LUNAR ECLIPSE
Stall Wasserfreunde’s Wonderful Moon (Ger) (Sea the Moon {Ger}) was under one length behind his Henk Grewe stablemate Rubaiyat (Fr) (Areion {Ger}), and 12 lengths clear of the rest, when runner-up in last month’s G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten—Germany’s premier juvenile event—at Cologne and stepped forward to claim a stunning wide-margin victory in Sunday’s G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen, Europe’s penultimate pattern race of the season, at Krefeld. He had previously bettered a July 28 debut third over seven furlongs at Munich and graduated when upped to a mile at Cologne in his penultimate start Sept. 6. He was bustled along from the inside stall to track the leaders along the hedge in third through the initial stages of this 8 1/2-furlong test. Improving one spot before halfway, the 6-4 favourite seized control rounding the home turn and powered ever clear under mild coaxing in the straight to outclass his seven rivals by daylight for a career high. TAKING STOCK OF THE YEARLING SALES

By Amy Lynam
With the yearling sales barely behind us and the horses-in-training sales also in the rear view mirror, the catalogues for the foal and breeding stock sales have landed on desks. When they had a moment to catch their breath, six bloodstock agents took stock of the past couple of months and revealed their thoughts to the TDN below.

TDN: What was your favourite yearling that you purchased this year?

Aidan O’Ryan: I loved an Acclamation colt (lot 329) I bought at Tattersalls Ireland for Richard Fahey that cost €60,000 from Egmont Stud. He is a proper 2-year-old type in that he's strong, racy and seems early. He looks a very typical of Acclamation and I hope he’s very lucky for a very good owner of Richard’s in Phil Smith.

Alex Elliott: Lot 150 at the Arqana August Sale; a Kingman (GB) colt out of Putyball (Silver Deputy) which I bought for €220,000. There have been some outstanding Kingman yearlings sold this year and I’d like to think that this horse was up there with the best of them. He goes into training with Michael Bell and is owned by Amo Racing Ltd. Cont. p2

Amanda Skiffington: I bought two lovely Kingman (GB) colts at Deauville (lot 89 & lot 129) in August for Fiona Carmichael and it’s difficult to choose between them. One that cost considerably less was an Australia (GB) colt (lot 143) I bought at Tattersalls Ireland for €65,000. He was bought for a syndicate who I previously bought Curiosity (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) for and will go into training with Tom Clover.

Barry Lynch: I was delighted with all the purchases that I made this year, but two horses stood out. An Australia colt out of Navajo Moon (lot 395), a listed winner by Danehill, which I bought from Kildaragh Stud at Goffs for the Middleham Park Syndicate and a Dansili colt out of Queen of Ice (lot 522), a listed winner by Selkirk, that was bought at Book 1 from Cheveley Park Stud. Both are by proven stallions out of good racehorses, and will be trained by Sir Mark Prescott, which will give them a great chance of success.

David Redvers: The Galileo (Ire) filly out of Terror (lot 75) from Tattersalls Book 1. She was just too gorgeous for words. We also bought a smashing Air Force Blue colt (lot 937) who is a half brother to G3 Cornwallis S. winner Sergei Prokofiev (Scat Daddy) from Keeneland—he looks very fast indeed.

Ed Sackville: A Frankel (GB) filly (lot 414) I bought at Book 1 for 350,000 guineas. I rarely have that kind of money to spend and, to me, she was as nice a horse as I’ve ever bought. At the moment all the hype is on Kingman and I think people forget what an outstanding sire Frankel actually is.

TDN: What was the yearling that got away—purchased by someone else, that you thought was well-bought?

AOR: The one that myself, Robin and Richard would have really loved to buy was an Iffraaj (GB) colt (lot 867) from Tattersalls Book 2, again from Egmont Stud, who made 115,000gns. We all thought he was the closest thing to Ribchester (Ire) that we had seen since we saw him as a yearling at Goffs. A very good athlete that vetted well, he was just a lovely horse, but unfortunately Anthony Stroud and Godolphin obviously thought the same, so we came out second best.

AE: Lot 14 at the Goffs Orby Sale—a Free Eagle (Ire) colt out of Set Fire (Ire) who sold for €90,000 to Hugo Merry Bloodstock. I found myself a frustrated underbidder on this colt offered by the Irish National Stud. He goes into training with Andrew Balding and I think you’ll be hearing a lot about him in the future. Cont. p3

AS: I was underbidder on a beautiful Harzand (Ire) filly (lot 381) at Tattersalls Ireland. I was furious I didn't get her as I couldn't get hold of my client and had to let her go. She wasn't a 2-year-old type but could be very nice in time. Another one, more expensive this time, was the Lope De Vega (Ire) colt out of Queen Of Carthage (lot 442) at Goffs. I went to €140,000 and he made €175,000. He was very athletic with a lot of quality; I would have loved to have bought him.

BL: Lot 874 at Book 2 was a fast-looking Acclamation (GB) filly from the family of Sioux Nation (Scat Daddy) and Catch the Blues (Ire) (Bluebird). She was bred by Rathbarry Stud out of a good black-type Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) mare and made 115,000gns. Considering she was by a proven stallion and out of a black-type mare that won five races from the ages of two to five, with a rating of 98, she has a good chance to be a good one. She was bought by Anthony Stroud.

DR: I try not to worry about those too much or I'd go mad with green-eyed envy. That said, Flash Conroy pulled off a sensational pinhook when turning a 55,000 Lawman (Fr) filly into 525,000gns at Tattersalls Book 1 (lot 390). Out of the well-named Lady Gorgeous (GB), she caught Joseph O'Brien's eye. Time will tell if she was well-bought the second time around but she was a stunner.

ES: I thought the New Bay (GB) colt out of Amarillo Starlight (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) (lot 1413) was very well bought at 17,000gns by first season trainer Tom Ward at Book 3. Tom was assistant to Richard Hannon and I think he'll be a young trainer to follow.

AOR: I really liked the look of the Mehmas (Ire) yearlings. They look 2-year-old types, very strong and racy. I was also very impressed by the Twilight Son (GB)s. Again, they look 2-year-old types, strong with good minds. I was always a big fan of his sire Kyllachy (GB) as they were hardy, sound horses.

AE: Territories (Ire) is getting fast-looking horses and being by Invincible Spirit (Ire), you'd have to think he has a shot. New Bay is going to be a slower burner but I'd give him every chance.

AS: Definitely Adaay (Ire). I bought four by him and bid on several more. I went to the sales unbiased on the first-crop sires and was struck by how attractive his yearlings were.

BL: I liked the progeny of Territories and Mehmas. They look to be fast, forward types. I was lucky enough to buy a Territories colt from Cooneen Stud at Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale (lot 219). He was a solid colt that will be trained by Micheal Dods. Hopefully he will be lucky.

DR: Pride of Dubai (Aus), Kodi Bear (Ire), Shalaa (Ire), Twilight Son and Pearl Secret yearlings all looked speedy and hard to separate. If I'm honest there wasn't a real standout for me, but all these produced stock that looked like they might run.

ES: I saw plenty of nice horses by Territories and I was also impressed with Shalaa’s progeny. Both of them are sons of Invincible Spirit and so I’m sure will have a good chance of making it as stallions.

KINNAIRD SUCCUMBS TO COLIC

G1SW Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}–Ribot’s Guest {Ire}, by Be My Guest), winner of the 2005 G1 Prix de l’Opera, died after a bout of colic, Newsells Park’s Julian Dollar announced. Sold for €10,000 out of the Goffs October Sale and then for just £8,400 at two from the Doncaster Breeze Up Sale, the dam of MGSW Berkshire (Ire) (Mount Nelson {GB}) was 18.

A winner of the G2 May Hill S. as a juvenile for trainer Patrick Haslam and S. Dinsmore, the bay was purchased privately by the Jacobs family prior to her return at three. Kept with Haslam, she was the bridesmaid three times at group level in 2004, in the G3 Daffodil S., G3 Prix de Psyche and in the G2 Blandford S. At four, however, the Victor Stud-bred reached her racecourse high point, with a win in the G1 Prix de l’Opera, as well as two thirds in the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. and G2 Blandford S. earlier in the season. She retired to Newsells with a mark of 16-6-3-2 and $406,445 in earnings. Cont. p7
FIRST-SEASON SIRES WITH RUNNERS

FRANCE:

"She was a farm favourite," said Newsells Park General Manager Julian Dollar to Racing Post. "Mr. Jacobs bought her in training and she went on to win the Prix de l’Opera. That was a great day for the family and it came when they’d only recently bought Newsells, so that was a big moment.

“She started off as quite a tough cookie but became a real sweetheart and everyone here absolutely loved her. She had terrible feet and was always prone to colic—she had three colic surgeries and a cecum bypass—so we had to manage her very carefully. And yet she still toughed it out and in the last couple of years she’d been looking fantastic.”

From 11 foals—nine of racing age—she has six winners, among them the aforementioned Berkshire. She also produced SW Abdon (GB) (Cacique {Ire}) and GSP 450,000gns yearling Ben Vrackie (GB) (Frankel {GB}). However, her first foal has the opportunity to make the longest lasting impact on the breed, as the Red Ransom filly Keenes Royale (GB) counts MGSW & MG1SP sire Iwwood (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) among her offspring. Farther back in her female family is MG1SW Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), as well as G1SW Ridasinya (Fr) (Motivator {GB}). Kinnaird leaves behind Oasis Dream (GB) juvenile colt Kinellar (GB), who has yet to race, a Kingman (GB) yearling filly retained by Newsells, and a 2019 colt by Kodiak (GB).

LILAC BACK ON TOP IN QUEEN ELIZABETH

2017 Japanese champion juvenile filly Lucky Lilac (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) returned to the winner’s circle for the first time since her victory in the 2018 G2 Tulip Sho, when winning the G1 Queen Elizabeth Cup by 1 1/4 lengths at Kyoto on Sunday. The daughter of GI Ashland S. victress Lilacs and Lace was made the 5-1 third choice and rallied past pacesetter Crocosmia (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) for the score.

She was content to bide her time against the rails in eighth as Crocosmia opened up on the field through a half-mile in :50.30 and a mile in 1:39.50. Christophe Soumillon asked the chestnut for her best 400 metres from home and she burst through up the inside to end her victory drought. Crocosmia clung on tenaciously to second, a neck to the good of favoured Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who was another neck in front of Centelleo (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

“I was very confident when I saw how good she was in training but today she was even better,” said Soumillon, who was winning his first Group 1 in Japan in five years. “She was really concentrating and I saw she was reacting very fast. In the race, I would have preferred to have her another position closer, the pace was not very fast so I thought it would be a little bit hard to make up ground, but finally I took the option to stay in the inside and she really quickened well and at the 200-meter marker when I saw the gap was still open I was confident that I had won.”

A winner of the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies at two and then a winner of the Tulip Sho in her 3-year-old bow, Lucky Lilac then had the misfortune to run into ascending superstar Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). She was second and third to that foe in the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) and G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks), respectively last spring. Facing off against that subsequent Horse of the Year in the G1 Shuka Sho, she failed to stay and was ninth, before being shelved for the remainder of 2018. She returned with a second-place effort in the Feb. 24 G2 Nakayama Kinen and, after two more unplaced runs, was third last time in the Oct. 14 G2 Ireland Trophy Fuchu Himba S.

Pedigree Notes

Lucky Lilac is one of two Group 1 winners for her sire, who also has Epoca d’Oro (Jpn). Out of GISW Lilacs and Lace, Lucky Lilac is one of three winners for her dam. Japanese champion older mare Diamond Biko (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) is a half-sister to Lucky Lilac's second dam Refinement (Seattle Slew), the duo daughters of four-time Grade I winner Stella Madrid (Alydar). The Queen Elizabeth Cup victress's fourth dam is American champion sprinter My Juliet (Gallant Romeo).

By John Berry

We have ended this year’s VRC Carnival much more sanguine about the supply of high-class stamina in the Australasian breeding industry than has often seemed the case in recent years. Obviously a home-grown Lexus Melbourne Cup winner helps, with Vow And Declare (Declaration Of War {USA}) helping to consolidate the far-from-initially-obvious claims of Declaration Of War (USA) (War Front {USA}) as a star sire of stayers, coming hot on the heels of Warning’s victory in the G1 AAMI Victoria Derby and the success earlier in the year of Winning Ways in the G1 Treasury Brisbane Queensland Oaks.

Hopefully Declaration Of War will resume shuttling duties next year. Whether he does or doesn’t, though, there have still been several other stallions advertising their merit recently, none more so than Reliable Man (GB), sire of the terrific filly Miami Bound (NZ) who looked so good in completing the time-honoured G2 Wakeful S. / G1 VRC Kennedy Oaks double.

A Dual Hemisphere Career

At the outset, Reliable Man was an obvious horse to shuttle for the best of all possible reasons: he was a Group 1 winner in both hemispheres. Trained for his breeder Sven Hanson by Alain de Royer-Dupre, he was arguably France’s best 3-year-old colt of 2011, taking the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club over 2100 metres at the end of the spring and the G2 Prix Niel (beating the G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Meandre (Fr) (Slicky {Fr}) by 2l) over 2400 metres in the autumn. His 4-year-old campaign in 2012 was disappointing, notwithstanding that he finished a good fourth of 11 runners in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot, hard on the heels of So You Think (NZ), Carlton House (USA) and Farhh (GB).

Sent to join Chris Waller in Sydney, though, he rediscovered his best form, slamming a strong field headed by Dundeel (NZ), Happy Trails and Silent Achiever (NZ) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. over 2000 metres at Randwick in the style of a horse who might be able to win the Cox Plate the following spring.

Sadly that didn’t happen as it was soon apparent that Reliable Man had sustained a career-ending injury in the race.

A Mouth-Watering Stallion Prospect

Reliable Man was clearly a mouth-watering stallion prospect, over and above being a Group 1 winner in both hemispheres. One could hardly ask for a pedigree better tailored to produce a top-class sire of middle-distance horses. Along the top line, his sire Dalakhani (Ire) and grandsire Darshaan (GB) had both won the Prix du Jockey-Club, just as he did; while the next two stallions, Shirley Heights (GB) and Mill Reef (USA), had both won the Derby. On the bottom half of his pedigree, his dam On Fair Stage (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells {USA}) was a stakes-winning daughter of Fair Salinia (Ire) (Petingo {GB}) who had won the Oaks.

Westbury Stud acted quickly to secure his services and he duly began his stud career there in September 2013. Inevitably European studs were keen to stand him too, so in 2014 he joined the roster at Gestut Rottgen in Germany. (Since 2017 he has spent his European seasons in France, with Haras du Thenney hosting him last year and Haras d’Annebault doing the honours in 2019). Cont. p2

Coincidentally, when Reliable Man began covering at Westbury in September 2013, his sire Dalakhani, who had been at the Aga Khan’s Gilltown Stud in Ireland since retiring there subsequent to his 2003 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe victory, also embarked on his first Southern-Hemisphere season, shuttling to Cornerstone Stud in South Australia. Dalakhani had already produced several stars in Europe including the G1 St Leger, G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. and dual G1 Breeders’ Cup Turf hero Conduit (Ire). Latterly he has proved to have been a valuable, albeit belated, addition to the Australasian sires’ ranks, most notably producing this season’s high-class 3-year-old sprinter/miler Dalasan, successful this spring at Flemington in the G2 Danehill S. over 1200 metres and the G3 Carbine Club S. over 1600 metres.

Reliable Man has done even better and, pertinently, has time on his side to become a major influence in the antipodes (unlike his father, who had only three seasons at Cornerstone before being pensioned in 2016).

The Progeny

With his oldest European-bred offspring currently aged four, Reliable Man has already produced some smart horses up there including Erasmus (Ger) who took pole position among his father’s first crop of 2-year-olds with his 8-length victory in 2017 in Germany’s top juvenile race, the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne; Narella (Ire) who also registered a black-type juvenile victory that year, taking the G3 Steinhoff Zukunftsrennen at Baden-Baden; Akribie (Ger) who recorded her second black-type triumph when taking this year’s G3 Steinhoff Zukunftsrennen at Baden-Baden; Castelvecchio (Dundeel {NZ}) who took the G2 Spring Champion S. at Randwick; Sully (NZ) who finished third in the same race two years previously before finishing second in the G1 AAMI Victoria Derby; Belle Du Nord (NZ) who finished second in that season’s G1 Levin Classic; and Hypnos, who dead-heated for second place in the same race last season after having taken the Uncle Remus S. at Ellerslie the previous month.

One of several high-class stallions who are helping Australasian breeders to launch a counter-attack against the Northern Hemisphere-bred stayers who have enjoyed rich pickings in recent years, Reliable Man looks perfectly placed to help New Zealand to regain its former cherished position as one of the world’s most fertile sources of high-class stamina.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER BOOK 3 CONCLUDES

by Jessica Martini
LEXINGTON, KY–The two-session Book 3 section of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale concluded Sunday with a day of lively bidding in Lexington. The book’s highest price came early in Sunday’s session when bloodstock agent Hubert Guy, bidding on behalf of John Gunther’s Glennwood Farm, went to $325,000 to acquire the unraced broodmare prospect Lark Rise (More Than Ready). The 3-year-old filly was consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales Agency on behalf of Juddmonte Farms.

A total of 500 horses sold during Book 3 for a gross of $28,481,200. The average of $56,962 was down 9.4% from the 2018 Book 3 average of $62,878, while the median of $45,000 was down 10% from last year’s figure of $50,000.

In the 2018 Book 3 section, 520 horses sold for $32,696,500. The book’s top price was $320,000, which was one of 19 to sell for $200,000 or over during the two sessions. Nine reached that mark in the 2019 Book 3.

THREE HORSES BREAK DOWN SUNDAY AT DEL MAR

After a fatality-free summer racing meet at Del Mar, three horses broke down during Sunday’s card on opening weekend at the seaside oval, resulting in at least two deaths.

First, ERJ Racing and Lerner Racing’s Princess Dorian (Idiot Proof) was eased and pulled up nearing the stretch in the day’s second race, an $8,000 claimer. According to Del Mar’s official Twitter account, the 5-year-old mare, trained by Andrew Lerner, suffered an injury to her left front leg and was transported to San Luis Rey Equine Hospital for further care.

In the very next race, 3-year-old gelding Ghost Street (Ghostzapper) was pulled up out of a maiden special weight on the turf with a catastrophic injury to his left front sesamoid and was subsequently euthanized. “We are deeply sorry for owner Aaron Sones, trainer Patrick Gallagher, his staff and everyone who cared for him,” Del Mar wrote. Cont. p13
Godolphin’s Grade I-winning juvenile Maxfield (Street Sense), who was forced to miss the GI TVG Breeders’ Cup Juvenile with a foot bruise, will be shelved for the rest of the year, trainer Brendan Walsh said.

The weanling market continued to be competitive, although selective, with pinhookers dominating Sunday’s trade. Renee Dailey purchased the day’s highest-priced weanling, going to $250,000 for a colt from the first crop of Grade I winner Connect from the Paramount Sales consignment.

Bloodstock agent Phil Hager purchased the day’s second-highest-priced weanling, a $185,000 son of Street Sense.

“It’s tough,” Hager said of the weanling market. “We bought a couple early and then we had to sit out for a few days because it got really strong. And now we’ve bought into three today. So it’s starting to soften up just a little bit, but the pedigrees are softening up a bit, too.”

Glencrest Farm’s John Greathouse purchased the day’s highest-priced weanling filly, a $160,000 daughter of Street Sense.

“It is a very healthy market,” Greathouse said. “It’s the age-old thing, if you’ve got the right horse, you’re going to get plenty of money for it. Quality sells and brings plenty of money here. I think it’s healthy. I just hope it continues into the election year, that’s the only thing I’m a little worried about.”

In all, 218 weanlings sold during Book 3 for a total of $11,601,700, an average of $53,219 and a median of $40,000. A year ago, 228 weanlings sold in Book 3 for a total of $13,917,500 for an average of $61,042 and a median of $50,000.

The result might not stand out on the sheets, but hip 1560 was still a notable offering. The weanling’s 98-year-old breeder is the legendary Ted Bassett, past Keeneland President and Trustee Emeritus. Bassett was on hand to watch the colt sell and was welcomed back by a long string of well-wishers as he sat in the pavilion ahead of the weanling’s arrival in the ring. The Summer Front colt sold for $15,000 to Equine Associates.

Gunther Strikes Early for Lark Rise

Bloodstock agent Hubert Guy, bidding on behalf of John Gunther’s Glennwood Farm, struck early in Sunday’s session of the Keeneland November sale to secure the unraced broodmare prospect Lark Rise (More Than Ready) for $325,000. The 3-year-old (hip 1525) was consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales Agency as agent for Juddmonte Farms, which had purchased her for $550,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

“[Gunther] loved the mare and he went back to Vancouver, so he asked me yesterday to bid for him,” Guy said. “I had him on the phone and he wanted her.”

Lark Rise is a daughter of Tare Green (Giant’s Causeway), a half-sister to Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes).

Tare Green is also the dam of Ocean Atlantique (American Pharoah), a 1.1-million euro Arqana May Breeze-Up purchase this year who was tabbed a ‘TDN Rising Star’ following his maiden score at Saint-Cloud in October.

“She’s a very nice mare,” Guy said. “Physically, she looks like a real quality horse. She’s got a beautiful coat and she was very well-presented by Juddmonte and Hill ‘n’ Dale. She looks like she has a great temperament and she has a good size on her, which should be great to carry babies.”

Connect Weanling Draws a Crowd

A colt from the first crop of Connect attracted a host of admiring bidders before ultimately selling to Renee Dailey for $250,000 Sunday at Keeneland. Dailey was bidding on behalf of a pinhooking partnership which will look to reoffer the youngster at next year’s Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale.

“I thought he was a very good-moving, scopey, beautiful colt who I feel still has a lot of upside for us,” Dailey said after signing the ticket on hip 1735. “I actually had Connect as a weanling and sold him in July as a yearling—he was one of the first horses I prepped. I’ve been looking for the best one and I think I got it.”

Dailey added, “He will probably go to Saratoga—that will be the plan.”

The weanling is out of Wild Hoots (Unbridled’s Song) and is a half-brother to Grade I-placed Savings Account (Medaglia d’Oro). He was bred by Dell Ridge Farm and was consigned by Paramount Sales.

Connect, who was sold through VanMeter Sales to Paul Pompa, Jr. for $150,000 at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton July sale, went on to win the 2016 GI Cigar Mile H. and GI Pennsylvania Derby. He stands at Lane’s End at a fee of $20,000.

“I’ve been looking at all of them,” Dailey said of Connect’s first crop of weanlings. “I’m very excited about the way they look as weanlings. There are a lot of them that were very desirable and I did bid on others, but I am glad I waited until now for this one. Connect had a lot of scope. He looked like a racehorse. And some very astute people bought him in July. Hopefully they’ll be around next year to look at them as yearlings. But I am very pleased with the way they look; I’m very excited about the Connect babies.”

Of the weanling market at Keeneland this week, Dailey said, “It’s very strong. It’s hard to buy. The good ones are still selling very well. That’s encouraging for us moving forward. I’ve gone very hard at a lot of weanlings this week and this is the one that I got the ‘must buy’ on.”

Street Sense Weanlings Popular Sunday

A pair of weanlings by GI Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense led the foal list throughout the early going of Sunday’s fifth session of the Keeneland November sale.

Bloodstock agent Phil Hager made a final bid of $185,000—second highest of the day for foals—to secure a weanling colt by the Darley stallion on behalf of a pinhooking partnership. The bay colt was bred by Adrian Regan and was consigned by Hunter Valley Farm.

“We are probably going to sell him next year, that’s the game plan,” Hager said. “He’s a pretty colt, so hopefully we’ll have a few options on where we want to go with him.”

Hip 1689 is out of Take a Memo (Empire Maker), a daughter of graded stakes winner Memorette (Memo {Chi}). The 10-year-old mare, with the Street Sense colt in utero, sold for $50,000 to E.M.H. Bloodstock at last year’s Keeneland November sale.

“He’s a very two-turn looking colt, with a pretty head and a nice neck,” Hager said of the weanling. “He was everything we were looking for.” Cont. p6
John Greathouse of Glencrest Farm made a final bid of $160,000 to secure the day’s highest-priced weanling filly, a bay daughter of Street Sense (hip 1594) from the Hidden Brook consignment.

“We plan to pinhook her,” Greathouse said of the weanling. “We’ve got a little group together and that’s kind of what we do at this point. But she’s a nice enough horse that we wouldn’t mind racing her either.”

The May 1 foal is out of One Look (Henny Hughes), a half-sister to graded placed Before You Know It (Hard Spun) and Instant Reflex (Quality Road).

“Everything,” Greathouse said when asked what he liked about the filly. “She is very forward for a May foal, with plenty of leg. I thought she was a nice, correct filly who will just improve. In spring when the green grass hits, I think she’s just going to get better and better.”

THE DERBY WINNER IS OUT THERE, BUT WHERE?

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton
Do you think the 2020 GI Kentucky Derby winner is among the top two dozen juveniles we’ve seen so far this year?
We’ve just gone inside the six-month mark on the countdown to the first leg of the Triple Crown, and this debate gets renewed every season as the division segues from the Breeders’ Cup into quasi-hibernation before sophomore campaigns begin in earnest.
This year, the question takes on added relevance after one of the more confounding Juveniles in Breeders’ Cup history.
Of the three morning line favorites for this year’s edition, one scratched, one stumbled badly out of the gate and finished last, and the other ran an uninspiring sixth. The Juvenile winner ended up being a 45-1 shocker who wired the field, a neck better than a 28-1 shot whose only other lifetime race was a maiden win on the turf. A 39-1 outsider picked up the pieces for third.
Pool 1 of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager (KDFW) will be announced later this month, and the currently inscrutable nature of the division could produce the lowest-priced “all others” field favorite since the KDFW was expanded six years ago to include a November betting pool (for the 1999 through 2013 Derbies, the first pool was in either January or February).
Starting with bets taken in November 2013 for the 2014 Derby, the “all others” Pool 1 field has been favored every single year. In chronological order, the odds have been 4-5, 3-5, 3-5, 6-5, 6-5 and 6-5.

In four of those years, an “all others” field bet in November produced a winning Derby ticket in May.

The exceptions were the two years when the Pool 1 field went off at 3-5 odds: Individually listed American Pharoah was 12-1 in Pool 1 for the 2015 Derby, and Nyquist was 9-1 in Pool 1 for the 2016 Derby.

It’s possible that the Pool 1 field favorite for this year’s initial KDFW offering (Nov. 28-Dec. 1) could creep down into the 1-2 odds range if the public’s perception about the chaotic Juvenile carries over into the betting marketplace.

But there’s a pari-mutuel danger in putting too much emphasis on Juvenile participants when trying to prognosticate Derby winners.

We’ve all heard the oft-repeated stat that only two Juvenile winners in the past 35 years have gone on to win the Derby (Street Sense in 2007 and Nyquist in 2016).

But the potentially more meaningful stat is that since the advent of the Breeders’ Cup in 1984, only six Derby winners even participated in the Juvenile.

Beyond Street Sense and Nyquist, the only other Juvenile participants to go on to win the Derby were Spend A Buck (1985), Alysheba (1987), Sea Hero (1993), and Mine That Bird (2009). In order, the finish positions in the Juvenile for those final four were third, third, seventh and 12th.

Grass greener for Ramsey?

Multiple Eclipse Award-winning owner and breeder Ken Ramsey began scaling back his wide-ranging bloodstock and racing activities several seasons ago because those businesses had sprawled too far out of control for his liking. But anyone who thought that the now 84-year-old entrepreneur would have a difficult time figuring out what to do with a little extra free time doesn’t know the hands-on Ramsey very well.

Ramsey, who claims to have made at least a million dollars in five separate business ventures--cellular phone franchises, real estate, radio stations, the stock market, and Thoroughbreds--is off and running in his latest start-up endeavor: Hemp and marijuana.

According to a profile penned last week by Jeff Lowe in the Kentucky business publication The Lane Report (full article here), after a starter crop of one acre last year, Ramsey is now growing 20 acres of hemp on his property adjacent to Ramsey Farm on Catnip Hill Road in Nicholasville, Kentuck, while actively investing in cannabis industry stocks.

“I didn’t grow [much] last year because I didn’t have a market like I was told to expect,” Ramsey told The Lane Report. “They changed [federal law and regulations] now, so I am selling a bunch of the horses that I’ve got. We’re downsizing for a reason. We got too big to start with, but also I am putting money in marijuana stock and I am growing hemp out there.” [Cont. p12]
According to the article, in 2015 Ramsey spent $1.86 million to buy the next-door Chaumiere du Prairie property, a historic, 175-acre spread known for extremely fertile soil.

“Back in 1804 or 1805, David Meade sent a scouting party from his plantation in Virginia to scout where they could find the most fertile land they could find, and it’s this property that I have now,” Ramsey told The Lane Report. “We have dug down [into the ground] six feet and it’s still black [soil]. There is no rock in it, no limestone in it at all. My [horse] farm has got a limestone base but not this property; it’s very fertile.

“I’ll probably start my own hemp oil factory, processing the oil and start buying hemp from other people,” Ramsey continued. “This is the next big deal: the hemp revolution. We won’t call it marijuana in Kentucky—that is its first cousin—we will call it hemp and then they are going to legalize it and we will be ready to grow it. Mark my words; that is a prediction. It’s a foregone conclusion.”

Leaderboards

A month and a half remains in the racing season, but most of the individual categories in the overall standings appear sewn up for 2019.

According to Equibase (through Saturday’s racing and based on North American starters only), the leaderboards look like this:

In the owner category, the partnership of Klaravich Stables, Inc., and William H. Lawrence have bankrolled $8.1 million in purse earnings. The next three closest competitors (Calumet Farm, Gary Barber, Hronis Racing, Inc.) are all in the $5-million range.

Karl Broberg’s End Zone Athletics, Inc., with 257 trips to the winner’s circle, appears headed for a fourth consecutive seasonal win in this category. His next two closest competitors (Ron Paolucci Racing, LLC, and Joseph E. Besecker) are tied at 169.

Right now, 110 owners have surpassed the $1-million mark in earnings. Only five have 100 wins or more.

In earnings by trainers, Chad Brown leads with $29.6 million. He’s won this category in each of the past three years. Steve Asmussen, second at $24.7 million, is the only other trainer above the $20-million mark.

Training wins are led by Broberg with 499, who has won this category every year from 2014 onward. Asmussen has 371. The only other conditioner at 200 or above are Robertino Diodoro (223), Brad Cox (204) and Brown (200).

There are 202 trainers currently above the $1-million earnings mark. There are 35 conditioners with at least 100 wins.

In jockey earnings, Irad Ortiz, Jr. ($31.5 million) leads his brother, Jose Ortiz ($26.1 million) atop the standings. They were ranked one-two in this category last year. Cont. p13
The jockey wins category is the only race up for grabs. Luis Quinonez has 277, followed by Irad Ortiz (who has won this category the last two years) at 268, Jose Ortiz at 253, and Antonio Gallardo at 247.

There are 272 jockeys above the $1-million earnings mark, and 128 jockeys have at least 100 wins.

PHAROAH SIRES JAPANESE DIRT DOUBLE

Ashford Stud’s American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) is the likely champion freshman sire after a productive Breeders’ Cup (see the latest Taking Stock by Sid Fernando), and the winners just keep coming for the 2015 American Triple Crown hero. Nile River and Danon Pharaoh (Jpn), who both struck going a mile over the Tokyo dirt Nov. 9 and 10th, respectively, became the 21st and 22nd winners for the former Zayat colorbearer. He later picked up a 23rd winner in Sunday’s nightcap at Del Mar.

Bred by Rosedown Racing Stable, LLC in Kentucky, Nile River stalked the pace in third while saving ground against the fence for much of Saturday’s contest. Tipped out at the head of the lane by Christophe Soumillon, he took dead aim on the frontrunner and forged clear to win by a half-length (video) in his first start. The son of Jeweliana (Smart Strike) races for owner Yukio Baba and trainer Hideaki Fujiwara.

Originally purchased for $235,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling by Carlo Vaccarezza, the dark bay matured into a $775,000 FTFTMAR 2-year-old after breezing an eighth of a mile in :10 flat from the Top Line Sales consignment, where he was snapped up by Katsumi Yoshida. He is the second foal and second winner for his dam after the sophomore Slippy (Malibu Moon) and is followed by a yearling full-sister. Jeweliana, who is a daughter of three-time graded winner Roshani (Fantastic Light), was covered by American Pharoah’s barnmate Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy) this spring.

Second in the slop when unveiled at Tokyo Oct. 26, Danon Pharaoh led from pillar-to-post to win by 1 1/4 lengths for Danox Co. Ltd. and trainer Yoshito Yahagi Sunday. A $350,000 in utero purchase by Katsumi Yoshida during the 2016 Keeneland November Sale, Danon Pharaoh is out of GI Santa Anita Oaks and GII Santa Ysabel S. heroine Crisp (El Corredor). He sold for ¥180,000,000 ($1,621,622) to Danox Co. when consigned by breeder Northern Farm during the JRHA Select Yearling Sale in 2018 (video). Crisp, a half-sister to SW Deer Valley (Speightstown), is from the extended family of GI Futurity S. hero and sire Whywhywhy (Mr. Greeley), as well as MG SW Spellbinder (Tale of the Cat).

Both Nile River and Danon Pharaoh were featured in Alan Carasso’s Notable US-Bred Runners in Japan column for Nov. 9-10.

Then, in race six, Saratoga West’s Prayer Warrior (Ministers Wild Cat) pulled up midway on the far turn of a California-bred allowance/optional claimer with a front leg injury. Trained by Jeff Metz, the sophomore colt was later put down, as reported by Metz’s daughter, track photographer Zoe Metz.

“[We] unfortunately lost Prayer Warrior this afternoon,” Metz wrote on Twitter. “He was loved by everyone. The barn will definitely not be the same without him.”

MAXFIELD TO GET REST OF YEAR OFF

Grade I-winning juvenile Maxfield (Street Sense), who was forced to scratch as one of the top choices in the GI TVG Breeders’ Cup Juvenile due to a minor foot bruise, will get a freshening for the remainder of 2019 and target a 2020 campaign, trainer Brendan Walsh told the Churchill notes team Sunday.

“He’ll get a break at the farm for a little while and I’ll bring him back next year,” Walsh said. “I haven’t completely mapped out a campaign next year for the [GI Kentucky] Derby. This horse can really be anything. He’s extremely special.”

Rallying from last to graduate on debut Sept. 14 in Louisville, the Godolphin homebred trailed the field again in the GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity Oct. 5 at Keeneland and inhaled his competition on the far turn en route to an impressive 5 1/2-length romp. He was listed as the third favorite on the morning line before scratching out of the Juvenile. Cont. p14
“If he even had a hair turn we were going to scratch him,” Walsh said. “He just wasn’t right so obviously we weren’t going to take any chances. Our goal with him has always been a 3-year-old campaign. I was surprised he broke his maiden like he did first out. I thought he would be the type of horse that would take some time to break his maiden.”

Walsh reported that Maxfield will likely return to his Florida base this winter.

“Leucothea was well supported to add a second stakes win to her resume and duly rewarded her backers with another convincing victory in Sunday’s Desi Arnaz S. at Del Mar. Sprinting to the front right from the start, the chestnut was soon overtaken by Biddy Duke (Bayern), who zipped through initial fractions of :22.01 and :45.24. Ready to overtake the fading pacesetter exiting the backstretch, she was clear turning for home and skipped clear late en route to another impressive success. Orquidias Biz was runner up, ahead of Stellar Sound.

“The plan was to let her go to the lead, but if something happened I could take back,” said winning rider Abel Cedillo.

Added winning trainer Peter Eurton, “It wasn't exactly the way we drew it up, we thought we'd be on the lead. I thought [Biddy Duke] could be the fly in the ointment, but [Leucothea] showed she could rate, so at the end of the day it's probably a good thing.”

A winner second out when in for $62,500 at this venue Aug. 15, Leucothea was a well-beaten eighth in the Aug. 31 GI Del Mar Debutante at seven furlongs before failing to finish after unseating her rider in Santa Anita's GI Chandelier S. Sept. 27. Granted a much cleaner trip last time, she rolled home an easy 8 1/2-length winner in the six-panel Anoakia S. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Third in her debut sprinting 5 1/2 panels at Churchill in June, Fly So Pretty stepped up to score next time at Saratoga the following month. Stretched out to a mile for her latest test in the Juvenile Fillies S. at Kentucky Downs Aug. 31, the chestnut was let go at 10-1 while cutting back to a sprint. Camped at the back of the field early, she still had a lot left to do turning for home. Taken off the rail to the outer tract by Joel Rosario for the stretch run, she picked off rivals through the lane, gained control a sixteenth out and was a half-length ahead of favored Miss J McKay at the wire. Karak rounded out the trifecta.

Joel Rosario, riding Fly So Pretty for the first time Sunday, said, "She put in a very big run at the end. I was a little bit farther back than I wanted, but it looked like they were going quicker up front. I was able save ground and when we came out, she was moving."

In regards to her disappointing effort in her stakes debut in Kentucky, Jamie Begg, assistant to Mark Casse added, "The configuration of [Kentucky Downs] is different. They have to go uphill, so sometimes it can be tough to make up ground on that course. Joel [Rosario] gave her a great ride today and she got the job done."

Fly So Pretty, who hails from the family of Grade I winner Adieu (El Corredor), has a yearling half-sister by Constitution and a foal sister by Tiznow. La Rambla visited Violence this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

UNCLE BULL (c, 3, Uncle Mo–Bullville Belle, by Holy Bull), a debut winner going 8 1/2 panels on the turf at Gulfstream in June, finished off the board in a pair of subsequent starts, including the most recent an eighth-place finish over the yielding turf here in August. Given some time on the sidelines, Uncle Bull returned to action with a three-quarter length victory in a 7 1/2-furlong turf event here Oct. 12 and was given an 8-1 chance to repeat in his main-track bow. To the front early, the bay held a comfortable advantage throughout, crossing the wire four lengths ahead of Malibu Uproar (Malibu Moon). The winner is a half to Tani Maru (Cherokee Run), MSW, $223,515; and Connect (Curlin), GISW, $1,370,000. Bullville Belle, a half-sister to GSW Native Regent (Vice Regent), also is responsible for a juvenile colt by Animal Kingdom named High Threshold and an unnamed yearling colt by American Pharoah. TAKE CHARGECHRISTY (f, 3, Take Charge Indy–Smart Timmie, by Smart Strike) made it two in a row after three slow-starting and little-factor tries last winter. Eight months away led to an Oct. 13 maiden special weight victory over this course and distance. Back here, she hopped awkwardly out of the gate in a half-rear and found herself trailing the field about eight lengths behind the leader. The dark bay began revving up on the turn, circled wide, and ground down the stretch to post a two-length win at nearly 8-1. Pace-tracking I Wonder (Arch) held second. The winner’s unraced dam has a yearling filly by Mineshaft who sold for $100,000 at Fasig-Tipton’s New York-bred sale this August, in addition to a 2019 colt by Broken Vow. She was bred back to American Freedom for next term and counts Irish champion and graded producer Minstrella (The Minstrel) as her granddam.

NETWORK EFFECT (c, 3, Mark Valeski—Sandy Key Gal, by Put It Back) came from off the pace to score in his debut going seven panels at the 2018 Saratoga meet before finishing runner-up in Aqueduct’s GIII Nashua S. later in November. Second again to close out his juvenile campaign in the Ozone oval’s GII Remsen S., he has been off since. The well-supported 6-5 choice for this return, he settled in a stalking fourth through sensible early fractions. Five wide turning for home, Network Effect overtook leading Airtouch (Tapit) a furlong from home and dug in late to remain a half length ahead of that rival at the wire. Sandy Key Gal produced a colt by Biondetti last season and was bred back to Noble Bird this term. Sales history: $95,000 2yo ‘18 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 4-2-2-0, $178,000. MISS HOT LEGS (f, 3, Verrazano—Expo Gold, by Johannesburg) pressured the early pace at 9-10, pulled alongside pacesetting Red Livy (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) coming off the turn, and abruptly moved to the lead. She held off a game finisher in Anonymously (Gio Ponti) by 1 1/4 lengths to get the five panels in a smoking :56.73. It was the chestnut’s first win over the Del Mar grass after two seconds and a third there this summer. Miss Hot Legs was last seen as runner-up in a contentious Oct. 27 allowance/optional claimer at Santa Anita after just missing the board in her only black-type try to date, Santa Anita’s Sept. 28 Unzip Me S. One of 89 winners for sophomore sire Verrazano, Miss Hot Legs is a half to unraced juvenile filly Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) and a yearling colt by the same sire who sold for $4,000 at Keeneland September. BLESS THE KITTEN (c, 2, Kitten’s Joy--Harper Grace, by Pulpit) looked to be pinched a bit at the break after coming in, then settled in the final third of the field, sitting in a clear spot on the outside behind pedestrian fractions of :24.18 and :50.68. The 3-1 choice made a bid to join the leaders on the turn and couldn’t quite catch the top two until Small Talk (Awesome Again) pulled alongside. Bless the Kitten re-rallied and flew to the wire with Small Talk glued to his outside. He won the bob by a short head.

The winner was coming off a fourth-place debut Oct. 6 at Keeneland in which he closed wide but willingly. Dam Harper Grace, who hails from the extended family of sire Stormy Atlantic (Storm Cat), 2005 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus), and this year’s GI Central Bank Ashland S. winner Out for a Spin (Hard Spun), has also produced Linburgh’s Kitten (Kitten’s Joy), SP, $146,230; and a yearling filly also by Kitten’s Joy who brought $100,000 at Keeneland September. Narrowly in front turning for home, the chestnut strode away in the lane, winning by 2 1/4 lengths over favored Complex System (Amira’s Prince {Ire}). The winner, who is a half to Diamonds R (Alternation), SW, hails from the family of GI Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming (Bodemeister). Well in front turning for home, he cruised home an easy 6 1/4-length winner over Kid Bourbon (Lemon Drop Kid).

The winner is a half to Amarish (Scat Daddy), SW & GSP, $208,519; and Daddy DT (Scat Daddy), SW & GIS, $392,748; and most notably, Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky), Ch. Installed the 8-5 choice this time, she tracked New York Supreme (Constitution) through opening factions of :22.65 and :46.72, took her aim at that rival in the stretch and got up in the final jump to nose out the 4-1 pacesetter. This is the 26th winner for her freshman sire (by Hard Spun). Myawaya, a half to More Mischief (Into Mischief), SP, $144,050, also has a yearling full brother. ROYAL ACT (c, 2, American Pharoah--True Feelings (GSP, $111,205), by Latent Heat) overcame a wide berth to triumph in his career debut at Del Mar Sunday. Quickly away from the stalls, he tracked a moderate early pace from third and continued to keep a close eye on the frontrunners until being given the cue by Rafael Bejarano approaching the quarter pole. Determined, the powerful bay forged to the front midstretch and proved best on the day, winning by a half length over Much More Halo (More Than Ready) with Special Day (Tiznow) back in third. The victory represented the 23rd winner for his freshman sire (by Pioneerof the Nile). True Feelings is a half-sister to Flirtatious (A.P. The homebred paid $24.90 for the win. A half-sister to popular MSW and MGSP Suave Jazz (Suave Propect), the winner’s dam passed away last year after leaving The Reign Man as her final foal. Sent here at 9-5, she did the opposite: after being squeezed at the start, she found a mid-pack spot and steadily moved up, picking off horses well before the turn. After sharp fractions of :21.82 and :46, she led the way home to coast under the wire three-quarters of a length the best with Choose to Be Happy (Liam’s Map) chasing.
