout pedigree he has proven hard to peg down distance-wise until now. It is taken as read that the soft ground that prevailed at Royal Ascot undermined him when fading late to be third in the June 18 G1 St James’s Palace S. and quick conditions over this straight seven there should be no call for excuses.

Godolphin have stacked three against the Lloyd-Webber homebred, with the Charlie Appleby-trained ‘TDN Rising Star’ Space Blues (Ire) another Dubawi who has steadily reverted to this trip. Successful in Epsom’s Listed Surrey S. May 31 and runner-up in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 22, he has emerged from the Royal meeting in top order. “He has shown plenty of pace this season and we felt that he deserved a crack at a nice prize over this trip," his trainer said. “It will be his first Group 1 start, but he won’t look out of the place in the line-up. If he can continue his improvement, he should be involved in the finish.”

Saeed bin Suroor also drops Royal Marine (Ire) (Raven’s Pass) to seven after three out-of-the-frame efforts at a mile so far this term. While the form of his G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere success at ParisLongchamp in October gives mixed messages, he is considered better than his latest ninth in the St James’s Palace and Saeed bin Suroor is expecting a turnaround. Cont. p8

“We have been disappointed with Royal Marine so far this year, but we are looking forward to seeing how he goes over seven furlongs,” he commented. “His last piece of work went well and this looks the right race for him. I am hoping for a better result from him this time.”

Chief among the home representation is Gerard Augustin-Normand’s Graignes (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}), who was runner-up to Godolphin’s third runner here Munitions (War Front) over this trip in the G3 Prix Djebel at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 10 but reversed the form as they finished fourth and ninth respectively in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains at ParisLongchamp May 12. Unraced on ground good or faster, the Yves Barberot-trained colt who was also third in the G1 Criterium International at Chantilly in October needs to find improvement to make a serious impact.

Hamburg are celebrating the 150th running of the G1 IDEE Deutsches Derby, where Gestut Ittlingen’s Laccario (Ger) (Scalo (GB)) occupies favouritism after impressive successes in Dusseldorf’s Listed Derby-Trial May 26 and the G2 Union-Rennen at Cologne June 10. On the latter occasion, the homebred dealt a blow to the ego of Django Freeman (Ger) (Campanologist) who had previously beaten Stall Salzburg’s Quest the Moon (Ger) (Sea the Moon (Ger)) in the May 1 G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich. Following that eclipse, Quest the Moon went to ParisLongchamp to capture the G3 Prix du Lys in authoritative fashion May 26 and that may represent stronger form than his domestic efforts.

LAURENS TO SKIP FALMOUTH WITH MINOR INJURY

The Karl Burke-trained MG1SW Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) will not take part in the July 12 G1 Falmouth S. after picking up a slight injury to her left hind owner John Dance announced via Twitter on Saturday. Instead, the 4-year-old will point to the G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville on July 28. She was second in the G1 Al Shaqab Lockinge S. at Newbury in her 4-year-old bow on May 18, and was a last out sixth in the June 18 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot.

Dance tweeted, "Sorry to report that Laurens has picked up what we hope is a niggle yesterday [Friday] and thus hasn’t been confirmed for the Falmouth S. She’ll have an easy week, be reassessed and we’ll make a new plan from there."

Burke, speaking after enjoying a winner at Haydock on Saturday afternoon, added, "She’s just got a little niggle on her left hind, a slight reaction to a curb. She cantered this morning, cantered beautifully, but an hour later she wasn’t 100%. This has been brewing over the last 48 hours. She’s too valuable an animal, too good [to risk]—she owes us nothing. So as much as it hurts to miss out on a chance of a Group 1, we’ve taken the right decision. John was fully supportive of that, if anything more than I was—he was pretty adamant we should skip it, and we hope we’ll get her right for the race in Deauville [G1 Prix Rothschild] in three weeks. It’s not a serious injury in a long-term scheme—it’s just at the wrong time."

Labelled a TDN Rising Star on her winning debut at Yarmouth in September, Hidden Message had failed to build on that promise when fifth as the favourite for the G3 Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket the following month. Fourth to Muchly in a competitive conditions event at Ascot on her 3-year-old bow May 1, the bay was back a month later to run fourth to Obligate (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly. Tracking the leading trio early, she was delivered to take over with a furlong remaining and was beyond recall by the time Encapsulation could make an impact.

Maureen Haggas said, “She has been a bit dippy really.
Gianluca Sanna, who rides her every day and had a ride for us last night at Chelmsford, has ridden her all the time and has done well with her. I couldn’t believe how relaxed she was on such a big day, but that is all down to him.”  Cont. p10
Hidden Message is out of the Listed Radley S. winner Secret Charm, whose dam Viz (Kris S) finished third in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. before producing another Radley winner in Relish the Thought (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) who ran third in the G1 Epsom Oaks. Relish the Thought was responsible for the GII Honeymoon H. heroine and GI American Oaks runner-up My Gi Gi (E Dubai) from the family of the American Oaks heroine Gozzip Girl (Dynaformer) and the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and GI Santa Anita H.-winning sire Brocco also by Viz’s sire Kris S. Listed Coral Distaff Cont.

She added, “She has been let down mentally in the past, but she seems to have got her head round it all. She was better in France last time, but she was a bit off the pace and ran on well. She seems to have got her head together and was more professional. I think a mile is her trip. She is so settled you could probably go further.”

Falcon Eight was kept back from a tilt at the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot due to his inexperience and that was proven to be a smart move as he had to work to justify favourite under a Frankie Dettori in irresistible mood. Sporting cheekpieces for the first time after a late flourish saw him finish second in the Listed Saval Beg S. over 14 furlongs at Leopardstown May 17, the bay was happy tracking the early pace but looked to be treading water for a while in the straight as Mekong took over. Never letting that rival out of his grip, the homebred forced his head in front in the shade of the post in another memorable Dettori-Moore battle.

Falcon Eight, who was also third in the G3 Loughbrown S. over two miles at Naas in September, becomes the fifth black-type winner for Polished Gem whose G1 Prince of Wales’s S.-winning son Free Eagle is having his first runners this year and is showing promising early signs. Also responsible for the seven-times group-winning Custom Cut and the triple group scorer Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}), she is a full-sister to the GI Matriarch S heroine DressTo Thrill (Ire). Both are out of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner (Affirmed), while the third dam Talking Picture (Speak John) landed the GI Matron S. and GI Spinaway S. Her descendants include the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G1 Sydney Cup hero Gallante (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Polished Gem’s 3-year-old filly Search For a Song (Ire), also by Galileo, was runner-up in the recent Listed Naas Oaks Trial, while she also has an unraced 2-year-old filly by the same sire named Amma Grace (Ire) and a yearling Colt again by Galileo. Nudged along at the top of the straight, the 1-2 favourite came under increased pressure inside the final quarter mile and was driven out to deny Grassard (GB) (Casamento (Ire)) by 3/4-of-a-length nearing the line. Coming under pressure to challenge approaching the final quarter mile, the crowd’s 3-1 pick was resolute once in front and driven out to assert by 2 1/4 lengths from stablemate Punita Arora (IRE) (Sepoy (Aus)). “She ran well in a barrier trial here and [jockey] Niall [McCullagh] said she knew what she was doing,” commented trainer Jessica Harrington. “The barrier trials are a great help and the little bit of rain just took the sting out of the ground which probably helped too. In the spring we thought we had a nice bunch, but they took a bit of a dip when the weather was bad at the beginning of May. We had to sit and wait with them and now they have come back.” From a family featuring G1 Phoenix S. heroine Damson (IRE) (Entrepreneur (GB)) and G1SW sire Tiraaz (Lear Fan), the bay is the latest foal and third winner for her dam. Making smooth headway on the bridle in the straight, the 4-9 pick was shaken up to lead approaching the final eighth and was coaxed clear in the closing stages to easily account for stablemate Innisfree (IRE) (Galileo (IRE)) by 4 1/4 lengths. “He’d a few decent runs, running well in Ascot, and he did it easy,” said winning rider Donnacha O’Brien. “He was very uncomplicated today, he travelled smoothly and feels like he has a touch of class. He was still green when he hit the front, he pricked his ears and rolled around a little bit towards the fence, but he has plenty of ability.” Full-brother to a yearling colt, he is the first foal and winner out of G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine and G1 1000 Guineas third Tiggy Wigg (IRE) (Kodiak (GB)), herself the leading performer produced by a winning half-sister to G3 Norfolk S. victor Masta Plasta (IRE) (Mujadil). Off the radar when contesting Deauville’s Dec. 23 Listed Prix Miss Satamixa in her only prior attempt at this level, Magical Dreamer went postward for this second black-type start coming back off a May 29 eighth at Fontainebleau and a June 16 fourth at Niort last time. Under wraps in rear for the most part, the 48-1 outsider fanned wide into the straight and swooped late under continued urging to secure a career high in the dying strides.

Magical Dreamer, half-sister to a yearling colt by No Nay Never, becomes the first stakes winner for Double Fantasy (Ger) (Indian Ridge (Ire)), herself a dual-winning half-sister to G3 Burj Nahaa runner-up Zafeen Speed (GB) (Zafeen (Fr)) out of G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Dakhla Oasis (Ire) (Night Shift). WORLDWIDE NEWS

The JRHA Select Sale gets underway on Monday, with a session of 246 yearlings followed on Tuesday by 225 foals. The yearlings, along with a number of prospective buyers, shipped in to the sales ground at Northern Horse Park on Saturday but the foals, who sell alongside their dams and then return to their breeders at least until they are weaned, only arrive on Tuesday morning. Potential purchasers therefore make tours of the farms around Hokkaido in the days leading up to the sale, and with the Shadai and Northern Farm three-figure drafts dominating the consignors’ list numerically, naturally it is these two studs which have been the busiest this weekend.

Selling foals at this stage of the year in the Northern Hemisphere is not the only thing done differently in Japan. Using a system which could be quite usefully adopted elsewhere, the vendors make known their reserves ahead of the sale, while Northern Farm also provides a sheet detailing the weights and measurements (as of July 5) of its yearlings.

At Shadai, Teruya Yoshida is present to talk visitors through his band of foals along with his son and the farm’s vice president, Tetsuya. Among those paraded is a filly by Kitasan Black (Jpn), a son of Black Tide (Jpn), the stallion who is likely always to be defined by his more famous brother Deep Impact (Jpn).

Among Kitasan Black’s seven Group 1 victories are the Tenno Sho, Japan Cup and Arima Kinen, the latter achieved as his magnificent swansong in the dying days of his 5-year-old season, meaning that at the age of seven he only now has his first foals on the ground. It is a situation in the Japanese stallion ranks which, refreshingly, is the norm rather than the exception. The Kitasan Black filly in question (lot 374) is a daughter of the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) winner Erin Court (Jpn) (Durandal {Jpn}), and to emphasise further the level of support thrown at the elegant Kitasan Black by the Yoshida brothers, later at Northern Farm we see a half-brother to Japanese Hall of Famer Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) alongside his mother, the G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Donna Blini (GB) (Bertolini) (lot 338). Donna Blini’s own achievements, and those of her daughters Gentildonna and Donau Blue (Jpn) are such that this year’s Japanese Derby winner Roger Barows (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), a son of Donna Blini’s half-sister Little Book (GB) (Librettist) and a graduate of the 2016 foal sale at ¥78 million ($719,000), is mentioned almost in passing, right at the bottom of the colt’s page.

His reserve price of ¥50 million (almost $500,000) means that only serious buyers need apply, but the figure is only half that which has been put on the heads of a couple of colt foals by Deep Impact, lots 358 and 400, each being siblings to Grade II/2 winners, respectively Renee’s Titan (Bernstein) and Denim And Ruby (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). The sum of at least ¥100 million will also have to be given for three yearling colts by Deep Impact: half-brothers to Satono Crown (Jpn) (Marju {Ire}) and Lightening Pearl (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) (lot 21), and to Best Warrior (Jpn) (Majestic Warrior) (lot 123), and a full-brother to champion 3-year-old filly Mikki Queen (Jpn) (lot 51).

The 17-year-old king of Shadai is currently recuperating after a neck injury cut short his covering season and, available for viewing on Saturday, Deep Impact has no fewer than six of his sons for company in the same complex, including the G1 Dubai Turf winner Real Steel (Jpn), a brother to this season’s G1 Yushun Himba winner Loves Only You (Jpn), who was herself a ¥160 million ($1.47 million) JRHA Select Yearling Sale graduate in 2017.

While Deep Impact, with 29 youngsters in the sale, is in his twilight years, one stallion whose name will not be seen again in the first generation of Select Sale horses after this week is the redoubtable King Kamehameha (Jpn). Now 18, the son of Kingmambo was munching quietly in the shade of his paddock on Saturday having been pensioned in 2018, meaning that his six foals to sell on Tuesday are among the last to be offered. They include a colt out of the G1 Spinaway S. winner So Many Ways (Sightseeing) (lot 411). King Kamehameha’s son and stud-mate Lord Kanaloa (Jpn)—sire of the record-breaking Japan Cup winner Almond Eye (Jpn)—has been extra busy in his father’s absence this season and among his foals already on the ground and included in the sale is a filly out of another American Grade 1 winner, Ticker Tape (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) (lot 409).

Meanwhile, another son, the dual Classic winner Duramente (Jpn), is represented by his first yearlings in the catalogue, including a colt out of the European champion sprinter Fleetling Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who sells as lot 364.

In its 21-year history the Select Sale has grown from a debut catalogue of 230, which sold for almost ¥5 billion, to last year’s high of 415 sold for just shy of ¥18 billion, at a record clearance rate of 89.4%. Demand has, to an extent, been driven by a healthy international buying bench, but the domestic owners more than hold their own when it comes to having a chance to ensnare one of the best of those to be offered for sale.

"We have many foreign buyers coming back for the sale but every year we feel after the sale that the Japanese buyers were stronger most of the time, so I’m not sure how happy the foreign buyers are to go home without a souvenir. The Japanese buyers are stronger than we had expected," said Teruya Yoshida, who is not just a major breeder and consignor but is also vice chairman of the JRHA.

He concurs with Goda’s assertion that buyers’ tastes are evolving. "From last year things started to change," he continued. "Traditionally, we have always sold our products as babies but people are getting used to buying as yearlings, and now we even have 2-year-old sales, so people are much more free in the way they buy the horses."

As for Japan's reputation as a cradle for the staying horse, he added, "The most important races are all at a mile and a quarter to two miles, so we prefer staying horses. But we produce many horses every year, so there is always a selection of sprinters and stayers. The Japanese programme is very varied and we have the advantage of experiencing every kind of race here—we have five-furlong races on dirt as well as middle-distance races on turf. Japanese horses are becoming stronger in every category. There has even been one [Master Fencer (Jpn)] challenging in the American Classics. Before, we never thought we could compete with American-bred horses on a dirt track but now we have more confidence to compete. Our path is good for older horses so people don’t need to worry about retiring horses too early as long as the horse is sound enough."

Of those coming from overseas to find a young horse from Japan's enviable collection of internationally purchased bloodlines, Sydney's top trainers Chris Waller and Gai Waterhouse are both making repeat visits along with Coolmore's MV Magnier, while Price Bell of Kentucky's Mill Ridge Farm is on a reconnaissance mission.

"We don't mind where a horse comes from as long as the horse is good," said Yoshida of his famed and costly global recruiting of some of the best mares off the track. In these days of an increasingly international marketplace, they are words we should all live by. (Return to p1)

DO IT AGAIN IN JULY REPEAT

by Liesl King

It took 19 years, but the Justin Snaith-trained Do It Again (SAf) (Twice Over {GB}) and Richard Fourie rewrote the record books as Do It Again became the first horse since 2000 to record back-to-back victories in the R4,250,000 G1 Vodacom Durban July.

The Twice Over gelding, carrying top weight of 60kg, fought a fierce duel with Rainbow Bridge (SAf) (Ideal World) and Gavin Lerena down the home straight to prevail by 0.4 lengths with Twist Of Fate (SAf) (Master Of My Fate (SAf)) in third a further 1.3 lengths back. The winning time was 2:15.04 on a good track.

Unfortunately the tote favourite, the Mike De Kock-trained Hawwaam (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}), became unsettled in the barriers and reared, dislodging jockey Anton Marcus. The colt injured himself slightly in the process, leading to him being scratched by the course vet.

Once the field had been reloaded and sent on their way, Fourie settled Do It Again midfield, with Lerena positioning Rainbow Bridge slightly ahead, two off the rail. Return Flight (SAf) (Pomodoro (SAf)), leading the field from the jump, set a brisk pace through the first turn and into the back straight.

Coming around the final turn, Fourie started moving the long-striding Do It Again through the field in order to give the gelding a clear run up the middle of the track. Lerena meanwhile had found the perfect gap on the rail and deftly sent Rainbow Bridge through and into the lead. With both horses drifting inward, they ended up locked in a duel in the final furlong, with neither prepared to give an inch.

It was a bobbing of heads until Do It Again proved that his 2018 win was no fluke as he slowly inched clear of Rainbow Bridge. Once in front, Fourie wasted no time in celebrating, standing in his stirrups and waving his whip in salute. After winning the 2014 Vodacom Durban July in the boardroom, Fourie was delighted to finally win the race on the racetrack. "At least I got my own victory lap this time", he quipped. Quite rightly he took full advantage of that victory lap trotting Do It Again down to the 300-metre mark while waving to the crowd, before cantering back.

Fourie was full of praise for Do It Again and said, "He is simply remarkable. He is such a smart horse. He is very intelligent and he definitely has a big-match temperament."

Snaith said he always believed that Do It Again was capable of a repeat victory despite having to carry top weight of 60kgs. "I am very sorry for Sheikh Hamdan, the owner of Hawwaam. I would have preferred to win the race fair and square, but I was never worried about my chances of winning the race," he said. "This is the best horse in South Africa."

When asked whether Do It Again could be heading overseas, Snaith replied that it could be a possibility. "If the exports open up, anything is an option. However his owners like racing in South Africa and for now we are going to have glass of champagne and enjoy the moment. Then I think we are going to put him away for a bit before getting him ready for next season." Cont. p17

Winning owners Nic Jonsson and Bernard Kantor were on hand to lead their champion in and could not contain their delight. Kantor explained that while he felt happy beyond belief, the victory was tinged with sadness after the death earlier this year of part owner Jack Mitchell. "It is however absolutely remarkable to win it twice in a row, but he is a truly special horse," he added. Do It Again, by Twice Over out of the Casey Tibbs (Ire) mare Sweet Virginia (SAf), was recording his seventh victory and his fourth Grade 1 win, taking his earnings to R8,410,000.

Hugh Bowman returned to centre stage at Randwick following a break and he was straight back in tune with Sir Elton (Your Song), the pair rocketing to an impressive win and keeping the 3-year-old’s undefeated record intact.

The top jockey took time out after the retirement of Champion mare Winx (Street Cry {Ire}) to recharge his batteries, saying he was mentally and physically drained, and enjoyed a North American holiday.

But it was back to business on Saturday and as the consummate professional he is, Bowman had his game face on aboard Sir Elton who was again untested as he strolled away with the Everest Carnival H.

"It was nice to come back on an odds-on favourite and I suppose the pressure was on to get the job done, but the horse has been in fine form," Bowman said. "He's certainly got a fine future judging by what I just felt. What I was so impressed with was the way he went forward, set up a position then came back and relaxed for me well.

He is trained at Gosford by part-owner Adam Duggan who produced him for a belated debut on his home track in May and the wait was worthwhile with Sir Elton an easy victor before demolishing a class 2 line-up at Wyong.

"Everything went smoothly and he travelled well and didn’t turn a hair on the float," Duggan said. "He got a little bit keyed up with the crowd, but you’d expect that."

Sir Elton was away well to sit outside the leader from the outside barrier and Bowman was sitting quietly at the top of the straight.

When he slipped him a little more rein, the gelding strode to the front and was far too strong over the closing 100 metres to put a space on the chasers – the best of them being Gimme Shelter (Manhattan Rain).

“He’s a great prospect and he didn’t get it all his own way there," Duggan said. “He had to do a bit of work so it was a good win. There’s more to come, I don’t really think I’ve had him that fit yet. I’m really looking forward to the future.

“I don't get too far ahead of myself, racing is a great leveller, but it is hard not to get excited about him.”

Duggan had originally tried to get Kerrin McEvoy to ride Sir Elton, but with that jockey in England he found Bowman was returning at Randwick and quickly confirmed the booking.

The pair have known each other for years through Duggan’s brother Ben, who spent time riding with Bowman when they were both under the wing of Group 1 winning trainer Ron Quinton.

“He hasn’t done much riding for me. He doesn’t do much riding where I race at, we’ve been in different circles I suppose,” Duggan told TDNAusNZ.

Pedigree Notes

A $175,000 Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale purchase, which blew Duggan’s $100,000 budget, Sir Elton is out of the Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire) mare Calpe and she is a daughter of the multiple stakes winner and G1 Galaxy H. placegetter Unison (Marauding {NZ}).

Under the second dam Zedagal (The Judge) is the former champion 3-year-old, multiple Group 1 winner and sire Zeditave and the family of the outstanding dual Group 1 winner Melito (Redoute’s Choice).

An international flavour is also present in the pedigree through Greys Inn (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), winner of the G1 Durban July H., the G1 South African Derby and the G1 South African Classic.

"I took a bloke down with me, Mark Webb, who is a very good judge of a yearling and racehorse. He's been in the industry a lot of years, training and riding," Duggan said. "I took Mark down and he put some horses on a shortlist and I got down there a couple of days before the sale. We went through them and we just kept coming back to Sir Elton. We could see he was going to be a really nice 3-year-old. He had a lot going for him. He had that good horse's presence about him which a few other people saw as well, we had to see off three or four of them."
