

'CAVIAR' TO FACE SIX IN WILLIAM REID

Three-time world champion sprinter Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) will face as many as six rivals at Moonee Valley Friday evening in the G1 William Reid S. The superstar will be bidding for her 24th win from 24 starts. She came off a near eight-month lay-off to annex the G1 Black Caviar Lightning S. with her usual ease Feb. 16, and is poised to tie Hall of Famer Kingston Town's record of 14 Australian Group 1 wins in the William Reid, which she won in 2011.

Among Black Caviar's challengers is G1 Oakleigh Plate H. third-place finisher Spirit of Boom (Aus) (Sequalo {Aus}), but trainer Tony Gollan is realistic of his charge's chances to take down the favorite. "[Black Caviar] is a fantastic mare and when you race against her you're generally resigned to the fact that you'll finish one place further back than where you were going to finish, because she's just so dominant," he told Sky Sports. "If you're a rival trainer with a rival horse, you'd prefer her not to be there, but she's great for racing and, if we can run second to her, that would be fantastic."

While it has been generally assumed that the William Reid would be Black Caviar's final start in Melbourne before similar farewell stops in Sydney and Brisbane, co-owner Gary Wilkie would not rule out further runs for the 6-year-old. "We haven't got that far at all," Wilkie told the Herald Sun. "It's one day at a time. We haven't even got to Friday yet. We'll see how she pulls up and go from there."

Black Caviar's stablemate Karuta Queen (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}) is also nominated to the Maurice McCarten S. at Rosehill Saturday, and could run in that spot instead of the William Reid depending on the weather.

Stuart Janney III and Phipps Stable's Orb (Malibu Moon) drilled four furlongs in :48 flat at Payson Park yesterday as he prepares for the G1 Besilu Stables Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park Mar. 30. "He worked very, very well," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "We're very pleased. He went in company with a maiden named Overwhelming (Hard Spun). They went very easy--in :48 and galloped out in 1:01. It was just perfect." Orb, who scored his third-straight victory last time in the GII Besilu Stables Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 23, is expected to have a final blow-out drill next Monday before the Florida Derby.

Caulfield on Will Take Charge

In this week's installment of "Pedigree Insights," columnist Andrew Caulfield takes a closer look at the lineage of Saturday's GII Rebel S. upsetter Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) and considers whether the son of MGISW Take Charge Lady (Dehere) could have what it takes come the First Saturday in May.

SPIRAL LIKELY TO BE OVERSUBSCRIBED

Turfway Park revealed Monday that the current list of hopefuls for its $550,000 GIII Horseshoe Casino Cincinnati Spiral S. Saturday was at 16. The field will be limited to 12 starters, determined by graded stakes earnings, then stakes earnings and career earnings. The expected entrants who would make it into the field at this point are: Uncaptured (Lion Heart), Balance the Books (Lemon Drop Kid), Mac the Man (El Corredor), General Election (Harlan's Holiday), Capo Bastone (Street Boss), Fear the Kitten (Kitten's Joy), Channel Isle (English Channel), My Name is Michael (Macho Uno), Black Onyx (Rock Hard Ten), Giant Finish (Frost Giant), Taken by the Storm (Stormy Atlantic) and For Greater Glory (Afleet Alex). Cerro (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), Red Wings (English Channel), Divine Ambition (Divine Park) and Crop Report (Medaglia d'Oro) would need defections to make it into the starting gate. Entries for the Spiral, which is worth a total of 85 points in the Road to the Kentucky Derby points system, will be taken Wednesday.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Kitten On The Run Joins Bedford House Stables...

Undefeated Kitten On the Run (Kitten's Joy), winner of the Criterium di Pisa in December, has been acquired by Bedford House Stables for a 2013 campaign. He will be trained by Luca Cumani. The 3-year-old colt was purchased privately from breeders Ken and Sarah Ramsey and had previously been trained by Gianluca Bietolini. "He's a lovely compact individual with a great temperament," said OTI Racing and Bloodstock's Terry Henderson, who brokered the deal along with agent Andy Smith. "He's not a big horse, but he's very athletic and strong. We can imagine him joining Luca's contingent on a future trip to Australia."

ELIGIBLE FOR KY BREEDERS' INCENTIVE FUND AWARDS UP TO $5,000

Some 10 years ago, I pointed out in this column that Unbridled's Song's career had mirrored that of his sire Unbridled in several ways.

Both father and son won the Florida Derby and both landed one of the highly coveted prizes on Breeders' Cup Day. The similarities extended to the early stages of their stallion careers. Both made a spectacular start, with a pair of Grade I winners, including a Breeders' Cup winner, in their first crop.

Ultimately Unbridled's death at the age of 14 in 2001 makes it harder to compare his record with that of his son, who is 20 this year. Suffice it to say that he left 12 Grade I winners and sired 8% black-type winners, while Unbridled's Song has so far sired 15 Grade I winners and has a similar percentage of black-type winners. Unbridled gave us three Breeders' Cup Grade I winners and so has Unbridled's Song, thanks to Unbridled Elaine, Unrivalled Belle and Midshipman.

One big difference, though, has been the respective records of father and son where the Triple Crown is concerned. Unbridled's Song started favorite to emulate Unbridled's victory in the Kentucky Derby, but weakened from second to fifth in the stretch. One theory attributed his performance to his having done too much in his work three days before the Derby, when he covered a half-mile in :46.

Whatever the cause, Unbridled's Song was never again asked to tackle more than a mile and an eighth during a career which ended with a victory in the Olympic H. over seven furlongs.

Unbridled's Breeders' Cup win came in the Classic over a mile and a quarter, and he subsequently had a profound impact on the Triple Crown races. Thanks to Grindstone, Red Bullet and Empire Maker, he sired winners of each of the three legs, with Grindstone going on to sire Birdstone, a Belmont S. winner who in turn has sired winners of the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont. Cont. p6

"HANSEN is quite like his famed sire TAPIT, and he is another good advertisement for the best qualities of that still-improving stallion. HANSEN had early maturity, speed, natural athleticism and competitive grit."

Although Unbridled's Song's daughter Eight Belles ran a great race to be second to Big Brown in 2008, none of Unbridled's Song's sons have so far managed to finish in the top three in the Kentucky Derby.

This is rather surprising. Despite his size, Unbridled's Song matured quickly enough to win the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, the Florida Derby and the Wood Memorial. Plenty of his best winners have also landed graded stakes at two or in the run-up to the Triple Crown, with Midshipman, Old Fashioned, Rockport Harbor, Winslow Homer, Buddha, Eurosilver, Mission Impazible, Songandaprayer and Domestic Dispute among them.

Soundness, or lack of it, was an issue with some of these, but this doesn't appear to be an issue with Will Take Charge, the latest Unbridled's Song to set out on the long and hazardous road to the Kentucky Derby. The colt's hard-fought victory over stablemate Oxbow in the GII Rebel S. came on his seventh start (which makes him a veritable novice compared to his trainer's last Kentucky Derby winner, Charismatic, who was racing for the 15th time).

Will Take Charge Coady Photography

Soundness aside, we still have to establish whether Will Take Charge has the necessary stamina and class to win a mile-and-a-quarter Classic. Of Unbridled's Song's Grade I winners, Unbridled Elaine, Unrivaed Belle, Buddha, Magnificent Song, Thorn Song, Splended Blended and Graydar all won prestigious races over a mile and an eighth. The same applies to plenty of their fellow graded winners. As so often happens in American racing, it is a somewhat different story over the extended distance of a mile and a quarter. However, Political Force (GI Suburban H.), Octave (GI CCA Oaks) and Rare Gift (GIII Ladies H.) all showed that the occasional Unbridled's Song can last the Derby distance. Cont. p7

Will Take Charge follows Graydar as the second graded stakes winner of the year to represent the Unbridled's Song/Dehere cross--a cross which has only seven representatives of racing age. Owners of mares by Dehere were no doubt encouraged by Unbridled's Song's solid results with mares by Dehere's sire Deputy Minister. By the end of 2006, Unbridled's Song was credited with 11% stakes winners among his first 19 foals out of Deputy Minister mares, including the Grade II winner Last Song. This cross has maintained its success pretty well, adding the Grade III winner Keep Up to its tally, and there are now four stakes winners among the cross's 44 foals, which is 9%.

The Dehere mares are completely overshadowing those figures. Six of their seven foals by Unbridled's Song have won and they also feature Strike It Rich, winner of the GIII Boiling Springs S. over 1 1/16 miles on Monmouth's turf track in 2010. Graydar, of course, won the GI Donn H. over a mile and an eighth in February, with the late-foaled 4-year-old (born May 16) showing plenty of potential. Interestingly, Graydar and Strike It Rich are both inbred to Mr. Prospector, the inbreeding being 4x4 and 4x3, respectively, whereas Will Take Charge is Unbridled's Song's first stakes winner inbred to Mr. Prospector's sizeable son Fappiano, the inbreeding being 3x4.

Three graded stakes winners from only seven foals is a very striking achievement on Unbridled's Song's part and more daughters of Dehere are clearly called for, especially ones with a line of Mr. Prospector. I should add that it would do no harm if the daughter of Dehere was also well above average on the track, as Strike It Rich's dam Belle of Perintown was a Grade II winner and Will Take Charge's dam is none other than the redoubtable Take Charge Lady. This popular filly's career figures stood at 11 victories and seven seconds from 22 starts.

This consistency was reflected in Take Charge Lady's official ratings. Victory in three of her five juvenile starts earned her an Experimental Free Handicap ranking of 115, then the 3-year-old Take Charge Lady achieved a figure of 116 on the 2002 International Classifications, followed by 115 in 2003. She twice won the GI Spinster S. over a mile and an eighth and she was second in the GII Delaware H. over a mile and a quarter. Caulfield cont. p8

Take Charge Lady originally cost $175,000 as a yearling, but she proved so successful that her price soared to $4.2 million as a 5-year-old in 2004, when she was sold in foal to Seeking The Gold. The Seeking The Gold filly she was carrying repaid $3.2 million towards her purchase price when sold as a yearling. Two years later, her yearling filly by Storm Cat made $800,000. Bearing in mind that the Seeking The Gold filly won only once and the daughter of Storm Cat failed to win, it is hardly surprising that buyers failed to maintain such enthusiasm for Take Charge Lady's yearlings. Her A.P. Indy colt RNA'd at $80,000 in 2010 and then her Unbridled's Song colt made $425,000 in 2011, a year when two other Unbridled's Song yearlings achieved seven-figure sums.

Fortunately, these two colts have revived Take Charge Lady's broodmare career. The A.P. Indy colt is her GI Florida Derby winner Take Charge Indy and, obviously, the Unbridled's Song colt is Will Take Charge. The mare also has a 2012 filly by Indian Charlie.

Will Take Charge's broodmare sire Dehere was injured before he had the chance of tackling the Kentucky Derby, but he had defeated Go For Gin, Ride The Rails and Holy Bull in the GII Fountain of Youth S. over 1 1/16 miles. His pedigree, which features Deputy Minister, Secretariat and Damascus, suggests he would have stayed further.

Dehere's nomadic career as a stallion means he has broodmare daughters on several continents and they have enjoyed Group 1 success in Australia (where they range from the sprinter-miler Forensics to the dual Derby winner Rebel Raider) and the U.S. (where Graydar and Will Take Charge were preceded by the champion sprinter Midnight Lute and the smart 2012 juvenile So Many Ways).

Will Take Charge's second dam Felicita is an unraced daughter of the champion sprinter Rubiano, who was a Grade I winner at up to a mile. Felicita's stakes winners Eventail (by Lear Fan) and Commendation (by Capote) both had good form over a mile and an eighth. Eventail is now the dam of Straight Story, a Grade II-winning son of Giant's Causeway who ran well at up to 1 3/8 miles.

Don't Forget Horse Racing, New Racinos Told A state panel that oversees Ohio's horse racing industry thinks the developers of two new racinos in the state are short-changing fans of live horse racing over a bigger emphasis on video lottery gambling. Associated Press

Bill creates fund for horse racing money A local lawmaker has introduced a bill for the spring session that would give the Legislature more authority over the gaming proceeds that are dedicated to a group of associations serving horse-racing interests and other related activities. Jeremy Alford, Daily Comet

Texas pro-gambling group switches strategy One of the groups that had been pushing for full casino gambling changed its strategy late in the game and is now asking lawmakers to approve a simpler measure to allow slot machines at racetracks. Let Texans Decide, a pro-gambling organization that is fronted by former state Sen. John Montford, was aligned at the beginning of the 2013 legislative session with big casino interests in a call for full-scale casino gambling in Texas, whether at horse and dog tracks or at yet-to-be-built destination resort casinos. Tim Eaton, American-Statesman

NEWS FROM THE GAMING WORLD:

N.J. to let casinos accept bets on fantasy teams Peyton Manning's touchdown passes, Adrian Peterson's first downs and Darrelle Revis' interceptions could combine to make someone rich this fall. New Jersey is allowing casinos in Atlantic City to offer fantasy sports betting in a pilot program that will be announced Monday. Wayne Perry, AP

Stonestreet Stables reported Monday that Rachel Alexandra continues to respond well to treatment at the Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital.

WEG RELEASES EARLY STAKES SCHEDULE

Woodbine Entertainment Group yesterday released the stakes schedule for the first part of its 2013 Woodbine Thoroughbred meet. The schedule, which begins Opening Day, Apr. 20, and goes through Queen's Plate day July 7, features 37 added-money races.

"We release this 12-week calendar with guaranteed purses to provide confidence for horsemen as they plan their racing season," said WEG Vice-President of Thoroughbred Racing Steve Koch. "We will release a full year stakes schedule after the industry has finalized funding projections."

Purse distribution for racing in Ontario has been up in the air since the Slots at Racetracks program, which provided some $345 million annually to purses for races run in the province in exchange for the use of racetracks for racino facilities, was cancelled a year ago. The Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation is expected to announce a new, but less lucrative agreement with tracks soon to replace the current agreement, which expires Mar. 31.

Headlining Woodbine's early stakes schedule is the 1 1/4-mile $1-million Queen's Plate S. to be run for 3-year-olds on a card that will also feature four other stakes: the $200,000 GII Highlander S., $150,000 GIII Singpiel S., $150,000 Clarendon S. and $200,000 GII Dance Smartly S. AFTERCARE ALLIANCE NAMES DIRECTORS

Jimmy Bell, President of Darley America, Craig Bernick, President and CEO of Glen Hill Farm, Bob Elliston, Chief Operating Officer of Breeders' Cup Ltd., and Rachel Kukulewich, National Manager for the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society, have been announced as the newest directors of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance. They will join Madeline Auerbach, Diana Baker, Stacie Clark, Erin Crady, Anna Ford, Matt Iuliano, Reiley McDonald, Mike Meuser, Sharyn Neble, Bryan Sullivan, Bill Thomason, Rick Violette and Jack Wolf, who are already directors with the alliance. "The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance is extremely fortunate to have such an accomplished and diverse group willing to donate their time on behalf of our retired Thoroughbred athletes," said TAA Executive Director Mike Ziegler. "The expertise and passion of Rachel, Jimmy, Craig and Bob will add to that group significantly as we strive to improve the welfare of retired Thoroughbreds across North America."

Jockey Anthony Black celebrates career victory #5,200, which came aboard Smart Toni (Tenpins) during the 9th race at Parx on Monday.

MAGIC MILLIONS QTIS SALE WRAPS UP

Monday's second session of the Magic Millions QTIS Yearling sale was topped by Lot 367, a colt by Sequalo (Aus) who fetched A$80,000 from Toowoomba-based horseman Tony Sears. The colt, out of Count the Silver (Aus) (Canadian Silver), was bred and consigned by Lyndhurst Stud. Lot 258, was the top filly purchase on the day. The daughter of Our Fiction (Aus) went to John Morrissey for $60,000. The yearling is out of the Galileo (Ire) mare Tequilakoko (Aus) and was bred and sold by Adour Stud and Stables.

During this year's two-session edition of the sale, 293 horses sold for an average of A$21,193, down 4.29% from last year. The clearance rate was 71%.

"It's remarkable to finish the sale with a clearance of 71%, although that is still unsatisfactory," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox remarked. "All the traditional buyers participated and there was some new blood from interstate and overseas. The results tell us that there is a lack of confidence in the local industry. I commend the vendors that met the market today. I'm sure some of the prices weren't palatable. The Queensland industry has some soul searching ahead, however, the good thing is that Queensland Racing are putting the fundamentals together to get racing heading in the right direction."

DELMONTE PROMOTED AT LEVY BOARD

Alan Delmonte has been appointed Chief Executive & Accounting Officer of the Horserace Betting Levy Board and will commence official duties next month following the resignation of Douglas Erskine-Crum. Delmonte, who has been the Levy Board's Operations Director since 2009, was the Board's unanimous choice to replace Erskine-Crum, who leaves to become Chief Executive of the Juddmonte Group. "The Board has taken the opportunity to look at the roles and responsibilities of the senior executives and how these have evolved," commented Levy Board Chairman Paul Lee. "The conclusion is that the current senior executives are professional, highly effective and in possession of the necessary skills and abilities to meet the Board's future requirements. Board members came to the unanimous view that Alan was the right person to take the organisation forward after Douglas departs in April. I would like to warmly welcome Alan as our next Chief Executive and thank Douglas for his outstanding contribution over the last five years. The Board has decided that there should now be two roles at senior executive level, namely the Chief Executive & Accounting Officer and the Finance Director. Rob Skeggs will continue in his role of Finance Director, which he fulfils to first-class standards. This structure will maintain the Levy Board's competence and has the added advantage of ensuring that we continue to be highly cost-effective." Delmonte added, "I am very much looking forward to taking on additional responsibilities at the Levy Board and leading our dedicated and professional team. We will continue to work constructively with racing, betting and others across the wide range of areas in which we are involved."
