CAPE BLANCO RETIRED

Multiple Grade I winner Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Laurel Delight {GB}, by Presidium {GB}) has been retired from racing after sustaining an injury while winning Saturday's GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic

Cape Blanco
Horsephotos

Invitational S. "Cape Blanco sustained a slab fracture of his knee when winning the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. at Belmont on Saturday and will be retired from racing," said a statement from Coolmore released yesterday afternoon.

Initially raced in the colors of Derrick Smith and co-owned by Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor, Cape Blanco captured the 2009 G2 Futurity S. and G3 Tyros S. during an unbeaten 2-year-old campaign. After defeating subsequent Epsom Derby hero Workforce (GB) (King's Best) by 3 1/4 lengths in the G2 Dante S. the following May, he missed the blue riband and was unplaced in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club before annexing the G1 Irish Derby and finishing runner-up in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. He followed an emphatic 5 1/2-length victory in the G1 Irish Champion S. with another unplaced effort on his next visit to France for the Arc. Bought into by Jim and Fitri Hay during the off-season, Cape Blanco ran fourth in the Mar. 26 G1 Dubai World Cup and G1 Prix Ganay Apr. 30 and was sixth in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 14 before being sent on his first Stateside foray. After plundering the July 9 GI Man O'War S., he shipped back to add the Aug. 13 GI Arlington Million to his tally before his gutsy nose defeat of Dean's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in Saturday's 12-furlong contest. He retires with nine successes from 15 starts and over $2.5 million in prize money.

"Cape Blanco is an extremely talented and courageous horse with a tremendous attitude to his racing, so we will all be very sad to see him leave Ballydoyle," O'Brien said. "The fact that he never once changed leads in the home straight in spite of his injury just goes to prove what a brave horse he is. It is very disappointing for all the partners, especially the Hays, as we were very much looking forward to the Breeders' Cup."

Stud plans for Cape Blanco will be announced at a later date.

AWESOME FEATHER RETURNS TOMORROW

Champion Awesome Feather (Awesome of Course), unraced since running her record to a perfect six-for-six in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Churchill Downs last November, will make her return in the $60,000 Le Slew S. at Belmont Park tomorrow. With jockey Jeffrey Sanchez in the irons, she is scheduled to face four rivals in the seven-furlong test. The 3-year-old filly is 1-5 on the morning line. Bred by Jacks Or Better Farm in Florida, Awesome Feather won her first five starts at Calder while carrying the colors of her breeder. The slight 4-1 favorite in the Breeders' Cup, she scored by 2 1/4 lengths, and upped her bankroll to $1,495,746. The bay went through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton November sale and was bought by Frank Stronach for $2.3 million. Sent to trainer Chad Brown, she was forced to the sidelines by a tendon injury, and makes her first appearance for her new connections in the Le Slew. Awesome Feather has been working steadily since the end of August, most recently covering five furlongs in 1:01.09 on the Belmont training track Sept. 25. "In some of her works, you just see how easy she does things," Brown told Daily Racing Form. "It gives you a sneak peek at what's under the hood. What's under the hood is a serious racehorse. It's obvious given her remarkable record, but getting to see it for yourself, you really appreciate it."

Goldikova Fine after Foret Defeat

Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) remains on course for a fourth straight victory in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile after her reversal in Sunday's G1 Prix de la Foret. Beaten a head by Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}) in the seven-furlong contest on the Arc undercard at Longchamp, the 14-time Group 1 winner was reported to have emerged from that contest with no problems and is set to turn up at Churchill Downs Nov. 5. Pierre-Yves Bureau, racing manager to the Wertheimer brothers, told PA Sport, "She is okay this morning. Goldikova was very brave and still ran very well, so as long as she is okay the plan is still to go to the Breeders' Cup. We know she likes racing in America--the fast ground and the fast pace suits her well, so let's hope she can produce her best on what will be her final race."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Star Added to Dewhurst Field

Connections of the impressive recent maiden winner Spiritual Star (Ire) (Soviet Star) have paid a £20,000 supplementary fee to add the colt to Saturday's G1 Dubai Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. Successful by six lengths over the same course and distance Sept. 23, the Andrew Balding trainee races in the colors of Thurloe Thoroughbreds.

"Spiritual Star won very nicely at Newmarket and he looked like a potentially smart horse in the making," Thurloe's syndicate manager James Stafford explained. "We are very thrilled with him, and we are stepping a little bit into the unknown, but Jimmy Fortune said that he deserved a go in a group race. We had the option of going to Newmarket or waiting until the [Oct. 22] G3 Horris Hill S. at Newbury and we thought that we would run him while he is in such good form."

He is an improving horse and he is very straightforward. Touch wood, everything has gone well with him so far, and we need to find out how good he is."

Aidan O'Brien has left a team of six in the seven-furlong highlight, including Michael Tabor's Sept. 10 G1 National S. hero and ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and the exciting Sept. 25 Curragh maiden scorer Nephrite (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who are also entered in the same card's G1 Emaar Middle Park S. Richard Hannon has a pair of lively contenders in the impressive Sept. 10 Listed Stardom S. winner Bronterre (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and G2 Champagne S. winner Trumpet Major (Ire) (Arakan).

"Bronterre would be high up in the pecking order of our 2-year-olds and he deserves a crack at the Dewhurst," Hannon said of the former. "I expect Aidan O'Brien will send a few over for that race, but we have been very happy with our fellow since Goodwood and, while it will be a big jump up in class, he has earned his promotion."

Also in the list is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ unbeaten Ektihaam (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and George Strawbridge's Listed Washington Singer S. winner Fencing (Street Cry {Ire}). Charles Wentworth's G2 Gimcrack S. and G2 Mill Reef S. winner Caspar Netscher (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) and the unbeaten G2 Norfolk S. hero Bapak Chinta (Speightstown) are notables. Newmarket Racecourses' Director of Racing Michael Prosser was yesterday continuing to water the Rowley Mile ahead of the inaugural Dubai Future Champions' Day.

"It is warm again today in Newmarket, with temperatures likely to peak at around 25 or 26 degrees Celsius," Prosser explained. "The heat will start to drop through the week--which is forecast to be largely dry--and by the end of it temperatures will be around 16 degrees Celsius. Therefore, the course is currently being watered and eight millimetres is being applied. If, as anticipated, we do have a largely dry week, we will again irrigate at the end of it, on either Thursday or Friday. We will be aiming for decent, fast ground--ground that is on the good side of good to firm."

Russian Tango registered a personal high when winning this event in his sophomore season closer last term and returned to this Berlin track to lift the Listed Preis von Dahlwitz in his second start of this campaign May 8. Runner-up in the June 5 G2 Grosser Preis der Badischer Unternehmen next time, he slipped to seventh in the G2 Hansa Preis at Hamburg three weeks later and was a last-out fourth in the July 31 G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich. The chestnut raced second early, but led into the first turn and maintained control thereafter. Stoked up at the top of the 500-meter stretch, he kept on resolutely under a final-quarter drive to keep the closing pack at bay.

The Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe represented one of the few low points in the dazzling career of the great Nijinsky II. This brilliant colt arrived at Longchamp unbeaten in 11 starts, having recently become the first colt since 1935 to complete the extremely demanding task of winning the British Triple Crown. Nijinsky had taken the last leg, the St Leger, not long after recovering from a severe bout of ringworm, and in the circumstances the Arc probably came too soon for Vincent O'Brien's star. The end result was a head defeat by Sassafras.

The intervening 40-odd years have seen Nijinsky make amends on several occasions. Suave Dancer, a colt by Nijinsky's son Green Dancer, took the 1991 Arc, and was followed four years later by the unbeaten Lammtarra, a colt sired by Nijinsky at the age of 24. The 2002 Arc went to another of Nijinsky's grandsons, when the Caerleon 5-year-old Marienbard defeated a couple of Derby winners.

Nijinsky's name also appears somewhere in the pedigrees of several other Arc winners, including Sakhee, Rail Link and Zarkava, and his male line was again to the fore two days ago, when Danedream stunned the crowd with her five-length victory. This rapidly improving German filly is by Nijinsky's grandson Lomitas, who was German Horse of the Year back in 1991.

Having charted Nijinsky's influence on the Arc, it wouldn't be fair to overlook the growing impact that German bloodlines have been having on the Longchamp championship in recent years. Lomitas is out of a mare by Surumu, a Deutsches Derby winner who was Germany's champion sire on six occasions and who sired Acatenango, a five-time champion sire. Surumu also sired the dam of Hurricane Run, winner of the Arc in 2005. Incidentally, it was Acatenango who sired the dams of this year's winners of the Kentucky Derby and Deutsches Derby.

King's Best, sire of the 2010 Arc winner Workforce, is out of the German-bred Allegretta, who also ranks as the dam of the 1993 winner Urban Sea, who in turn became the dam of Sea the Stars, the outstanding winner in 2009.

To get back to Lomitas, 1991 was the year this son of Nijinsky won five of his six starts, his only setback coming at the hands of Temporal in the Deutsches Derby. Lomitas went on to gain his revenge on Temporal to the tune of seven lengths in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden and he also took the G1 Europa-Preis by eight lengths. These efforts earned him an excellent International Classification rating of 131. Lomitas' record in Germany stood at nine wins and two seconds from 12 starts, but unfortunately he became the target of some cloak-and-dagger intrigue in Germany, with poison being administered to him on one occasion. He was consequently sent into exile for his own safety and spent two years in the U.S., where he became an allowance winner over a mile and an eighth at Saratoga and was second in the GII Shoemaker H. at Hollywood Park.

Consequently Lomitas didn't make his debut at stud until he was seven, in 1995. Fortunately he wasted little time in making an impact with his first 3-year-olds, to the extent that by August it was announced that Darley had purchased an interest that would allow it to send seven mares a year to Lomitas, whose book was restricted to 65 mares at Gestut Fahrhof. For the record, that first crop contained Silvano (GI Arlington Million), Sumitas (GII Knickerbocker H.) and Belenus (G1 Deutsches Derby).

28 Grade 1 winners since 2000 ... MILL RIDGE

Later crops produced two more good winners in the U.S. in Meridiana, an Oaks d'Italia winner who won the GII Orchid H., and Blue Moon, winner of the GII Buena Vista H. The message is that you ignore Danedream at your peril, should she come over to the Breeders' Cup.

Lomitas' bright start ultimately saw him transferred to join the Darley team at Newmarket in 2002, but he returned to Germany after the 2006 season, so Danedream's dam Danedrop was among the first book of mares Lomitas covered after his return to Fahrhof. Interestingly, Lomitas' five years in Britain produced only one Group 1 winner, namely the Aga Khan's Prix de l'Opera winner Shalanaya. He died in 2010, at the age of 22.

As Danedrop's name suggests, she is a daughter of the mighty Danehill. Danehill, of course, enjoyed some of his finest moments as a sire with mares from the Nijinsky line, siring Dansili, Banks Hill, Intercontinental, Cacique, Champs Elysees and Promising Lead from sisters sired by Nijinsky's grandson Kahyasi. He also sired the Prix Ganay winner Indian Danehill from a mare by Green Dancer and the champion Australian sprinter Fastnet Rock from a Royal Academy mare. Fastnet Rock is being given his chance by Coolmore to establish himself in Europe, following his eye-catching start in Australia. Cont. p6

Danehill has recently notched up his sixth consecutive broodmare sire championship in Australia and he is currently Sadler's Wells's nearest pursuer on the Anglo-Irish list, thanks largely to the efforts of such as Frankel and Maybe. Needless to say, Danehill's best daughters are highly prized, but Danedrop never made it to the races and she was sold for €17,000 soon after Danedream was weaned. Danedream herself made only €9,000 when sold as a yearling.

That said, it isn't hard to explain why she is as good as she is, or why she has made such impressive improvement during the last few months. She is a May 7 foal, so is allowed to be something of a late developer.

In addition to having a Horse of the Year as her sire and a brilliant stallion as her broodmare sire, Danedream comes from a highly distinguished female line. Her dam is a granddaughter of the outstanding broodmare Lady Berry. This daughter of Violon d'Ingres stayed well enough to defeat the males in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak over a distance of nearly two miles and she proved similarly effective as a broodmare.

Lady Berry's stakes winners featured Indian Rose, winner of the G1 Prix Vermeille, Le Nain Jaune, who took the Grand Prix de Paris during its days over nearly two miles, and Vert Amande, a Prix Ganay winner who was also third in the Arc.

Lady Berry's daughter Featherhill also excelled as a broodmare, notably producing the high-class Groom Dancer. Lady Berry's female descendants are also responsible for such Group 1 winners as Falco, Plumania and Kinshasa No Kiseki, but Danedream now has strong claims to being the best of them.

For what it's worth, Danedream's seventh dam, the Mahmoud mare Geranium, was a half-sister to Esmeralda, a top-class racemare who produced the exceptional Coronation V. This incestuously bred filly rounded off her second season in the 1949 edition of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, winning with similar panache to Danedream.

EASTERN FALL YEARLING SALE STARTS

TODAY The Fasig-Tipton Eastern Fall Yearlings Sale will be held today and tomorrow in Timonium, Maryland. A total of 535 yearlings have been catalogued for the event, which produced the 2011 GI Kentucky Oaks and GII Cotillion S. winner Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro) two years ago. Lots to watch this year include hip 80, a colt from the first of just two North American crops by champion and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero War Pass (Cherokee Run). Consigned by Warrendale Sales, Agent IV, the dark bay is a half to SW and GSP Jaramar Rain (Thunder Gulch), and to 2-year-old Harbor Mist (Rockport Harbor), who ran her record to two-for-three with a win in the Sept. 1 Anne M.

Clare S. at Saratoga. Also the subject of a major catalogue update is hip 421, a colt by Forestry, on offer from Marshall W. Silverman, agent. The bay is a half to Shared Property (Scat Daddy), who is a perfect two-for-two after taking the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity Sept. 10. Last year's topper was a Charlton-consigned colt by After Market--Christmas Strike (Smart Strike) that realized a final bid of $250,000 from Jay Em Ess Stable. The 392 lots sold in 2010 averaged $16,005, up 10.2% from 2009. The median of $5,350 was down 2.7% from the previous year. For the complete catalogue, go to www.fasigtipton.com. Gulfstream Unveils VIP Fan Experience:

Gulfstream Park has announced the launch of a VIP Fan Experience, offering racing fans behind-the-scenes access from morning training hours through to the winner's circle. With limited space, the experience is available Jan. 7, 21 and Feb. 4. The cost is $500 per couple and proceeds will go to the Gulfstream Park After-Care Program for retired Thoroughbreds. "The Gulfstream VIP Fan Experience is the equivalent of sitting in the dugout during a game at Fenway Park or Yankee Stadium, sitting on the bench during a Lakers game, or standing on the sideline during the Super Bowl," explained Gulfstream President and General Manager Timothy Ritvo. "Gulfstream offers the best racing and the biggest stars during its meet. Now fans can get inside the greatest sport in the world with this all-access opportunity. It's also a fantastic opportunity to raise money and awareness for our after-care program and our wonderful equine athletes."

Read the Footnotes to River Oaks Farm:

Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken--Baydon Belle, by Al Nasr {Fr}) has been purchased for stud duty at River Oaks Farm in Sulphur, Oklahoma, in a deal brokered by Schumer Bloodstock. The 10-year-old stallion won the 2003 GII Nashua S. and GII Remsen S., as well as the 2004 GII Fountain of Youth S. He is the sire of last year's GI Ballerina S. winner Rightly So, multiple stakes winner Make Note and stakes winners Forty Thieves, Out of Respect and Rereadthefootnotes. He previously stood at Keane Stud in New York. A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

Santa Anita Meet off to Solid Start:

Santa Anita opened its autumn meet with strong weekend figures. Saturday's card attracted a crowd of 16,013 and on-track handle reached $2,716,576. Sunday's on-track crowd of 8,027 wagered $1,784,574. "The entire racing industry in California is glad to have live racing back at Santa Anita, and we're happy that we were able to quickly re-establish our position as America's premier fall and winter racing venue," said Santa Anita president George Haines. "To be able to attract an on-track crowd of 16,000 and to handle $2.7 million on Saturday is something we expect to be able to do here at Santa Anita and we hope to build upon the success of our opening weekend and carry it through the next five weeks."

INDUSTRY INFO

TVG Inks Deals with Keeneland and Del Mar:

TVG will televise racing from Keeneland and Del Mar in high-definition and will continue to exclusively televise racing from the two tracks through 2016 under recently signed agreements. The network will remain the title sponsor of the GI TVG Pacific Classic and will assume a multi-tiered sponsorship with Keeneland. "Keeneland and Del Mar are not only two of the premier tracks in racing, but they have time and again demonstrated true leadership and commitment to the betterment of our industry," said TVG CEO Stephen Burn. "As the industry is rediscovering the importance of television, we agreed with Keeneland and Del Mar that the time is right to pursue taking televised horse racing to the next level--HD. Their commitment to TVG will be rewarded with unprecedented coverage of Keeneland and Del Mar racing on our growing television network, and we hope to move forward with other like-minded racing associations willing to make the same commitment for the betterment of the sport." Keeneland president and CEO Nick Nicholson added, "Thoroughbred racing is a majestic sport and its beauty and pageantry are best displayed through the high-definition platform. As with all sports, televised horse racing must go HD to stay relevant in the marketplace. We have invested in HD over the years and are thrilled that TVG is moving forward to pursue opportunities to bring the best product possible to our national television audience. We look forward to conveying the full radiance and beauty of Keeneland to a national audience."

Thoroughbred Horse Show Association Created:

The newly formed Thoroughbred Horse Show Association is working to develop shows specifically for Thoroughbreds in an effort to give retired racehorses experience in the show horse world as a gateway to finding new homes. "Adopting Thoroughbreds after they race is a significant issue and will become even more important if race-day medication is ended and additional racehorses need to find second careers," explained THSA founder Jan Roehl. "Our logo of a horse jumping out of a paddock symbolizes these horses are not ready to retire." The group has scheduled shows next year for Apr. 14-15 and Oct. 6-7 at the Kentucky Horse Park. Horses must be entered in shows under their registered names, allowing THSA members to follow their progress from the racetrack to the show ring via e-mail notifications. For more information, visit <http://tbhorseshow.org>.

Turf Bloggers United:

TURF, a collection of horse racing blogs from around the world will launch today at www.turfbloggers.blogspot.com, as well as on Facebook at Turf Bloggers. "Our purpose in organizing this group is to gather the best the blogosphere has to offer in regards to the coverage of horse racing, providing one site where readers can easily find select and through-provoking writing by individuals invested in sharing their love for the sport," said TURF founding member Valerie Grash. "Our members include horse owners, trainers, pedigree and bloodstock analysts, medical professionals, handicappers, fans and even professional turf writers from three continents. With such diversity, readers are guaranteed to enjoy a wide array of opinion and news from all over the racing world."

DETTORI REFLECTS ON MILESTONE Frankie Dettori was looking ahead yesterday when speaking of the achievement of riding his 500th Group 1 winner at Longchamp on Sunday. Having reached the landmark on the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero Dabirsim (Fr) (Hat Trick {Jpn}), the Italian followed up on Nahrain (GB) (Selkirk) in the G1 Prix de l'Opera for number 501 and has other targets in mind. "I'm very lucky that I work for Sheikh Mohammed and he has provided me with most of the group winners," said Dettori. "I enjoy what I do and I still want to win more. I'm on 194 Group 1 wins, so I need another six and I want to ride 1,000 races for Godolphin and I need another about 150. There is still lots to achieve, but I'm still riding well and am supported by a great stable who have supported me for 17 years. It's been a fairytale career and I'm very proud, but I haven't stopped yet."

FLANDERS FIELDS COLT TOPS STRONG

PERUVIAN SALE A colt from the third crop of leading freshman sire Flanders Fields (A.P. Indy) realized a final bid of P$44,000 from Stud Altamar to top the Haras San Pablo and Haras Los Azahares Sale of 2-year-olds last Thursday evening. Consigned by Haras San Pablo--the evening's leading consignor with an average of P$24,781--Porquenotecallas (Per) is the third foal out of Champion 2-year-old and 2003 G1 Peruvian Oaks heroine Fastway (Combsway). Stud Altamar also campaigned 2011 Group 3 winner and three-time Classic-placed Private Affair (Per) (Privately Held), runner-up against the boys in the Mar. 12 G1 international Gran Premio Asociacion Latinoamericana de Jockey Clubes e Hipodromos in Buenos Aires, and recent winner of the CTT-TOC H. in her U.S. debut at Del Mar Aug. 26. The flashy bay is from the first Peruvian crop of Flanders Fields, a stakes-placed winner out of champion Flanders (Seeking the Gold) from the family of successful South American sires Dodge (Mr. Prospector) and Choctaw Ridge (Grindstone). The stallion is already responsible for GSW Morning Mist (Per), winner of the Sept. 11 Clasico Miguel Fort Magot, SW Riscal (Per) and Catibel (Per), runner-up in the Sept. 11 Clasico Polla de Potrancas (Peruvian One Thousand Guineas).

Stud Dona Licha bought the second highest-priced 2-year-old of the evening, going to P$36,000 for Daniel (Per) (Flanders Fields), the fourth foal by SW and multiple Group 3-placed Daniela (Per) (You And I). The bay colt is a half-brother to Group 3 winner and recent U.S. import Anunciata (Per) (Apprentice), who is nearing her U.S. debut for trainer Michael Matz. The mare is currently in training at Fair Hill. Stud Ehden, led all buyers with three purchases for P$65,000. Over P$633,200 was traded, with an average price of P$19,187 for the 33 youngsters offered in the catalog.
