GUELPH TAKES GUINEAS

Sheikh Mohammed's already accomplished Guelph (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) cemented herself atop the Australian 3-year-old filly division with her fourth victory at the highest level in Caulfield's G1 Thousand Guineas Wednesday. Abandoning her usual style to lead from the outset under Kerrin McEvoy here, the heavily favored homebred never looked back en route to a decisive 1 3/4-length tally. May's Dream (Aus) (New Approach {Ire}) proved second best over Gregers (Aus) (Commands {Aus}). Guelph was coming off a victory in Randwick's G1 Coolmore Flight S. 11 days prior, and had annexed both the G1 Sires Produce S. and G1 Champagne S. as a juvenile. She was adding here to an already stellar week for Darley Down Under, with Complacent (Aus) (Authorized {Ire}) winning the G1 Spring Champion S. and Long John (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) taking the G1 Caulfield Guineas. "She's a very, very good filly and she's got a great attitude to go with it," winning conditioner Peter Snowden told Racing and Sports, noting that Guelph could join Long John--himself only recently confirmed--in the G1 Cox Plate Oct. 26, pending a decision later this week by Team Darley. Snowden added of the barn's recent hot streak, "When we were going through a quiet time, we kept saying to ourselves as a team, 'We know what we've got and we've just got to hope they come up as well as we think they will.' And they did. It's good when a plan comes off." Chart, p7

MOTIVATOR FILLY IN COMMAND AT TATTS

by Emma Berry

As the third lengthy session of an increasingly vibrant Book 2 of the October Sale entered its final hour, a Bumble Mitchell-consigned filly by Motivator (GB) (lot 1230), sire of sensational Arc winner Treve (Fr), swept to the top of the board for the week so far, selling for 320,000gns ($536,087) to Ross Doyle.

Lot 1230

Mystery surrounds the identity of her new owner, and Doyle could not be persuaded to impart this information to the gathered press corps, but his client was certainly intent on securing the relation of champion 2-year-old Grand Lodge, with each fresh play from under bidder Hugo Lascelles instantly bettered.

Elegant Beauty (GB) (Olden Times {GB}) is the name of the filly's dam and it's a description which would fit her daughter, too, according to Doyle, who confirmed she is to be trained by Richard Hannon. "We fell in love with her the minute we set eyes on her--she's a beauty from a great family," Doyle said.

The yearling's family was once in the ownership of the late owner-breeder Lord Howard de Walden, and Elegant Beauty, an unraced Olden Times (GB) half-sister to Grand Lodge, La Persiana (GB) and Papabile, was sold from his former Plantation Stud to Fergus and Kathryn Anstock of The Kathryn Stud when carrying this filly for 58,000gns.

"Jeremy Brummitt advises us and he bought Elegant Beauty," said Fergus Anstock. "She has a Cacique colt foal this year and is now in foal to Rip Van Winkle (Ire). We're actually selling a Rip Van Winkle colt tomorrow (lot 1346), but I can't see him matching that. It was quite something."

Hannon Down to One?

Profiled: Breeder Richard Lister

Richard Lister, a small Ontario-based breeder, reached the highest levels of the sport two weekends ago at Keeneland when We Miss Artie (Artie Schiller) won the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity Oct. 5. It was Lister's first Grade I as a breeder, and provided a huge update for an Arch colt he's selling at Fasig-Tipton's Kentucky October Sale (Oct. 21-23), a half-brother to We Miss Artie. Bernard McCormack's Cara Bloodstock offers the colt, who sells during Tuesday's second session of the sale as hip 401.

Bumble Mitchell has the final three from her draft to go through the ring tomorrow, but the popular consignor has certainly made a great start with the first two she has sold this week, the other being a homebred Kyllachy (GB) colt, who sold for 180,000gns to Shadwell on Monday.

Bumble Mitchell Emma Berry

The strong trade at Park Paddocks shows no sign of abating, with Wednesday's session being the strongest yet of Book 2. In total, 196 yearlings sold--for yet another improved clearance rate of 90%--bringing the turnover to 10,009,000gns, with an average of 51,066gns (+ 27.2%) and median of 40,000gns (+ 19.4%).

Double Dutch...

Cheveley Park Stud's Dutch Art (GB) was flying high at Tattersalls when two colts by the sire became very profitable pinhooks for Michael Fitzpatrick, selling for 270,000gns and 150,000gns, respectively. The former led the third session for much of the day until being supplanted by the sale-topping Motivator filly.

Irish international show jumper Brian Cassidy turned his attention from sport horses to racehorses, outbidding Shadwell for lot 1110, out of the Septieme Ciel mare Brooklyn's Sky (GB), from the family of last season's G1 Arc winner Solemia (Ire).

"I've had a few point-to-pointers before and have ridden in a few races, but this is my first foray into flat ownership," revealed Cassidy, who also bought a colt by Approve (Ire) for 70,000gns. "The [Dutch Art] colt will go to Paul Carberry to be broken-in, but I haven't decided who will train him yet." Cassidy added, "He is a lovely, racey horse, and has a great attitude. He also has a nice pedigree and looked very forward."

Michael Fitzpatrick of JC Bloodstock bought the colt for 40,000gns as a foal and picked up lot 1150, another son of Dutch Art, for 31,000gns, also in the December Sale at Tattersalls. That son of dual winner Common Consent (Ire) (Common Grounds {GB}), concluded the European yearling buying spree for Mark Richards of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, who signed for him at 150,000gns.

"That's me done now," Richards said. "No more sales until the Magic Millions on the Gold Coast! I've had to be patient to buy today--there were a lot of nice staying types, but fewer to suit me, with sharper pedigrees. I thought this colt was an athlete and he's by a good stallion. The first Dutch Art horse I bought has won this year in Hong Kong."

Richards made sure he was at Tattersalls for the start of the third day of selling and picked up the first lot through the ring (lot 1007), a well-made son of Acclamation (GB) out of Aberavon (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) for 130,000gns.

Bolt's Brother Popular...

Trainer George Margarson is the immediate beneficiary of a pricey Exceed and Excel (Aus) colt, who was sold by Yeomanstown Stud to former top flat jockey Philip Robinson for 200,000gns. A brother to the G3 Norfolk S.-placed Excel Bolt, lot 1190 was another good pinhooking result for the O'Callaghan family, masters of the art at identifying promising weanlings and turning them into profitable yearlings. This one--out of the Forzando (GB) mare Dearest Daisy (GB)--was bought for 65,000gns last December. In common with many of his former colleagues in the weighing room, Robinson's not keen on idle chat, but he was persuaded to say: "I remember watching Excel Bolt in the Norfolk and being impressed. I hope this one's got a similar engine, he's a very nice horse. He'll go to George for the time being."

Robinson did his bidding in company with Armando Duarte, who teamed up with Margarson on Monday when buying an Iffraaj (GB) filly for 150,000gns. The purchase helped to push Darley's shuttler Exceed and Excel to the top of the Book 2 stallions' leader board; his 29 yearlings sold over the three days having returned an aggregate of 1,744,000gns and average of 60,138gns.

The Wright Way...

The second of only two yearlings by More Than Ready in Book 2, and the only colt, lot 1060 was knocked down to Peter and Ross Doyle for 150,000gns. He, too, will go into training with Richard Hannon, who already has his unbeaten 2-year-old half-brother Cricklewood Green, a rare runner for Highcliff Farm stallion Bob and John in the U.K. Bred by Chris Wright of Stratford Place Stud, the April colt is out of B Berry Brandy (Event of the Year), a half-sister to multiple Group 2 winner Strong Suit (Rahy), and it is a family with which Wright has long had a connection.

"I bought [the colt's third dam] Team Colours and she bred the listed winner Silver Colours (Silver Hawk), who in turn produced Aristocrat," Wright explained.

Bought by Demi O'Byrne for 750,000gns, the Galileo (Ire) filly Aristocrat (GB) went into training with Aidan O'Brien, for whom she earned listed black-type before being sold to race in Australia.

"We managed to find Silver Colours' sister Helwa in Arkansas and I was under bidder on her Rahy foal, who turned out to be Strong Suit," Wright continued.

Chris Wright

Emma Berry

"Unfortunately, Helwa died of a heart attack just a few weeks before Strong Suit won his maiden nicely at Newbury, then we went looking to see what else we could find from the family and we ended up with Berry Brandy, who I own with a friend who has horses with Richard Hannon."

Wright, the founder of Chrysalis Records, who is now Chairman of BMG Chrysalis UK, is also a TBA board member. He has enjoyed plenty of success on the track in recent years courtesy of his homebred dual Group 3 winner Bungle Inthejungle (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and recent G1 Shadwell Fillies' Mile winner Chriselliam (Ire). He owns the latter in partnership with Emily Asprey and former top-class jockey Willie Carson. The daughter of Iffraaj (GB) is on course for a trip to Santa Anita for the Breeders' Cup.

"We have a Starspangledbanner yearling half-brother to Bungle Inthejungle who we're keeping to race and will probably go into training with Mick Channon," reported Wright, who arrived at Tattersalls looking very fresh despite the previous night's launch of his autobiography 'One Way Or Another' at the Groucho Club in London.

"There's a bit of racing in it, a few good stories, and anyone with an interest in the music business should enjoy it," he said. "It's an easy read!"

Making Merry...

Hugo Merry pounced for consecutive lots, including the second top-priced filly of the day, going to 145,000gns for Marlhill House Stud's sister to the Group 3-placed Excellent Girl (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) (lot 1176). Her dam Dame Blanche (Ire) (Be My Guest) also boasts some well-credentialed half-siblings--the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. winner Luas Line (Ire) (Danehill) and Godolphin's good stayer Lost In The Moment (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})--and the filly being by a Danehill-line stallion was a draw for Merry, who bought her for Andrew Rosen.

"She'll be a nice mare in the future to go to the likes of Galileo," Merry said. "It's getting harder to buy nice fillies to mate."

Merry confirmed that Rosen's filly and the following lot, a 110,000gns Acclamation (GB) colt (lot 1177) would both go into training with Brian Meehan at Manton. "He's just a really lovely colt and has been bought for an existing client," Merry said of the grandson of G2 Lowther S. winner Dance Sequence (Mr. Prospector).

Big Lots Abound...

Sheikh Fahad and David Redvers have been restrained in their purchasing so far during Book 2, but they did wade in for a pair of Kodiak colts on Wednesday--for 140,000gns and 90,000gns.

The more expensive of the Kodiaks, offered by Tally-Ho Stud, was lot 1123, out of a Vettori (Ire) half-sister to Lady Bamford's Oaks winner Sariska (GB) and Gull Wing (Ire). The latter (lot 1117) is also the dam of this year's Oaks third and G2 Park Hill S. winner The Lark (GB).

Victory at Chester at the end of August for Acclamation (GB) 2-year-old Edge (Ire) will have played its part in his half-brother (lot 1130) making 120,000gns in the sales ring. Being by leading first-season sire Mastercraftsman (Ire) is also a major positive, as is a well-related dam, Chanter (GB). The Lomitas (GB) mare is unraced, but is a half-sister to G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Belmez (El Gran Senor) and to Opera Comique (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}), the dam of GI Arlington Million winner Debussy (Ire) (Diesis).

Stephen Hillen bought the colt from Mountain View Stud, who enjoyed a successful stint this week, selling five yearlings for an average of 103,600gns.

Hillen also went to 120,000gns for lot 1162, Glenvale Stud's Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) half-brother to two Italian listed winners, Baciare (Ire) (Alzao) and Il Fortino (Ire) (Eagle Eyed), who cost €30,000 as a foal.

Sholokhov's Sole Son...

Sholokhov (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) spent much of his racing career on pacemaking duties for the high-class duo of High Chaparral and Hawk Wing, but he was a highly talented individual--finishing runner-up to the aforementioned pair in the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Eclipse S.--not to mention being well bred. He started his stallion career in Germany at Gestüt Etzean, but has recently signed up for National Hunt duties at the Cashman family's Glenview Stud.

A German-conceived yearling by the sire (lot 1205), his sole representative in Book 2, found favour with Amanda Skiffington, who signed for the colt at 110,000gns. Brendan Bashford picked him out as a foal for €30,000 at Goffs and he was offered this time around through Glenvale Stud.

The first foal of the young Dashing Blade (GB) mare Diora (Ire), the smart dark brown colt is related to a host of black-type winners in Germany, and further back in his pedigree can be found the GI Kentucky Derby and G1 Dubai World Cup winner Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}).

HANNON TEAM DEPLETED BY WEATHER

Richard Hannon could be represented by only Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) in Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot, with stable companions Sky Lantern (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) and Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) unlikely to race on the prevalent soft ground. While Toronado is also in that mile contest and Sky Lantern has the alternative option of the G1 Qipco Champion S., they are almost certain to head straight to Santa Anita and Sha Tin, respectively, for their next starts. "The filly likes fastish ground and so does Toronado, but Olympic Glory could be the one for there," their trainer explained. "Ascot drains very quick, but I think there's more rain in the forecast, so we'll have to play it by ear up to D-day. Sky Lantern might go to Hong Kong."

Hannon continued, "She wouldn't run on Saturday as it can very soft down the back. She's had a long old year anyway. I would imagine, as it stands with the ground soft, Olympic Glory will go there, Toronado will go to the Breeders' Cup and the filly would probably go nowhere--or she might to Hong Kong. The owner [Ben Keswick] is from there and he'd definitely like a runner over there, but she needs to run in the 1 1/4-mile race in Hong Kong, not the mile. You're anybody's if you get drawn bad in that mile race. We're very happy with all three of them and everything's going well with them." Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani's Olympic Glory is set to be fitted with blinkers on Saturday, with jockey

Richard Hughes saying, "They will undoubtedly help Olympic Glory. We gave him a spin in them earlier in the week and there was a positive reaction. I would envision it could make three lengths difference, which would put him in there with a big shout." Further rain at Ascot yesterday changed the official going description to "soft" after six millimeters of rain fell, leading Hughes to take a negative view of Sky Lantern's prospects of turning up on Champions' Day. "I'd be inclined to give it a miss," he added. "Ascot is forecast another 5-6mm of rain today and, though tomorrow is supposed to be drier, there are showers around for Friday and Saturday and it would not surprise me if it rode heavy."

'ARTIE' PUTS SPOTLIGHT ON LISTER

By Lucas Marquardt

Richard Lister, a small Ontario-based breeder, reached the highest levels of the sport two weekends ago at Keeneland when We Miss Artie (Artie Schiller) won the

Richard Lister

GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity Oct. 5 (video). It was Lister's first Grade I as a breeder, and provided a huge update for an Arch colt he's selling at Fasig-Tipton's Kentucky October Sale (Oct. 21-23), a half-brother to We Miss Artie. Bernard McCormack's Cara Bloodstock offers the colt, who sells during Tuesday's second session of the sale as hip 401.

"He's a big, strapping horse--very typical of Arch," said Lister. "And he's got just a beautiful walk to him. He was actually entered in the Keeneland September Sale, but we had a lot of van trouble. It's a 500-mile drive--and because of a border incident he had to make it twice. And he just didn't show well at Keeneland. So we decided to go to this sale."

That might well prove a providential decision, thanks to We Miss Artie's Breeders' Futurity victory a few weeks later.

"It was really terrific," the 75-year-old Lister, a retired businessman, said of We Miss Artie's breakout score. "He's in very good hands--I couldn't be happier the Ramseys have him. They'll give him every opportunity, and that's the key to me."

Ken and Sarah Ramsey purchased We Miss Artie for $90,000 last fall from Cara's Keeneland September consignment. The colt, who is trained by Todd Pletcher, ran second sprinting on the dirt at Belmont July 4 before graduating by three lengths in his turf and route bow at Saratoga Aug. 11. He tired to sixth as the tepid favorite in the grassy With Anticipation S. Aug. 29 in his start prior to the Breeders' Futurity, a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. We Miss Artie could also instead go to the GI Juvenile Turf.

Lister bred We Miss Artie from the 8-year-old mare Athena's Gift (Fusaichi Pegasus), whom Lister purchased as a 2-year-old in training for $75,000 at the 2007 OBS June Sale. "If this wasn't horse racing, and you could have reasonable luck and not just bad luck [laughs], she probably could have been the best horse I ever owned," he said.

Trained by Malcolm Pierce, Athena's Gift was solid on dirt, but really came alive once moved to the lawn, where she went 4-2-1-0. Her victories included a one-mile Woodbine maiden, won in 1:34 1/5, and a nine-furlong allowance, won in 1:47 1/5. In what would be her final career start, she was a 9-2 chance in the 2008 GIII Virginia Oaks, but after putting in a big late rally from some 21 lengths back to be fifth, she suffered a career-ending tendon injury.

Thoroughbred
AFTERCARE ALLIANCE

Who We Are: The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) is a non-profit organization whose goal is to help retired Thoroughbreds.

Our Mission: The TAA serves both as an accrediting body for aftercare facilities that care for retired Thoroughbreds following the conclusion of their careers and a fundraising body to support these approved facilities.

What We Do: The TAA's goal is to establish industry-wide fundraising, from all entities involved in the Thoroughbred industry (from breeders and owners to racetracks and jockeys to fans) so that our retired athletes can be cared for at the end of their careers.

How You Can Help: Barretts, Ocala Breeders' Sales, Fasig-Tipton and Keeneland sales companies will enable buyers and consignors to automatically contribute .05% of their respective purchases or gross sales directly to TAA. Participating sales companies will contribute an additional .05% from their gross sales receipts as well.

For more information contact Mike Ziegler, executive director of TAA, (859) 422-2668 or visit www.thoroughbredaftercare.org.

"She was really a tough filly," said Lister.

Athena's Gift's first foal was We Miss Artie's year-old half-sister Speed Goddess (Johannesburg), a homebred who, like her mom, showed plenty of talent for the Pierce barn.

"The trainer really thought she had a ton of ability, but unfortunately she was compromised very early on by a training incident," Lister reported.

This June, Lister made the calculated decision to drop Speed Goddess in for a cheap maiden claiming tag, hoping to improve the catalog page so the dam's first foal showed a winner. The move yielded mixed results. Speed Goddess "swept by," according to the comment line, to easily win a $16,000 maiden claimer at Woodbine. But she was claimed out of the race. Less than three weeks later, We Miss Artie made his debut.

"I've just recently heard that the Ramseys have her now and that they're going to breed her to Kitten's Joy, and I can't tell you how delighted I am with that," said Lister.

Lister has been directly involved with Thoroughbreds for roughly four decades, but has been a fan of the sport since he was a young child in Toronto. He grew up going to the track with his father "and his cronies," Lister laughed. "They were just $2 punters. Somehow I picked up a Blood-Horse when I was 11 or 12 years old, and I just found it fascinating."

After graduating college, Lister became involved with mining and chemical companies. By the time he retired 10 years ago, he was the CEO of Zemex Corporation, a minerals and materials company that's listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Cont. p10

He got his start in racing care of a neighbor. In the late 1970s, Lister moved to Cincinnati, and happened to live in the same building as Dr. Taylor Asbury, a prominent owner who operated Forest Retreat Farms.

"One time, I ran into Dr. Asbury, and told him that I could read a catalog page--I had for years--but I had no clue how to look at horses," said Lister. "He told me to meet up with his farm manager, Gail Hughes, at one of the sales, and I did that and bought my first horse--a Halo filly from Windfields.

"Now I needed a trainer, of course, and some people recommended to me a young guy who had just started out--a fellow named Rusty Arnold. She broke her maiden as a 2-year-old and we bred her the following year, but unfortunately she got pleurisy on the van ride up to Canada and passed away. It was a heartbreaking experience initially."

Lister stayed with it, though, and got his first stakes win as a breeder in 1989, when his homebred Bientot Gold (Mr. Redoy) won the Ontario Fashion S. Since then, he's had a number of good horses emerge from his operation, including MGSW Yummy With Butter (Silvador); the 2004 Bison City S. heroine and Woodbine Oaks runner-up Touchnow (Pleasant Tap); multiple Grade II performer Hampstead Heath (Macho Uno); and the stakes winners Muskrat Sammy (Vice Regent) and Effective Gal (Vigors). He has also raced, under his Cinnamont Stable, the MSW & GSP Tell It As It Is (Chester House). "I race under Cinnamont in Canada, and under Richard Lister in the U.S.," Lister explained.

Lister credits those around him for any success he's had, especially Mike Carroll, whose Grandview Farm in Ontario has boarded Lister's mares for 32 years.

"Mike's the best I've ever seen," said Lister of the former Windfields Farm broodmare manager. "He's cared for my horses like they're his very own, and stayed with me through thick and thin."

Lister's broodmare band has been as big as 15 mares, but currently stands at five.

With the Ontario breeding industry facing an uncertain future, Lister announced he will be selling off his stock at the Keeneland November Sale in a few weeks' time.

We Miss Artie
Horsephotos

Included is We Miss Artie's dam, Athena's Gift, who will be followed into the ring by a Harlan's Holiday weanling half-brother to We Miss Artie.

"It's probably a good year to sell, but it's going to break my heart," admitted Lister. "I love watching the babies. But first, being a breeder in Canada, I'm not sure what the government's going to do. And second, the horizon for breeding is quite long. You really need five years [from mating to racing]. I'm 75 years old--I'm not sure how many five-year horizons I have!"

The good nature of both Lister and the Ramseys make We Miss Artie an easy horse to root for, and for Lister himself, the emotional connection goes even deeper than just having bred the horse named after Ken Ramsey's late second cousin. For 25 years, Lister and his wife Deborah Wotherspoon attended Saratoga with their friends, Art and Gladys Finn.

"Unfortunately, about 10 years ago, Art passed away very suddenly, and I haven't been able to go to Saratoga since then," said Lister. "It's just one of those quirks of history that the horse is named after an Artie. And I sure hope he lives up to his promise."

ABR LAUNCHES NEW FORMAT FOR 2014

In their quest to get young adults interested in racing, America's Best Racing will launch a new format for their 2014 tour, following a successful inaugural year. Funded by the Jockey Club, ABR ambassadors tour tracks across the country for racing's biggest events and try to draw a younger crowd and increased interest to the sport of kings.

ABR Ambassadors Outside the Bus
Cornett IMS

This year the team was made up of six ambassadors ranging in age from 22-27 and all with various levels of knowledge and involvement in the horse industry. They included self-taught handicappers and lifelong racing fans, as well as children of trainers, such as Hall of Famer Shug McGaughey's son Chip McGaughey.

The ambassadors were based in Lexington, K.Y., but joined the bus at its stops to promote and brand racing to millennials through meet and greets and social media. Aside from visiting racetracks, the team also stopped at "millennial hotspots," such as bars and restaurants, where they could reach a large group of 20-somethings at once and drum up interest in attending the races.

"We felt the best thing we could do was get out there, connect with as many young people as possible, and show them just how fun the sport could be," said Kip Cornett, President of Cornett IMS, ABR's agency of record. "The best news I think for the whole year was that our sport does resonate with millennials. They did enjoy the sport. They did find it fascinating, but [the tour] also showed we have tons of work to do with this audience."

For 2014, ABR will be trying a new format. There will now be four ambassadors, each with a support staff, stationed year-round in their own region. The four stations will be in New York City, Chicago, Miami, and Los Angeles. The ambassadors will still travel to attend major racing events, but will spend the rest of their time getting to know the millennials in their region and find out the best ways to get them to the track.

"I don't regret the approach we had this year," Cornett said. "It was very effective, but if we parlayed it on a regular basis, how much more successful could we be?"

ABR's 2013 ambassadors have either remained involved in the program or graduated to other careers in the industry.

"We are interviewing and looking for new faces," Cornett said. "We could not be happier with the team we had this year. They did a fantastic job. It showed me that if you have a good idea promoted by very passionate people, you can make a difference."

The reports by Michele MacDonald on the recent IFHA conference and also her presentation of international statistics in Wednesday's paper were exceptional. Michele is a treasure for TDN, as she truly understands the industry.

The recent uptick in yearling sales around the world indicates strong demand by racehorse owners, but declining supply is more the barometer of an ailing sport. The IFHA's Andrew Chesser correctly said, "We should always look to innovate and reinvent the sport." The question is how and who?

In a new book, Knowledge and Power, the author makes the case that old economic theory about price and labor has been swept away by new information theory, where creative ideas "surprise" the marketplace. One example is Steve Jobs, who didn't make incremental change to the mobile phone; instead, he changed the world with new technology and execution of the iPhone.

John Gaines delivered a surprise to racing with The Breeders' Cup. He didn't make incremental change to the sport. Instead, he changed the conversation about how championships are determined by changing who organizes and presents the event.

Information theory values knowledge of the basic elements and the complex situations that must be in place when new ideas come to fruition.

Thoroughbred racing has simple basics, which are common around the world. The ability to innovate and deliver a surprise is contained in how it is organized, packaged and presented. The question for the international industry is how do we get there from here?

Michele has presented the latest research on racing and breeding that someone can use in creating a surprise for the sport.

--Fred A. Pope

Dear Editor,

I read the article "IFHA stats reveal global trends" published in the TDN Oct. 16, and I was really surprised reading the few lines dedicated to Italy. In the document released by the IFHA, it is stated that in Italy, 34% of the expenses met by the owners are recovered. This statement paints a misleading picture of the Italian racing and breeding situation, as no owners or breeders have been paid in over a year or so. Peanuts were given here and there and that's it.

I also have a question: how could it be possible that Italy could continue to be allowed to get Pattern Races if the prize money is not paid? Owners (foreign owners included) who have won group races in the year 2012 haven't received a penny and some of them received the proposal to be paid over a period of three years.

In my humble opinion, IFHA should collect the Italian data about prize money, payment of the prize money, betting turnover, etc., and publish them to make foreign owners and trainers and the whole world of racing aware of this terrible situation.

This should help Italy make a dramatic and quick change in its betting, racing and breeding organization, which doesn't work at all. It will be too long to explain in this letter why the system doesn't work, but it could be worth doing so one day.

In Italy, betting turnover decreases by around 30% every year and has for a long time now; at the end of 2013, it could reach no more than €750,000,000. At the end of September, the total betting turnover was €569,000,000 compared to €713,000,000 of last year. Betting on foreign races (local pool) has dropped by 44.13% compared to last year, from €221,000,000 to €123,000,000 (until the end of September).

Finally, I have to say that it will be extremely difficult for the panel of the International Handicappers to decide the status of the Italian Pattern Races for the year 2014 (if any) as only Italian horses run in the group races, because of the non-payment of prize money. Yesterday in the G1 Gran Criterium for 2-year-olds, one foreign runner arrived from Switzerland to Milan and finished fourth. This is the Italian racing situation, believe it or not, and I do hope that the International Authorities will help a nation which has produced Nearco, Ribot, etc. to get out of the marsh.

Sincerely,

Carlo Zuccoli

CO-TOPPERS AT OBS FALL MIXED OPEN

SESSION A pair of horses attracted final bids of $70,000 to share top billing during Wednesday's second and final session of the OBS Fall Mixed Sale in Central Florida. The first to reach that level was hip 264, the 5-year-old mare Because I Like It (Lion Heart). The chestnut, consigned by Francis and Barbara Vanlangendonck's Summerfield agency, was stakes-placed at two and is a half-sister to the ill-fated champion Left Bank (French Deputy) and the stakes winner Flag on the Play (Meadowlake). Offered in foal to High Cotton, Because I Like It was purchased by Keith and Ginger Myers's Louisiana-based Coteau Grove Farm LLC. A filly from the first crop of Grade II winner Wilburn (Bernardini) was the most coveted of the day's weanling offerings. Consigned by Beth Bayer, agent, the Jan. 24 foal is out of Milliondollarbill (Speightstown), a half-sister to GSW Brooke's Halo (Southern Halo) and was purchased by Christine Hosier, agent. Though 11 fewer horses were reported as sold at this year's open session compared to last year, gross receipts advanced by 22.2%, while the average leaped by 31%. The median price fell to an even $5,000.

GERMANIAC (c, 2, Henny Hughes--Judy Soda {MSW, $395,567}, by Personal Flag) was made 3-2 chalk for his Sept. 23 debut at Delaware Park, but chased from third throughout and wound up 5 1/2 lengths adrift of the winner. Allowed to drift up to 6-1 here with Brendan G (Chapel Royal) taking the bulk of the action, Germaniac forced the pace outside a rival and edged to the front turning for home. Brendan G sat a perfect pocket trip and had dead aim in the final furlong, but could never work past Germaniac, who scored by a determined head. NORUMBEGA (c, 3, Tiznow--Meghan's Joy {MSP, $126,990}, by A.P. Indy) made the most of this drop in class, racing on or near the lead every step of the way en route to a 3 1/4-length tally. A solid runner-up in a May 27 Belmont allowance, the grey colt ballooned to fifth in a similar spot June 22. Lasix went on for his next, a 1 1/4-length success over this trip at Saratoga July 28, but he was never a factor when eighth in the GIII Smarty Jones S. at Parx Sept. 2. Given a positive ride this time, Norumbega was stalking second into and around the first turn, before tugging Shaun Bridgmohan to the lead from between horses at the 5 1/2-furlong marker. Always confidently handled from there on out, he was thrown a cross in upper stretch and raced a bit greenly in his synthetic debut, but proved a handy winner. The victory was the first of the meet for Lexington's Kentucky Derby-winning trainer Shug McGaughey. Hand-ridden to an easy victory over the Monmouth turf June 29, the bay rounded out the triple at the Spa July 31 and was most recently third as the favorite in the 11-furlong Omnibus S. at the Jersey Shore Aug. 24. Unhurried at the back of the pack beneath James Graham, the 6-5 chalk was still at the tail turning for home, but switched out to the grandstand side and swept past each of her 11 rivals to score by a facile four lengths. INDUSTRY INFO

New Stallion Report Available on EquineLine:

The Jockey Club Information Systems released a new EquineLine product that gives a detailed Report of Mares Bred information on stallions that bred mares in North America. Customers can order reports on individual stallions by breeding year or buy a subscription for unlimited access to all stallions for 2013. "Detailed Report of Mares Bred information has never before been offered for North American stallions," said Carl Hamilton, chairman and president of TJCIS. "It is a valuable tool for stallion managers and an efficient research tool for anyone making breeding decisions by providing the most current breeding information available." The report includes the name of each mare bred, year of birth, sire, and last live foal. It also includes foaling date, sex, sire, breeder, and the state in which that foal was bred. These reports provide the sire's pedigree, location, inbreeding dosage, tabulated race record, and lifetime statistical summaries for its progeny. Additional information can be found here.

Keeneland & Logan Development Partner for Career Placement Program:

Edited Press Release

Keeneland Association Inc. and the Logan Development Group have announced a strategic partnership to provide students participating in Keeneland's College Ambassadors Program with access to the Logan Development Group's Elite Collegiate Career Placement Program.

Each College Ambassador is guaranteed admission to the highly competitive program, which has an acceptance rate of just 10%. Once enrolled, they will receive advice on research and etiquette, exposure to a network of thousands of professionals across the country, aid in the creation of professional resumes, and guaranteed placement after graduation.

"The Keeneland College Ambassadors Program has had a terrific track record of finding the brightest college students throughout Kentucky to support their amazing College Scholarship Days," said Daniel Logan, founder of the Logan Development Group. "We are thrilled to give these young leaders access to our deep portfolio of contacts, expertise, support and resources."

The Keeneland College Ambassadors Program enlists students to represent Keeneland on their respective campuses, and to help promote the track's spring and fall race meets. They work as volunteers at Keeneland events throughout the semester, and provide support in organizing the track's popular College Scholarship Day, held during each spring and fall meet. On that day, $1,000 scholarships are awarded to full-time students following each of the afternoon's 10 races. Keeneland will host its fall College Scholarship Day Oct. 18.

"The College Ambassadors Program is so special to Keeneland," President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "This is a terrific group of students who work very hard in the classroom and in their communities. It's a wonderful opportunity for us to provide them support as they begin their careers."

In 2013, the roster of Ambassadors features more than 30 students representing six different universities, including the University of Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky University and Bellarmine University. Many of the students are leaders on their respective college campuses, actively involved in student government, professional associations and Greek affiliations.

Having sidestepped a possible engagement at Chantilly five days earlier, Sinnamary arrived at the gate with a €1,100,000 tag, which was the highest price paid for a filly at last year's Arqana August Yearling sale, and repaid some of that weighty investment with a taking debut effort. She settled in rear, with only one behind, after finding a measure of cover from the outside box. Gliding by rivals under mild coaxing once into the straight, the 12-5 second favorite moved into third entering the final furlong and quickened impressively in the closing stages to easily prevail by 1 3/4 lengths from Pink Chalice (GB) (Authorized {Ire}). British Report cont.

2014 Racing Course Open for Applications:

Applications for the 2014 Racing Industry Course (TRIC) are now being accepted. Geared towards those who have recently achieved or have aspirations of attaining a management role in the horse racing industry. The intensive five-day course features a variety of prominent speakers, while also offering behind-the-scene looks at Sheikh Mohammed's Darley breeding operation and Newmarket Equine Hospital, Europe's largest equine hospital. The British Horse Racing Authority's course will take place at the British Horse Racing School at Newmarket from Feb. 3 - Feb. 7, 2014. "On the track horse racing is relatively straightforward, but the range of stakeholders involved and sheer quantity and variety of interested parties make the business and politics of the sport much more complex than first realised," said Paul Bittar, Chief Executive of the BHA. "The Racing Industry Course provides attendees with a unique opportunity to better understand all business aspects of the sport, as well as giving those present the opportunity to talk face to face with experts in each field. For those wanting a career working in the business of racing it is a week very well spent." The cost of the program is £1,200, which covers lodging, meals and activities. Contact The British Racing School on tric@brs.org.uk or 01638 665103 to reserve a spot of visit www.brstric.com for further details.
