

THE GREAT AND THE GOOD

Coming to the fore when springing a surprise in York's G2 Dante S. May 15, Frank Gillespie's The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) confirmed that was no fluke by upstaging the domestic team in yesterday's G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly. Saving ground on the rail under the wily Ryan Moore, the 19-1 shot surged past Shamkiyr (Fr) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) at the eighth pole en route to a three-length success, setting a new race record time in the process. "I didn't feel that he got the credit he deserved after the Dante," trainer Kevin Ryan commented as he welcomed his first Classic winner. "We were quite confident coming here and Ryan gave him a fantastic ride." Cont. p3

THE ONE AT LAST

Trainer Kojiro Hashiguchi is no stranger to big race victories. His mantle is adorned with the trophies of such prestigious Group 1s as the Japan Cup, Arima Kinen, Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger) and Yasuda Kinen, and Hashiguchi even pulled off a Dubai-double in 2006, saddling Utopia (Jpn) (Forty Niner) to victory in the G2 Godolphin Mile, and Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) to win the G1 Sheema Classic. One race that eluded him, however, was the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby). Before yesterday, Hashiguchi had saddled 19 Derby contestants in 17 years, including four runners up, one of those being Heart's Cry. It is fitting, then, that a son of Hashiguchi's mighty Heart's Cry would put an end to his frustrating run, and that is exactly what materialized yesterday when One and Only (Jpn) valiantly wrestled the lead from race favorite Isla Bonita (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) inside the final 100 meters in front of 140,000 fans at Tokyo Racecourse. "I am so overwhelmed with joy that I can't feel my feet on the ground," said Hashiguchi. "I didn't feel so happy when I won the Dubai Sheema Classic with Heart's Cry in 2006. The Derby is indeed a special race." Cont. p9

Ride on Curlin (Curlin), runner-up in the GI Preakness S., tuned up for Saturday's GI Belmont S. with a seven-furlong drill at Belmont Sunday in 1:28.03 (video). "I thought he went super," trainer Billy Gowan said. "He went just like I told him. I told him to go slow the first quarter, and he went in :27. He went the last quarter in :24. It was just what we wanted, mainly to just get some air into him. If I work him a half-mile, he may get too speed crazy. As long as he was going slow, that's all we needed." Cont. p10

Introduced over six furlongs at York in July, The Grey Gatsby made a successful start to his career before finishing runner-up in the G3 Acomb S. over an extra panel back at that venue the following month. No match for Outstrip (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) when three-lengths second to that rival in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September, he made little impact in the G1 Racing Post Trophy back there at the end of October before returning to be second to Toormore (Ire) (Arakan) in Newmarket's G3 Craven S. Apr. 17. Clearly in need of further after his subsequent 10th in the May 3 G1 2000 Guineas back over the same track and trip, he was sent to York, where punters expected him to run another honest race in defeat with all the focus on Godolphin's True Story (GB) (Manduro {Ger}). Tearing up the script when joined up with Ryan Moore for the first time, the grey readily upstaged that rival and had most to fear from the strong-finishing Arod (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) as he clung on by 3/4 of a length. Initially well positioned towards the front of the pack from his favorable draw in six, he was chopped and lost places, but gained the rail and was helped by the genuine pace set up ahead. Keeping to the inside as Moore looked for space, he ended up towards the rear with the 2-1 favorite Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) at the tail behind him. After the home turn, his fence-hugging move had seen him move up to mid-division with Shamkiyr his target and Gonna Run (Fr) (Hurricane Cat) holding him in on his outer. While Gerald Mosse was finding all sorts of traffic on Prince Gibraltar a few lengths adrift, The Grey Gatsby had an ideal split and quickly joined The Aga Khan's eventual runner-up and Gonna Run making a line of three with a furlong to race and was soon beyond recall.

"The ground was drying out quickly and was a little bit too fast in the end," trainer Kevin Ryan said. "That's as quick as he'd want it and he handled it nicely. He needs to get into a rhythm in his races, so it helped that there was a good pace and it looks on that evidence that he'll stay a mile and a half. He is in the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh June 28], but he could get a break now and come back for the G1 Juddmonte International [at York Aug. 20] instead. We don't have to make a decision now, so we'll take time to decide. We always liked him and, as he qualifies for the French-bred premiums, this is a great day for everybody." Of runner-up Shamkiyr, Georges Rimaud, His Highness The Aga Khan's racing manager, said, "He ran a very good race and ran on nicely." Jean-Claude Rouget, trainer of third-placed Prince Gibraltar, was philosophical about the market leader's unlucky passage through the Classic. "He has to be ridden held up like that, so he dictates the tactics and we can't do anything about it," he explained. "It was very difficult to come from behind today, as we saw in the earlier races on the card, so he ran a very good race and will definitely go for the G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp July 13]." Of Gonna Run, who flattered to deceive in the closing stages, Rouget added, "He ran a good race, but I thought he looked a bit light beforehand and maybe didn't stay." Race chart p4

On a day when the ground that had looked potentially testing in mid-week dried out rapidly, the bias was with the front-runners, and Spiritjim took full advantage of that and an uncontested lead to extend his tally here.

Expensive as a yearling, the bay had fallen shy of the standard required of the Arc class of 3-year-olds, but ended 2013 with a win in the Listed Prix Vulcain over 1 9/16 miles at Deauville in October. Returning to add the 12-furlong Listed Prix Lord Seymour to his resume at Longchamp Apr. 17, he was asked to make all by Christophe Soumillon when back over that track-and-trip in the G3 Prix d'Hedouville May 8. Ears pricked enjoying an easy time throughout, he had to graft when pressed late on by Now We Can, but was always holding that rival to register a career high. "It is never easy to win over a mile and a half at Chantilly when making all, so it was a very good performance and shows how tough and courageous he is," trainer Pascal Bary commented. "He has gone from strength to strength this season and is getting better with age. We'll see how he comes out of this, but the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud is four weeks away instead of the usual three, which will help. If he is well, he will run there."

Busy at two, Rangali improved with experience and wound up with a second in the Listed Prix Zeddaan over six furlongs at Fontainebleau in November, and showed that he had not gone backwards over the winter break when returning there to win and finish second in 5 1/2-furlong conditions events in March. Fourth in the Apr. 16 Listed Prix Sigy over six here, the chestnut opened his account in that sphere in the Listed Prix Texanita back over 5 1/2 furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte last time May 12. Settled in the slipstream of the eventually unplaced British-trained trio intent on blazing the trail, he struck the front approaching the furlong pole and was quickly beyond the reach of the more confidently ridden Catcall. "I am very impressed with that, as it is difficult for the 3-year-olds against the older sprinters, especially when they are proven ones, but he proved me wrong in great style," his owner, trainer and part-breeder Henri-Alex Pantall said. "He is really a five-furlong horse and can't go further. He is not in the G1 King's Stand S. and has had five races already this year, so it may be best not to supplement him for that and instead give him a break and bring him back with the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 22] in mind."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters.

Savanne, who registered a debut fifth in a Deauville newcomers' heat on the turf Oct. 24, was let go at long odds for this black-type bow despite arriving fresh off a neat score going 10 1/2 panels on the Polytrack here last time Apr. 28. In command at a steady tempo for much of this stamina test, the homebred bay was last off the bridle in the straight and never looked in danger once stoked up approaching the final eighth to secure a career high, extending trainer Andre Fabre's record haul in the contest to 11. "She's a nice filly who had run two good races so far," commented Fabre. "She won well today and, all being well, she should now go for the [June 29 G2] Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud]."

Frac Daddy, second in the GI Arkansas Derby and a graduate of last year's GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont S., was transferred to the turf for his summer/fall campaign and came away with a runner-up effort in the Nov. 16 GIII Commonwealth Turf H. at Churchill Downs. He began 2014 with a runner-up effort in the Maxxam Gold Cup S. over the main track at Sam Houston in March before winning the Apr. 19 GIII Ben Ali S. over Keeneland's Polytrack. The gray was coming off a fourth-place effort over the turf in the May 11 GI Man o'War S. Frac Daddy pressed Really Sharp (Sharp Humor) through an opening half in :48.82. He easily took charge on the turn and sailed clear down the lane for an authoritative victory.

"He's got a nice kick from the quarter pole," said winning rider Luis Contreras. "I was nice and comfortable all the way." Frac Daddy is now three-for-three over synthetic surfaces. "We've definitely found his niche," said Matt Shirer, assistant to winning trainer Ken McPeck. "He obviously loved this track and he's won at Keeneland. We'll see what else is available for us. He's grown a lot since his 3-year-old year. He's a whole other horse now and we're happy with him."

Untried in black-type company until this race, Almandin nevertheless warranted respect as a Schlenderhan representative by the mighty Monsun and he duly came up trumps against some talented opposition. Raced on only three occasions at two and three, the bay won on the latter occasion at Krefeld in November and returned this term to be second on both starts in conditions events at Longchamp. After meeting his match in Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) over 10 furlongs Apr. 6, the homebred failed attempting to give weight to the subsequently listed-placed Abys (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}) over 100 meters further three weeks later. Held up towards the back early, he was switched to the inside rail in the backstretch before being shaken up by Filip Minarik in early straight. Delivered down the middle of the track to take the initiative approaching the furlong pole, he asserted from Protectionist as last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Lucky Speed stayed on encouragingly under his penalty on his belated comeback.

Campaigning as a homebred for Koji Maeda's North Hills Co., One and Only kept the Japanese Derby trophy in the family after Maeda's younger brother, Shinji Maeda, saw his silks carried to victory last year by Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). An unassuming 12th in his racetrack debut at Kokura last August, One and Only stepped up to be second at Hanshin a month later before getting off the mark over that course Sept. 29. Second by a nose in his black-type debut in Kyoto's Hagi S. when stretching out to 1 1/16 miles, One and Only checked in sixth, beaten 2 1/2 lengths, behind Isla Bonita in the G3 Tokyo Hai S. Nov. 16, and ended the season on a winning note when taking the G3 Radio Nikkei Hai Nisai S. at Hanshin Dec. 21. One and Only failed to win in his first two outings of 2014, but his efforts nonetheless suggested he would be a Derby threat.

Yokoyama jumps for joy
Horsephotos

The dark bay finished second, beaten a nose, in the G2 Hoshi Hai Yayoi Sho, turning in the fastest final three furlongs of the race, and he repeated that feat when flying late to finish fourth behind Isla Bonita in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) Apr. 20, suggesting he would enjoy yesterday's added distance. Over-racing slightly heading into the first turn, One and Only was eventually settled into sixth on the rail by jockey Horihiro Yokoyama heading into the backstretch, while the front running Ekimae (Jpn) (Meisho Bowler {Jpn}) opened up a daylight lead and Isla Bonita sat an untroubled third. Ekimae suddenly pulled up rounding the turn, leaving Tosen Stardom (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) to take up the lead briefly before being swarmed by Isla Bonita and One and Only, who was tipped out by Yokoyama for his rally. One and Only drew even with Isla Bonita approaching the 200-meter mark, and the pair remained deadlocked for about 150 meters before One and Only overtook his rival in the final strides.

Yokoyama, also the regular rider of Heart's Cry, said: "The pace was too slow and the colt was a bit too keen during the race, but he stretched well. The trainer and his staff conditioned him perfectly for the Derby. He was unable to make a good start in the previous race, but he broke well today and I was able to race him in striking position. He is still immature compared to his sire, but he was able to win the Derby and I hope that he will continue to develop steadily."

One and Only becomes the third Group 1 winner for Heart's Cry, and his second Classic winner in the space of a week after Nuovo Record (Jpn) took last weekend's G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks). The other Group 1 winner is Just A Way (Jpn), winner of the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn and the G1 Dubai Duty Free, and currently the world's highest-rated horse based on the latter performance.

COUNTDOWN TO THE CROWN

THE BELMONT STAKES ~ June 7th

Billy Gowan watched the work along with John Velazquez, who will have the mount on Ride on Curlin for the first time Saturday.

"One good thing about the horse is that he's easy to ride," Gowan said. "He relaxes when he gets around horses, and he doesn't get speed crazy or anything. He can pretty much ride him any way he wants to. I've told all his riders that. He's probably the easiest horse you've ever ridden in your life. He showed that today. He was nice and relaxed. He doesn't get too worked up about anything, but when you ask him, he's still full of run."

BULLET FOR WICKED STRONG

Centennial Farm's GI Twinspires.com Wood Memorial winner Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) turned in a bullet five-furlong work in :59.10 Sunday at Belmont Park

(video). Exercise rider Kelvin Pahal was in the irons for the work, which was the fastest of 12 at the distance over the training track yesterday. Wicked Strong was working just behind last year's GI Belmont S. winner Palace Malice (Curlin). "I thought he went real good," said trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "It was a little fast, but [Pahal] saw me put my hand up to slow down, and he did. He didn't pull him back, but he didn't urge him any. It looked like he saw [Palace Malice and Celebrator] ahead of him and really got into gear around the turn and was approaching them fast, which is why I slowed him down. Sometimes they [catch horses ahead of them]. You don't mind them doing it if [the other horses] are only a few lengths in front, but when they are six lengths in front, it's a different story. But it was good. I'm happy with it."

Wicked Strong

The Belmont S. will be Wicked Strong's first race since finishing fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby.

COMMANDING CURVE DRILLS

West Point Thoroughbreds' GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Commanding Curve (Master Command) worked four furlongs in company at Belmont Sunday in preparation for next week's GI Belmont S. The bay covered the distance in :47.38--third fastest of 25 moves at the distance (video). "I thought he worked great," said trainer Dallas Stewart. "I've never seen him work any better. It was easy, and he was calm and perfect. He came back not blowing. That's the thing about him: he never gets tired. It was just a great day for him. We'll take it."

PLETCHER PAIR WORK IN COMPANY

Trainer Todd Pletcher's GI Belmont S. contenders Commissioner (A.P. Indy) and Matterhorn (Tapit), working in company over the Belmont training track Sunday, both turned in four-furlong drills (video). Commissioner, second in the GII Peter Pan S., covered the distance in

:49.86, while Peter Pan fourth-place finisher Matterhorn went in :49.90. "I thought they worked very well; it was a good, well-executed breeze," Pletcher said. "Both horses seemed very comfortable and relaxed and galloped out well. I thought [Matterhorn] breezed well enough to continue to consider it; we'll see how he comes out of it and make a final decision, but I did like the breeze."

Commissioner and Matterhorn
Horsephotos

Also prepping for stakes action in Elmont next week, Pletcher-trained Palace Malice (Curlin) worked a bullet four furlongs over the training track in :47.38 in preparation for the GI Metropolitan H. "Typical impressive breeze from him; he's doing unbelievable," said Pletcher.

Last year's GI Kentucky Oaks winner Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior), aiming for the GI Ogden Phipps S., went five furlongs in 1:01.31 (video). "It was a very good breeze," said Pletcher. "She was very relaxed and happy and moving well, so we're excited about the race. I have a lot of respect for how good Beholder (Henny Hughes) and Close Hatches (First Defence) are, so I'm excited about the race and how our filly is doing, but it's going to be a very difficult task."

MATUSZAK ON TRACK

George Prussin's Matuszak (Bernardini) breezed five furlongs in company over Belmont's main track Sunday in 1:00.94 ahead of next week's G1 Belmont S. "It was great," trainer Bill Mott said of the work. "He came home very well. I might be wrong, but I got him coming home in under :23. He went very well." Matuszak is coming off a runner-up effort behind possible Belmont contender Kid Cruz (Lemon Drop Kid) in the Apr. 19 Federico Tesio S. "I realize we're kind of a longshot and we're reaching, but the horse is actually coming around at the right time, whatever that may mean," Mott added.

Classic Corner

LILY CONNECTIONS LOOKING FOR RAIN

The connections of Lily Rules (Ire) (Aussie Rules), supplemented to Friday's G1 Investec Oaks at a cost of £30,000 last week, will be hoping for a wet week for the G3 Musidora S. runner-up.

"She is ready to go and the more rain, the better for her," said trainer Tony Coyle. "She loves cut in the ground and it looks like there will be plenty of it next week, so that's what swayed it for us. She goes on good going, but she is just more effective on soft because she handles it better than a lot of other fillies."

Lily Rules owns two victories from 10 starts, her most recent win coming in a Newcastle handicap in August. She finished sixth in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. Apr. 16, followed by her Musidora effort May 14.

"We fancied her to run a big race at York. She was very unlucky in the Nell Gwyn at Newmarket--when the gaps came, she wasn't quite quick enough to go for them because seven furlongs is way too short for her," Coyle told PA Sport. "She started off over five furlongs, but she is out of a Giant's Causeway mare and ran well over a mile in a listed race at Haydock Park last year, when she was third and Chriselliam was second. What she lacks in ability, she makes up for in toughness--she is as tough as old boots. We are going down to Epsom Downs hopeful rather than confident, and we would be over the moon if she finished in the first five."

VOLUME GETS THE GREEN LIGHT

Jockey Richard Hughes had voiced concerns about the ability of Volume (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}) to handle the Epsom course in Friday's G1 Investec Oaks, but his worries were laid to rest Friday after partnering the Listed Fillies' Trial S. winner in a workout around a Tattenham corner-style bend. Trainer Luca Cumani, who will be searching for his first Oaks victory having saddled three runners up, told Racing Post: "[Hughes] rode her work on Friday round a left-handed bend, on a mock Epsom track, and she handled it well and he is happy. I think it is a very open race. Any of the fillies that have won or run well in an Oaks trial deserve to be there."

Hughes won last year's Oaks aboard Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), and Cumani will saddle his first runner in 23 years in the Classic.

OBITUARIES

TRAINER JOHN HILLS DIES

Trainer John Hills, son of trainer Barry Hills and brother to retired jockeys Michael and Richard Hills, trainer Charlie Hills and bloodstock insurer George Hills, has passed away at the age of 53 after a brief battle with pancreatic cancer.

After a stint as an amateur jockey and time spent working under trainers Edward O'Grady, Harry Thompson-Jones, John Gosden and his father, Hills took out his training license in 1987 and saddled more than 500 winners throughout his career. He achieved his most notable success when Wind in Her Hair (Ire) (Alzao), second in the G1 Epsom Oaks, won Germany's G1 Aral Pokal S. Wind in Her Hair would go on to produce Japanese superstar Deep Impact (Jpn). His other success stories include Group 2 winners Docksider and Dark Islander (Ire). Hills was also responsible for the early education of Mount Athos (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Hong Kong standout Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}).

Hills had just last year moved to Kingwood House Stables in Lambourn as a trainer for Sheikh Hamdan with the assistance of his father.

"I couldn't have wished for a better older brother and I'll miss him immensely," Charlie Hills told PA Sport. "He was always so much fun to be around, extremely clever and witty. He had time for everyone and saw the best in everyone. He was a very talented trainer and we were all so proud of his achievements. [Daughters] Jessica, Olivia, Martha and Issie were a huge credit to him and [wife] Fiona, and I can't begin to explain how much we will miss him as a family."

"I really can't believe it," Michael Hills told Racing Post. "I can't believe the speed of the whole thing. I saw him during the Greenham meeting [in April] and you wouldn't have thought he had got a cold. It just grabbed him so quick. We are all so shocked."

Hills is survived by his wife, Fiona, and four daughters.

Richard Hills @richardjhills My lovely brother he will be so badly missed by us all most of all by our mum RIP

George Hills @george_hills He put up a big fight for the girls. Devastated. We're going to miss him.

Lee Mottershead @leemottershead As a hack there were few trainers you looked forward to ringing or speaking to more than John Hills. A thoroughly decent man, gone too soon.

John Berry @JohnWathenBerry Sum up John Hills in 2 words, you'd say kind, friendly. So v sad such a nice man should go a few decades too soon. Condolences to family RIP

Yesterday's Result:

1st-NOT, £6,000, Mdn, 2yo, 5f 13yT, 1:01.94, sf.
MUBTAGHAA (IRE) (c, 2, Acclamation {GB}--Mabalane {Ire} {SP-Fr}, by Danehill), a promising debut second after starting slowly at Ascot May 10, dwelt again here, albeit with early bumps, and raced fifth of the six runners initially. Making headway on the outside after passing halfway, the 4-11 favorite came under pressure at the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out to best One Moment (GB) (Notnowcato {GB}) by an ultimately snug 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half to Maree Basse (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), SP-Fr. Sales history: 38,000gns RNA wlng '12 TATDEC; £80,000 yrl '13 DONAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £6,191. 5th-NOT, £6,000, Mdn, 3yo, f, 8f 75yT, 1:48.42, sf.
MANDERLEY (IRE) (f, 3, Clodovil {Ire}--Three Days in May {GB}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who bettered her previous form by some way when fourth at 100-1 in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4, was sent off the 1-3 favorite as a result and broke well to lead. Turning the screw inside the final quarter mile, the 150,000gns TATOCT yearling was eased late to allow Maid of the Glens (Ire) (The Carbon Unit) to within a half length at the line. The winner is a full-sister to Gregorian (Ire), MGSW & G1SP-Eng, MG1SP-Fr, $479,955. Lifetime Record: 8-1-1-1, £95,874. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.

All carry 129 pounds.

This race acted as a stepping stone for Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) two years ago and this renewal contains one who could be of serious note in the future in War Envoy. Off the mark over this track and trip Apr. 28, the Ballydoyle trainee faces a potentially stern opponent in Richard Hannon's Kool Kompany. He went two-for-two in a conditions event over five furlongs at Windsor May 19 and is one of a clutch of potential group performers alongside Intense Style, who upstaged War Envoy's stable companion and hot favorite Dick Whittington (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) in a Curragh maiden May 25.

Monday, Naas, post time: 4:30 p.m.

COOLMORE STUD EBF FILLIES' SPRINT S.-Listed, €57,500, 2yo, f, 6fT

7	8	Spirit of Xian (Ire)	Kodiak (GB)	Dobbs	Hannon
8	2	Stormfly (Ire)	Dark Angel (Ire)	Smullen	Weld

All carry 126 pounds.

A hotbed of future stars such as Sandiva (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), Sky Lantern (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}), Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), Cuis Ghaire (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), You'resothrilling (Storm Cat), Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) (Danehill) and Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}), this renewal features several likely types including the impressive Curragh maiden winner Newsletter. Trainer Ken Condon has been waiting for better ground and needs the rain to stay away. "She needs decent ground and while the ground looks fine at the moment, I will be hoping it doesn't deteriorate," he told PA Sport. "She won her maiden on soft ground, but that was in a different league and she won in spite of it. She's such a good mover and is well entered up in the early-closing races, so this will tell us more about her trip-wise. Her pedigree suggests she should go six or seven furlongs. We like her a lot and she shows us a lot of pace and has a nice action. I was delighted with her first run and this is the next step up and hopefully she'll make into a Royal Ascot filly." Another one-time winner is Beach Belle, who also scored over five furlongs at that Kildare venue Mar. 23 and is bred to appreciate further.

Monday, Naas, post time: 5:05 p.m.

LACKEN S.-Listed, €40,000, 3yo, 6fT

9	8	Glassatura (Ire)	Verglas (Ire)	Foley	Halford	124
10	1	Seas of Wells (Ire)	Dansili (GB)	McDonogh	Oxx	124

This sees the return of last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G2 Railway S. winner and G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. runner-up Sudirman, who has not been seen since finishing fifth in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket in October. Blinkered for the first time, he is a top-of-the-ground specialist and trainer David Wachman is hoping it does not become testing. "He's a horse that wants good ground and I haven't seen any of that yet recently and it looks like it won't even be that good, either," he told PA Sport. "But he's in good form and we're trying him in blinkers for the first time too." In a fascinating line-up, Aidan O'Brien saddles the May 14 course-and-distance handicap scorer Due Diligence, while Dermot Weld relies on the unexposed May 18 Navan maiden winner Sailors Swan.

Yesterday's Result:

+ HOMELAND (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo {Ire}--

Withorwithoutyou {Ire}, by Danehill) raced in third before improving one spot at halfway. Hooking up with pacesetter Spryt (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) at the two pole, the 1-3 chalk was pushed out to overcome greenness and assert by a half length from that rival.

"He's a nice colt, he'd been working nicely at home and I think he can progress with racing," opined rider Joseph O'Brien. "He was quite green and on and off the bridle early, but when the penny dropped and he straightened up in the last furlong I was comfortable with him." The winner is a half to Art Connoisseur (Ire) (Lucky Story), Hwt. 3yo at 5-7f & G1SW-Eng, G1SP-Ire, $682,302. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €10,005.

The French filly Ming Zhi Cosmos, who had won two of her three starts this season and was third, beaten less than three lengths, by the subsequent G1 Poule D'Essai Des Poulaches champion Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) in a Chantilly conditions event Apr. 9, was an obvious choice here. Under a strong ride by jockey Umberto Rispoli, Ming Zhi Cosmos ran on well to beat Ocean Spirit, while Lady Dutch, who ran just one week after an inconclusive effort in the G2 Italian Oaks, stayed on for third. Ming Zhi Cosmos is one of seven horses owned by Teo Ah Khing in training at Chantilly with Nicolas Clement. Teo Ah Khing, who is involved in the ownership of the Epsom Derby favorite Australia, is the chairman of Desert Star Holding, and a key player in the development of Meydan Racecourse and China Horse Club.

Freedom Holder, third in the Listed Premio Mauro Sbarigia over 1600 meters on Italian Derby Day, collected his first stakes win with this effort. The grey, who finished in the money in all of his eight previous starts, set a slow pace and responded well when jockey Fabio Branca asked him for a run, turning back the challenge of Victis Hill.
