A FLASHY PURCHASE FOR WEST POINT

Just five days after graduating by better than 10 lengths at Churchill Downs, Flashy Gray (f, 2, Flashy Bull--Pleasure Cat, by Cat's Career) made headlines of a different variety Tuesday at Keeneland, selling for a whopping $775,000 to the bid of West Point

Thoroughbreds and Tom Keithley at the November sale.

"It definitely caught our eye when she won by a pole last week," said Erin Finley, director of communications for West Point Thoroughbreds and daughter of the partnership's founder and president Terry Finley. "We thought about it over the weekend, and came out to see her. Physically, she's very correct. She's a big, beautiful filly. She's got good bone on her. She ran so well here at Keeneland, and then won at Churchill, so it kind of showed she's versatile on both surfaces."

Finley said the filly will be trained by Bill Mott and may start next in the Nov. 24 Gil Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs.

During yesterday's session, 279 horses sold for $7,017,200, an increase of 36.62% from a year ago. The average rose 35.15% to $25,151, while the median rose 13.33% to $17,000. Through eight sessions, 1,752 horses have grossed $137,188,800, for an average of $78,304 and a median of $35,000. Excluding last year's two record-setting dispersals, the average is up 4.54% and the median is up 9.38%.

The Keeneland November sale continues through Friday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

FRANKEL CLAIMS 2ND CARTIER HOTY TITLE

Khalid Abdullah's recently retired unbeaten "TDN Rising Star" Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was last night named Cartier Horse of the Year for a second straight year at London's Dorchester Hotel. The homebred 4-year-old also emerged victorious in the Cartier Older Horse category, and the Cartier/Daily Telegraph Award of Merit was awarded to "Team Frankel," which includes all those who contributed to the horse's development at Juddmonte Farms in Britain and Ireland, plus those assembled by Sir Henry Cecil to train him.

Frankel

"All of us at Warren Place are thrilled that Frankel's achievements this year have been recognised with him winning this most prestigious award for the second time running," commented trainer Sir Henry Cecil, who was unable to attend the ceremony. "Frankel, with his brilliance, has been a great ambassador for British racing and has captured the hearts of so many people, some of whom have never been racing in their lives. Thank you Frankel, and to everyone that has voted for him."

In the Horse of the Year category, Frankel triumphed over three-time Classic winner Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Australian superstar Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), whose unbeaten streak of 22 wins includes Royal Ascot's G1 Diamond Jubilee S., won the Cartier Sprinter award. Camelot, winner of the G1 2000 Guineas, G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Derby, held sway in the Cartier 3-Year-Old Colt award, while G1 Nassau S. victress The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) gained the Cartier 3-Year-Old Filly award. Godolphin runners dominated the juvenile categories with the unbeaten G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. and G1 Dewhurst S.-winning Godolphin earned a third prize on the night with G1 Gold Cup hero Colour Vision (Fr) (Rainbow Quest) taking the honours in the Cartier Stayers category.

"Frankel lit up all our lives with his magnificent performances in 2012 and during the previous two years," commented Cartier's racing consultant Harry Herbert. "He is the most successful horse in the 22-year history of the Cartier Racing Awards and that is no surprise given his domination of so many races. Sir Henry Cecil thinks there has never been a better racehorse and tonight we celebrate Frankel's achievements and those of the team behind him."

The Cartier Awards were established in 1991 to reward excellence in horseracing. They are determined by points earned by horses in pattern races throughout 2012, combined at the end of season with the opinions of a panel of racing journalists and votes from readers of Britain's Racing Post and Daily Telegraph.

Flashy Gray Highlights Morrison Dispersal

Flashy Gray (Flashy Bull) was consigned to the sale as hip 2471 by Gainesway as agent for the dispersal of Dolphus C. Morrison, who gave $45,000 for her at Keeneland September last fall. Trained by Lon Wiggins, whose father Hal conditioned the Morrison-bred Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) to her win in the GI Kentucky Oaks, Flashy Gray missed by a head on her Keeneland debut Oct. 5 prior to her victory beneath the Twin Spires last Thursday (video).

Flashy Gray
Keeneland photo

"She's the best racehorse I've owned," said Morrison. "She exceeded Rachel Alexandra's training times. She's extremely fast; she's sound; and she's got a tremendous, strong rear end. That was a great buy by Terry Finley. She went to a good home."

Flashy Gray was the top-priced offering from Morrison's dispersal, which sold 20 horses for a gross of $2,208,500. "I've had 35 years of great success and fun, and made a lot of money in the horse business," Morrison said. "This filly, I would have liked to have gone on and raced her. But it was time for me to sell my horses."

"She was obviously very well received, and there was strong demand for her prior to today's sale," confirmed Gainesway's Michael Heron. "She was vetted out many times and was finding her way onto many prominent buyers' lists. The market is very strong for a current race filly with ability and promise and hopefully there will be immediate returns for the buyers."

Heron added, "She had a lot of class, was very kind, nice to be around and a good mover. Her career is ahead of her and we hope it is a long and fruitful one."

Despite being offered on the second day of Book 4, Heron was not surprised by Flashy Gray's price tag.

"The currents were suggesting that a big number could be achieved," he offered. "I thought she was 400-500 [thousand], but when you have the right update at the right time and with all the promise she has, the price is not shocking and we're appreciative to all parties. It really shows the buoyancy of this market."

Heron also paid tribute to the filly's owner.

"[Morrison] and his success as a breeder added value to the horses across the board," he stated. "He was fortunate to breed as good a filly as we've seen in many years in Rachel Alexandra. I think all breeders hope to breed a horse at that level, and most people never achieve that. We sold a full-sister earlier in the sale and she went back to Stonestreet, and she's also a very valuable commodity as a racing prospect and broodmare."

WinStar Colts Prove Popular

A trio of colts from WinStar Farm's racing prospects occupied the next three spots on the price lists from Tuesday's session of the Keeneland November Sale. Michael Dubb and Jane Buchanon went to $185,000 to secure Pinball (Unbridled's Song--Pinata, by Vision and Verse). The 3-year-old New York-bred (hip 2847) has made two starts to date, most recently finishing second in a Nov. 10 maiden special weight at Aqueduct. He was purchased by WinStar for $125,000 out of the 2010 Keeneland September sale.

Dramedy (Distorted Humor--She's a Winner, by A.P. Indy), winner of that Nov. 10 race (video) in his only start to date, was purchased for a matching $185,000 by Moore Racing and CTR Stables. The 3-year-old, bred by WinStar, is a half-brother to Grade I winner Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) and a full to graded stakes placed Cal Nation.

Trainer Mark Casse signed the ticket at $180,000 for the WinStar-bred Laugh Track (Distorted Humor--Flaming Heart, by Touch Gold). Hip 2842 has won twice from five starts, most recently winning a Woodbine allowance Oct. 14.

Also bringing six figures during yesterday's session was Raison d'Etat (A.P. Indy). Selling as 2849 and from the consignment of Mill Ridge Sales, agent, the 4-year-old was purchased for $140,000 by Bluegrass Hall. Third in last year's GIII Discovery H., the son of multiple Grade I winner Sightseek (Distant View) most recently captured a July 28 optional claimer at Saratoga for his breeder Juddmonte Farms and trainer Bill Mott.

SUMMER BIRD TO JAPAN

The 2009 champion sophomore Summer Bird (Birdstone--Hong Kong Squall, by Summer Squall) has been purchased by the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association and will continue his stud career in Japan. Summer Bird had been standing at WinStar Farm and his first foals are weanlings of 2012.

Summer Bird
Horsephotos

"While we think Summer Bird has a tremendous chance to be a successful stallion, we were approached by Japanese interests with a strong opportunity that the shareholders felt they could not pass up, and ultimately voted to do," said Elliott Walden, President and CEO at WinStar. "We worked the deal out so that WinStar has the option of buying back Summer Bird at the end of his stallion career, and we'll hold money in escrow to ship him back to the United States at that time so that he can enjoy the proper retirement."

Summer Bird won the 2009 GI Belmont S., GI Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Invitational.

DETTORI FAILS TEST

Frankie Dettori faces the prospect of a mandatory six-month ban after France Galop yesterday revealed the jockey had tested positive for an unspecified banned substance. The failed test relates to Dettori's routine sample taken on the day he partnered Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) to finish second behind Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the Sept. 16 G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. France Galop's Medical Committee will stage an initial hearing next week and the authority's Stewards Committee is set to convene the following week. "On behalf of Frankie Dettori I can confirm that, as a consequence of a positive test at Longchamp on September 16 2012, he will be the subject of an inquiry by the Medical Committee of France Galop next week," said Dettori's solicitor Christopher Stewart-Moore. "In compliance with, and out of respect for, the regulations of France Galop, he will not be commenting further until the France Galop procedures have been completed."

DE KOCK OUTLINES PLANS FOR IGUGU

Reigning South African Horse of the Year Igugu (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}) arrived in Dubai Nov. 7 with 13 other Dubai World Cup Carnival hopefuls from Mike de Kock's Johannesburg-based yard. The four-time South African Group 1 winner has not raced since winning the Jan. 28 G1 J & B Met S. at Kenilworth near Cape Town, but is expected to begin to resume racing early during the Carnival. Among the Dubai possibilities for the 5-year-old mare are the Jan. 24 G3 Cape Verdi S. and Feb. 21 G2 Balanchine S., both contested at Meydan.

"Because of all the quarantine protocols, she will have been off the track for a year or more," de Kock said. "So, it's a case of getting her going again. I'll be looking at the fillies' races for her. If she's not ready for the first one [the Cape Verdi], she'll go for the second one [the Balanchine]. That will be the intermediate target for her, and then we'll be looking at a possible Super Saturday run for her and go from there."

In addition to the 10-furlong J&B Met, Igugu won the Durban July at 11 panels and the G1 Woolavington 2000. She also won the nine panel G1 SA Fillies Classic.

"She gets anything from six furlongs to 1 1/2 miles, and her optimum distance is probably around 10 furlongs," said de Kock. "A lot of this depends how she goes on the all-weather."

Igugu, who will be released from quarantine in Dubai later this month, is said to be in fine form, despite her extensive travel schedule, including a 21-day stint in quarantine in South Africa, 90 days in Mauritius and 30 days in England.

"We are pleased with her," said Stephen Jell, assistant to de Kock. "They were able to do quite a bit of work in Mauritius and England and it's just a matter of getting them all started again now and letting them get used their surroundings and the climate."

O-Hit The Board Stables. B-Equus Farm (KY). T-Wayne M Catalano.

Anna Seitz has been involved in virtually every aspect of the racing industry. The daughter of well-known horseman Fred Seitz was raised on her family's Brookdale Farm in Versailles, Kentucky where she worked with mares and foals and breaking yearlings. After graduating from the University of Notre Dame, Seitz spent time on trainer Todd Pletcher's administrative team before taking up her current position as marketing assistant and client coordinator for Fasig-Tipton. This year, Seitz assumed a new role as partner in Hit the Board Stables, the racing syndicate that owns the up-and-coming 2-year-old filly I'm Already Sexy.

Seitz helped create the racing syndicate last year in an effort to make owning a racehorse both affordable and accessible. 'I always thought it would be fun to have racehorses,' Seitz explained. 'I thought I'll probably be 50 years old before I can ever afford to buy a racehorse, then I started seeing how other people put these partnerships together and thought, well, maybe we can do this for a whole lot less money. I started asking around to some of my college and high school friends and different people that I've known to see if we could buy a horse.'

Seitz describes the 20-person syndicate comprised of lawyers, school teachers, football coaches and even a partner entering the Catholic seminary next year as 'just a bunch of fun people getting together and trying to have a good time.'

Hit the Board Stable entered last year's Fasig-Tipton October sale with the budget to purchase a reasonably priced yearling and pay for the first six months of bills.

With the help of bloodstock agent Bob Feld, about eight yearlings were selected as possible purchases. Seitz was drawn to the Ready's Image filly, having worked with her sire while employed by Pletcher.

'I worked with Ready's Image when he was a race horse and I always liked him. He was really good at two and he liked the Polytrack at Keeneland. I thought there are a bunch of young partners and new people getting into the sport, it would be good to get a yearling that we could, hopefully, run at two so that we could keep them interested and give them a little taste of racing.'

Originally thought to be out of their price range, Seitz noted that luck played a part in getting the filly.

'We thought, 'There's no way we can get her for less than $20,000,' but she got caught up in a fence before the sale and had cuts on her back legs, which I think turned some buyers off. We just took a risk with her and ended up making a pretty good choice.'

Seitz's employment at Fasig-Tipton was instrumental in helping her organize Hit the Board Stable and choose I'm Already Sexy.

'The October sale has become such a great sale for producing race horses,' she said. 'It was just perfect. I could go out and see all the horses that shipped in and I could really be around them a lot. It's nice to expose the partners to our company. I want these people to learn about Fasig-Tipton while they're learning about owning a racehorse.'

I'm Already Sexy has tallied up two wins in three starts, taking a maiden special weight over the Keeneland synthetic Oct. 5 and, most recently, a Churchill Downs allowance Nov. 8. 'We got really lucky with our first one because she's been so special to us and she's already won two races,' said Seitz. 'It's been way more than I ever imagined would happen. It's been great.'

Seitz had originally planned on purchasing one yearling for the partnership, but an increased interest in the program has expanded their stable to four 2-year-old fillies with part of the stable running for satellite Runnin Pool Stable.

Duties will include generating and tracking contracts to the farm stallions along with outside stallions for clients. This person will also assist the booking secretary from February until early July booking mares on weekends. Benefits include health and dental insurance, 401k plan, paid vacations and bonus structure. Interested applicants can submit resumes to bernie@claibornefarm.com.

As I'm Already Sexy gains increased recognition in the sport, it's becoming harder to ignore the new breed of Thoroughbred ownership. Hit the Board Stable "isn't your average horse owner who has millions of dollars and this is their side hobby after they owned some major corporation," said Seitz. The horsewoman brings an inclusive attitude to the sport, noting that "we want people to feel like they're part of this horse even if they don't have money in her. I want people to feel like they're a part of horse racing. We wanted it to be as simple and as fun as we could make it for the public."

The partnership added another filly to its stable with the purchase of My Cousin Zinny (Proud Citizen--Zinfandoll, by Sky Classic) for $45,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Timonium Sale in May.

I'm Already Sexy is currently in Florida with trainer Wayne Catalano and is aiming to make a stakes start on the turf early next year. -Justina Severni

Churchill Unveils New Trackside Derby/Oaks Seats:

Churchill Downs has unveiled a new stadium seating and hospitality section for the 2013 Kentucky Derby and Oaks. The area will include unlimited food and drink and will be located on the Clubhouse turn. Kentucky Derby and Oaks fans who have registered online at www.churchilldowns/tickets for the opportunity to purchase tickets to the 2013 renewals of those events at Churchill Downs will be contacted via e-mail Nov. 14 with details of the online offering of more than 3,000 first turn trackside seats in Section 110. Section 110 had in recent years been the location of the Trackside Village hospitality tent. Pricing for the two-day ticket package for Kentucky Derby and Oaks will range from $698 for uncovered seats to $799 for seats located under cover.

BORN TO SEA TO RATHASKER STUD

Rathasker Stud announced the addition of Born to Sea (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Urban Sea by Miswaki) to its stallion roster. His fee for 2013 has been set at €10,000, October 1st Terms. "I am delighted to stand Born to Sea for the Tsui family," said Rathasker Stud owner Maurice Burns. "He is a magnificent physical specimen, standing 16.1hands with correct limbs and a great walk." Campaigned by Christopher Tsui, the homebred is the final foal out of Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner and top broodmare Urban Sea, who is responsible for highweights

Urban Ocean (Fr) (Bering {GB}); Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells); Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells); in addition to Group 1 winners My Typhoon (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) and Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Winner of the Blenheim S. and runner-up in the G3 Killavullan S. at two, he finished second in both the G1 Irish Derby and G2 Royal Whip S. This term.

Born to Sea

"He comes from arguably the best stallion producing family of the modern era having the worlds' best stallion Galileo and world champion racehorse Sea The Stars as his brothers," said Burns. "His sire, Invincible Spirit, is proving himself as a great producer of class in his offspring. Born to Sea therefore has a terrific chance to further enhance his illustrious family."

Tsui added, "My family and especially my mother, Ling Tsui, are delighted to entrust the last son of our wonderful mare, Urban Sea, to Maurice Burns. We have been most impressed with his track record with stallions and we hope Born to Sea will be a champion stallion in years to come."

UWE OSTMANN TO RETIRE

Veteran conditioner Uwe Ostmann will retire at the end of this month, bringing down the curtain on a career which has been furnished by all of Germany's major contests, and includes the 1988 G1 Deutsches Derby triumph of Luigi (Ger) (Home Guard). Ostmann, a former champion jumps jockey, saddled over 1,500 winners and trained most of his string for Gestut Auenquelle from his Mulheim base. "I have had some fast 2-year-olds because Auenquelle keeps breeding them," Ostmann told Racing Post. "I am just as proud of the Group 1 successes and Classic wins with my 3-year-olds and older horses, such as Turfkönig, Hollywood Dream and Gonbarda." Jens Hirschberger, who until recently was the private trainer for Gestut Schlenderhan and the Ullmann family, will take over the Stall Diana yard. "We would like to thank Uwe Ostmann for many years of outstanding success," Auenquelle's Karl-Dieter Ellerbracke told the trade daily. "We have been a great team and are delighted that Jens is now available to carry on the good work." Ostmann added, "We could not have found a better man to take over."

CONTENDERS READY FOR INT'L MEET

Little Bridge (NZ) (Faltaat), victorious in last June's G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot, will launch his assault on next month's Hong Kong International races with a start in Sunday's HK-G2 Jockey Club Sprint.

A winner in the 1200-meter prep for the International meet last year, the gelding will try to improve upon a fourth-place finish in last season's G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Sprint.

Little Bridge

Following his win in the King's Stand, the 6-year-old finished an uncharacteristic 10th in Nakayama's G1 Sprinters S. Sept. 30. Jockey Zac Purton, who was aboard in Japan, partnered Little Bridge in a recent 1200-meter dirt trial Nov. 9.

"I'm happier with him than I was before he went to Japan," revealed Purton. "I thought his trial was better than the trial he had before Japan. He wasn't trying to break any records. He was out to stretch his legs and his action was good and he feels good."

Purton added, "There's still improvement there. His coat's a little bit dull and he doesn't feel like he's in top form yet, so I think this run will really bring him on. He'll be peaking for the Hong Kong Sprint in December, but I still think he'll be very hard to beat on Sunday."

Slated to face off with Little Bridge is the Caspar Fownes-trained Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who will be trying to defend his title in this year's Hong Kong Sprint. Formerly named Luck or Design, he was a closing fifth in his most recent start in the Sprinters S. Sept. 30. Also ready to run this weekend are Cerise Cherry (SAf) (Goldkeeper), who earned a recent course-and-distance win in the HK-G2 Premier Bowl for trainer Derek Cruz and Singapore raider Super Easy (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}), representing trainer Michael Freedman.

The winner of Singapore Guineas is scheduled to work at Sha Tin today under big-race pilot Olivier Doleuze. "He has settled in really well," confirmed Freedman from the Singapore Turf Club Monday. "He lost about four to five kilos on the way over and he's already put those kilos back on."

In this weekend's HK-G2 Jockey Club Cup, trainer David Ferraris wields Hong Kong's champion stayer Liberator (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), who will meet last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup hero California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}). The Australian-bred gelding won the Standard Charted Champions & Chater Cup earlier this season.

"Liberator is in good form," revealed Ferraris. "The 2000 meters is his game and he'll be very competitive on Sunday. He has two runs under his belt now; but the fact is he's carrying 5 pounds more than most of the others because he's a Group 1 winner."
