DESTINATION: KENTUCKY DERBY

A total of nine three-year-olds came out of Saturday's Kentucky Derby preps with tickets to Churchill Downs, and two more are on standby. Wood Memorial winner Unbridled's Song (Unbridled) came back from his easy victory in fine fettle and will fly to Kentucky Thursday. Also heading south from New York is In Contention (Devil's Bag), the Wood runner-up. Said trainer Walter Reese, "The race took something out of him, but it had to. He never carried that much weight, never ran that far, and he was running against the best he's ever run against. Up to this point, I'm happy with how he's come out of the race." Owner Robert Perez is looking for a spot in the gate on Derby Day for his Secreto de Estado (General Assembly), fourth in the Wood. "I think he ran a good race," said Perez. "It was his first time around two turns and he was short. One more jump and we get third." At Keeneland, trainer Sonny Hine said yesterday that Blue Grass winner Skip Away (Skip Trial) was "excellent" after his first-ever stakes win. Trainer Nick Zito, who saddled both Louis Quatorze (Sovereign Dancer), second, and Diligence (Miswaki), fifth, said the former is a Derby definite and that he hopes owner George Steinbrenner will also opt for the Derby with the latter. "Hopefully, we'll be able to roll the dice (with Diligence)," said Zito. "If we come up with an off track Derby Day, we'll try to fit him with (shoes) that will help him grab it." Editor's Note (Forty Niner), third as the Blue Grass favorite, will head the Team Lukas assault on Churchill as trainer D. Wayne Lukas bids for his sixth straight Triple Crown race victory. While trainer Shug McGaughey will detour off the Triple Crown trail with Blue Grass fourth Draw (Private Account), at least until the Belmont Stakes, trainer Bob Baffert is still considering a Derby try for Semorán (Phone Trick), sixth in the Blue Grass. "I'm going to work him in nine or 10 days and then decide," said Baffert. "That wasn't him (Saturday). He was just dull." The first three finishers from the GII Arkansas Derby complete the list of Saturday's Kentucky Derby prospects. Winner Zarb's Magic (Zarbyev) shipped back to Louisiana Downs Sunday; runner-up Grindstone (Unbridled) headed to Team Lukas' Kentucky camp yesterday; third-placed Halo Sunshine (Halo) also shipped to Kentucky Sunday. "Except for Unbridled's Song, the results (Saturday) left the Derby picture somewhat muddled," said his trainer, Richard Cross. "It is going to be an interesting three weeks as everything gets sorted out."

"He just did everything perfect," said winning jockey Kent Desormeaux. "He was handy all the way; pulled me around there until it was time to go. It took some effort to get by the horse (Western Winter) on the rail--he can run. It took some effort to get by him, but we were inching away late."

OVERBURY TRIUMPHANT IN HONG KONG

Overbury (Ire) (Caerleon) overcame trouble to register an otherwise comfortable success in yesterday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin racecourse in Hong Kong.

The five-year-old had traffic problems early in the straight but, given a fine ride by British champion jockey Frankie Dettori, eventually eased clear to win the $330,000 first prize by 3 3/4 lengths from New Zealand-trained Sapio (NZ) (Vice Regal {NZ}), with Privilege (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) third. The race was marred when Hong Kong's Horse of the Year, local hero Makarpura Star (NZ) (Native Kingdom {Aus}), broke a leg and was put down. Overbury, successful in the GII American Derby for Newmarket-based David Loder in 1994, is now a member of the Godolphin string, who took this race last season with Red Bishop (Silver Hawk); he was eligible to run in the restricted Sha Tin event because Dubai, where he wintered, is a member of the Asian Racing Conference.

OAKLAWN MEET ENDS ON A HIGH NOTE

Attendance and handle for the 1996 Oaklawn Park meeting were down but the Arkansas track ended on a positive note, setting a record for total handle on Saturday's closing-day card. The season's largest crowd, 58,263, wagered $4,394,989 on-track, which combined with a record off-track handle of $6,258,529 to produce the new mark of $10,653,518, topping the old standard of $8,421,888 established a week ago on the Oaklawn H. program. Oaklawn's total attendance was 787,776; the daily average of 13,267 was down 6.8 percent from 1995 and marked the track's lowest average in 25 years. On-track handle for the season was $94,138,159 for a daily average of $1,595,562, off 4 percent from last year. Off-track wagering, however, reached $161,969,345, an increase of 50 percent over the 1995 figure; boosted by the out-of-state betting, the total daily handle for the meet averaged $4,340,805, a jump of 28.7 percent. Robby Albarado bested defending champ Calvin Borel in the jockey standings with 78 winners to Borel's 69. Trainer Bobby Barnett earned his third consecutive title at Oaklawn with 29 victories.

SERENA'S SONG HEADS TO CHURCHILL

Serena's Song (Rahy), third as the favorite in the GI Apple Blossom H. Friday, flew from Arkansas to Kentucky yesterday and could make her next start in the $200,000a Louisville Breeders' Cup May 3 at Churchill Downs. "She came out of the race real good," said trainer Jeff Lukas. "She never really got into it (in the Apple Blossom), never really got comfortable in that rain and sloppy going."

Chaposa Springs, first or second in each of her last 10 races, won the Gold Beauty H. in her latest start Mar. 24. The consistent filly sprinted out for the early lead and never looked back, winning easily by 3 1/2 lengths. Jockey Laffit Pincay, Jr. said, "She stumbled a bit at the start, but she recovered and was able to make a real nice pace. She had a lot left at the end. She's very professional, a real pleasure to ride." Trainer Marty Wolfson said her next start will likely be in the GI Shuvee H. at Belmont May 25. "I still think she can be an outstanding filly going longer on the turf," the trainer added. "But we'll just have to take one race at a time."

Centennial Farm's Signal Tap (Fappiano) breezed five furlongs in 1:01 3/5 over the Hialeah turf Saturday; he will make his next start in Saturday's GIII Hialeah Turf Cup. Also expected for the Hialeah Turf Cup is Flag Down (Deputy Minister), who joined the list of starters after his misplaced nomination sheet was discovered by the Hialeah racing office.

Local News: England

Danehill Dancer (Ire) (Danehill), second to 2000 Guineas favourite Alhaarth (Ire) (Unfuwain) in last year's Dewhurst Stakes at Newmarket, is all set to take on the brilliant Dick Hern-trained colt again in this Saturday's G3 Tripleprint Greenham S. at Newbury. Pat Eddery will ride. Trainer Neville Callaghan said yesterday: "We want to send him to Newbury--Alhaarth or no Alhaarth--because we want slightly better going than we'll probably get for the Craven Stakes on Thursday. It really has been exceptionally dry here (at Newmarket) and, while we are happy with everything he has done on the gallops, we just want to find that little bit more give for his first run of the season. The Guineas is a different matter--all being well, he will run whatever ground conditions are then--but Newbury is definitely our first target."

Hern, meanwhile, is still waiting to confirm a definite decision over where Alhaarth will make his eagerly-anticipated first appearance of 1996. He underlined yesterday that he would much prefer to reintroduce last season's top-rated European juvenile at Newbury, but his continuing concerns about the weather are currently preventing him from committing himself.
