Was (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), third in the G3 Blue Wind S. at Naas on her 3-year-old bow May 16, stepped up markedly to win yesterday's G1 Investec Oaks in the increasingly prevalent Derrick Smith silks and collect another British Classic for Ballydoyle. Sent off at 20-1, the bay raced in third early off the moderate pace and, when sent up the rail by Seamus Heffernan approaching the quarter pole, kicked into the lead before holding off Shirocco Star (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}) to win by a neck. Cont. p6

TACKLING HISTORY

For those who place major stock in statistics, Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) has to defy the trends as he bids to complete the elusive G1 2000 Guineas-Epsom Derby double today. Since 1989, Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Nashwan (Blushing Groom {Fr}) succeeded in carrying mile Classic speed over this distance, while those to have failed read like a list of racing's who's-who since Nijinsky's great triumph for Ballydoyle in 1970. They include Wollow (Ire), El Gran Senor, Dancing Brave, Rodrigo de Triano, Pennekamp, Entrepreneur (GB), King of Kings (Ire), Golan (Ire) and Refuse to Bend (Ire), most of whom had excellent credentials going to Epsom, only to come up short. Humbling stuff for the Smiths, the Magniers and Tabors, but it is worth pointing out that only one was trained by Aidan O'Brien, and the horse in question--King of Kings--returned lame when last in the 1998 edition and never raced again. O'Brien has tried to keep his counsel on Camelot and keep the hype to a minimum, but what has escaped in the public sphere so far suggests those closely connected believe this is a colt who steps proudly in the shadows of this race's greats. That may explain why today's likely starting price will be around the 4-6 mark. Despite the manner of his flashy success in Doncaster's G1 Racing Post Trophy in October and his tough display in the May 5 Newmarket Classic, the Triple Crown aspirant is not as far clear of his peers as his odds indicate. Even stable companion Astrology (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who has eight pounds to find on the favorite on official ratings, is a threat if able to build on his impressive 11-length success in the G3 Dee S. over an extended 10-furlong trip on deep ground at Chester May 11. Cont. p3

"We are under no illusions with the Derby," Aidan O'Brien said. "We had two very special horses in High Chaparral and Galileo, and have not won it since. The race is a very difficult test of a horse. There cannot be any chink in their armor and everything has to go right on the day. With Camelot, I suppose it was always one race at a time, and we really hope if we put him to different tests he is able to pass them. He always has been a very special horse from the time he was born and we are very lucky to have him. For the future of the breed, they have to sit the exams and do the big tests. Everyone said a Montjeu had never won a Guineas and it was a big ask for him with history being very hard to change, but we are very lucky that he sat and passed that exam. History and stats aren't here for no reason and that what makes him very unique--that he went in there and performed."

Starting the Sequence...

Whereas Aidan O'Brien has saddled multiple runners in this Classic, David Lanigan is attempting to win with his first representative this afternoon. The Niarchos Family's faith in the former assistant to Sir Henry Cecil has been rewarded by the surprise package Main Sequence (Aldebaran), who followed two Newmarket handicap wins with a defeat of the highly regarded Shantaram (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and re-opposing Cavaleiro (Ire) (Sir Percy {GB}) in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial S. switched from turf to Polytrack last time May 12.

"He did his last piece of proper work on Saturday, but he's never been flamboyant and doesn't do a whole lot at home," Lanigan said. "We had wanted to go to Chester for the Dee S., but the ground was too soft there and he did everything we were hoping he would do at Lingfield. I know some people would say running on the Polytrack was an unconventional route, but the trials were run on heavier ground than usual and I think all horses run their races on Polytrack. We always thought he'd stay a mile and a half on his home work, and he's strengthened up an awful lot since his 2-year-old career. We've always thought a bit of him, so we'll see now." Cont. p4

Main Sequence will be the first to carry the famed silks to post in this race since Hector Protector was fourth in 1991.

"We have had plenty in training in England over the years and it's a question of having the right horse," the Niarchos Family's Racing Manager Alan Cooper told PA Sport. "It's not where it's trained, but whether they have the profile to participate in the race. He's a homebred on both sides and he can be traced back to Northern Trick, who won the Prix Diane in 1984 and has been a great blue hen mare. The family have supported David from the moment he left Henry Cecil. He was assistant to Henry when Light Shift won the Oaks and we've been with him from the very start."

Alan Cooper
Racing Post/Ed Whitaker

Main Sequence will have to end a 14-year wait for a winner of the Lingfield prep to follow up here, with High-Rise (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}) being the last to do so.

Winners of another notable trial, the G3 Chester Vase, have also not excelled here in recent times. Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) did go very close to pulling off the double 12 months ago, and at least stamina is not a question mark after a contender has lasted out the extended 12-furlong trip of that race formerly won by Shergar (Ire).

This year, it was staged on testing ground and Mickdaam (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) proved he had the staying power to beat a smart colt in Model Pupil (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}), with Minimise Risk (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) left trailing in last of the five runners. Previously campaigned in Dubai, Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Maktoum's Mar. 10 Listed Al Bastakiya scorer and Mar. 31 G2 UAE Derby fourth is attempting to become the first Derby winner to have raced at the Carnival.

"He had a little setback, an infection in his hock, but he's cantered for 11 days now and he's fine," trainer Richard Fahey, who is saddling his first runner in the "Blue Riband," told sportinglife.com. "He's hardly missed anything, so it's been a pretty straightforward preparation and he's grand, we're happy with him. He's 33-1 and he's got to step up on what he's done, but he'll get the trip and he tries, which always gives you a chance. They will be very different ground conditions at Epsom on Saturday to those that he encountered at a rain-sodden Chester, but I think he'll love it. He's such a good-moving horse, I think it will suit him well."

where the fourth filly home was Coral Wave (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) who later added substance to the form when taking the G3 C.L. Weld Park S.-- she did not reappear until the G3 Blue Wind S. at Naas May 16.

Only 2 3/4-lengths third in that 10-furlong prep,

Was had some improvement to find here, but drew on plenty of hidden reserves to prevail under Seamus Heffernan.

Leading from the gates, she was soon positioned in a close-up third as Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was keen under restraint in front. Traveling with ease down the hill to Tattenham Corner, the bay nipped up the fence by the long-time leader as Vow (GB) (Motivator {GB}) was committed out wide. In front passing the quarter pole, she was needing the line as Darryll Holland produced a withering effort from Shirocco Star, and it came in time to continue her stable's quest for a clean sweep of British Classics in 2012. "She has a very good pedigree and was unexposed coming into the race," Heffernan commented. "She had a little setback and came out of Naas pretty well. I had plenty of petrol to take the gap when I needed to and she's decent."

Aidan O'Brien added, "She is progressing all the time and is a filly to look forward to. She could go for the G1 Irish Oaks [at The Curragh July 22], but the lads will speak about that. Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})'s run maybe petered out a little bit at the end, so she could maybe drop back a bit in trip, and for those coming from the back it was a little bit messy. We were worried about the trip for her and at the end she was going backwards."

He continued, "She has always worked like a miler with loads of speed and she might even go back to that trip for the G1 Coronation S. [at Royal Ascot June 22]." Of the withdrawn Kissed (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), O'Brien offered, "She is a filly who hits the ground a bit and with five other fillies in, we didn't want to risk her. We declared her at the time there was rain forecast and it didn't come. I think she has a lot of possibilities, such as the G1 Prix de Diane [at Chantilly June 17] and Irish Oaks."

Shirocco Star's rider Darryll Holland said, "I don't think she was unlucky--the way the race was run, it was a bit tactical. The winner had the rail and kept outbattling me towards the end. I was pressing the button at the furlong marker, but the other horse just pulled out a bit more. I needed a better gallop and I had to be handier than I wanted to be at an earlier stage." ### Fortune Does Not Favor The Fugue...

The Fugue could be considered an unlucky loser, as she was interfered with early on as she had been in the 1000 Guineas and lost vital ground before staying on to finish at the fore. Trainer John Gosden told Racing Post, "I've never been a sore loser, but it was a messy race--an unnecessarily messy race. She was knocked back and there was no pace, so I don't know how she got as close as she did in the circumstances. She's a very brave filly."

Vow's trainer William Haggas was looking ahead to the Irish Derby with the fourth, who traveled like the winner entering the straight and had no excuses. "I thought she ran a very good race, but was not good enough on the day," he said. "Johnny [Murtagh] gave her every chance, but she didn't pick up and she ran very solid for the third race of her life. She'll be better for it and Johnny felt she didn't really like the track and that The Curragh will suit her better, so we'll go there."

A Walk in the Park...

Was's granddam Park Express (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}) captured the G1 Irish Champion S. as a 3-year-old in 1986. She achieved some success early in her career as a broodmare for Lodge Park Stud by producing Shinko

Forest (Ire) (Green Desert), who earned over $2.7 million while racing in Japan; and Dazzling Park (Ire) (Warning {GB}), a Group 3-winning filly that ran second in the G1 Irish Champion S. and third in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas in 1999. But Park Express saved the best for last with her handsome chestnut Galileo (Ire) colt foaled in 2005.

A €430,000 Goffs Orby yearling purchase by Jim Bolger, New Approach (Ire) became a champion 2-year-old and, campaigned by HRH Princess Haya at three, added victories in the G1 Epsom Derby, G1 Champion S. and G1 Irish Champion S. in 2008. With such high-quality black-type so prominent on her page, Was seemed certain to attract plenty of attention when offered at Tattersalls October as a yearling, and duly was the most expensive European yearling of 2010 at 1.2-million guineas. According to Tattersalls, her yearling full-sister is expected to be part of the Lodge Park consignment later this year.

Clinical, third behind the top-class Antara (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) in this event as a 3-year-old 12 months ago, returned to boss these rivals and earn a vital first pattern-race score for her owner/breeders. Having won three listed contests over a mile at the end of last term on the turf at Cologne and on the Polytrack at Lingfield and Dundalk, the homebred rounded off her campaign with a third in the Listed Hyde S. at Kempton in November. Breaking well to race in a prominent second as Barefoot Lady cut out the running against the rail, the grey started to assert from the three-furlong pole and was beyond recall by the time Joviality found top gear. "Sir Mark [Prescott] pointed out the instructions and it was straightforward," commented jockey Luke Morris, who like all who ride for the trainer had received a written letter from the master of Heath House outlining his expectations beforehand. "She is a tough and classy filly and I got the perfect sit all the way round. When I loosed her at the two, she picked up well and stayed on all the way to the line." Prescott added, "It was a good run last year as a 3-year-old and although she won three listed races last year, I was disappointed I couldn't get a group-race win into her. I've been lucky enough to have had many of her family and they are always straightforward horses to train. She is very sound and very honest and fights--she always delivers what she can on the gallops and on the track. I thought she was always traveling well here and, as [Cheveley Park Stud owners] Mr. and Mrs. Thompson love Royal Ascot, the aim is the [June 20] G2 Windsor Forest S."

Eight years after Passing Glance (GB) was successful in this in the famed Paul Mellon silks handed down to the Balding family's Kingsclere Stud, Side Glance emulated his sire with a gutsy effort. After two listed successes and a second in the G2 Summer Mile at Ascot last summer, the homebred beat Dance and Dance in Salisbury's G3 Sovereign S. in August and was fourth in the G1 Woodbine Mile the following month. Running too freely when beating only one home behind Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at Ascot on Champions' Day, the dark bay returned to be fifth in the Apr. 1 Listed Doncaster Mile and third in the Listed Paradise S. switched from Ascot's waterlogged track to Kempton's Polytrack last time May 2. Keen again here trapped wide, he benefitted from the tame finishing effort of the hot favorite Worthadd (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and, after being left in front with a furlong remaining, held off the charge of his old rival Dance and Dance. "He's a talented horse who probably hasn't been at his best on his last two starts," trainer Andrew Balding explained. "He did plenty wrong today, but got away with it and I would have thought we'll run in the G1 Queen Anne S. [at Royal Ascot June 19] next, as someone has to finish second or third behind Frankel."

Prix du Jockey-Club Chantilly, 3 June

FULL FIELD FOR CHANTILLY CLASSIC

Tomorrow's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly will see a maximum field of 20, with His Highness The Aga Khan looking for an eighth renewal courtesy of the unbeaten Mikel Delzangles-trained Kesampour (Fr) (King's Best). Drawn in a favorable post in five down towards the all-important inner rail, the homebred will be joined by the same owner/breeder's Lunayir (Fr)

H H the Aga Khan
Racing Post/Ed Whitaker

(Sinndar {Ire}), who will break from 15 as he bids to provide Alain de Royer-Dupre with a sixth edition. After beating subsequent G2 Prix Hocquart scorer Top Trip (GB) (Dubai Destination) in the Listed Prix Francois Mathet over this trip at Saint-Cloud Apr. 1, Kesampour returned there to inch out the re-opposing Albion (GB) (With Approval) in the 10-furlong G2 Prix Greffulhe May 5. The Apr. 8 G3 Prix la Force hero Saonois (Fr) (Chichicastenango {Fr}) was a 1/2-length away in fourth. "He won well enough last time and I think, on top of that, better ground will help on Sunday," Delzangles told Racing Post. Alongside Kirsten Rausing's progressive Albion, who will have to emulate recent winners Blue Canari (Fr) (Acatenango {Ger}), Shamardal and his son Lope de Vega (Ire) in defying a double-figure stall, Andre Fabre also saddles a runner in the Godolphin France livery in Saint Baudolino (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). Unlike his stable companion, he has been handed a major advantage exiting from stall three and he looked a colt on the rise when upsetting the Wertheimers' Sofast (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) despite suffering a troubled passage through in the G3 Prix de Guiche over nine furlongs here last time May 11. Lawman (Fr) took that race en route to glory here five years ago and Fabre's stable jockey Maxime Guyon is on his back. Frankie Dettori, who has steered four colts to success in this Classic, is hardly a negative for Albion, who has to overcome a troublesome draw in 17. He beat Lunayir in a 10-furlong conditions event on soft ground at Longchamp Apr. 19 prior to his narrow Greffulhe defeat, where he looked as if he needed a sterner stamina test.

TIME FOR WORSHIP

Two years ago, St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was on the sidelines as the Epsom Derby was being staged without him, but he returned here last year to make up for lost time when winning the

St Nicholas Abbey

G1 Coronation Cup. He is back again today, having added a G1 Breeders' Cup Turf to his resume in the interim, and is the one to beat, despite two defeats this year when given too much to do off a slow pace in the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and on testing ground in the G3 Mooresbridge S. at The Curragh last time May 7. Among his opponents is

Bjorn Nielsen's 2011 G1 St Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), who needs to get back on track after two subsequent unplaced efforts when out of his depth in the Arc and on his return in the G2 Jockey Club S. over this trip at Newmarket May 5. "He's in top order," trainer John Gosden said. "We were a bit silly going for the Arc and his run the other day was just an outing on ground he didn't like. It is about the ground with him and he likes it to be good, good-to-firm. He has such a long stride and when the ground moves under him, he doesn't like it." Brian Haggas's homebred 4-year-old Beaten Up (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) was sixth in the Sheema Classic at Meydan, but that was only his fourth career start and his first major overseas foray, so he deserves another chance. He looked one of the most exciting prospects among the late-maturing 3-year-olds when beating the subsequent impressive Jockey Club S. winner Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) by 4 1/2 lengths in the G3 St Simon S. at Newbury in October, and trainer William Haggas is keeping the faith. "He's a lovely horse and very keen to please all the time in his work," Haggas said. "He's a very genuine, solid horse and I've got nothing to work him with at home. I took him to Epsom the other day [for the 'Breakfast With the Stars' morning] and he moved very well there and had a nice stretch. He's in good form and, while the only time he's run in a Group 1 race he was disappointing, we think he is that class--it was a big step up running him in Dubai, and in hindsight I regret it."

THREE IN THE 'MIX' FOR NASSAU GLORY

Can Roxy Gap (Indian Charlie) stretch her speed? Can Inglorious (Hennessy) get back to the form that saw her win last year's Queen's Plate? Can Marketing Mix (Medaglia d'Oro) remain undefeated over Woodbine's lawn? There are plenty of questions heading into today's one-mile GII Nassau S. in Toronto, and it should be fun watching a field of seven provide some answers. Highweighted at 122 pounds--she gives Inglorious four pounds and Roxy Gap six--is the 9-5 morning-line choice Marketing Mix. The Glen Hill Farm colorbearer is one-for-one on the grass at Woodbine, having captured the third leg of Canada's Triple Tiara series--the

Wonder Where S.--in her turf debut last July. She spent the remainder of the year on grass and added wins in the GIII Pucker Up S. at Arlington in September and the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill in November, with a runner-up performance in the GI Queen Elizabeth II S. at Keeneland in between those starts. Marketing Mix kicked off her season with a win in a one-mile Keeneland allowance Apr. 11, but tired to fifth as the choice in the GII Distaff Mile S. on the Derby undercard at Churchill May 5. Eugene Melnyk's homebred Roxy Gap has been very good in her last two sprinting on the main track. A stakes winner at both two and three at Woodbine, the 4-year-old collected her first graded win in the six-furlong GIII Whimsical S. Apr. 22, then quickly doubled up in the 6 1/2-furlong GII Hendrie S. May 19. While both of those were on the main track, Roxy Gap won an allowance race on the turf here as a juvenile and should be fine making the switch over. Inglorious was Canada's sweetheart after she pulled off the Woodbine Oaks/Queen's Plate double last year. But she was badly beaten in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga in August and could do no better than third when returned to Woodbine in the GIII Selene S. Sept. 25. Off since, she ran second to Marketing Mix in that Keeneland allowance Apr. 11 under jockey Luis Contreras. "Her first race of this year was very strong," offered Contreras. "She's a very determined filly and you know she will fight right to the end. I'm looking forward to this race."

'NICOLE' & 'PAL' WHEEL BACK IN VAGRANCY

Gem Inc.'s Grade II winner Nicole H (Mr. Greeley) has been such a stalwart in New York the past few years that it seems improbable that she's made just one start at Belmont. But it's true, and now the five-time black-type winner at Aqueduct will try to remain perfect on Big Sandy in today's 6 1/2-furlong GII Vagrancy H. A 10 3/4-length allowance winner in her lone Belmont try back in September of 2010, Nicole H ran fourth to It's Tricky (Mineshaft) when attempting to defend her title in Aqueduct's GII Distaff H. Apr. 14. She comes into the Vagrancy off a close-up fourth, beaten 3/4 lengths, in the $150,000 My Juliet S. at Parx May 26, and trainer Mike Hushion said he's confident wheeling her back off a week's rest. "She ran a really good race over there," Hushion said. "I thought there would be a possibility--since she had had a nice rest before the race--that she could run back quickly. When I saw her the next day, and the day after that, with the way she came out of the race, I thought it was the thing to do." Also coming out of the My Juliet is runner-up C C's Pal (Alex's Pal), who is coupled with her Rick Dutrow Jr.-trained stablemate Smart Stride (Smart Strike). It will be the fourth straight time C C's Pal and Nicole H have lined up against each other. C C's Pal was third by a neck in the GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel in February (Nicole H was a nose ahead of her in second), and she ran a non-threatening second in the Distaff. Dutrow has reportedly entered Smart Stride as a rabbit to help set things up for C C's Pal, a pressing type, but an excessively fast pace might ultimately benefit She's Cheeky (Black Minnaloushe). The Peter Eurton-trained mare closed to be second behind the streaking Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) in the GI Madison S. at Keeneland Apr. 12.

GAME ON DUDE RETURNS IN CALIFORNIAN

Game On Dude (Awesome Again) makes his first start since a disastrous trip to Dubai in today's GII Californian S. at Betfair Hollywood Park, and will try to get back to the form that saw him win the GI Goodwood S. and run a strong second in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic last fall. A romping winner of the GII San Antonio S. in his 5-year-old unveiling in February, Game On Dude was one of America's big hopes in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan Mar. 31, but broke flat-footed, never came close to his preferred spot up front and trailed home 12th of 13. He's been working well for his return, however, most recently posting a 1:24 flat work going seven panels at Santa Anita May 27. In his lone start over Hollywood's synthetic, he was beaten a nose by stablemate First Dude (Stephen Got Even) in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup last July. Amazingly, trainer Bob Baffert, who also sends out recent GII Mervyn Leroy H. runner-up Prayer For Relief (Jump Start), has never won this race.

Morning Line (Tiznow) looked like he was going to be a force in the handicap division last year after concluding his 2010 season in brilliant style, but after registering a career-best in the GI Carter H. in April of '11, the wheels came off. Switched from Nick Zito to trainer John Shirreffs, Morning Line was making his first start in the Mervyn Leroy May 5 since finishing up the track in the GI Whitney H. last August, and made every step a winning one. A victory here could put him right back into the thick of the handicap division.

Atlantic City Penalized as Christie Pushes Gambling: Muni Credit

'At the heart of his bet is whether New Jersey's gambling houses can attract new visitors and reclaim a portion of the gamblers the city once enjoyed when it held an East Coast monopoly. Some gamblers have migrated to new casinos in Pennsylvania, Delaware and New York.'

Terrence Dopp, Bloomberg Businessweek

Larry Collmus poised for historic Triple Crown call

'If everything goes the way thoroughbred racing aficionados hope it does a week from Saturday, Larry Collmus will have the chance to provide the soundtrack to history, to make a historic call in a historic victory.'

Chad Finn, The Boston Globe

New NYRA can't be another OTB 'That a government, any government, is going to have such a huge say in the future of New York racing has a lot of people nervous, and it should.'

Bill Finley, ESPN.com

Facing horse racing's drug problem 'Yes, horse racing has a drug problem; in fact, it has several drug problems. But the most serious threats to the sport are ignorance and confusion.'

Gary West, ESPN.com

Racing & Wagering Board Goes Overboard 'While we all wait to see exactly what "New York Racing According to Governor Andrew Cuomo" turns out to be, a sneak peek of what awaits us was offered Wednesday by the New York State Racing and Wagering Board (RWB). Bob Ehalt, ESPNNewYork.com

Race-Day Medication: the View from Overseas 'The debate on the use of Lasix and other medications on race day in the United States has an inevitable "us vs. them" tone because most other racing jurisdictions around the world prohibit such drug use. In the heat of the argument, one comment keeps popping up: The Europeans are hypocritical because they use all the same drugs, just not on race day.'

CLOUDING OVER

George Strawbridge's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) gets her 4-year-old campaign underway in today's G3 Prix du Palais-Royal at Longchamp, in which she was runner-up to Sahpresa (Sahm) 12 months ago. Subsequently successful over this track and trip in the G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot in July and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville in August, she was fifth after a troubled trip in Ascot's G2 British Champions Sprint S. over six furlong when last seen in October. Among her opponents is Teruya Yoshida's Nova Hawk (GB) (Hawk Wing), who was fourth in the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches last May before running second to Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G1 Coronation S. at Ascot in June. Her form tailed off afterwards, and a return fourth in the Listed Prix de Montretout over a mile here May 3 did not inspire confidence that she can win a race of this nature. Of the 3-year-olds, Guy Pariente's homebred Kendam (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) may be able to exploit a potential weight-for-age advantage if she can reproduce her win in the G3 Prix Eclipse over six furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte in October, having failed to stay the mile when down the field in this circuit's May 13 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches.

COUNTDOWN TO THE CROWN

THE BELMONT STAKES ~ June 9th

I'll Have Another Continues to Please O'Neill...

Reddam Racing's I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) continues to please his connections as he galloped and jogged over the spacious Belmont main track Friday morning. The striking chestnut colt came onto the track around 8:30 in the newly created time slot reserved exclusively for Belmont S. contenders. "He went great," said trainer Doug O'Neill of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, who is bidding to become racing's 12th Triple Crown winner and first in 34 years. "I'll Have Another ate up everything last night, his legs are looking great and he's got great energy. I loved the way he trained out there. He's maintained his beautiful stride." I'll Have Another's gallop came one day after a near-freakish accident where a horse got loose and streaked by between the dual Classic winner and the outside rail nearing the clubhouse turn. O'Neill was thrilled by the decision from the New York Racing Association to create the restricted time slot. "Awesome," he said. "That was so cool. We got a chance to see a couple of the other Belmont hopefuls as well. They looked great out there. It was a great experience and I really appreciate Mr. [P.J.] Campo and the rest of The New York Racing [Association] people for letting us have 15 minutes of safe environment." All Belmont starters are required to be on the grounds and stabled in the stakes barn by Wednesday morning, however O'Neill was looking to move I'll Have Another and his stable pony Lava Man as early as Monday, pending permission from the stewards. "They're letting us have Lava Man there, which is great," said O'Neill. "The [horses] are used to being with their buddies. To be in a barn all by yourself ... even though he could handle it, but to have Lava Man in there, that will be cool. That's his little buddy." ### Five Sixteen Breezes Five-Eighths...

MeB Racing Stables LLC's Five Sixteen (Invasor {Arg}) tuned up for next Saturday's 'Test of the Champion' by working five furlongs in 1:00.98 over the Belmont main track for trainer Dominick Schettino. "It was good," the conditioner commented. "He did everything we asked." Third to fellow Belmont contender Street Life (Street Sense) in a Feb. 11 maiden at Aqueduct, Five Sixteen graduated by a head going nine furlongs Mar. 14 and exits a fourth in an Apr. 18 optional claimer at the Big A.

Busy Weekend Ahead...

An uncertain weather forecast will affect some, but not all of the horses who will train this morning at Big Sandy. Donegal Racing's GI Kentucky Derby third-place finisher Dullahan (Even the Score) will almost certainly breeze this morning at 8:30 regardless of the weather. Javier Castellano, who takes over from Kent Desormeaux, will be in the irons for the first time. The connections of Street Life, Atigun (Istan) and Unstoppable U (Exchange Rate) are all tentatively scheduled to breeze around 8:30 depending on the track conditions. Trainer Chad Brown indicated that Street Life would go out at 8:45, as he trains better when there is activity on the track. Unstoppable U and Atigun, both trained by Ken McPeck, are set to breeze separately, but their workouts could be pushed back to Sunday if there is moisture in the track. Trainer Michael Matz said that Union Rags (Dixie Union) would work Saturday or Sunday at Fair Hill, with the latter the more likely option. John Velazquez will journey to the Maryland facility for the workout.

A 'Live' Longshot...

Deep closers always get some extra looks in the GI Belmont S. Pundits and handicappers tend to assume that the more time a horse has to make up ground, the better. It's not always the case--like most races, pace dynamics factor heavily--but if a one-run type is going to play spoiler to I'll Have Another this year, it just might be the enigmatic

★ "TDN Rising Star"
★ Street Life (Street Sense).

The Chad Brown trainee overcame major greenness to break his maiden from out of the clouds on the stretch-out at Aqueduct Feb. 15 (video), and took the Big A's Broad Brush S. Mar. 17 (video), again winning despite himself and with no pace set-up to speak of.

Street Life didn't fare as well in the GI Wood Memorial S. Apr. 17 when he dropped as many as 14 lengths back off the early leaders before coming on to be sixth. Brown added blinkers for Belmont's GI Peter Pan S. May 12, and while Street Life was again off the screen in the opening stanzas, he flew home late to be third.

"This horse is a little sharper since I put the blinkers on," asserted Brown. "He's definitely a horse who comes from off the pace. However, in his first start with blinkers, he had a blistering pace in front of him, so I don't think it really showed how much sharper the blinkers made him since the pace was so fast. I think with an easier pace and the blinkers you're going to see the horse lay a lot closer than he has been. I'm not going to force him, but I think he'll do it naturally."

Street Life has been somewhat of his own worst enemy so far. He has shown flashes of brilliance, but clearly still has some growing up to do. Brown, who plans to give the colt one last work either today or tomorrow before the June 9 "Test of the Champion," sees the light starting to coming on.

"In those early races he switched onto his wrong lead late in the stretch. He got the job done, but he wasn't fully focused," Brown recalled. "I thought in the Peter Pan he switched leads beautifully at the quarter pole--we went back to using [jockey] Jose Lezcano on the horse, which I think was beneficial. And I thought it was his most professional effort from beginning to end."

It'll certainly be no easy task to upend the Derby and Preakness winner, but the Belmont has a history of producing wacky results, and Street Life could be the longshot peaking at the right time.

"I've been impressed with the I'll Have Another's races--as has everybody--and if anyone's going to beat the horse in the Belmont they're definitely going to have to run their 'A' race. There's no question that the horse is for real," said Brown, who will be saddling his first runner in a Triple Crown race. "Street Life certainly needs to move forward to win the Belmont, but from what I've seen in his training, I wouldn't be surprised if he took another big step in the right direction."

SALES NEWS

FASIG-TIPTON CATALOGUES 338 FOR JULY

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued a total of 338 yearlings for its Kentucky July Selected Sale at the Newtown Paddocks in Lexington. The number is an increase of 11.5% over the 303 catalogued for the 2011 event. "Despite a smaller foal crop in 2011, we have been able to grow our yearling numbers meaningfully for this year," said Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning. "In addition to more positive signs for the economy in general and for the Thoroughbred industry specifically, current graduates of The July Sale have been performing particularly well at the racetrack and in selected two-year-olds in training sales as pinhooks," Browning noted. "A recent independent industry study shows this as the #1 sale for percentage of race-winning graduates and it is second by percentage only to our Saratoga sale as the leading source for Grade I winners and stakes-winners." The front cover of the catalogue features seven Grade I winners from 2011 and 2012, part of the 23 group/graded winners from those two years. Print catalogues will be available at all Fasig-Tipton offices from June 11. The catalogue can be accessed now at the company's website located at www.fasigtipton.com.

Q AND A WITH THE BREEDERS' CUP CANDIDATES

On May 24, Breeders' Cup Ltd. announced the 22 candidates who will stand for election to the Breeders' Cup Board of Members and Trustees. There are 16 openings on the Board and each term is four years. Voting begins June 4. The bios of the 22 candidates are available in documents circulated to the voters--

Breeders' Cup foal and stallion nominators--and the TDN once again will provide additional information on the candidates' viewpoints. To that end, we posed the following question to each of the candidates, and have given them 400 words or fewer in which to respond.

Q: What do you anticipate you will be able to contribute to the Breeders' Cup's initiatives and committees and what aspects of your experiences and background will make you an asset to both?

Lucy Young-Hamilton

I have been involved in Thoroughbred racing as a breeder and owner for 35 years --most of my life. I strongly believe that the Breeders' Cup offers a great competitive mixture of U.S. and foreign Thoroughbred horses. Having served on the Breeders' Cup Board as a Trustee and as a Member since 1997, I am familiar with the organization and its challenges.

The influences of my father, William T. Young, who won four Breeders' Cup races, and my late husband, French trainer Francois Boutin, who won three Breeders' Cup races, have given me perspective of the sport. Years before my late husband won his three Breeders' Cup races, he demonstrated his belief in the future of international racing by running horses in the old Washington, D. C. International at Laurel. Truly, the Breeders' Cup has been a boon to international racing, but the reality of being a pioneer is that others follow. In today's international landscape, competition has increased from Hong Kong and Japan, as well as Europe, so leadership, imagination, and innovation are required if the Breeders' Cup is to preserve and enhance its standing.

I lived in Europe for more than two decades, so I understand how the international racing community accepted and supported the Breeders' Cup. I understand the opportunities which exist to continue growing the Breeders' Cup worldwide. I believe personal experience gives me insight into nuances of how the international perspective might differ from ours at home--and how these differences might be bridged.

Like many others on the board, I have also attempted to serve the industry through participation in other organizations. I have been on the board of Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation for 15 years. I have also been a board member of the New York Racing Association, TOBA, National Museum of Racing, and the University of Kentucky's Gluck center. I also am a member of The Jockey Club. I was on the NTRA Horse PAC for six years. Outside of racing, I have served on the boards of the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco and the American Friends of the Paris Opera and Ballet. These experiences have allowed me to understand how boards work most effectively.

The continued success of Breeders' Cup is critical to the Thoroughbred industry. I would be honored to continue serving as a Breeders' Cup Board Member.

Michael J. McMahon, McMahon & Hill Bloodstock

I have worked in the Thoroughbred industry my entire life. I was raised at McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds and worked both the family farm and the backside at the Saratoga Race Course as a teenager. My business degree from Cornell University served me well during my tenure at EQUIX Biomechanics and over the last 11 years running my own bloodstock agency, McMahon and Hill Bloodstock LLC. My wife Natanya Nieman DVM is the resident veterinarian at Winstar Farm, and we also operate Spruce Lane Farm in Versailles, KY. We own all or part of 50 horses, including 14 broodmares and 16 race horses. McMahon and Hill Bloodstock (Jamie Hill became a partner in 2011) manages seven pinhooking or racing partnerships. I currently serve on the board of TOBA and in the past I have served on the board of several industry organizations, including the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc. as president, and the Belmont Child Care Association, Inc. as vice president.

Improving the public perception of racing is my highest priority. Public perception drives media and we live in a media-saturated culture. We cannot hope to grow racing's fan base, let alone gross annual handle, when public perception is declining.

As we strive to improve the public perception of racing, the Breeders' Cup stands poised to deliver real heroes on the track, while providing much needed leadership to the industry. In 2012, the Breeders' Cup is raising the standards of racing by eliminating all raceday medication in the Juvenile Colts and Fillies races. Setting higher standards influences the public perception of racing positively and influences state racing commissions to raise the bar in their own states.

I have the time and energy to aid in this process. I am 40-years-old and I have worked tirelessly to build several successful thoroughbred businesses. I believe in a strong work ethic, honesty and an open-minded approach to problem solving. For example, while President of the NYTB, I successfully negotiated with the NY State Senate leadership to increase the NY Breeders' share of VLT revenue, a battle many assumed was hopeless. Through lobbying, grassroots support and skillful negotiation, I led NYTB to a solution that earns the New York State Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund double what it would have gained.

I am asking for your support and I would love to receive your feedback both now, and over the course of my term if elected. Please call me at (859) 879-3189 or email mike@mcmahonandhill.com. I will be glad to hear your support for my positions and I will be equally interested to hear your concerns.

Doug Cauthen, Doug Cauthen Thoroughbred Mgmt.

I am seeking re-election as a Breeders' Cup board member because I want to remain a voice that encourages and promotes the continuation of the progress which has been made over the last four years at the Breeders' Cup, particularly in staying true to the "strategic pillars" which were developed during the strategic planning process. More specifically, I believe that my input can continue to be useful while serving on the Racing and Nominations Committee, which is chaired by Clem Murphy. I can offer ideas and feedback from the perspective of a large commercial operation as well as from the perspective of the small owners and breeders who make up the majority of our industry.

My past experience of running a major breeding and racing operation helps me appreciate the tremendous capital investment made by the leading operations in our industry and their need for a viable return on that investment. But I also understand the needs of the "little guys" in our industry. I grew up working on the backstretch of River Downs, and I regularly talk to and advise small owner/breeders about what it takes to stay afloat in difficult times. So I will continue to represent the interests of all categories of stakeholders if I am re-elected.

In addition, my experience as a founding and active member of KEEP has continued to reinforce the fact that there is strength in unity--and the Breeders' Cup may be our industry's greatest opportunity for focused unity. The purpose for that unity must be to continue developing and presenting a significant event, not only for existing fans and stakeholders, but also for new fans (and gamblers) whom we must develop in order to flourish. Those new "targeted" customers should be both domestic and international. If we focus continually on "event enhancement" to the point that we truly compete with other championship events like the Masters and Super Bowl, then all ships will rise with the Breeders' Cup success.

I also serve on the Host Site committee, which is chaired by Antony Beck. I believe that developing a business-driven solution to this sometimes divisive and surely complex issue will be a major step towards the long-term success of the Breeders' Cup and our industry. Thank you for listening.

Senator Martins to Pay a Visit to Belmont:

Edited Press Release

State Senator Jack M. Martins (R - Mineola), a supporter of New York's horsemen and of economic investment and revitalization at Belmont Park, will make a visit to the racetrack Saturday. Senator Martins will be on hand to watch the Belmont S. contenders as they train over the main track between 8:30-8:45 tomorrow morning, then will take a tour of the backstretch. The tour will feature programs funded by the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, including Anna House, the backstretch childcare facility; the offices of the Backstretch Employee Service Team and the Racetrack Chaplaincy of America; the backstretch health clinic; and "La Escuelita," the language lab and communication center for the backstretch workers.

The Senator will also have the opportunity to meet the connections of Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero I'll Have Another (Flower Alley), who will attempt to become racing's 12th Triple Crown winner in the Belmont S.

"This is an exciting time for Belmont Park since, on June 9, at the 144th running of the Belmont S., I'll Have Another will attempt to become the first Triple Crown winner since 1978," Senator Martins said. "This year's stakes serves as reminder that Belmont Park, host of the final leg of the Triple Crown, has a rich history. With NYTHA's dedication, and the Thoroughbred racing tradition that Belmont has, we will be working toward capitalizing on Belmont for the benefit of the communities surrounding the Park. On Saturday, the eyes of the whole nation will be turned toward Belmont. That speaks to the enormous potential for revitalization of the area." Cont. p2

Added NYTHA President Rick Violette Jr., "We appreciate that Senator Martins is taking the time to pay Belmont Park a visit. Like being backstage on Broadway, he will have the chance to see the stars of the show--the horses--behind the scenes, and to see the hard work and dedication of the people who care for them; the stagehands--the hotwalkers, grooms and exercise riders--and the directors--the trainers. We can also show him all of the great programs that New York racing provides for the stable workers."

INDUSTRY INFO

Team O'Neill to Race Against Prostate Cancer:

Trainer Doug O'Neill will send out I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) to a shot at Triple Crown glory in next Saturday's GI Belmont S. over the track they call Big Sandy, but the California-based conditioners will test the waters himself first. O'Neill and several members of his trainer team will compete in tomorrow's inaugural "Belmont Stakes Blue Ribbon 5K Run for Prostate Cancer." Runners will finish the race on the dirt track at Belmont Park. O'Neill's brother Dennis, who selected I'll Have Another as a juvenile, is a cancer survivor, and the pair lost another brother, Danny, to the disease in 1998. The New York Racing Association (NYRA) is hosting the event, which will feature jockey Ramon Dominguez as Grand Marshal. Every year, 230,000 men are diagnosed with prostate cancer. Funds raised from the event will support NYRA's co-sponsor, Integrated Medical Foundation, which offers educational and support programs and free prostate cancer screenings.

"The Belmont Stakes Blue Ribbon Run promises to be one of the most exciting 5K Runs in the United States!" said Joanne K. Adams, NYRA's Director of Community Relations. "This will be a real test for all of the champion runners as they make their way onto the dirt track at Belmont Park." Online registration is now open. Applications are available at www.imfcares.org, or by calling the Greater Long Island Running Club at (516) 349-7646. Entry fees are $25 for those who pre-register and $30 for race-day registration. In addition to the race, registered runners will receive free admission to Belmont's "Family Fun Day" from noon to 4 p.m. on June 3. Free cancer screenings will also be available for men over 40 on Wednesday, June 6 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the office of Dr. Carlton Barnswell. Please call (516) 328-8775 for an appointment.

"Ideally, I would have been handy on him, but he broke slow and I took my chance--I thought he did exceptionally well to win from where he was in the straight," jockey William Buick said. "I knew I had a good horse underneath me, and he showed guts and determination. He's a very progressive horse who handled the track well and will definitely go up further in class." Trainer John Gosden added, "He is slow-learning, but handled the hill well and got the job done. He should hopefully come on for that and has a nice profile at the moment. He could step up to a mile and a half, so we'll look at that for Royal Ascot. He has a long way to go to be a group horse, and I'm all for taking a gradual approach." Lifetime Record: 5-3-1-0, £45,074.

TEAM VALOR BRINGS HEMINGWAY ABOARD

Barry Irwin's Team Valor International announced yesterday it has hired Michelle Whitaker Hemingway, formerly an assistant trainer in South Africa. "She will fill two gaps in our operation," said Irwin. "She will assist me in our South African program, including working the yearling sales, and she will monitor our young horses when they are in training in Ocala." A daughter of Canadian Hall of Famer Kennedy Road's trainer Clark Whitaker, Hemingway, 28, earned a degree in International Equine Marketing from Sweetbriar College in Lynchburg, Virginia before spending three years as an assistant trainer to Glen Kotzen and Joey Ramsden in South Africa. "This young lady has a wealth of experience that belies her age, and we consider this hire to be a move that will bring a great deal of cohesiveness to our international organization," added Irwin. Hemingway, married to former South African jockey Ian Hemingway, has a 21-month old son named Ray.
