

FIRST DEFENCE
 ANOTHER GENETIC MASTERPIECE

MG1SW and Millionaire CLOSE HATCHES, from the first crop of First Defence, wins the Grade 2 Azeri Stakes

NEXT STOP: THE APPLE BLOSSOM (G1)

'HOPPERTUNITY' COMES KNOCKING

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert continued his assault on Oaklawn Park's GII Rebel S. via a courageous performance by Watson, Pegram and Weitman's

Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday). The half-brother to these connections' MGISW Executiveprivilege (First Samurai)--a sneaky-good fourth at third asking in the GII Risen Star S. Feb. 22--survived a claim of foul and stewards' inquiry to give Baffert his fourth win in five years in this race following the exploits of Lookin at

Lucky ('10); The Factor ('11); and Secret Circle ('12). Tapiture (Tapit) was second, beaten a half length as the 2-1 favorite. Ride On Curlin (Curlin) was third. "Bob [Baffert] is in charge and he knows what to do," winning co-owner Mike Pegram commented. "I'm just having fun being a passenger. He looks like he'll go a mile-and-a-quarter and I wouldn't trade places with nobody. He's a nice horse and he proved it today. What you really want to see is a horse that will fight, and he showed it when he got bumped in there and held his ground. He responded. He's a fighter. We will run in some Derby. His next race will be a Derby if he comes out good out of here." Cont. p3

CASE CLOSED

Juddmonte Farms' ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Close Hatches (First Defence), heroine of last term's GI Mother Goose S. and GI Cotillion S., kicked off her 4-year-old campaign with a front-running score as the

3-5 chalk in the GII Azeri S. at a rainy Oaklawn Park Saturday. It was 1 1/4 lengths back to longshot Magic Union (Dixie Union) in second. Don't Tell Sophia (Congaree) was third. Close Hatches closed out her stellar 2013 campaign with a runner-up effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at

Santa Anita Nov. 1. "We are very pleased with the way she came back from the long layoff and won a race of this caliber against a quality field," Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott said. "You always wonder no matter how much training you do if you had her ready. You never know first out, but she was good enough to get the job done. Coming back for the [GI] Apple Blossom [in four weeks] is a good possibility." Cont. p5

RIISING TO THE OCCASION

Tommy Town Thoroughbreds's Let Faith Arise (Kafwain) had been knocking on the graded stakes door in her last two, and barged right through yesterday with a convincing success in Santa Anita's GI Santa Margarita S. Second to Spellbound (Bernardini) in the GII La Canada S. Jan. 19 and to lotapa (Afleet Alex) in the GII Santa Maria S. Feb. 15, the bay was given a 4-1 chance in her first nine-furlong attempt while looking to provide Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer with an initial victory in this event. The homebred attended the pace from the two path before asserting between horses through six panels in 1:11.67. Emboldened by Corey Nakatani's reminders, she strode away from her competition to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Favored lotapa was third-one spot ahead of Santa Maria show horse Stanwyck (Empire Maker). Spellbound settled for fourth after uncorking a head-turning move from far back on the turn for home, while second choice Fiftyshadesofhay (Pulpit) faded to sixth after dueling with the winner. "She's a very willing filly and she's kept going forward for Jerry and [long-time assistant trainer] Dan [Ward]," said Nakatani. "I'm just glad to be a part of it. She tries so hard every time and you know she'll give you her all." Cont. p4

Hoppertunity, a debut fifth behind the promising unbeaten ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Bayern (Offlee Wild) going seven furlongs at Santa Anita Jan. 4, stretched to a mile with a good-looking maiden win in Arcadia Jan. 30. He fell too far behind early beneath Martin Garcia and finished with interest to come within seven lengths of Intense Holiday (Harlan's Holiday) in the Risen Star. Switching to Mike Smith here, Hoppertunity was in the race from the beginning, and sat in the garden spot in third on the outside behind Strong Mandate (Tiznow) and Ride On Curlin through a half mile in :47.97. He hit the gas on the far turn, effectively keeping Tapiture boxed in, but the GIII Southwest S. hero bulled his way through, while racing shoulder-to-shoulder as they stacked up across the track. Ride on Curlin drifted out and caused a chain reaction in deep stretch, but it only seemed to help Hoppertunity, who came charging widest of all to get the money. "Mike [Smith] said he just started running when he got bumped," assistant trainer Jimmy Barnes said. "That just made him run faster. He's tough. That was only his fourth race so that was exciting and I'm glad we came." CLICK HERE TO SHARE THIS STORY

Let Faith Arise made her first five starts sprinting on the Golden Gate synthetic, including a debut victory last February, an allowance tally two starts later in April and again two starts after that in June. She took to the dirt to annex Pleasanton's six-furlong California Wine S. on just 13 days rest, but subsequently hit the bench and didn't return until this venue's down-the-hill GIII Senator K. Maddy S. Nov. 2.

She was a close eighth behind Pontchatrain (War Front) that day, but improved her speed figures in both outings this season and clearly found her niche going long on the dirt.

"[Nakatani] got off good and stayed there, so that was the right thing to do," said Hollendorfer of the ride put on the winner. "We didn't really expect to be on the front end, but since she broke well, Corey let her run and keep running. That was the right decision, obviously. It was pretty hard to take back when she got the lead easy." He added, "It's good to win a Grade I with her. We'll regroup here and pick another race. It might be here or might be back east."

Tommy Tull's Tommy Town Thoroughbreds stands Let Faith Arise's sire Kafwain in Santa Ynez, CA. Tull's operation purchased the winner's dam for $400,000 at the 2007 Keeneland November sale, and was winning its first-ever Grade I here.

"This is our first Grade I win so it's pretty nice to get this, finally," said Tull, who founded Tommy Town in 2000 with his wife Debi. "I was emotional when they were coming down the stretch. The three of them were hooked up and you just knew something had to give. I thought [lotapa] might keep going but [Let Faith Arise] just dug in and kept going. They're fun."

Close Hatches was working bullets at Payson for her seasonal debut and was backed accordingly. The striking dark bay didn't corner well on the first turn, but it was all clear sailing from there once straightened out by Joel Rosario. On the engine through fractions of :23.39 and :47.43, the Juddmonte colorbearer fought off all challengers in the stretch to get the money. "She got away well enough, made the lead and then hung on when they tried to run her down and was good enough to win," Mott commented. "It was a very good race for her first start of the year, and she was good enough to win after being off for a few months. I wasn't concerned about the track being wet fast. She's a pretty handy filly and I felt like she could handle just about anything. She has the pedigree that indicates that a wet track wouldn't bother her." Rosario added, That was really nice. She pulled me to the front. The outside hoes was the only other with speed and I was going faster than her. I was going to the front if she didn't."

Centre Court defended her GII Honey Fox title by the slimmest of margins after breaking through the gate prior to the start here. The dark bay made it three straight wins with a victory in the GI Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland in April, but failed to find the winning thread in her next three attempts. Fourth in the GI Just a Game S. on the GI Belmont S. undercard, she could do no better than fifth as the 6-5 chalk in the GI Diana S. at Saratoga July 27. She was last seen finishing a puzzling eighth in the GII Ballston Spa S. Aug. 24. She was placed within striking distance in sixth through fractions of :23.65 and :47.17. With Julien Leparoux aboard, Centre Court was unleashed on the far turn and swung widest of all, hit the front in deep stretch and was saved by the wire. "I was hoping for that," trainer Rusty Arnold said. "She ended up last year on such a bad run, but Dr. [Larry] Bramlage was really sure he had found the problem [pulled muscle]. That was a big run." Arnold added that a title defense in the Jenny Wiley would be next.

Golden Lad, only off the board once in seven starts, captured three consecutive optional claimers at Gulfstream. The dark bay's most recent win came in a 1 1/16-mile test Feb. 5, where he scored a career-best Beyer Speed Figure of 95. Let go at 5-1 for this black-type bow, he sprinted up to battle for the lead, but settled to stalk Right to Vote (Political Force) from a close-up second through early splits of :23.21 and :46.90. With Taptowne attempting to mount a bid on the outside at the quarter-pole, pilot Jose Lezcano gave Golden Lad the green light. The homebred readily responded and was at the head of affairs entering the stretch. Golden Lad was on cruise control from that point on as he easily scampered home to win by daylight. "I thought he ran super," winning conditioner Todd Pletcher remarked. "He ran a very powerful race. It was definitely a step up from allowance company into a new level for him, but anytime you've won three straight races you certainly have talent. I felt like he deserved this opportunity and he proved he did. It is possible that we may be coming back for the [GII] Oaklawn H. [Apr. 12]."

Coming of age at the end of last term, Norse King annexed the Listed Prix Scaramouche over 14 furlongs here and Longchamp's G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris over a quarter mile shorter in the space of 16 days in October. Shortening up again on this seasonal bow, the imposing chestnut showed adequate speed to race close to the pace in fifth early and had allowed Singing a three-length start inside the final 1 1/2 furlongs. Not panicking, Alexis Badel wound up his mount for an irresistible surge down the outer and he was able to dominate the last 100 meters.

Dissident is a horse that has clearly been well regarded by champion trainer--and part owner--Peter Moody since the beginning, judging by his maiden voyage in last January's Listed Blue Diamond Preview. Dissident won that day, but then was unlucky to not hit the winner's circle for more than a year. Third in the G3 Blue Diamond Prelude in his second outing, he was off the board in seventh in the main event, after which a spell ensued. Dissident resurfaced that August as a sophomore and was second three times, including in the G1 Golden Rose S. Sept. 14. Sixth in the G1 George Main S. against elders when stretching out to the mile for the first time, the bay wrapped up the season with a fourth in the G1 Caulfield Guineas.

He resumed with a second-place finish behind El Roca (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the Listed Eskimo Prince S. Feb. 15, and found the winner's circle at long last Mar. 1 G2 Hobartville S., from which favored El Roca was scratched.

Largely dismissed with that rival returning here, Dissident and jockey Jim Cassidy chased Romantic Touch (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) through the early sectionals--with El Roca settling behind in third--before taking over on the rail with a little more than halfway to go.

Racingandsports.com.au

Dissident was joined by El Roca at the 200 meter mark and the pair slugged it out from there, with Dissident hanging on bravely to become the first Group 1 winner for his Golden Slipper-winning sire Sebring.

"He is pretty tough to get past," Moody told Racing and Sports. "It was great to see a couple of warriors together, a young one and an old one. He has toughed it out and been that little bit fitter and that bit more forward each race and he is a high quality colt. We saw his efforts here in the spring, around Zoustar (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) and that, he was wide and had a hard run in the Golden Rose, and just got nudded and was probably over the top. He has come back a bigger and better colt and has tagged himself one of the best of his age group in the country."

Moody noted that Dissident would next be seen in the G1 Rosehill Guineas Mar. 29, after which a decision will be made whether to target the G1 Australian Derby or the G1 Doncaster H., both at The Championships at Royal Randwick Apr. 12.

Appearance has been a consistent star performer for Sheikh Mohammed, and indeed her Darley sire Commands, for the better part of three years, and with her last-to-first victory in yesterday's Canterbury, she recorded her fourth win at the highest level, the most for any progeny of her sire.

Appearance has now won seven group stakes, a run which began with the G3 Keith Nolan S. in March 2012 in her sixth start. Her first Group 1 victory came in her first attempt at the highest level two starts later, when she took Flemington's 1600-meter Myer Classic. After two failed attempts at the listed level to kick off her autumn campaign last year, Appearance came roaring back to score a Group 1 double in Randwick's

G1 Coolmore Classic and G1 Queen of the Turf S., both over 1500 meters two weeks apart. Shelved after a seventh place finish in the G1 Doncaster H. at the end of April, the dark bay was off the board in two outings last season, but has since gone three straight after winning the G2 Expressway S. and G2 Apollo S. in February. Dropping out to last early behind runaway leader Rain Affair (Aus) (Commands {Aus}), Dissident was swung wide by jockey Kerrin McEvoy at the top of the lane. She kicked into gear passing the 200-meter mark and won comfortably. Well regarded sophomore Zoustar (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}), who was taking his chance against older sprinters in his first start since winning the G1 Coolmore Stud S. in November, faltered in the lane and checked in eighth of 10. Cont. p10

Zoustar is owned in partnership by Merrow Racing, Widden Stud and Sheikh Fahad's Qatar Racing, and has been expected to target assignments at Royal Ascot this year. Trainer Chris Waller could offer no explanation for Zoustar's performance immediately after the run, but Racing and Sports reported that the colt pulled up lame in a foreleg. Walter, who described Appearance as one of the best he has trained, told Racing and Sports: "She is an outstanding mare. Her record shows that. She had a bit of a setback and missed the [G1] Chipping Norton [S. Mar. 8], but I took her to Kembla Grange for a gallop between races on Monday and I knew she was back on track. It is very satisfying." Walter noted that Appearance would not defend her title in next weekend's Coolmore Classic, and would instead freshen for the G1 George Ryder Mar. 29. RACETRACK ROUND-UP

FLORIDA DERBY HOPEFULS WORK

Cairo Prince (Pioneerof the Nile), victorious in Aqueduct's GII Nashua S. last November and this term's GII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park in his sophomore bow Jan. 25, breezed in company with stablemate Elnaawi (Street Sense) Saturday. The pair covered five furlongs in 1:00 4/5 at Palm Meadows. "He worked very well," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "We didn't want another :59 and change [breeze] from him. We put him in different company this time. We wanted 1:01, so that's perfect."

yearling, a majority interest was sold to Godolphin in early March. He will race in their silks for the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29. "He's doing great and we're happy," McLaughlin added. "We'll work back next week and be ready for the Florida Derby."

Also scheduled to make his next start in the Florida Derby is Wildcat Red (D'wildcat), who worked a half-mile in :47.98 over Gulfstream Park's main track under regular exercise rider Paco Mendoza. It was the bay's first work since annexing the GII Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 22. "The horse went very good," said conditioner Jose Garoffalo. "I think the track was a little bit fast, but he did it as easy as he usually does. I was expecting maybe :48 or so, but it was good. He is getting fitter and now with every race is getting better. We're going to breeze him one more time next week and then we'll be ready, hopefully."

Also preparing for the Florida Derby, Gulfstream Park Derby winner and Fountain of Youth runner-up General a Rod (Roman Ruler) posted a five-furlong move in :59.50 over Gulfstream Park's main track Saturday. "He worked great," trainer Mike Maker said. "He gave us exactly what we were looking for. He's an easy horse. He can train himself. If you want to go fast, that's fine; if you want to go slow, that's fine, too. We picked it up a little today, and it was no problem at all."

ONLYFORYOU EUTHANIZED

Glencrest Farm's unbeaten top GI Kentucky Oaks prospect Onlyforyou (Malibu Moon--Erhu, by Tactical Cat) suffered a fatal injury while training Saturday morning at Palm Meadows Training Center. "She had a complex condular fracture that was displaced and irreparable," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "She worked and a little bit more than an eighth of a mile into the gallop, she took a bad step." The bay was perfect in four starts, including the seven-furlong

GI Forward Gal S. Jan. 25 and the 1/16-mile GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 22. Onlyforyou, a $115,000 KESEP yearling purchase, was pointing toward a start in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 29. "Obviously, it's a sad moment for everybody," Pletcher added. "The barn takes it hard when stuff like that happens, especially when it's a filly like that who was perfect her whole career. It looked like she had a big future ahead." Onlyforyou, produced by the graded stakes placed mare Erhu, was bred in Kentucky by Elm Tree Farm LLC & Popatop LLC. She posted a record of 4-4-0-0 and earnings of $308,100. homebred captured the GI American Oaks at Betfair Hollywood Park July 13, but was a non-factor eighth when shipped back East for Belmont's GI Garden City S. Sept. 14. Returning to the winner's circle next out in Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster S.

Oct. 6, the Bill Mott trainee was last seen finishing fourth by just a length in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf. She achieved a career-best Beyer Speed Figure of 102 for that performance and displays a speedy worktab at Payson Park in preparation for this return. Mott also saddles Pam and Martin Wygod homebred Floral Romance (After Market) here. An optional claimer winner at Belmont three back Oct. 24, the dark bay was seventh in her 2014 debut in Gulfstream's GII Marshua River S. Jan. 4. Third last time in the GIII Endeavour S. at Tampa Bay Jan. 25, the dark bay will have the ever-dangerous Gary Stevens in the irons. Wesley Ward sends out Ramsey homebred Emotional Kitten (Kitten's Joy) for her 4-year-old debut in this test. A close second to Emollient in the American Oaks, the chestnut followed that with a third in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 17. Seventh to fellow Ramsey homebred Kitten's Dumplings (Kitten's Joy) in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 12, she was last seen winning the GII Mrs. Revere at Churchill Downs Nov. 16 and faces older rivals for the first time here.

MUSHREQ TAKES ROAD LESS TRAVELED

Mushreq (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}), still considered a contender for the $5 million G1 Dubai Duty Free in just under two week's time, will take an unconventional route to that target through today's G3 Abu Dhabi Championship, the closing day Thoroughbred feature of the Abu Dhabi Racing and Equestrian Club. Trained by Mike de Kock for Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Mushreq--winner of last year's G2 Al Fahidi Fort before a 10th-place finish in the Duty Free--won Meydan's Listed Singspiel S. in his seasonal debut Jan. 9. He has failed to find the winner's circle in three attempts since, most recently finishing fifth, beaten 2 3/4 lengths, behind stablemate Vercingetorix (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}) in the G1 Jebel Hatta Mar. 8. Paul Hanagan, stable jockey to Sheikh Hamdan, said: "He won well at the first Dubai World Cup Carnival meeting but things have not really panned out for him since, and we know he is a good horse. It would be nice to think we can still get in the Dubai Duty Free, but he will have to win this well if that was to be the case." Mushreq will have to contend with defending race winner Jutland (GB) (Halling), as well as Start Right (GB) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), who has recorded a handful of encouraging efforts on the Meydan turf this year.

DERBY 2014 A TWO-HORSE AFFAIR?

The two have dominated the discussion for the better part of four months and they are overwhelming the betting markets, and with the score one race apiece, stablemates Designs On Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and Able Friend (Aus) (Shamardal) will duke it out over the 2000 meters of today's HK$16 million (US$2.06 million) Hong Kong Derby at Sha Tin. Designs On Rome dashed home to win a Class

Designs On Rome (right) and Able Friend in the Classic Cup HKJC.com

1 going a mile Nov. 24, but was outfinished by Able Friend in the Hong Kong Classic Mile Jan. 19, dropping a half-length decision. Tommy Berry turned in a world-class tactical ride on Designs On Rome when the duo rematched in the Hong Kong Classic Cup going nine furlongs Feb. 23, putting the Joao Moreira-ridden Able Friend to the sword at an early stage and calling that one's stamina into question. Indeed, Designs On Rome proved the better 'stayer' on that occasion, scoring by a decisive 1 1/2 lengths. Berry was en route back to Hong Kong Saturday evening after a day's rides in Australia, and looks forward to this rubber match. "We are on the two best horses in the race," Berry told South China Morning Post. "There's no doubt about that--we beat everything by a distance last start and I can't see anything changing," he said. "But I believe the best horse will win it, and hopefully we both get the right run in the race to decide who that is." For his part, the 'Magic Man' is not ready to concede the race to Designs On Rome. "I don't think there will be any question that he will get the 2000 meters," Moreira asserted. "Looking at his run over 1800 meters, he was able to handle it. I know Designs On Rome beat him, and that horse could and should be suited better by the 2000 meters, but I was pretty happy with his run in the Classic Cup and I don't think 200 meters more will be any problem." Flame Hero (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) has plenty to find with the top two, but carries a three-race winning streak off a local rating of 91, some 24 points inferior. He defeated Beauty Flame (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) by a head in an 1800-meter handicap Mar. 1 and should be prominent throughout.

HONG KONG PREVIEWS

GOLD-FUN LOOKS TO ATONE IN QSJC

Pan Sutong's Gold-Fun (Ire) (Le Vie Dei Colori {GB}) looks to snap a mini two-race skid in a salty renewal of the HK$8-million (US$1.03 million) Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin. A handy winner of the G2 Jockey Club Mile Nov. 17, the flashy chestnut was heavily favored in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 8, but could not resist a sizzling first-up effort from Glorious Days (Aus) (Hussonet) and settled for second. Gold-Fun was expected to rebound in the Stewards Cup going the mile Jan. 19, but he could only finish sixth to the Dubai Duty Free-bound Blazing Speed (GB) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}). Trainer Richard Gibson, who is preparing Akeed Mofeed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for a start in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 29, is looking forward to today's recovery mission. "We've been really pleased with Gold-Fun's preparation and I'm delighted with the horse--he's been very receptive to train and we've got him at 100 percent for this race," said Gibson, who has primed Gold-Fun for this test with two barrier trials in the past month. Flagship Shine (Aus) (Tale of the Cat) was on the Derby trail off back-to-back wins over 1400 meters, but was only eighth in the Classic Mile and seventh in the Classic Cup. He cuts back to what might be his best trip here and Joao Moreira gets back in the irons this afternoon. Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), seventh to Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint Dec. 8, belied odds of nearly 5-1 to best Charles the Great (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in the Chairman's Sprint Prize Feb. 16, with Frederick Engels (GB) (Iceman {GB}) a late-running fourth.

A COMMANDING TOPPER AT HKIS

A few hours before his daughter Appearance (Aus) recorded a fourth career Group 1 win in the Canterbury S. at Randwick, a gelded son of Commands (Aus) fetched a final bid of HK$5.2 million (US$670,017) to top part two of the Hong Kong International Sale held Saturday in the Sha Tin parade ring. Sent through the makeshift sales ring as hip 10, the son of MSP Oh So Discreet (Aus) (Bluebird) was acquired by representatives of the Hong Kong Jockey Club for NZ$425,500 at New Zealand Bloodstock's Premier Yearling Sale in 2013. An Oct. 17 foal, the brown gelding is a half-brother to G1 SAJC Schweppes Oaks heroine Maybe Discreet (Aus) (Shamardal) and a 3/4-brother to GSW Just Discreet (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). The winning bidder was Wong Shing Ngai. A pair of offerings shared the second line on final bids of HK$4.2 million (US$541,167). Hip 7, the son of High Chaparral (Ire) from the family of top sire Fastnet Rock (Aus), was knocked down to owner Chiu Yung. The bay son of Bombay (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) was the most expensive of the Club's yearling purchases at NZ$480,000 at the NZB Premier Sale. Hip 8 made it a clean sweep for Premier Sale grads, as he was purchased by owner Martin Siu. The NZ$460,000 buy is a half-brother to two-time Group 1 winners Vision and Power (NZ) (Carnegie {Ire}) and Glamour Puss (NZ) (Tale of the Cat). For the 15 lots, offered without reserve, gross receipts totaled HK$49.5 million (US$6,378,044) for an average of HK$3.3 million (US$425,203) and a median of HK$3 million (US$386,548).

Sales-topping lot 10 HKJC.com

“All in all it was a good sale: we had a couple of sires relatively new to Hong Kong, like the New Approach, so there was a good balance in the catalogue, which gave the buyers plenty of choice,” said Bill Nader, the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s Executive Director of Racing. “Given the quality of the horses on offer, there was some good value out there, and the hope as always is that these horses will progress well and give the owners customer satisfaction. “The top price was HK$5.2 million, so it didn’t go too high, and I would say the prices throughout the sale were realistic-- hopefully the buyers will come out of it in good shape. We have always said this is not a money-making exercise, that it is about providing quality horses for our members and owners to buy, and overall, if we factor in all the costs around this and last December’s sale, it’s just about a break even for the Club this season and hopefully a win for the owners.” Click here for the full results.

OP Stable’s Lideris headed a clean sweep of the first three placings for the home team to give Peruvian representatives their eight win in the 30th running of the Gran Premio Latinoamericano, South America’s most prominent weight-for-age event. A Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider-bred, Lideris finished strongest down the stretch to outfinish Peruvian Group 1 winner Shakita and Kentucky-bred Azarenka to complete the nation’s local dominance in the continental championship. Peruvian Thoroughbreds have won all five renewals of the race staged in Lima.

Bronzo and pacesetter Romaña Ruler finished fourth and fifth, respectively, representing Chile in the 13-runner field that featured five different South American nations. Sao Paulo representative Victory Is Ours refused to load and scratched at the gate.

Considered the weaker entry from the home team, Lideris annexed his fourth career win from 19 starts and first at the highest level here, having previously posted a Group 2 win at 2,400 meters last December.

The winner is owned by businessman Oscar Peña, whose Peruvian dual classic winner Fly Lexis Fly (Badge of Silver) finished second in the 2012 G2 Super Derby and third in last year’s G1 Eddie Read S. at Del Mar.

Just a handful of hours after her younger full-sister Onlyforyou suffered a catastrophic training injury, Dress the Part took her record over this strip to a perfect three-for-three and earned her first black-type victory in the process. Only a maiden winner in eight tries prior to the start of the local racing season, the Glen Hill runner was up in the waning strides to take a six-furlong allowance Dec. 18 and made it two straight with another cozy success over three-quarters of a mile Jan. 26. Trying a dirt route for the first time in her career, Dress the Part was sent through at the fence to contest the early pace and was steered out to the two path to sit a soft trip. She was driven to the front on the turn, cornered a bit wide into the lane, but easily held her rivals in the run to the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

RESISTIVITY (f, 3, Student Council--Lake Travis, by Seattle Slew) earned her diploma on the main track here Dec. 27, after two prior attempts, and followed that with a third in this venue's GII Forward Gal S. behind the ill-fated Onlyforyou going seven panels Jan. 25. Let go at 8-1 in this turf bow, the dark bay was immediately sent to the lead by pilot John Velazquez while taken in to save ground along the rail. Briefly challenged by  "TDN Rising Star"  Zinzay (Smart Strike) on the far turn, Resistivity easily squashed that bid in the lane and sailed clear to score by 3 3/4 lengths over that rival. The winner, out of a full-sister to four-time Grade I winner Lakeway, is a half to High Quail (Tiznow), GSP, $157,143; and Orange Crush (Distorted Humor), SW. PINBALL (h, 5, Unbridled's Song--Pinata {MSW, $120,500}, by Vision and Verse), unstoppable since his state-bred graduation at the Big A Jan. 17, followed that score with back-to-back state-bred optional claimer wins there Feb. 17 and Apr. 17. The gray won again last time in his turf debut and first open start in a 1 1/8-mile optional claimer here Feb. 1. Supported as the 2-1 chalk this time, he broke on top and entered into a three-horse duel for control from the rail. COIN BROKER (c, 4, Tapit--Pay on Demand, by Red Ransom) has raced exclusively at Gulfstream Park and filled the show spot in a maiden special weight behind subsequent GI Wood Memorial S. and GI Haskell Invitational S. winner Verrazano (More Than Ready) here in January 2013. Gone for more than a year thereafter, he was fourth at that level Jan. 19, but graduated going a mile Feb. 2. Sent off the 4-5 favorite in this first try against winners, the dark bay stalked the leaders while off the rail in third. Pegged as the 3-1 second choice on the morning line, the bay filly somewhat inexplicably drifted to be off at double that quote. A turf-saving fourth for the opening couple of furlongs, Lawn Party was angled out to the three path for clear sailing entering the final half-mile. She came under a bit of a ride with three-eighths to travel, loomed boldly into the lane, swept to the front at the furlong grounds and came away to score by an impressive 3 1/4 lengths. Miz Lee (Dixie Union) just touched off favored Forensic (Medaglia d'Oro) for second. The winner's dam carried the silks of her breeder Overbrook Farm to an upset victory of Asi Siempre (El Prado {Ire}) in the 2007 GII Louisville Breeders' Cup S.  + LITTLE DADDY (c, 3, Scat Daddy--Gold Anklet, by Lemon Drop Kid) was dismissed here at 16-1, as the heavily touted and much-ballyhooed firster Whats Up Big Guy (Macho Uno) was hammered into even money from his 5-1 morning line. But the latter made a mess of the start, and that opened the doors for an upset. Little Daddy was away fairly and raced slightly better than midfield while looking to struggle a bit to find his footing. He appeared to be going the wrong way at the three-eighths, but began to get under way nearing the stretch, came out three wide and rallied to score by 3 1/4 lengths over Flat Jack (Flatter). It was the third first-out winner at the meet for trainer Carlo Vaccarezza. Whats Up Big Guy was able to stay on for third, beaten eight lengths. Mamdooha followed her second-out graduation here Nov. 3 with wins in Laurel's Gin Talking S. Dec. 7 and this venue's six-furlong Ruthless S. Jan. 12. Favored to keep that streak alive here, the chestnut ran back off of the pace in mid-pack through splits of :22.87 and :46.52. Three-wide all the way, she made a steady climb up the outside in the stretch to get clear late and score once again over a track that had favored speed all day. "[There were] no instructions for Eddie [Castro]," Art Magnuson, assistant to conditioner Kieran McLaughling said. "She likes to stalk a little bit, and it worked out well. Heavily favored at 1-2, the bay bid for the early lead, but settled to stalk from the pacesetting Hackleton (Giant's Causeway)'s outside shoulder. Loping along through leisurely early splits, he battled the pacesetter down the lane and edged ahead late for a half-length score. Tribal Spy finished off her sophomore season with an open allowance win at this course and distance Dec. 29. The flashy chestnut was a close third behind today's runner-up Ciao Bella Luna in this venue's Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Turf Sprint S. last time Jan. 25. A bit overlooked by the bettors here, she quickly asserted for control and posted early splits of :22.36 and :44.75. Running off of the rail with plenty left in the tank, she easily held off challenging rivals in the stretch to score a powerful victory. "The five [Ciao Bella Luna] missed the break and obviously that was the competition, and not only that, she was the other speed in the race," said trainer Adam Kitchingman. "When that horse missed the break it made us the lone speed, which makes us awfully dangerous coming down the hill. We'll probably keep her going down the hill. We might try a little stakes race at the end of the meet [GIII Las Cienegas S. Apr. 12]." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Marks Mine, only off the board once in her past nine starts, captured an allowance on the synthetic here two back Dec. 26. Second last time in Santa Anita's Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Turf Sprint Jan. 25, the bay was heavily favored here. Hard held through the early stages, she sprinted up to take a narrow lead. With daylight on the field in the lane, she made a strong run for home with Happybirthdaybaby closing the gap at the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

MARGOT MACHANCE (GB) (f, 3, Creachadoir {Ire}--Margot Mine {Ire}, by Choisir {Aus}) finished third to MGSW Testa Rossi (Fr) when unveiled in a conditons test at Maisons-Laffitte last and was fourth in a similar heat at Deauville later that month. She missed by a head in a Clairefontaine maiden Aug. 14 and was last seen finishing fourth in a Chantilly conditions event Sept. 10, her final start for Francois Doumen. Let go at 10-1 odds for her Stateside debut and adding Lasix for new trainer Leonard Powell, the bay was bumped by a rival leaving the stalls, but recovered to race near the back of the field while very wide into the first turn. Covered up as they entered the home straight, she displayed a furious turn of foot and rewarded her backers to win by 3/4 of a length. Star Act (Street Cry {Ire}) finished second. SUMMER HIT (g, 5, Bertrando--Mia F Eighteen, by Tough Knight) won the GIII Berkley H. here last November, but was off the board in the California Cup Turf Classic S. at Santa Anita Jan. 25. He improved to third in the Sensational Star S. also in Arcadia when last seen Feb. 22 and was the 1-2 choice here. The bay jumped straight to the lead and led into the first turn. He dueled with Pepnic (Peppered Cat) around the final bend, but shrugged off that rival to win by 5 lengths. The winner is a half sibling to Starbird Road (Count the Time), MSW, $198,697. Bred to be a Stallion!
Son of
SPEIGHTSTOWN
#2 General Sire of 2013

Country Day

Speightstown – Hidden Assets, by Mt. Livermore

"By Speightstown, from a good female family, could run on any surface, and is an attractive individual. That combination is hard to find in a stallion today."

– Fred Mitchell, Clarkland Farm

"Country Day is the classiest horse I ever trained. He was very fast and versatile; winning stakes on all three surfaces. I bought a nice War Front mare specifically to breed to him."

– Steve Margolis, Trainer

2014 Stud Fee: $3,500 LFSN
