GOFFS NOVEMBER BOWS OUT IN STYLE

By Emma Berry

Consecutive lots from Jim Bolger's Glebe House Stables fetched €90,000 and €85,000 to lead a much more relaxed day of mares' trade at Goffs as the six-day November Sale concluded in Kildare.

Jim Bolger
Racing Post

So much of the talk ahead of the auction had centered on the Paulyn Dispersal, but even without the near €13-million contribution to the turnover from Paul Makin's horses, the 2013 breeding stock section vastly exceeded the performance of 12 months ago.

Outside the Paulyn Dispersal there were 31 six-figure transactions compared to 17 in 2012. These played a significant part in improved figures across the board, with a 60% rise in turnover (again excluding the Paulyn horses) to €13,011,600, a 44% rise in average to €40,159 and median of €14,500 (up 32%). From 387 lots offered, 324, or 84%, were sold—a surge in clearance of ten points. That clearance rate was maintained throughout the second session, which accrued €2,033,400 (up 132%), with an average of €11,891 (up 62%) and median of €8,000 (up 45%). Unsurprisingly, such an upwardly mobile week left Goffs' Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby in a buoyant mood.

“What a thrill. It is hard to describe the feelings we felt at Goffs when the beautiful Chicquita realized all her pre-auction hype with a stunning final bid of €6-million. We have said many times that Goffs exists to sell the very best at every level, and yesterday's incredible scenes are another vindication of our claims to achieve the best for the best, as we don't believe her price has been bettered for a mare or race filly at a European auction. Chicquita was the centrepiece of a remarkable sale that saw prices of €1.1-million, €1-million, €850,000, etc. In fact, there were nine lots over €500,000, and a massive 49 six-figure lots, which compares most favorably with the 17 at last year's sale. And even without the Paulyn lots there were 31 at €100,000 or over, which clearly illustrates the massive strides that this sale continues to make year after year.”

'UP' TO THE CHALLENGE IN THE JACKPOT

Paul and Andrena Van Doren's Rise Up (Rockport Harbor), a runaway winner of the Jean Lafitte S.

Oct. 26, dropped the hammer on nine GIII Delta Downs Jackpot S. rivals en route to a six-length decision. Sent to the front, the 2-1 shot showed the way through a half mile in :46.30, and turned on the jets in the stretch to win for fun.

Casiguapo (Sightseeing), second at 30-1 in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, completed the exacta. It was another 1 3/4 lengths back to Rankhasprivileges (Einstein {Brz}) in third. Favored Coastline (Speightstown) checked in eighth after stumbling badly at the start. “Down the backside Gerard [Melancon] gave him a breather and that's where the race was won,” said Tom Amoss, who saddled Mylute to a third-place finish in the 2012 Jackpot. “I've been guilty so many times of taking horses with so much tactical speed and making them something they're not. Maybe I almost did that today, but Gerard took it out of my hands and let him use his speed correctly and got us the win today. So he gets the gold star.” Rise Up was previously campaigned by Blazing Meadows Farm LLC and Cottonwood Stables LLC and trained by Timothy Hamm in his first three starts, including a victory in the Mountaineer Juvenile S. Aug. 3. Rise Up disappointed in his first start for these connections with a sixth-place finish at 7-2 in the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Sept. 7, but has been unbeatable in a pair of subsequent tries at Delta Downs. Cont. p6

Final Day Stars...

The Green Desert mare Vastitas (Ire) (lot 1343), with a March cover by hugely promising first-season sire Intense Focus, just had the edge when knocked down to SM Bloodstock for €90,000. From the high-achieving family that includes the unbeaten G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Treve (Fr) (Motivator {Ire}), the dual winner produced her first foal this year by Dream Ahead, and he was sold in the same ring on Thursday for €58,000 to Marc-Antoine Berghgracht. Next into the arena was 4-year-old Miss Ekaterina (Ire) (lot 1344), by Teofilo (Ire) out of a sister to Kheleyf, who was signed for by Eamonn Reilly of BBA Ireland at €85,000. The Aga Khan's Sindjara (Include) (lot 1295) was in the sights of both Bobby O'Ryan and Peter Kelly, but eventually went the way of the latter, representing Emerald Bloodstock, who said: "She's been bought for a client of Jockey Hall Stud, who has bought from the Aga Khan before--something always turns up on those pages and she was a pretty filly." Bought for €61,000, the 4-year-old relation of dual Derby and Arc winner Sinndar (Ire) won twice for John Oxx, breaking her maiden at the end of her juvenile season when beating recent GI EP Taylor S. winner Tannery (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) over a mile on Dundalk's all-weather track. Out of the Lingfield Oaks Trial winner Sindirana (Ire) (Kalanisi {Ire}), Sindjara is a half-sister to maiden winner Sinaniya (More Than Ready), while unraced 2-year-old Sinkal (Smart Strike) holds entries for next year's Derby and Irish Derby and is in training with Dermot Weld.

International Theme Continues...

The second session of the mares' sale may have been conducted in more muted proceedings than the electric events of Friday, but there were still plenty of international buyers present at Goffs, including Sheikh Mohammed Bin Faleh Al Thani, Chairman of the Qatar Racing and Equestrian Club. He and his team accounted for 11 lots for a total of €178,000, including Alexander Loyalty (Ire) (lot 1338). The daughter of Invincible Spirit (Ire)--a sister to listed winner Bahama Mama (Ire)--was sold in foal to Bushranger (Ire) by Noel O'Callaghan from Seapark Stud for €47,000. Also on the list for Qatar was the Lady Rothschild-bred Lovage (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), who was offered by Johnstown House Stud carrying her first foal, by Approve (Ire), and cost €30,000.

World Map (Ire) Pivotal {GB} (lot 1355) turns out to be well named, as the Darley filly will have to find her way to Australia, having been bought for a client of New Zealander Paul Moroney. The 3-year-old winner, who has plenty to recommend her as a future broodmare, being out of a half-sister to top-flight Kilfrush Stud winners Sense Of Style (Thunder Gulch) and Valentine Waltz (Ire) (Be My Guest), was bought for €38,000. Moroney also selected a well-bred daughter of Montjeu (Ire) to return to his native country as a breeding prospect when going to €35,000 to secure Clodagh McStay's Style Is Eternal (Ire) (lot 1304).

"She's been bought for a client who happens to be in Ireland for the All Blacks [rugby] match," said Moroney. "He's quite new to breeding, but we felt that Montjeu is going to be an outstanding broodmare sire, so he gave me the go-ahead to buy her. She's a lovely filly out of a Classic winner, and her new owner is always trying to buy a Cup horse--hopefully this mare can breed him one."

The late Montjeu shuttled to New Zealand in the early part of his stud career and made quite an impact in the Southern Hemisphere, where his locally-bred Group 1 winners include Wall Street (NZ), Tavistock (NZ), Roman Emperor (NZ) and Nom du Jeu (NZ). He subsequently provided the 2012 Melbourne Cup winner Green Moon (Ire).

Second Career For Tough Valmari...

Valmari (Ire) (Kalanisi {Ire}) was last seen in public when running second to Tara Rose (GB) in a listed mares' steeplechase at Cheltenham in April. Several weeks later she was covered by Azamour (Ire) at Giltown Stud, and then offered for sale on Saturday by Kilnamoragh Stud, selling for €50,000 to Bedwin Estates Ltd.

Lot 1285, out of a Soviet Star half-sister to White Muzzle (GB) (Dancing Brave), is nothing if not versatile and durable. Her early days were spent in Greece, where she won four races on the flat at two and three before joining Clive Brittain's Newmarket stable as a 6-year-old, and then switching once again to the jumps yard of Tom Symonds, for whom she won two steeplechases and a hurdle race.

Beeby Concludes...

Henry Beeby paid tribute to his team and those who had contributed to the major success of the November Sale in his post-sale statement, saying: "We are, of course, indebted to Paul and Lyndall Makin for entrusting us with their beautiful collection of Thoroughbreds, especially as it is common knowledge that they received several private offers in the lead up to the sale. I think it is also right to commend the Castlebridge Consignment, who put on some show and presented the draft immaculately. However, the sale had great depth even without the Paulyn draft, and I want to extend another huge thank you to every vendor of every lot. We strive to provide a superior service to the Irish breeder, and their faith in us is increasingly evident, as we are making strides in every category. This has been a most successful week, not just for Goffs, but for the Irish bloodstock industry, as a good Goffs sale means a good result for Irish breeders. We have welcomed unprecedented numbers from all corners of the globe, and I think it is most significant that we have taken bids from every continent at the highest level, with major buying groups from the Far East, The Middle East, North and South America, Australasia and across Europe following our proactive marketing efforts over the last few months.

"We have a small but dedicated team here in Kill, and their passion for what we do borders on an obsession. As at Orby, I got the big stage in conducting the Chicquita auction, but I am nothing without all the back-up work, some of it visible and some very much behind the scenes, and I want to place on record my massive appreciation and thanks to every member of the Goffs team."

TRAINER

"I used StableLab prior to the two Classics that we were lucky enough to win this year with Dawn Approach and Trading Leather. The results tallied with the figures we had ourselves and they went on to perform to the very best of their ability. We are very happy to use it and would recommend it to anybody."

StableLab detects and quantifies a protein in blood called Serum Amyloid A (SAA). SAA is normally absent, or only present in very low concentrations in healthy horses. The severity of disease is reflected in the level of SAA elevation, making StableLab an excellent health management tool.

CLARK TRIO BREEZE

Three contenders for Friday's GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs turned in their final works beneath the Twin Spires Saturday. Magic City Thoroughbred Partners' Golden Ticket (Speightstown), a solid second in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Santa Anita Nov. 1, worked five furlongs in 1:01. The 2012 GI Travers S. hero completed the move in company with GII Falls City H. contender Flashy American (Flashy Bull). Bourbon Lane Stable's Bourbon Courage (Lion Heart) breezed four furlongs in a sharp :47.80. Last term's GII Super Derby winner, second in an $80,000 optional claimer at Churchill last time Oct. 31, was ridden by Corey Lanerie. "The horse is doing well," trainer Kellyn Gorder said. "I know we'll play the role of underdog, but that's okay. We're happy with where our horse is and I'm anxious to see him run again." Donegal Racing's Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}), fourth in Keeneland's GII Hagyard Fayette S. Oct. 26, worked five furlongs in a bullet :59.80. "He's not the best work horse in the world, so when he's sharp like that he usually runs good," trainer Dale Romans said.

Potomac River, an optional claiming winner at Indiana Downs in August, lit up the tote board with a come-from-behind victory here. Fourth in the GIII Kentucky Turf Cup S. Sept. 14, he followed with a fifth-place finish in Hawthorne's Robert F. Carey Memorial H. Oct. 12 and a runner-up effort in an $80,000 optional claimer at Churchill last time Nov. 8. Roughed up at the start, he was content to take his usual spot toward the rear. With Juan Vargas aboard, Potomac River made a smart sweeping move on the far turn, and kept on coming in the stretch to pull off a massive upset. "This horse is just getting better and better and better," trainer Sergio Baez said. "We wanted to take a shot and it kind of worked out good. He just loved this [soft] turf. We got a big run at the end. That's how you win these races anyway."

Luckygray, a stalwart on the Western Australia circuits for the past three years, won this race two years ago in his first try at the highest level while under the care of trainer Gino Poletti. That victory wasn't exactly straightforward, however, as it was rewarded in the stewards room after the controversial disqualification of first-past-the-post He's Remarkable \(NZ\) (Pentire {GB}). Luckygray went on to win four further group stakes in Perth thereafter, and finished second in last year's Railway before taking the G1 Kingston Town S. at Ascot two weeks later. Cont. p10

Transferred to Melbourne-based trainer Robert Smerdon, Luckygray failed to hit the board in six outings there this year, and returned to Perth under the care of trainer Trevor Andrews in time to finish fourth in the G2 Steere S. Nov. 9. Waiting patiently near the tail of the field here, Luckygray came with a menacing late run in the lane to nail early leaders Platinum Rocker and Fire Up Fifi. "I've had him about six weeks since he came back from Melbourne, but I've just been really happy with the horse," Andrews told Sky Racing World. "I've had to get him back from Melbourne and recharge the batteries and press forward. [Jockey Shaun O'Donnell] just had to be patient from the gate, and the [128 pounds] was a big concern to me, but I'm just over the moon and really pleased. He's a get-back and relax horse that always finds the line. He's a very genuine horse."

Saturday/Sunday Cancellations

*Zia Park Racetrack & Casino received verbal approval from the New Mexico Racing Commission to move its stakes races scheduled for this weekend to Wednesday, Nov. 27.

In recording his third-straight Group 1 victory, Buffering asserted his dominance amongst the country's older sprinters. Tried 17 times at the highest level throughout his nearly 40-race career, Buffering finished on the board in that company 10 times, including three times to Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}). The veteran signaled good things were to come this campaign with a strong second place finish to Samaready (Aus) (More Than Ready) in the G1 Moir S. at Moonee Valley Sept. 27, and scored his breakthrough win next out in that track's A$1-million Manikato S., scraping home by a head. His dominance was much more apparent in the G1 VRC Sprint Classic three weeks ago, when he scored on the front end by a length, giving him his second straight million-dollar race. Buffering, taking up his usual spot at the head of affairs, had to work harder for yesterday's victory. Kept to task early by local favorite Barakey (Aus) (Key Business {Aus}), Buffering disposed of that rival in upper stretch, but had to fend off a late challenge from fellow shipper Moment of Change to go over A$4-million in career earnings. "He's a wee champion; he pushes hard when he is down and out, and they almost had me on the canvas at the 50 meter mark, but he just dug in," winning rider Damian Browne told Racenet.com.au. "He gives his heart when he's down and out. He was able to do a bit but he still found plenty."

A CHANCE AT IMMORTALITY

By Lucas Marquardt

The Tattersalls December Breeding Stock Sale, to be held in Newmarket Dec. 2-5, will feature some of the most desirable mares in the world. But few can match the star power of British champion Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}--Side of Paradise {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells).

Immortal Verse wins Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S.
Racing Post

The 5-year-old, who sells as lot 1830 on Tuesday, Dec. 3, has the three P's of a top sales prospect: pedigree, performance and presence, and she figures to be among the dearest horses sold in 2013. Immortal Verse famously handed Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) a one-length defeat in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois in 2011--her second Group 1 tally--and was produced by a stakes-winning half to a horse Americans know best for his win in the 1986 G1 Breeders' Cup Mile: Last Tycoon (Ire) (Try My Best). She sells carrying her first foal on an early cover to Dansili (GB).

"She's a very special opportunity," said Luke Lillingston, whose Irish-based Mount Coote Stud has been tabbed to consign the mare. "She has the potential to be an outstanding foundation broodmare for anybody. When one looks back at the top-class fillies and mares that the likes of [Juddmonte's] Khalid Abdullah and Stavros Niarchos bought back in the late 1970s and 1980s, and you see the enormous value they've gotten out of those mares over many, many years--it's remarkable. And she's got a great chance, in the right hands, to found her own dynasty. That's not a ridiculous statement; the family has been incredibly prolific, as anyone can read."

Indeed, the writing was on the wall early on for Immortal Verse. She was purchased by trainer Robert Collet for €460,000 at Arqana's August Sale, the third-highest-priced Pivotal yearling to sell in 2009 and second-highest filly. Collet bought her for Robert Strauss, in whose green and white colors she won the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly as a 3-year-old in June of 2011. Immortal Verse continued to build her reputation with swooping, last-to-first win in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, which left Collet so confident in his charge that he openly predicted victory in the Marois, describing her to the Racing Post as, "[O]ut of the ordinary."

Few races define a horse's career like the Marois defined Immortal Verse's. Once again at the back of the pack, she made an audacious move to the front up the nearside rail and was always holding the champ at bay.

"She didn't beat Goldikova very far, but there was a key moment when she was going past the line that, if you watch the race, you'll see the jockey [Gerald Mosse] look around at Goldikova in a slightly cheeky fashion," said Lillingston. "Goldikova has been one of the great champions of recent years, as we all know, and [Immortal Verse] just showed phenomenal acceleration to defeat her, which, in some ways, is the greatest attribute in a Thoroughbred."

For her efforts, Immortal Verse was Britain's highweight 3-year-old filly miler in 2011, becoming at least the fifth champion on her catalog page. Her dam Side of Paradise (Ire), a daughter of Mill Princess (Ire) (Mill Reef), is--in addition to the dual champion Last Tycoon--also a half to the German champion Astronef (Ire) (Be My Guest). Sisters of Side of Paradise, meanwhile, have produced French champion Zipping (Ire) (Zafonic), as well as Grade/Group 1 winners Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch) and Valentine Waltz (Ire) (Be My Guest).

"It's an extraordinary family going back to Mill Princess and all the great descendants from her," said Lillingston. "She's been an extraordinary blue-hen broodmare, and now, out of it, comes what is probably the most talented of the whole lot, Immortal Verse, who at least you could say is as equally as talented as Last Tycoon."

Lillingston also points out that Dansili, Immortal Verse's covering sire, has worked in the family before, with recent standout and Irish champion Fire Lily (Ire)--a daughter of the Juddmonte sire--on the page.

No surprise given her auction price, Immortal Verse is also a striking individual, says Lillingston. "I was out there looking at her this morning, and you can see why she was so good--let's put it that way," said Lillingston. "She just exudes class. She has just the most beautiful head and eye. She's a very powerful, deep-bodied mare. She stands a little over 16 hands and is very correct, and is a very active, athletic horse. And she has a beautiful disposition. She's the business."

Lillingston expects Immortal Verse to draw an international cast of admirers at Tattersalls. "I think the fact that she has fantastic speed and acceleration, and a world-class pedigree, makes her interesting for anybody, anywhere," he said. "I particularly hope she captures the imagination of some people on your side of the pond, because she thoroughly deserves it. I think the overall strength of the Thoroughbred gene pool is very much centered in Europe at the moment. Back in the '50s, the Americans came across the Atlantic and purchased the very best bloodstock they could get their hands on, and founded the modern Thoroughbred in Kentucky, which until relatively recently dominated racing across the world. It's been a long period of investment by European and Middle Eastern interests in American stock, and it will be interesting if someone from your side now grabs the opportunity to bring a world-class prospect back to the United States."

It's safe to say the winning bidder of Immortal Verse won't be faint of heart, and Lillingston said the hugely resurgent commercial market in 2013 should give her buyer confidence.

"Business is back on a global basis," he said. "And with a mare like this, you can't value her over a foal or a couple of foals--though one good colt could pay for the lot. She'll make a lot of money, and this has to be valued as a long-term proposition. But the point is that the future of the business is increasingly bright, and there's plenty to look forward to in the racing and breeding business in the years ahead."

The sale of Immortal Verse also offers a look into the relatively new operation that owns her, Merriebelle Stable. Owned by the Americans John Moores and Charles Noell, Merriebelle made news this past summer when it purchased all the bloodstock of Strauss's Kilfrush Stud in Ireland, including Immortal Verse. (Merriebelle did not purchase the Kilfrush property, which later sold to Qatari interests.) That followed Merriebelle's purchase of Chanteclair Farm and Stonewall Farm, both in Kentucky.

A resident of San Antonio, Moores is a successful entrepreneur and, along with Noell, founded the venture capital firm JMI Equity. In 1994, he purchased the San Diego Padres. He sold the Major League Baseball team for a reported $800 million last year. Moores is a noted philanthropist; his $51 million gift to the University of Houston, his alma mater, in 1991 was the largest in U.S. history for a public university.

Noell is based in Baltimore and is a venture partner at JMI. He also is currently the director of Axeda and ServiceNow, two IT "cloud" companies.

Miss Narcissist was fifth after some pre-race antics in her career bow at Saratoga in a 5 1/2-furlong state-bred test Aug. 8, but returned for a solid victory at that track and trip when donning blinkers Aug. 28. The chestnut earned her first black-type score last time in the Joe A. Gimma S. over seven panels at Belmont by a definitive 5 1/2 lengths Oct. 19. Chosen as the favorite here, she broke on top, settling in the two path through the opening quarter. She conceded the lead by a head to Hey Kiddo after that point and the two battled down the lane with Miss Narcissist re-rallying for a narrow victory. "She has had a little bit of an issue that she wouldn't switch leads," trainer Linda Rice said. "She finds another gear once she switches. In some ways, we think she might actually be better off going farther. We'll probably point her towards the East View [S. Dec. 15]." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Empire Dreams broke through in career start number three two back at Belmont Sept. 29, and was coming off a second-place finish to Grade II winner Wired Bryan (Stormy Atlantic) in the Bertram F. Bongard S. going seven panels back at that venue Oct. 19. Glued to the rail as he bided his time off the pace, the bay attempted to squeeze up the inside entering the straight, but pilot Irad Ortiz thought better of it and maneuvered to the outside. Trying again now out in the four path, Empire Dreams leveled off nicely to blow away his competition as much the best. "He broke a little flat-footed," noted trainer Tom Albertrani. "I don't think he cared to be in there like that. He does get a little claustrophobic, even in the paddock. When he's in tight quarters, he just doesn't like it. Once he got clear, you knew [Irad] had a lot of horse to make up the difference turning for home. I would imagine he would stay here [for the winter]. There's going to be some nice New York-bred races for him later on here. He definitely wants to go longer."

Comandante had moved forward in each of three previous starts since transferring from Michael Trombetta to Todd Pletcher, and took the next logical step here to earn initial black-type. A close third in a Belmont starter/optional claimer Sept. 12, the bay was second in an 8 1/2-furlong state-bred optional claimer Oct. 6 before breaking through at that level going a mile here Nov. 3. Zensational Bunny, an impressive debut winner here going 5 1/2 furlongs Sept. 27, was supported as the 8-5 second choice for this second go. The bay broke well and shot to the head of affairs. Zensational Bunny showed the way into the stretch, where she cruised clear to earn her first black type victory with ease. The filly made her first start for Camilla Farm and trainer Pat Parente, but was purchased privately by Gary Barber after that and transferred to Mark Casse. She is the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Unbridled's Song). "I thought she was cruising pretty easily and Patrick looked confident," said Kathy Sullivan, assistant to trainer Mark Casse. "We have such confidence in Patrick and he rode the race perfectly." Firing a best-of-10 five-furlong bullet over the training track Nov. 8, the 8-5 chalk broke on top, running comfortably off the rail. Wild N Clever held firm to fend off her constant pursuer Ginger Swirl (Hard Spun) and score by a length. Sales history: $3,000 wlng '11 KEENOV; $25,000 2yo '13 OBSJUN. He fired three bullets in his last four works here, including a best-of-14 five-furlong breeze in :59 1/5 Nov. 17. Sent off at 3-1 without Lasix for this return, the bay dictated terms early along the rail, about two lengths clear of the field. Parise increased that distance in the stretch and proved much the best earning his diploma by four lengths. Magic Stripe (Exchange Rate) was second. Sales history: $60,000 yrl '11 KEESEP.
