

FASIG RESULTS ‘MIND-BOGGLING’

“We had a tremendous horse sale this evening,” Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning declared at the close of business at Monday’s November sale.

In all, 129 horses sold for $73,859,000. The gross was up 23% from 2012 figures, when 87 horses sold for $60,220,000. The buy-back rate declined from 35% a year ago to 21%. The median rose 32% to $250,000. The average was the only indicator that was down, falling 17% to $572,500. It was $692,184 in 2012.

Sale-topping Betterbetterbetter (Ire)

“The statistics are slightly mind-boggling,” Browning admitted. “If you had asked me 12 months ago, ‘What will your gross November sales look like in 2013?’ I would have said, ‘Just get me somewhere close to 2012 levels.’ I’m just blown away by the results tonight.”

A total of 24 horses sold for $1 million or more Monday night, compared to 15 a year ago. For the second straight year, the sales topper went to Mandy Pope’s Whisper Hill Farm. Last year, Pope paid $10 million for Horse of the Year Havre de Grace (Saint Liam), but the Floridian “only” had to go to $5.2 million to secure Monday night’s topper, the regally bred Betterbetterbetter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). In foal to the red-hot War Front, Betterbetterbetter was a late supplement to the catalogue and sold as the next-to-last horse through the ring through the Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales consignment.

Also in the 11-strong supplemental entries, which were taken all the way through Saturday night, were three other million-dollar sales.

“Certainly the supplemental results helped us,” Browning said. “They were a significant component. It’s rewarding for the marketplace for the sales topper to be a supplement and bring $5.2 million as the next-to-last horse to go through the ring. Certainly the buyers stayed to the very end because there were quality horses.”

In addition to a strong domestic group of buyers, which included Pope, Aaron and Marie Jones, Summer Wind Farm and Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings, million-dollar sales went the way of Qatari, Japanese and Australian buyers.

Waterhouse Gets Her Cup

Fiorente (Ire) (h, 5, Monsun {Ger}-Desert Bloom {Ire}, by Pilsudski {Ire}), second in last year's G1 Melbourne Cup, provided a storybook ending to 'The Race That Stops a Nation', giving Hall of Fame trainer Gai Waterhouse her first win in Australia's greatest race. It was the third Cup victory for jockey Damien Oliver. Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), second in the 2011 Melbourne Cup, filled that position once again; while Mount Athos (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), fifth last year for trainer Luca Cumani, battled gamely on the rail to be third. See tomorrow's TDN for the full result.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

BARRY WEISBORD:

To get a racehorse to turn in a great performance on a specific day is a difficult task, fraught with the well-known pitfalls that are intrinsic to the breed and the sport. The complications of traveling long distances, and facing new surroundings and racing surfaces makes it even more so.

And so, those of us who were lucky enough to be in attendance at Santa Anita Saturday, or watching via television or internet, were treated to not just a few great performances, but seven of them. On this day, talented equine athletes and their human counterparts, trainers and jockeys alike, joined forces to produce a series of career-defining performances that rivaled any day of racing you'll ever see.

After traveling to the U.S. to win the Beverly D. in August, Dank returned to America again, traveling a long way from her Newmarket home to defeat a top group of fillies on an unusual turf course.

Two 5-year-old mares were stunning. Groupie Doll started the parade of back-to-back Breeders' Cups with her victory in the Filly and Mare Sprint, and shortly after, Mizdirection followed suit in the Turf Sprint.

The Irish 2000 Guineas winner Magician hadn't run since Royal Ascot in June, his effort compromised by a freak accident described in yesterday's TDN. With no prep race, his first start at a mile and half, and against older horses after having traveled 5,000 miles, was nothing short of phenomenal.

Our 2011 Juvenile Sprint winner Secret Circle spent early 2012 on the Triple Crown trail, but was sidelined by injury and missed a year and a half. After just one prep race, he won the Sprint and proved himself a worthy two-time winner.

And what can you say about Wise Dan and Mucho Macho Man? Wise Dan, after stumbling at the start of the Mile, was carried wide throughout and ran farther than anyone else in the race. He went 10 feet more than second-place Za Approval, 51 feet more than third finisher Silentio. Mucho Macho Man, denied last year by a half-length and missing his intended Woodward prep because of the sloppy track, was tuned to perfection in California by Kathy Ritvo.

There was a lot to appreciate about the week.

Having great weather all week was a welcome bonus to our horses, our owners and our fans. The mountains were beautiful, and the sunrises over Santa Anita breathtaking. The improvements to the track's facilities were stylish and comfortable, and I thought people really enjoyed Friday night's A Taste of the World event, the planning of which I was proud to take part in.

But when it was all said and done, as I was flying back to Lexington Sunday, it was the magnitude of the equine performances that particularly resonated with me. I have seen a lot of racing, and I have been to a lot of great racing events. But I have never witnessed anything as special as the depth of the career-defining performances I witnessed this Saturday at Santa Anita.

Insights from pedigree expert Andrew Caufield

...the unique opportunity of buying the best daughter of War Front, arguably the hottest stallion in America.

War Front...like his sire Danzig...has proved his ability to sire stakes winners on different surfaces in the U.S. and Europe.

"Summer Soiree has no duplication in the first five generations of her pedigree....There are also elements in her pedigree which suggest that she would be an ideal match for several...top international stallions."

"Summer Soirée embodied this versatility in a career with wins on dirt, all weather and turf. This adaptability underlines her potential to shine as a broodmare in the U.S., Europe, Japan, or Australia."

"Other suitable proven matches include New Approach, Frankel, Dubawai, Sea the Stars, Deep Impact, Smart Strike, Tiznow, Speightstown, Street Cry, Medaglia D'Oro."

NTRA.

The fact that her sire War Front was a fast son of Danzig is another indicator Summer Soiree could be ideal for Galileo. The Coolmore champion has excelled with daughters of Danehill and Green Desert...producing champions Frankel, Teofilo, and Was and her sister which set a new record for a yearling filly when she recently sold for 5,000,000gns.

...her second dam, Flying Honors, is bred along similar lines to the exceptional producer Magnificent Style, [who] produced six Group winners including three to Sadler's Wells and two to Galileo.

"Summer Soiree comes from a female family which enjoyed spectacular success for Claiborne Farm. These include Levee and Delta (broodmares of the year). Her second dam Flying Honors is bred along very similar lines to Magnificent Style."

Browning credited a deep buying bench and quality offerings for Monday's strong results.

"There was tremendous diversity amongst buyers and bidders," he said. "They came from literally every corner of the world. But of course, it starts and ends with the quality of horses and we were fortunate enough to have a catalogue full of tremendous, tremendous horses. The owners and consignors entrusted their valuable horses to us and I think, for the most part, they would say they were richly rewarded with the results tonight. It's a great way to start the November sales off for the industry to have the tremendous energy and tremendous interest we had tonight. It's very rewarding and we're very very happy."

Who's 'Better' Than Mandy?

For the second-straight year, Whisper Hill Farm's Mandy Pope came away with the top-priced horse at Fasig-Tipton November, that after seeing off the Wertheimer brothers to land the exquisitely bred Betterbetterbetter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a 3/4-sister to Irish champions and Group 1 winners Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), for $5.2 million. Twelve months ago, Pope signed for the $10 million Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) at November. In all, she acquired four mares last night for a total of $9.05 million.

"A mare by Galileo is obviously something that everyone would love to have, and she was gorgeous," said Pope of Betterbetterbetter. "I'm speechless."

LANWADES The independent option™

Selling toward the end of the session as hip 220 as part of the supplemental catalog, the 4-year-old Betterbetterbetter was consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales. She sold in foal to War Front on an early Feb. 16 cover.

Betterbetterbetter was bred in Ireland by Premier Bloodstock and was raced by Mrs. Richard Henry and Mrs. John Magnier. She was a Group 3 performer on the track for the Aidan O'Brien barn, but her appeal was always going to lie in her bloodlines. A daughter of the terrific producer Jude (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), she is, in addition to Yesterday and Quarter Moon, a three-parts sibling to three other stakes horses, including All My Loving (GB) (Sadler's Wells), dam of the Group 2 winner Thomas Chippendale (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). She is carrying her first foal.

Pope sat between Timber Town Stable's Wayne and Cathy Swezey, and relinquished the bidding duties to Wayne as Betterbetterbetter strode into the ring.

"Mandy has made a real effort to move her genetics up, and tonight we've done that," said Wayne, whose Timber Town is home to Havre de Grace and another of Pope's prized mares, the GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro).

Pope said Betterbetterbetter's price, while high, wasn't a shock. Asked if she might considering selling the resulting foal in Europe, or if she might send the mare to Europe in the future, she said, "Not necessarily. The War Fronts are very popular here, and at this point I like having my mares close to home. We may send her over for a breeding season, but right now I just want to enjoy having her. She'll stay here this year, for sure."

Pope was a force at November yesterday. In addition to Betterbetterbetter, she purchased:

- the Hill 'n' Dale-consigned Rhumb Line (Mr. Greeley) (hip 134), dam of MGISW Zazu (Tapit) and GSW Flashback (Tapit) for $2 million;
- the Gainesway-consigned Speed Succeeds (Gone West) (hip 154), dam of GISW Brilliant Speed (Dynaformer) and SW & GSP Souper Speedy (Indian Charlie), for $1 million;
- and the Hill 'n' Dale-consigned Goldena Podkove (War Pass) (hip 51), a half to GISW Giralomo (A.P. Indy) and to the dam of Derby hero Super Saver (Maria's Mon), for $850,000.

"We bought some really nice mares, and I'm very excited," Pope said.

Asked about Rhumb Line in particular, Pope commented, "She's obviously a proven broodmare. She's one of the few that have produced three or four graded stakes horses, and all the fillies she's produced have sold very well as broodmares. She's in foal carrying a full to Zazu and Flashback, and hopefully we can get out of her quick."

Whisper Hill currently has about 30 mares, but is planning on reducing that number to 20, with several horses entered in both the Keeneland November and January sales.

Torrealba Brings Love and Pride Home...

The Borges Torrealba family's Stud TNT co-bred Love and Pride, but parted ways with the stunning daughter of A.P. Indy as a youngster, well before she became a two-time Grade I winner of over $985,000. Last night, the operation's head Goncalo Torrealba saw fit to go to $4.9 million to welcome her back into the fold.

Three Chimneys, of which the Torrealba family is a partner, consigned Love and Pride as hip 90 on behalf of Dimitrios Katsaros's Green Hills Farm, and the 5-year-old mare, carrying her first foal by Distorted Humor, will head right back to the Lexington-area nursery.

"She's a special mare that comes around only once in while," said Three Chimneys' Case Clay. "We're very happy she's going to be coming home to Three Chimneys. Of course, Goncalo is partial to that family, and knows the family quite well. She showed herself just beautifully all week, and so I wasn't really surprised by the price. There were many people that were interested, so it was anybody's guess [what she'd bring]."

To be sure, there were few chinks in Love and Pride's armor. A big, stout mare with more than just a passing resemblance to her sire, she was produced by the Grade I performer Ile de France (Storm Cat), a half-sister to the brilliant champion Bernardini, another by A.P. Indy.

Bred by Stud TNT and Live Oak Stud, she was put through the 2010 Keeneland April 2-Year-Old Sale through Niall Brennan's consignment, but was bought back for $380,000. Barbara Montanye, representing Green Hills Farm, was an underbidder on the mare, and made arrangements to purchase her shortly thereafter.

Put into training with Todd Pletcher, Love and Pride was unraced at two. She became a stakes winner at three, but really blossomed as a 4-year-old last season. She defeated Royal Delta (Empire Maker) and It's Tricky (Mineshaft) in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga, then shipped out to California to romp over Joyful Victory (Tapit) in the GI Zenyatta S. Retired after finishing unplaced in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic, Love and Pride was put in foal to Distorted Humor on a Mar. 9 cover.

"We would have continued to race her, but she had an injury, and we have a lot of other horses in training that cost a lot of money," reasoned Montanye, who was on hand last night at Fasig to watch the mare sell.

The buzz around Love and Pride had built up well before she entered the ring, and as she was being introduced by Fasig's Terence Collier, Summer Wind Farm's Laura Jane and Frank Lyon, standing in the press box, signaled through the sale company's Reed Ringler that they would open the bidding at $2 million. That lofty salvo was immediately answered by a $1 million raise from Torrealba that pushed the price on the board to $3 million. Three $500,000 bids got the price to $4.5 million, and while the Lyons gave a game try at $4.7 million, Torrealba, sitting along the aisle on the right side of the pavilion, sealed the deal with his next offer.

"It was well over the reserve, but she brought about what, in my heart, I thought she'd bring," said Montanye. "I thought she might even bring a little more. But we're extremely pleased with who bought her, because she's going back to Three Chimneys. And I have to thank Three Chimneys, who did a wonderful job prepping her."

Green Hills Farm's office is located in New York City, and the operation races primarily in the Empire State. Green Hills has 16 horses in training, mostly with Todd Pletcher, but also uses Michael Matz, Christophe Clement, Chad Brown and Shug McGaughey. Montanye is "the secretary, the treasurer, the director and basically the CEO," she laughed.

"Our main business is racing, not breeding," she explained, adding that selling Love and Pride was an opportunity to infuse capital into the racing stable. "We raced [MGISW] Voodoo Dancer, and Voodoo Dancer we didn't sell. We would never sell her. But we missed the opportunity to support the racing stable. So this was our window of opportunity." Cont. p8

Montanye said that, emotionally, it wasn't easy. "From a broken heart side, when they reached the reserve, I almost say, 'Oh no!'" she said. "But on the other side, it's a sound business decision. And knowing where she's going and how she'll be cared for, it was a wonderful decision. It suits everybody all around. I can go see her, and go see that baby [she's carrying]."

Montanye said Love and Pride is carrying a colt. "Had it been a filly, she might not have been in the sale," she said.

The Right Direction...

Fresh off the heels of collecting her second consecutive win in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, Mizdirection (Mizzen Mast) (hip 104) drew plenty of admirers at Fasig-Tipton Monday, including Mandore International principal Nicholas de Watrigant, going to $2.7-million on behalf of Qatari Sheikh Joann Al Thani Al Shaqab Racing. Offering the mare on behalf of Jim Rome's Jungle Racing and partners, Hip 104 mare was consigned by Three Chimneys Sales.

"It was in the ballpark of what we were expecting, but she brought a bit more than I thought," said Three Chimney's Case Clay. "She beat the boys twice, and both times, she gunned down males late to win. She is a very special mare. We are very pleased with the price."

"There was so much attention on her from the moment she got off the van," said Clay. "She showed herself really well and just has this attitude about her. She has this regal attitude about her, so there was a lot of attention on her. She got off the van at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and hadn't turned a hair since. We started showing her right away and she handled it beautifully. I think people were very impressive with that. All the right people were on her and they were coming late to see her. At 2p.m. today, all the right people came back to see her."

The mare was the sole purchase by Al Shaqab Racing at Monday's Fasig sale.

"There had been plenty of buzz earlier today that it would be a strong sale.

The right product sold well. The market was better than it was last year, so the market is going up."

"It was great to see buyers from all over the world. They were buying in Europe and their spending was strong here. Also, domestic buyers were stepping up, so there was a good mix here."

Perseverance Rewarded...

One year ago, In Lingerie (hip 73) was led out of the sale's ring at the Fasig-Tipton November sale unsold for a princely sum of $2.2 million. While that decision may have appeared to be a missed opportunity to many, it certainly proved to be anything but for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners--headed by Aron Wellman--who opted to stand firm and not to let the Grade I winner go. Fast forward to last night's renewal of the sale, and the winner of Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. reeled in a cool $2.4 million from Dr. Mitsuru Ikeeda, bidding on behalf of the Japanese powerhouse Shadai Farm. The 4-year-old filly was sold in foal to European superstar Frankel (GB), who is standing his first season at Banstead Manor Stud in England.

In Lingerie

"Buying her back at this sale last year, then coming up with the master plan of sending her overseas to Frankel, bringing her back and ringing the bell here at Fasig-Tipton--it's a special experience, a very emotional experience," said Wellman.

Presenting the fifth-highest-priced lot of the sale was the obviously elated Meg Levy, who heads Bluewater Sales LLC.

"It brings a tear to my eye," said a teary Levy. "She is a very special mare. I am very happy to have had the opportunity to sell a mare of that caliber. She did everything right. She went to England, returned to the farm and jumped through every hoop. I am so appreciative of Eclipse, who entrusted us to take care of her and who were patient through the whole process. She is fantastic. But I am really sad that she is leaving the country. I know she is going to a very good home, but I am sad I won't see her again."

Levy added, "We first got her when she came off the racetrack and we prepared her for this sale last year. We got her back after she returned from England and prepared her for this sale. I've spent a lot of time with her."

Levy quipped, "I'm not crying about the price, that's for sure." Cont. p10

Regarding the connections that made yesterday's success possible, Wellman added, "Meg and Mike Levy have been instrumental in the whole process, their whole staff, all the partners at Eclipse, Gary Barber--it's been a team effort. It's been a long, fun road to get here. It's really gratifying to get the result we got here tonight. It's hard to see a mare like that go, but we have to treat it like a business. When you have a mare that you know is going to command multi-million dollars, you know she is going to go to a good home. So that part of it is a relief. She is going to go overseas to Shadai with some of the best caretakers in the world, so for that we are grateful. We're excited to see her as a broodmare."

In Lingerie Takes Off...

In Lingerie RNA'd for $22,000 as a yearling at the 2010 Keeneland September Sale before punctuating that oversight with an impressive six-length victory at Turfway Park in January of her 3-year-old season. That win caught the eye of Eclipse, and they promptly stepped in to purchase her privately. Under the care of trainer Todd Pletcher, the filly collected victories in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S., GIII Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway and the Spinster. She also finished second in the GI Alabama S. and third in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks.

"It is certainly has been an emotional experience, from the very beginning when we purchased the mare, when we were just an upstart company, just getting off the ground, taking a big leap of faith on largely on an unproven filly," said Wellman . "We've come full circle with her. We've won a Grade I with her and she is multiple Grade I placed."

Explaining the decision further to hang on to the young filly despite a significant amount of money on the table at last year's November sale, Wellman, explained, "Last year, there was still the hope that she could be a high-quality racehorse at four. She had a long campaign, had some physical ailments that were niggling at her and that needed to be addressed if we were going to go on with her. She arrived at Fasig-Tipton [in 2012] not looking her best. She had gone back and forth across the country a bunch of times, and she didn't look well at all. I just thought there was more meat on the bone here. At the moment, we thought we could race her and be a top filly in the country, but we were also working behind the scenes to see if we could get to Frankel. Once we got the green light [to breed to the champion], it was sort of a no-brainer. We knew we just had to do it. It was such a unique, novel opportunity to breed to Frankel and bring her back to the States. We thought she could be the very first mare in foal to Frankel sold at public auction here and that turned out to be true. It turned out to be a piece of history."

He continued, "It wasn't easy. In my opinion, Frankel was the greatest horse in my life and, some may argue, of all time. The demand for him was insane, so to be able to him was very difficult. The fact we were able to get a season is largely attributed to Mike Levy, who went to bat for us and got the season, which was huge. It was an intricate process, from getting the season, putting her in quarantine and sending her over there. It's been a very unique, somewhat eccentric, experience. We are very happy with the result and we are grateful to her for what she has done for us."

Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners currently has about 25 horses in total, including 10 yearlings. Primarily geared toward racing, the operation generally sells its broodmares and retains 15-20 horses in training at any given time. Wellman indicated the partnership's focus is on young fillies with 'blue-sky potential' like GISWs In Ligeria or Byrama (GB) (Byron {GB}).

"We hope to buy them early in their career and, hopefully, develop them into blue-sky prospects," he said. "In Lingerie is the poster child for that process. She was here to sell. Eclipse and Gary Barber are primarily in the business to race, although we are involved in breeding, when we have a high quality mare, it becomes a business." Cont. p11

Armed with several trainers across the country, Eclipse is assisted by Simon Callaghan and Patrick Gallagher on the West Coast and Wayne Catalano in the Midwest in addition to East coast trainers Graham Motion, Bill Mott and Todd Pletcher, who is also responsible for GI Foxwood's King's Bishop S. hero Capo Bastone (Street Boss).

"You really have to put yourself in a position where you have to take some money off of the table," Wellman added. "At the end of the day, people want the racing action. Would we love to hold on to her and race her babies, but financially, that is not a reality for us at this time."

Shadai Gets Its Gold...

Proving active at yesterday's evening session at Fasig-Tipton, Japan's Shadai Farm stepped in to secure four offerings, including last night's fourth- and fifth-highest priced lots of the session. In addition to In Lingerie, Shadai secured hip 215, Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro—Champagne Glow, by Saratoga Six) who brought $2.7 million late in the session.

Asked what he liked about the winner of the GI Test S. and GI Acorn S., Dr. Ikeeda had one word. "Class." He added, "She has class. She is excellent."

Also consigned by Bluewater Sales, the half-sister to GI Belmont S. winner Ruler on Ice (Roman Ruler) was sold in foal to Gainesway sire Tapit.

"Of course, I was surprised by the price, but my boss said, "Go, go, go higher."

Regarding his second-highest expenditure of the session, In Lingerie, Dr. Ikeeda said, "We expected higher. We liked her size and the way she moved. We were looking for a good filly to take back to Japan, and this filly was what we were looking for."

"I am a big fan of the horse. We also have two mares in foal to him, and he was a very good horse, so we are happy to have another one. I am excited."

Shadai also purchased hip 13, GISW Cambina (Ire) (Hawk Wing), for $750,000 from Three Chimneys Sales and Hip 84, GSW Kathmanblu (Bluegrass Cat) for $600,000 from Four Star Sales, agent for Glencrest.

Joneses Busy at Fasig-Tipton...

With Grade I winner Joyful Victory (Tapit) (hip 80) leading the way with a flashy $2-million price tag, Aaron and Marie Jones restocked their commercial broodmare band with three quick seven-figure purchases during Monday's Fasig-Tipton November sale. Sitting alongside advisors Frank Taylor and Doug Cauthen in a booth overlooking the sales ring, Marie Jones sprang into action to secure the hard-knocking Joyful Victory and was in action for the very next lot, going to $1.2 million for multiple graded stakes winner Juanita (Mineshaft) (hip 81). Just minutes later she paid that same figure for graded stakes winner Mamma Kimbo (Discreet Cat) (hip 96).

"Our goal is to be the number-one commercial breeder in the United States and these are the kind of mares that can put you in that spot," explained Frank Taylor.

Jones added, "There are a couple of mares that we're retiring due to age, so we're always looking for quality in our broodmare band and I think we got that with these."

The Oregon-based Joneses have a broodmare band of about 15 head. Among the stars bred by the couple are champions Ashado and Speightstown.

"I was excited," Jones said of the frenetic bidding. "I wanted them and I was hoping to get them and I was glad I did."

Joyful Victory won this year's GI Santa Margarita S. and GII Molly Pitcher S. while racing for Rick Porter's Fox Hill Farm.

"Joyful Victory was definitely our number one pick," Taylor revealed. "We thought she was the best physical in the sale and that is what we're looking for."

Fox Hill purchased Joyful Victory as a 2-year-old for $400,000 out of the 2010 Fasig-Tipton February sale. She went on to earn over $1.2 million on the racetrack. It was the second year in a row that a Fox Hill runner caused fireworks in the November ring. Last year, the stable's Horse of the Year Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) sold for $10 million at this sale.

The 5-year-old Juanita won the 2011 GII Indiana Oaks and 2012 GII La Troienne. She is in foal to Medaglia d'Oro.

"Juanita is a good young mare who is in foal early to a good horse," Taylor commented. "She really fit our program, too."

The 4-year-old Mamma Kimbo, winner of the 2012 GII Fantasy S., sold in foal to Bernardini. She was a $120,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase by John Fort, whose Peachtree Stable campaigned her.

All three mares were consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

Lyon on Top for Careless Jewel...

Laura Jane Lyon had already made the trek up to her bidding spot inside the Fasig-Tipton press box several times, most notably finishing among the underbidders on the $4.9-million Love and Pride (A.P. Indy), without signing a ticket, but the Arkansas native would not be denied for Careless Jewel (Tapit), going to $1.85 million to add the 7-year-old mare to her Summer Wind Farm broodmare band.

"Every time we've been up here, we've been outbid," Lyon, who bid alongside her husband Frank and daughter Karen Bailey, said. "We had a stopping point [with Careless Jewel], just like on the others. She was under that, so we're happy to have her."

Asked what she liked about the mare (hip 103), who won the 2009 GI Alabama S. and sold in foal to first-season sire Bodemeister, Lyon said, "Her physical, her race record and she fits a program that we are trying to rebuild after the loss of a number of our mares. So she fits the program."

Careless Jewel

NYRA/Coglianes

The price tag wasn't a surprise to Lyon. "I wish we could have gotten her for a little bit less, but it was about what we expected in tonight's market--this seems to be a very strong market."

Summer Wind Farm currently has a broodmare band of about 22 mares, down from some 40 mares in recent years. But, according to Lyon, it isn't the number that is important.

"It's not necessarily the number, it's the quality that we want to get back to," she said.

Careless Jewel, a $40,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, earned over $1 million on the track while racing for Donna and Vern Dubinsky's Donver Stable. Sold to Southern Equine for $1.95 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale in 2010, she produced a Street Cry (Ire) colt in 2012 and a Medaglia d'Oro colt this year. Bluewater Sales consigned the mare on behalf of Mike Moreno's Southern Equine.

It was the second seven-figure price tag for a graduate of the Donver racing stable. Donver sold Canadian champion Inglorious (Hennessy) for $1.35 million earlier in the sale. Cont. p13

Lyon was back in action Monday when signing for Strike the Bell (Mizzen Mast), in foal to War Front, for $1.1 million. The 7-year-old mare (hip 163), purchased by SF Bloodstock for $150,000 at the 2011 Fasig November sale, was consigned by Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services.

For Donver, Another Glorious Success...

Three years ago, Vern and Donna Dubinsky's Donver Stable sold stable star Careless Jewel (Tapit) for $1.95 million at Fasig-Tipton November. The Canadian husband-and-wife duo achieved another seven-figure result last night when their champion Inglorious (Hennessy--Noble Strike, by Smart Strike) brought a bid of $1.35 million from Kia-Ora Stud Australia P/I.

Hill 'n' Dale Sales consigned the 5-year-old, selling as a broodmare prospect, as hip 72. Vern Dubinsky stood in the press box alongside Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura and watched the action unfold.

Inglorious Michael Burns

"We were hoping to get over $1 million for her, but you never know what's going to happen," said a smiling Dubinsky. "She's been such a nice filly for us. We're very happy."

Like Careless Jewel, Inglorious was a modest yearling purchase for Donver. With the Florida-based horseman Ciaran Dunne advising, Donver acquired Inglorious for $83,556 at the 2009 Ontario September Sale. She went on to defeat males in the 2011 Queen's Plate S., in addition to the Woodbine Oaks and La Lorgnette S., on her way to being named Canada's champion 3-year-old filly that year.

Based just outside Edmonton, the Dubinskys have been racing for over two decades. Vern Dubinsky took over his family's trucking business in 1987, building a small operation into a full-grown transportation and service company specializing in hauling oil rigs.

A Dream for Japan...

Shunsuke Yoshida, bidding on behalf of his father Katsumi Yoshida, signed the ticket for four broodmares during Monday's Fasig-Tipton November sale. Leading the way were a pair of $1.9-million purchases; Mi Sueno (Pulpit) (hip 195) and champion Awesome Feather (Awesome of Course) (hip 207).

Mi Sueno, who brought $1.7 million at this sales ring as a weanling in 2007, won the 2009 GI Del Mar Debutante and sold in foal to the great Frankel (GB).

Asked what he liked about the 6-year-old mare, who is out of Grade I winner Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), Yoshida said simply, "Herself--she was a Grade I winner and also she has a really good pedigree. I thought she would bring more, but I was happy to get her for that."

Yoshida also paid $1.1 million for Palace Rumor (Royal Anthem), the dam of GI Belmont S. winner Palace Malice (Curlin) (hip 119) and $875,000 for Willa B Awesome (Awesome Gambler) (hip 186).

He admitted bidding was competitive at Fasig Monday.

"We've been trying for many mares, now we have four, which is good, but at first we had trouble," he said.

Awesome Feather, Her Smile Shine for Adena...

Frank Stronach's Adena Springs had two breakout horses last night, including the 2010 champion juvenile filly Awesome Feather (Awesome of Course), who sold to Katsumi Yoshida's Northern Farm for $1.9 million. Awesome Feather, hip 207, is carrying her first foal by Medaglia d'Oro.

It was Awesome Feather's second time through the ring at November. Three years ago, just after winning the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, she was offered by breeder Jacks or Better Farm and realized a bid of $2.3 million from Adena. Before she could make it back to the track, however, she was diagnosed with a torn tendon, and was on the sidelines for 11 months. Given ample time between races, she made five more starts for Adena and trainer Chad Brown over the next two seasons. She won four, including the 2010 GI Gazelle H. at Aqueduct. She headed into the 2012 Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic unbeaten and with a single prep under her belt, but had to settle for sixth in what was nonetheless a stellar career.

"Honestly, that's a bittersweet sell," said Adena's Eric Hamelback yesterday. "It was the same when we sold Ginger Punch and Spun Sugar--it's an amazing opportunity to work with horses like that, but at the end of the day, our jobs is to get them in foal and move them along. But she was a great racemare for the Stronachs, and I don't think anybody but the Stronachs would have given her as much time to come back and race. She was an amazing horse. We certainly wish the new connections all the luck in the world. Hopefully, they'll have as much fun with her as we did."

Adena also sold another mare previously purchased at November, the Grade I winner Her Smile (Include--Hepburn, by Capote). S F Bloodstock made the winning bid at $1,075,000. Consigned as hip 63, the 5-year-old sold in foal to Adena's star stallion Ghostzapper. Adena purchased Her Smile from Bobby Flay for $1 million at the 2011 November Sale.

"Originally, Frank bought her to run," said Hamelback. "And she ran a few starts for us, but again, Frank has always had the business model of getting mares in foal to our stallions and then returning them back to the market. In this particular sale, we've obviously got some very good quality mares, and we're not going to give them away. She was just a bit above the reserve, and valuing the market, Frank hit it right on. Obviously, we'd love to have gotten more, but in the current market we're pleased. She is in foal to a great horse, and best of luck to the buyers. They are partners and we've done business with them before, so we're very happy for SF Bloodstock."

From $20k to $1.1 million, A Regal ‘Palace’...

Palace Rumor (Royal Anthem), the dam of this year’s GI Belmont S. winner Palace Malice (Curlin), gave her connections a huge score yesterday after selling to Northern Farm for $1.1 million. The 10-year-old, in foal to Mineshaft, was offered by Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales Agency as hip 119.

A stakes winner of over $110,000 and a half-sister to two other stakes winners, Palace Rumor was acquired by Off the Hook’s Joe Appelbaum for just $20,000 as a broodmare at the 2011 Keeneland November Sale. Appelbaum was acting on behalf of P & G Stable.

“Palace Rumor was on a list of mares they gave us to look at and vet, and she was the one we liked,” Appelbaum explained. “I told them they’d never be able to buy her for $20,000, which was what the budget was. She was in foal to Mineshaft, whose season was something like $35,000 that year. But it was the very end of the day and everybody wanted to go home. I decided to stick around and get a drink at the bar. I bid one time for her at $20,000, and we got her.”

A few months after Appelbaum signed the ticket for her, the mare’s 2-year-old colt Palace Malice sold to Dogwood Stable for $200,000 at the Keeneland April Sale. This past June, he carried the Dogwood green and yellow to victory in the third leg of the Triple Crown. He also won the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga.

“She was a really nice mare by Royal Anthem, but it was the depths of the broodmare market, and we were just there,” added Appelbaum. “The rest is history.”

Palace Rumor did not have a foal in 2012. She has a Pomeroy colt on the ground.

Bandoroff Busy at Fasig...

Craig Bandoroff’s Denali Stud, bidding on behalf of two longtime clients, secured three broodmares during Monday’s Fasig-Tipton sale. Leading the way was Danceinthesunlight (A.P. Indy), a $1.75-million purchase on behalf of an anonymous client. The 8-year-old mare (hip 213) is the dam of GI Travers S. runner-up Moreno (Ghostzapper) and sold in foal to Giant’s Causeway. Southern Equine purchased Danceinthesunlight, a daughter of champion Dancethruthedawn (Mr. Prospector), for $675,000 out of the 2008 Keeneland November sale and sold her yesterday through Bluewater Sales.

“She had it all,” Bandoroff said of Danceinthesunlight. “She had the physical. She has unbelievable pedigree and family. That man, he wants it all. They have to have family and they have to look the part and she did. Moreno is a real horse who has already done it.” Cont. p17

Year in, year out there’s a Champion, G1 winner or great white hope by this profound influence for speed, balance and brilliance. This has been his promise to mare owners. His is the quality that isn’t elusive.

Bidding on behalf of Tom Ryan's Dattt Farm, Bandoroff went to $1 million to secure Golden Artemis (Malibu Moon) (hip 210), the dam of GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller). That juvenile filly was a gallant fourth after breaking from the far outside in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf last Friday at Santa Anita.

"She was beautiful," Bandoroff said of the 7-year-old mare, who sold carrying a full-sister to My Conquestadory. "[Ryan] had pictures of the foal and yearling and they both looked just like the mare."

Bandoroff added the exploits of the mare's first foal were also an added incentive.

"When My Conquestadory won the Alcibiades, that was as impressive a race as I've ever seen in my life," he commented. "I think she wins the Breeders' Cup race with a better post. And if she wins the GI Kentucky Oaks next year, that mare will look cheap."

Golden Artemis was consigned by owner Paul Tackett, who claimed the mare for $8,000 in 2010.

Also bidding on behalf of Dattt Farm, Bandoroff paid $750,000 for Hessonite (Freud) (hip 64).

Of the market, Bandoroff admitted, "I honestly didn't think we'd get the dam of Moreno. But I think the market is fair."

Hip	Name	Price
11	Brushed By a Star (Eddington) Consigned by Four Star Sales Purchased by SF Bloodstock	425,000

Brushed By a Star was making her second appearance on this 'Night of the Stars,' having fetched $400,000 last year on the strength of victories in the Gil Molly Pitcher S. and Gil Chilukki S. days prior to the sale. She was on the board in all four starts this season, including a third in the GI Santa Margarita S. and amassed $171,000 in earnings before making back her sale price from 2012 and a touch more.

23	Conchita (Cozzene) Consigned by Dromoland Farm Inc (Gerry Dilger), Agent I Purchased by Alpha Delta/Reynolds Bell, agent	750,000

Noted Thoroughbred owner/breeder Peter Blum went to $370,000 for this half-sister to G1 Fillies' Mile heroine White Moonstone (Dynaformer) in foal to More Than Ready at the Keeneland November Sale in 2010 and recently sold the mare's yearling filly by Bernardini for $300,000 at Keeneland September. Already the dam of G3 UAE Oaks third-place finisher Music Chart (Exchange Rate) and offered here in foal to Speightstown, Conchita repaid her owner nicely Monday evening.

43 Flaming Slew (Slew City Slew) 250,000
 Consigned by Pauls Mill, agent
 Purchased by Arch Bloodstock, agent
 Ben Walden Jr. and Hargus Sexton teamed to purchase Flaming Slew, third in the GI CCA Oaks in 2008, for $70,000 at Keeneland January in 2011. The mare's first foal, a filly by former Pauls Mill and current WinStar stallion Bellamy Road, was bought back on a bid of $170,000 at this year's September sale. Walden and Sexton put the mare in foal to Kitten's Joy and parted company with her on good terms last night.

 Consigned by Bluewater Sales, agent XXXI
 Purchased by Borges Torrealba Holdings
 It was an enormously successful evening for the Southern Equine team, which sold seven horses through Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales agency, including $2.7-million Champagne d'Oro. Mike Moreno's operation acquired this granddaughter of champion juvenile filly Flanders (Seeking the Gold) in early 2012 and immediately got her some Grade 1 black-type in the Las Virgenes S. The filly saw her value appreciate further this season with a 9-1 upset in the GII Marjorie L. Everett H. at Hollywood Park, and Goncalo Torrealba came calling Monday evening.

128 Purely Hot (Pure Prize) 225,000
 Consigned by Hidden Brook, agent XI
 Purchased by Volt Resources
 Claimed for $10,000 out of a third over the Penn National main track, Purely Hot was a revelation when switched to the Presque Isle Tapeta track, winning five straight races, including the Satin N Lace S. June 9, before finishing second to champion and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint repeater Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) in the GII Presque Isle Downs Masters S. Sept. 9. Volt Resources, the same outfit that landed Brushed By a Star last year, proved victorious in the end.

173 wnl, c, Tapit--Trickski (Peteski) 400,000
 B-Mike Abraham (KY)
 Consigned by Darby Dan Farm, agent
 Purchased by Orchard Lane Farm
 This colt's breeder went to $285,000 to acquire Trickski, a half-sister to GISW Dearest Trickski (Proudest Romeo) in 2008 and has bred very successfully from her. A full-sister to this offering made $460K at KEESEP in 2011, while the mare's Unbridled's Song colt fetched $180K last fall. Ben Glass spent $425K for Trickski's Street Cry (Ire) yearling colt two months ago and Abraham ended his association with the mare on a high note here.

KEENELAND
NOVEMBER
 Breeding Stock Sale
 Tuesday, Nov. 5-14
 10:00 a.m.

KEENOV BEGINS 10-DAY STAND

The Keeneland November Sale begins this morning in Lexington, and all signs point toward a robust 10 days of trading at North America's biggest and most important breeding stock sale. A total of 3,602 horses have been catalogued, down 9% from last year's figure of 3,958, which was conducted over 11 sessions. Included are 1,739 broodmares and broodmare prospects, 1,364 weanlings, 481 horses of racing age, 10 yearlings and eight stallions. The sale runs through Nov. 14 with no dark days. Sessions begin daily at 10:00 a.m.

"We've had a good group of people out here looking this morning and yesterday, and there were a lot of people looking on Saturday, as well," Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell said Monday. "There's a lot of traffic through the barns."

Just like last night's Fasig-Tipton November Sale, Keeneland received some big updates care of the Breeders' Cup World Championships over the weekend. The reigning champion female sprinter Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) successfully defended her title in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, and will be one of the highlights during tomorrow's second session when she sells as hip 350 from Tom Evans's Trackside Farm consignment. Russell said it was a pleasure to be offering the homebred 5-year-old, who sells as a racing or broodmare prospect for trainer and owner Buff Bradley, his father Fred Bradley, and Carl Hurst and Brent Burns "The Bradleys are great people, and Groupie Doll's been around here [in Kentucky] for a long time, as have Buff and Mr. Bradley himself," said Russell. "We're very happy for the whole team she won. She was fantastic; she really was."

Keeneland will also be offering the dam of the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Secret Circle (Eddington), the 11-year-old mare Ragtime Hope (Dixieland Band) (hip 835), in foal to Arch; and a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner and the current Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry), the 8-year-old Courting Elaine (Doneraile Court) (hip 114), in foal to Ghostzapper.

"It was a great weekend of racing, and it gets people jazzed up to turn up to the sale and, hopefully, buy horses," Russell said of the Breeders' Cup.

In total, there are no fewer than 15 Grade I winners catalogued in November's Book 1, including the recent standouts Byrama (GB) (Byron {GB}) (hip 99), Daisy Devine (Kafwain) (hip 321), Executiveprivilege (First Samurai) (hip 334), Lady of Fifty (After Market) (hip 170), Lady of Shamrock (Scat Daddy) (hip 171) and Summer Soiree (War Front) (hip 244), who sells in foal to Medaglia d'Oro.

Other highlights of the sale include the dispersal of Robsham Stables, which features two Grade I-winning mares: R Heat Lightning (Trippi) (hip 16), in foal to Bernardini; and Awesome Maria (Maria's Mon) (hip 87), in foal to Giant's Causeway. Lane's End handles the consigning duties.

"The Robshams kept a very boutique breeding operation, and two have those to Grade I winners during the opening session is spectacular," said Russell.

Another dispersal, that of the late Eric Kronfeld, features a half-sister to Horse of the Year Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), the 4-year-old Eblouissante (Bernardini) (hip 130).

"To sell a half-sister to Zenyatta is obviously very exciting," said Russell. "She's one of many high-class mares we'll be offering."

Russell pointed out that many of those high-class mares have international appeal. "We have mares in foal to Frankel (GB), we have mares in foal to Galileo (Ire), and there is a good group of international clientele on the grounds at the moments," he said.

The large number of racing prospects--they comprise roughly 15% of the catalogue--is bigger than normal and includes a large consignment from Adena Springs, which purchased many of the horses as yearlings in 2011 for a racing venture. "I believe the horses needed to be sold by the end of their 3-year-old years, so that's why they're all here," said Russell. "But [horses of racing age] are part of the market that's very strong right now, and these are 'live' horses that present a great opportunity to buyers."

Adena Springs has no fewer than 80 catalogued as racing and/or racing/broodmare prospects, most of which sell during next Tuesday's specially designated eighth session. Cont. p20

The North American breeding industry will undoubtedly get a boost from the results of the 2-year-old and yearling sales this year. At Keeneland September, the average of $102,220 was up 17% from 2012, and marked just the fourth time in history that September concluded with a six-figure average (it also happened in 2005 through 2007). Officials said a reduced supply of yearlings helped push numbers up, but Russell noted that wouldn't necessarily result in a stampede of breeders looking to add more mares to their stables.

"I think a lot of people are still recovering from 2008," he said. "While the sales have been good the last couple of years, and have gotten people back on more solid footing, there's not going to be a flood of people trying to get back into it. There are, however, a core group of people who understand and see that long-term investment is the way to go, and more people are gravitating that way. Two years ago, nobody was interested in long-term investment. That's helped by the results from September, where people saw success not just at the upper end of the market, but in the middle and lower ends, too."

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

BREAKING THE MOLD

His Highness The Aga Khan is not accustomed to having runners in juvenile sprints, but today's G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte sees his colors carried in that sphere by the G3 Prix Eclipse winner Kiram (Fr) (Elusive City). Having beaten High Duty (GB) (Oratorio {Ire}) and Another Party (Fr) (Pomellato {Ger}) in that Oct. 11 Chantilly contest, the homebred is in pole position here. Other famous silks are those of J P McManus, but his are better known in the national hunt sphere, and it is interesting that the entrepreneur has started to have runners on the flat of late. Hidden Oasis (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) looks a smart one so far, finishing runner-up to the subsequent impressive Listed Eyrefield S. scorer Mekong River (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in a seven-furlong nursery at Listowel Sept. 16 before taking the Birdcatcher at Naas Oct. 20. One of Ireland's chief handicaps for the generation, that form was boosted by the win of the third-placed Craftsman (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the G3 Killavullan S. last week. Antoinette Tamagni's This Time (Fr) (Zafeen {Fr}) is another contender, having annexed the 5 1/2-furlong G3 Prix d'Arenberg at Chantilly Sept. 10, but on a line through the runner-up Another Party has something to find with Kiram. Field p22

End of Casino Partnership Leaves Fate of East Boston Racetrack in Doubt "Suffolk Downs, a famed but fading thoroughbred racetrack in the neighborhood of East Boston, had dreams of a major revitalization, and when the state approved casinos in 2011, it partnered with the Caesars Entertainment Corporation to apply for the sole casino license that would be awarded in the greater Boston area." Katharine Q. ALL BREEDERS' CUP TESTS CLEARED

Edited Press Release

All samples collected from 2013 Breeders' Cup horses have been cleared by the Kenneth L. Maddy Equine Analytical Chemistry Laboratory at UC Davis.

All horses competing in Breeders Cup races Nov. 1 and 2 at Santa Anita Park underwent pre-race testing for TCO2 levels in blood. Post-race testing was performed for prohibited drugs on the first four finishers in all Breeders' Cup races plus additional random horses selected by the stewards consistent with CHRB protocol. Post-race testing was done on both blood and urine samples.

Additionally, 25% of all horses pre-entered in the Breeders' Cup were randomly selected for out-of-competition testing. The out-of-competition samples were drawn and analyzed well before the races with the cooperation of national and international racing jurisdictions and laboratories. Dr. Rick Arthur, equine medical director for the CHRB, said all out-of-competition samples cleared testing prior to the Breeders' Cup.

The Maddy Laboratory's standard protocols look for over 45 anabolic steroids and hundreds of other prohibited drugs. Routine testing in California exceeds recommended testing standards.

That was a pretty scary statistic that the NBC team trotted out after the 30th edition of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile--that not a single horse from the 2012 Juvenile had made it to the Kentucky Derby only six months later.

Then there's the fact that only one of the first 29 winners of the Juvenile has gone on to take the Kentucky Derby. This statistic highlights the huge chasm which separates the two races which, more often than not, fall to the future winners of their respective age-group's Eclipse Award.

Perhaps it was a shrewd decision by the connections of Honor Code to reroute their very promising son of A.P. Indy to the Nov. 30 Gil Remsen S., rather than subject him to the demands of a trip to Santa Anita.

However, before anyone writes off the Kentucky Derby prospects of New Year's Day, the 30th winner of the Juvenile, it is essential to point out that he shares the same sire--Street Cry--as Street Sense, the only colt to break the Juvenile hoodoo in the Derby. It's easy to forget that Street Sense was an unexpected winner of the

New Year's Day

2006 Juvenile at Churchill Downs, starting at 16-1. Although New Year's Day's trainer Bob Baffert made it clear that he had higher hopes of his other Juvenile contender, Tap It Rich (Tapit), he wasn't blind to New Year's Day's potential.

"He can get the distance," Baffert said as they entered the starting gate. "Also he's got a little bit of speed and he's tough and durable and he's one that we should hear from down the road." Cont. p24

Of course, New Year's Day and Street Sense have more in common than just their sire. Whereas Street Sense is out of a daughter of Dixieland Band (also broodmare sire of another Kentucky Derby winner in Monarchos), New Year's Day has a dam by Dixieland Band's son Dixie Union.

Maybe New Year's Day does lack the flash of brilliance that Tap It Rich hinted at in his debut, but he was the only one still running in the final sixteenth at Santa Anita and the chances are that he will appreciate the extra distance if he makes it to the Derby.

The Wests' colt had every right to become a major winner at two. His sire Street Cry was bred in Ireland by Sheikh Mohammed, but was put into training in the U.S., where he stayed on to finish a good third behind Macho Uno and Point Given in the 2000 Juvenile. His narrow defeats in the Del Mar Futurity and the Norfolk S. also represented high-class form and he ended the year ranked fifth among the males on the Experimental Free Handicap.

Although by no means a specialist juvenile sire, as Zenyatta showed so well, Street Cry is well able to sire a smart 2-year-old, as was demonstrated by the Grade I successes of Street Hero, Cry And Catch Me and Lyric of Light.

New Year's Day's female line has also proved a rich source of talent, often at two years. He isn't the family's first Breeders' Cup winner, as his fourth dam Tiy also ranks as the third dam of Shared Account, who defeated Midday to take the 2010 Filly and Mare Turf. New Year's Day's sixth dam Bold Irish is also the fifth dam of Epitome, winner of the 1987 Juvenile Fillies. For what it's worth, the Bold Irish family has also produced winners of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness in the respective forms of Fusaichi Pegasus and Pine Bluff.

The average winning distance for Street Sense's broodmare sire Dixieland Band stands at 7.2 furlongs, whereas Dixie Union's is only 6.9. You may recall that Dixie Union had finished only fifth when one of the leading fancies for the 1999 Juvenile, but he underwent surgery for a knee chip soon afterwards. Although had shown admirable precocity and speed in winning four of his five previous races, he was much more than just a quick-maturing 2-year-old. He returned to action to win the GI Haskell Invitational over a mile and an eighth and was also fast enough to land another Grade I victory in the Malibu S. over seven furlongs.

His finest achievement as a stallion was undoubtedly Union Rags, who went so close to winning the 2011 Juvenile. Although he inherited a good measure of his sire's juvenile speed, Union Rags went on to take the GI Belmont S., so he didn't lack stamina.

New Year's Day's dam Justwhistledixie also possessed a degree of stamina, despite being a half-sister to a Saratoga Special winner, their dam being a half-sister to a Prioress S. winner. Justwhistledixie stayed well enough to win the GII Bonnie Miss S. over a mile and an eighth in the March of her second season. With New Year's Day as her first foal, she has made an ideal start as a broodmare and her second foal, a colt by Distorted Humor, sold to John Ferguson for $600,000 at Keeneland. Next in line is a weanling colt by Tapit.

You can expect to see more daughters of Dixie Union heading Street Cry's way, as the first six foals bred this way also include a minor stakes winner. Street Cry's 21 foals out of Dixieland Band mares include not only Street Sense but also Discourse, one of Britain's best two-year-old fillies of 2011. I had hoped that the big, scopey Discourse had the makings of another Zenyatta, but it all went badly wrong after she suffered a setback.

If New Year's Day does prove to be suited by a mile and a quarter, it may well be thanks to one of the stallions in the third generation of his pedigree. I'm not referring to Honour And Glory, the fast horse responsible for his second dam General Jeanne, but to Troy, the broodmare sire of Street Cry.

With a pedigree which featured several horses which contested the Ascot Gold Cup over two and a half miles, Troy wasn't short of stamina. He sired two high-class mile-and-a-half fillies during his brief stallion career and one of them, the Irish Oaks winner Helen Street, is the dam of Street Cry. Her stamina no doubt helped Street Cry win the G1 Dubai World Cup over a mile and a quarter.

Street Cry also won the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs, which will surely be the destination of his son next May.

JEN ROYTZ

This year's Breeders' Cup provided so many stellar moments, but I wanted to take a moment to express my condolences to the connections of Secret Compass on the loss of their amazing filly. Earlier last week I noticed a horse patiently waiting for the renovation break to end. Her rider was hugging and petting her, and you could tell the filly was eating up the attention. Her saddle towel read "Secret Compass," and I asked the rider what the filly was like. "She's the sweetest filly. Everyone in the barn adores her," said the rider. "You could teach riding lessons to a 5-year-old on this girl."

Why I Support the TAA

"TAA is dealing with a big problem in a rational way by developing a sustainable method of funding. By collecting small amounts from many different people and using existing industry resources for administration, we can be as efficient as possible so the money goes where it's supposed to go – into the care of the horse."

Scenes like that make any horse person happy, so I snapped a photo and figured that would be my sentimental pick for this year's Breeders' Cup. Like so many, I was devastated by her death, but my heart aches for her connections. To the fans, the connections, and to the rider I spoke with that morning, please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of such a wonderful filly.

New York

Commission Takes Steps Toward Threshold Alignment:

The New York State Gaming Commission took preliminary steps yesterday toward aligning allowable thresholds for 24 therapeutic medications in the state with levels already adopted by several other nearby jurisdictions. The proposed regulations, which mirror recommendations made by the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium and already adopted by Maryland, Massachusetts and Virginia, must meet final approval after a formal public hearings yet to be scheduled, and not likely to occur until next year. The commission also approved during its meeting yesterday a new rule involving the use of shock therapy in Thoroughbreds. The NYSGC's regulations will now match those of the New York Racing Association's, stipulating that horses may not be breezed or raced until numbness from shock therapy wears off. Visit gaming.ny.gov for audio of the meeting.

IRISH FLAT CHAMPIONSHIPS AWARDED

With the Irish flat season coming to a close yesterday, the year's leading owner, trainer, jockey and apprentice were presented with their awards at Leopardstown. In receiving her first Champion Owner award, Mrs. Jackie Bolger broke a 14-year domination of that category by John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith. Amongst the highlights of the year for Bolger was the victory of her homebred Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), trained by her husband Jim Bolger, in the G1 Irish Derby. Aidan and Joseph O'Brien, recipients of Champion Trainer and Jockey, respectively, were represented at the presentation by head lad T J Comerford, as they were in Santa Anita for the Breeders' Cup. Both O'Briens had monumental seasons, with Joseph setting a win record with 126 victories, and Aidan saddling the most winners by an Irish trainer in a season in 20 years with 135. Connor King earned Champion Apprentice honors on account of his 38 winners.
