OVER THE MOON

Randy Patterson's Moonshine Mullin (Albert the Great)--haltered for $40,000 off Maggi Moss and Steve Asmussen at Remington Park last November (Featured in Friday's TDN)--continued his winning ways with a 10-1 upset in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs Saturday night. With regular pilot Calvin Borel in the irons, the GII Alysheba S. hero sat a stalking trip while perched on the outside in second. He took over on the far turn, but was immediately confronted by Departing (War Front). Still with plenty left in the tank, Moonshine Mullin turned back that rival in the stretch and held off the long-striding champion Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) by 1 3/4 lengths. "If he never wins another race, it's been a great ride," trainer Randy Morse said after winning his first Grade I. "But as good as he's doing, who knows? You never know, that's one thing about this sport, they come from everywhere. I'm very happy with him, though." Cont. p5

RUNNING 'SHOES'

Fanticola and Scardino's Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) successfully defended his GI Shoemaker Mile S. title with an absolutely scintillating performance. On the engine through ridiculous splits of :22.06 and :44.50, the 8-5 favorite kicked for home with a five-length advantage and kept on finding more in the stretch to score by 1 1/2 lengths over Summer Front (War Front). "We'll give him a little breather, look for his usual prep down at Del Mar, then maybe another prep at Santa Anita before the [GI] Breeders' Cup [Mile Nov. 1]," said trainer Phil D'Amato, former assistant to Mike Mitchell, after saddling his first Grade I winner. Cont. p6

ALL IOTAPA IN VANITY

Hronis Racing's lotapa (Afleet Alex)--a wire-to-wire heroine of the GII Santa Maria S. Feb. 15--dominated five rivals to register a career high in the GI Vanity S. at Santa Anita. With jockey Joe Talamo going for a Grade I double, lotapa was sent to the front from her rail draw, rattled off fractions of :22.76 and :46.56 and dropped the hammer in the stretch to score by an eye-catching 10 1/4 lengths. Grace Hall (Empire Maker) was second. "The fractions weren't too fast for her so she was able to gain a breather at one point and it was amazing the way she kicked away like she did," Talamo said. Cont. p7

NEXT IN LINE

Not surprisingly, given his unnerving skill for breeding high-class middle-distance fillies, His Highness The Aga Khan enjoys the current record of winners of Chantilly's G1 Prix de Diane Longines, and the unbeaten Shamkala (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) is poised to bring up number eight in today's edition. Like six of the seven past heroines, it is Alain de Royer-Dupre who is at the helm and he has produced another masterclass of preparation by delivering the homebred finely tuned for easy missions here in October, at Longchamp Apr. 24 and in the May 14 G3 Prix Cleopatre at Saint-Cloud. Georges Rimaud, the owner-breeder's manager, is keeping things understated. "Hopefully she is going with a chance," he told PA Sport. "There are two Group 1 winners in the race, so I would say our filly is a challenger rather than the favourite. She is a nice filly and has done everything we have asked of her so far. This is a step up for her, but it is really the only option she has. I think we are going there with moderate-to-reasonable confidence and we hope she will run a nice race. His Highness has enjoyed good success in the race in the past, which is great." Cont. p3

Racing at Chantilly

Bill Cubbedge's Molly Morgan (Ghostzapper) pulled off a 10-1 upset with a four-length decision over Flashy American (Flashy Bull) in the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill Downs Saturday. Heavily favored On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) was a disappointing fifth.

It certainly appeared on paper that the GIII Matt Winn S. went through Tapiture (Tapit), and so it proved, as the chestnut ran out an easy winner to get the second half of the season off on a high note.

DISTORTED HUMOR

A Great Sire

Still the only active sire to have winners of all three legs of the Triple Crown.

GREATNESS defined.

Andre Fabre yesterday gave the green light for Ballymore Thoroughbred's May 4 G1 1000 Guineas winner Miss France (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) to line up, with the warm spell drying the ground sufficiently. "The ground will be perfect and, although there are some light showers forecast, it won't change," Fabre told Racing Post. "Unless there is unforeseen torrential rainfall, she will run." Miss France is not the sole Classic winner in the line-up, with Antonio Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) bidding to follow in the steps of the recent Diane scorers Divine Proportions (Kingmambo), Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) and Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by completing the Longchamp-Chantilly double.

There was no disputing her superiority in the May 11 feature, where the re-opposing Xcellence (Fr) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and Bawina (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) were third and fourth, respectively. The former steps up beyond a mile for the first time and on pedigree, Martin Schwartz's recent purchase is likely to appreciate the extra distance as well as the drying conditions. "The ground....in the Guineas....was too soft for what she wants," trainer Francois Doumen told PA Sport. "Her finest quality is her turn of foot--she has the most wonderful acceleration--which she showed [when first] in the G3 Prix Imprudence [at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 3] and [when second in] the G3 Prix Miesque [at Maisons-Laffitte in November]. The question you have is, will she stay? Looking at her pedigree, she should stay, but if you look at her races, you have a doubt. But she's a month older and that will maybe help her stay a little further. She was being considered for the [G1 June 21] Coronation S. but was been bought by Martin Schwartz to run in the Prix de Diane. It's a very high-class race with three or four fillies at a very high level, which is quite unusual." Bawina can be excused for her latest reversal in the Pouliches, as trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias has long been convinced that the Wertheimer homebred needs more than a mile to be at her best. Impressive when successful by five lengths on her prior start at Saint-Cloud Mar. 30, the bay gives the impression she is up to this standard and her lack of black-type is a temporary situation. Most of the remainder appear to have limitations, with the two unexposed types Local Hero (Fr) (Zamindar) and Jon and Julia Aisbitt's Lavender Lane (Ire) (Shamardal) needing to find huge improvement to be in the shake-up.

2 Easy Solutions

Q & A with Maggi Moss

Thoroughbred Owner & Conference Panelist

How did you get into the ownership business?

I have loved horses since I was 10 years old and I have competed with hunter and jumpers for 20 years. I went to the University of Kentucky, and, as tradition has it, we spent a great deal of time at Keeneland. I was mesmerized with the beauty of horse racing and dreamt of someday being able to participate. Once I established my law career, I reached out to a trainer at my home track at Prairie Meadows, and my first horse set a track record there; I was instantly hooked and have now owned race horses for 15 years.

What has been your most exciting moment as a Thoroughbred owner?

Of course, seeing any horse flourish, and being able to win any race is a thrill. I think Saratoga, 2012, and watching SO MANY WAYS win one of the oldest races in the United States, the Grade 1 Spinaway.

Why did you agree to be part of the inaugural Thoroughbred Owner Conference?

I think there are many misconceptions as to being able to participate in horse racing. I think anyone, from any walk of life, can do so. I want the sport to thrive and prosper, and I want to try to bring as many new owners into the sport that I can.

Why would you encourage current and potential owners to attend this conference?

There is nowhere in the United States that has assembled such an incredible schedule of speakers all in one place from every aspect of the industry. The participants are some of the most knowledgeable and successful individuals in the industry that can share a wealth of information at one of the most beautiful racetracks in the country. I do not believe there is anywhere as spectacular as Lexington in the fall.

The back classy Moonshine Mullin--second in the 2011 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga--finished fourth in a Remington allowance in his first attempt for these connections Dec. 14, then was third in an optional claimer at Oaklawn Jan. 20. The bay won his next three starts at Oaklawn, then returned to stakes company with a game decision over Golden Ticket (Speightstown) in the Alysheba. He wasn't given much respect by the Churchill faithful to make it five straight Saturday.

Horsephotos

Borel has been aboard for Moonshine Mullin's last three starts. "Randy [Morse] has been doing so well with him," Borel said. "The first morning I was out on him working after the Alysheba, he didn't really work like I thought he should have. But boy, it's funny, when a horse peaks, they peak. When I came back and worked him again about five days ago, he was a totally different horse, like he had gotten his seat back under him. I rode him with a lot of confidence today. We were stepping up, I know we beat some of these same horses a few weeks back, and early on I was afraid it may have taken too much out of him, but as we got closer, Randy had him ready to go. He's a nice, nice horse."

Owner Randy Patterson, a cattle buyer from Kansas, was on hand for the victory. "It was awesome, absolutely awesome," he said. "This was my first Grade I win, the Alysheba was my first Grade II win and coming down that stretch today I was just like, 'This is not supposed to happen with a claiming horse.' But he'll stay right here, I don't have any idea what will be next for him."

A game third behind Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in the 2012 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita, Obviously put together a three-race winning streak last year, including the Shoemaker and Gil Del Mar Mile H. Aug. 25. Fourth as the 1-2 chalk in Santa Anita's Gil City of Hope Mile S. Oct. 5, he tired to finish fifth behind Wise Dan in the Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 2, his final start for the now retired Mitchell. Transferred to his longtime assistant, Obviously blew the doors off in his 6-year-old debut with a 5 1/2-length win in the GIII American S. at Santa Anita May 17. Regular pilot Joe Talamo was aboard yesterday.

"He's all class," Talamo said. "He was going fast, but he was doing it fairly easily. With him, you don't have a choice though. His thing is going to the front. If I would have taken him back, we wouldn't have won. You give him his head and let him do it. He is one of the best I've ever sat on. I just waited as long as I could to make my move because I knew we had closers coming after us. It's amazing he could still accelerate after running as fast as he did."

Co-owner Anthony Fanticola said, "He obviously doesn't like horses in front of him! Obviously likes to be in front."

Co-owner Joseph Scardino added, "This means a lot to me 'cause at my age [82], you gotta savor these. I realize how difficult it is to win one of these. You appreciate it more as you get older."

Molly Morgan, who earned her diploma in a $50,000 maiden claimer here in 2012, tried black-type company for the first time last August in Ellis Park's GIII Gardenia S., where she finished fourth. Her only win last season came three starts later in a second-level allowance Nov. 6, but she was given a breather following a seventh in the GII Falls City H. Nov. 28. Eighth while making her seasonal bow in a turf Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 15, the bay improved to third when switched back to the main track in another Hallandale optional claimer Mar. 19. Molly Morgan was second to this race's favorite On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) when stepped up in class for the GI La Troienne S. May 2, but the bettors did not have faith in her improving on that effort in this one. Away well, Molly Morgan saved all the ground and cabooseed the field early, as Ondine (Medaglia d'Oro) clocked modest splits of :23.94 and :48.07 with On Fire Baby hot on her heels. Sliding through on the rail at the quarter-pole as her five rivals spread out across the track, the bay seized command at the top of the stretch under a confident Corey Lanerie and zipped clear to register her first graded stakes success. Favored On Fire Baby could do no better than fifth and the pacesetter Ondine faded to last of the six. Winning owner Bill Cubbedge teamed with Mike Lauffer on homebred 2011 GI Preakness S. winner Shackleford (Forestry). "I think there is just a late-maturing curve on her pedigree, she always showed me she had the talent to be a nice filly and Bill [Cubbedge] in what looked like she might have been over her head," winning trainer Dale Romans said.

It certainly appeared on paper that the Matt Winn went through Tapiture, and so it proved, as the chestnut ran out an easy winner to get the second half of the season off on a high note. Third as a maiden in this track's GIII Iroquois S. last September, the homebred rounded out the trifecta in a local maiden Oct. 27, but graduated in style with a 4 1/4-length success in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. over course and distance Nov. 30. He was the recipient of three perfect trips over the winter at Oaklawn and took full advantage in the GIII Southwest S. Feb. 17, defeating Strong Mandate (Tiznow) by 4 1/4 lengths. The chestnut was outgamed by Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) in the GII Rebel S. Mar. 15 and was an alibi-free fourth behind Danza (Street Boss) in the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 12 prior to a distant 15th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 3. The Admiral (Giant's Causeway) won the break and set the early pace from an erratic Rise Up (Rockport Harbor) and Almost Famous as Tapiture, back with his friends here, landed in mid-division. There was no change in the plot until Calvin Borel went for an early move up the fence with Almost Famous and the duo led them into the far turn. Rosie Napravnik was always riding confidently aboard the chalk and had him in behind Rise Up on the bend before easing out and around that weakening rival four wide leaving the three-eighths marker. Tapiture had Almost Famous whenever he wanted him, overtook him three-sixteenths out and pulled clear. Ulanbator, one of the back markers early on, rallied past Almost Famous late for second.

Gamay Noir proved her 49-1 upset in the Gill Rampart S. at Gulfstream Mar. 29 was for real with this hard-fought score. Claimed for $100,000 off Crumbaugh Lane and trainer Kellyn Gorder in January, Gamay Noir got going too late to finish fourth in Tampa's Wayward Lass S. Mar. 15 prior to her aforementioned upset in Hallandale. She was last seen placing third in the Gill Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne Apr. 19. Receiving her fair share of tote support here, Gamay Noir trailed the tightly packed field of eight through a half-mile in a moderate :49.78. With Daniel Centeno aboard, she hit the gas with an eye-catching sweeping move on the far turn and fought her way past a game Montana Native to get the money.

Aurelia's Belle showed a proclivity for the synthetic with a debut win at Keeneland Oct. 12, then hit the board in three straight graded stakes on dirt, finishing third in the Gill Old Hat S. Jan. 4, second in the Gill Forward Gal S. Jan. 25 and third in the Gill Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream Feb. 22. She returned to the synthetic to score a breakthrough graded event in Turfway's Gill Bourbonette Oaks going a mile Mar. 22, but was exiting a distant ninth in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2.

Well-backed in this first turf attempt, Aurelia's Belle found herself well off a moderate pace and came with a wide rally turning for home. She was forced even wider by favored A Little Bit Sassy (More Than Ready), who came out several paths in the lane and crossed the line a nose in arrears, but was awarded the race by the stewards, who demoted A Little Bit Sassy to fourth for causing the interference. Personal Diary was moved up to second while Kiss Moon rounded out the trifecta. "Everything was going well there until we got bumped towards the end and kind of lost our momentum," trainer Wayne Catalano said. "It was going to be close; we originally only got beat maybe a head, so I thought that they were going to put us up. It's unfortunate for the other parties, but I've been on the other end of it before. I'm not sure what will be next for her but she handled the turf very well and that's what you have to take away."

TOORMORE A GO FOR ST JAMES'S PALACE

Courtesy PA Sport

Toormore (Ire) (Arakan) has been given the green light to take his chance in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot on Tuesday. Some doubt had surfaced over the participation of last year's champion 2-year-old, who won the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket on his seasonal reappearance Apr. 17 and was seventh in the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas to Richard Hannon-trained stablemate Night Of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is also bound for Ascot. Tim Palin, racing manager for owners Middleham Park Racing, said: "They were just a bit concerned as he was dull in his coat. But he has had some tests done, everything is fine and there is no reason not to run him on Tuesday. It should be a great spectacle, I'm not saying only four horses can win it, but with War Command (War Front), us, and Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Night Of Thunder, it's a race to really look forward to on the first day of Royal Ascot."

ESTIMATE SHINES IN NEWMARKET WORK

Courtesy PA Sport

Hopes of a G1 Gold Cup repeat for Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) at Royal Ascot rose markedly after the Queen's mare shone in a piece of work in Newmarket Saturday morning. The 5-year-old has only been seen once since her famous triumph 12 months ago, when she became the first horse running in the colours of a reigning monarch to lift the historic staying championship. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute admitted earlier this week that a setback in her preparation had hindered her progress but that he was expecting a bold defense of her crown. Estimate and Ryan Moore worked with Hillstar (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) on the Al Bahathri Polytrack, coming out on top. Speaking at Sandown, the Queen's Racing Manager John Warren said, "She's not as tuned as last year with the [G3] Sagaro [S.] run, but then she's with a master trainer. Sir Michael rang me this morning to say she had done a really nice piece of work. She did a serious piece about 10 days ago and needed a couple of pieces of fine-tuning, but he said 'we're where I need to be.'"

THE FUGUE ON TRACK FOR PRINCE OF WALES'S

Courtesy PA Sport

Lord Andrew Lloyd-Webber's multiple Group 1-winning mare The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) has been confirmed an intended runner in Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot. The 5-year-old clinched the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and the G1 Irish Champion S. last season before narrow defeats in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf and in the G1 Hong Kong Vase. She disappointed on her first start of 2014 when 11th of 13 behind Just a Way (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) in the Dubai Duty Free at Meydan, but pleased connections in a workout on Saturday morning and is on course for a second tilt at the 10-furlong feature, having finished third behind Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Mukhadram (GB) (Shamardal) 12 months ago. Simon Marsh, racing manager to Lord and Lady Lloyd-Webber, said, "She worked [Saturday] morning, she worked well and everyone was very happy. All being well she'll run on Wednesday. It looks as though she'll get her ground and it's her optimum trip, so we'll see how we get on. Its a very tough ask with the brilliant Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the field, but we'll give it our best."

CONDITIONS EASE AT ASCOT

Courtesy PA Sport

Ascot's clerk of the course Chris Stickels remains "delighted" with track conditions despite significant rainfall in Berkshire overnight ahead of next week's Royal meeting. Course officials watered the course on both Wednesday and Friday of this week, with very little rain forecast ahead of the biggest five days in the Flat racing calendar. However, Stickels was surprised to discover 15 millimetres of rain fell from Friday evening up until 8 a.m. on Saturday and has changed the official going description to good-to-soft, good in places. Stickels insists the unexpected rainfall is no cause for alarm and he expects conditions to dry out between now and the start of Royal Ascot on Tuesday. Stickels said: "There is the possibility of a residual shower later this morning, but then it is forecast to be dry until at least Wednesday. It's not as though we're racing today. We don't race until Tuesday, so we're quite happy the rain has come. We had discussed watering on Sunday, but we shouldn't need to do that now and hopefully we won't have to water between now and racing. Hopefully we'll end up with perfect ground."

As the G1 Deutsches Derby nears, Cologne plays host to a major stepping stone today in the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen, where ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Sea the Moon (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) puts his reputation and unbeaten record on the line. Successful in Frankfurt's G3 Fruhjahrs-Preis des Bankhauses Metzler last time May 11, Gestut Gorldsdorf's homebred received a boost when the third--Magic Artist (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB})--captured the G3 Bavarian Classic and sixth-placed Guiliani (Ire) (Tertullian) took the Listed Prix Matchem. No domestic Classic trial would be complete without Baron Georg von Ullmann's influence, and that famed owner-breeder is represented here by the May 18 Listed Hanover Derby Trial winner Swacadelic (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), while Gestut Ebbesloh's May 31 Listed Iffezheimer Derby Trail runner-up Giant's Cauldron (Ger) (Peintre Celebre) warrants respect from the Peter Schiergen stable despite being a maiden after three starts.

Verrazano (More Than Ready) won last term in route to a victory in the GI Haskell Invitational. A runaway maiden winner facing fellow New York bred in December, the Gary Contessa pupil was second to native New Yorker Samraat (Noble Causeway) in both the GIII Withers S. Feb. 1 and GIII Gotham S. Mar. 1 at Aqueduct. A troubled fifth in the GI TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial next out Apr. 5, the bay added blinkers for his next start in the GI Kentucky Derby May 3 and faded to 14th after setting the pace. Uncle Sigh looks poised to finally capture that elusive first graded stakes win here, but will have to fight off two very strong competitors to do it. Trainer Larry Jones saddles a formidable foe in Brereton C. Jones homebred Albano (Istan). The bay followed his second-out graduation at the Fair Grounds last November with a success in that venue's Sugar Bowl S. a month later. A well beaten second in the GIII LeComte S. there Jan. 18, he missed by just a nose to the ill-fated Intense Holiday (Harlan's Holiday) next out over that strip in the GII Risen Star S. Feb. 22. Albano was last seen finishing fifth in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 29, but was promoted to fourth through disqualification. St. Elias Stables and West Point Thoroughbreds' Ring Weekend (Tapit) returns to his preferred distance of 1 1/16 miles in this test. Earning his diploma over that distance at Gulfstream Feb. 8, the chestnut won the GII Tampa Bay Derby--also at 1 1/16 miles--next out Mar. 8. Second as the heavy favorite in the Calder Derby Apr. 5, the Graham Motion trainee was fifth last time in the GI Preakness S. May 17. "It looks like there is plenty of pace in the race," Motion said. "I think my horse is pretty adaptable, so I'm not overly concerned about it. He ended up getting shuffled back probably a little further than we would have liked in the Preakness, but if he had a better trip I think he could have finished a little closer. I don't think being off the pace affected him too much. He's a horse that you can kind of put where you like."

'CATOMINE' SEEKS SWEET SUCCESS

John Oxley's lightly raced Wild Catomine (Milwaukee Brew) looks to keep her perfect record intact in today's restricted Woodbine Oaks. The Mark Casse pupil was a debut winner going seven panels over the synthetic here Apr. 19 and won the restricted Fury S. at the same distance defeating Hot and Spicy (Tale of the Cat) and stablemate Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay {Ire}) last time May

Lexie Lou Michael Burns

10. With a female family full of sprinters, the bay may face a distance challenge here--unless she follows in her sire's hoof prints--and there are plenty of strong closers signed on to threaten her front-running style. Casse removes the blinkers on Lexie Lou, who is making just her second start for his barn in this one. Previously trained by John Ross, the classy bay has been trading punches with favored Paladin Bay (Sligo Bay {Ire}) over this track since the start of her career. Winner of the South Ocean S. over that formidable foe last November, Lexie Lou was third to the favorite next out in the Ontario Lassie S. Dec. 14. She finished fourth behind fellow Gary Barber colorbearer and Casse trainee Zensational Bunny (Zensational) and Paladin Bay while making her sophomore bow in the Star Shoot S. Apr. 19 and made her last start in the Fury. Conditioned by Harold Ladouceur, Jessie Ladouceur's Paladin Bay earned her first graded success last out in the 1 1/16-mile GIII Selene S. May 18. Trainer Roger Attfield saddles a pair of interesting contenders in GII Natalma S. winner Llanarmon (Sky Mesa) and sixth-place finisher Unspurned (Lemon Drop Kid). Owned by Harlequin Ranches, the former kicked off this term with an optional claimer success here May 9 and returned just two weeks later to be third in an allowance over this strip. Christine Hayden's Unspurned captured her seasonal debut last time in a seven-panel allowance at this venue on the Selene undercard.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Wildcat Red Works Towards Comebacker...

Wildcat Red (D'wildcat), this year's Gill Hutcheson S. and Gill Besilu Fountain of Youth S. winner, drilled three furlongs Saturday morning in

Wildcat Red
Adam Coglianesse

:36 4/5 as he prepares to kick off the second half of his sophomore season in the $75,000 Quality Road S. at Gulfstream Park June 28. "I didn't do a lot with him. I didn't want to breeze him five-eighths because the 'dogs' were up," trainer Jose Garoffalo explained. "He galloped and we let him stretch his legs the last three-eighths." Runner-up to Constitution (Tapit) in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29, Wildcat Red was most recently 18th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 3. He is slated to have his final pre-race breeze next weekend for the Quality Road, a 1 1/16-mile event restricted to 3-year-olds. "It doesn't take much to get him fit," said Garoffalo. "He'll breeze five-eighths next week and he'll be ready for the 28th."

BENJAMIN NADOLA:

Randy Moss's Op/ed (TDN, June, 12) identified the Triple Crown as having "problems that are getting worse." After reading his various opinions, I am a bit astounded that he did not give consideration to the probable and obvious correlation between the use of Lasix and other raceday meds and recent Triple Crown failures (as well as a dramatic reduction in lifetime starts).

Mr. Moss did touch on several issues which caused me to share some of my own observations as someone who has followed horseracing for over 50 years.

Modern Thoroughbred Fragility: I have read numerous articles in the TDN and the BloodHorse over the years in which individuals with valid scientific credentials clearly state that the basic physiological and genetic composition of today's Thoroughbred is not significantly different than the Thoroughbred of 30 or 50 years ago. To claim that today's Thoroughbreds are more fragile is in my opinion simply another myth created by trainers as a convenient excuse for fewer starts. Fewer lifetime starts and the myth of increased fragility are often a function of asking 2-year-olds for too much speed too early in their lives (as exhibited in preparation for and conduct of 2-year-old in training sales), repetitive training methods with little downtime at the farm, the excessive use and abuse of drugs as a quick-fix substitute for true horsemanship, trainers' efforts to protect their win percentages, and early retirement because of the huge cost of training fees and vet expenses.

Importance of a Comprehensive Plan: Any tinkering with the Triple Crown must be examined in terms of the impact on racing and the industry down the line. Mr. Moss made no mention of how the other downstream Grade 1 events for 3-year-old colts and fillies might be affected by changes in the dates. The fields for the Haskell, Travers, and the numerous 3/up Grade 1s could be altered significantly, as could the Super Derby, the PA Derby, West Virginia Derby, and other numerous quality Grade 2 races.

Some suggestions for promoting a competitive and meaningful Triple Crown that can also lead to the development and retention of fan interest and enthusiasm:

A. For the horses:

- 1) Initiate immediate elimination of all raceday meds.
- 2) Ensure proper funding for improved and comprehensive drug testing to stay ahead of the "illegal pharmaceutical curve."
- 3) Establish a veterinary intern program in coordination with vet schools to place interns at the tracks to effectively monitor all stabled horses, using appropriate reporting protocols.
- 4) Relocate Churchill Downs' patron seating at the starting gate of the KY Derby to allow the gates to be positioned at a 90 degree angle to the track, permitting a clear straightaway at the start of the race. (Or, simply reduce the maximum field size to less than 20.)

B. For the owners, trainers & jockeys:

- 1) Offer participants in the Triple Crown the opportunity to earn generous bonuses for racing in all three events. Establish a $3 million owners' bonus for the highest number of points earned via finish position in all three races, with 60% to the highest point earner, 20% to the next, etc.
- 2) Re-establish the $5 million bonus for the winner of the Triple Crown.
- 3) Tie-in another $5 million bonus if the Triple Crown winner takes the BC Classic in the same year.

C. For the fans:

- 1) Leave the current racing dates of the Triple Crown as they currently exist.
- 2) Ask NBC (alone or in conjunction with advertisers and participating tracks) to sponsor and promote a $10 million Guaranteed $.10 Superfecta (or similar exotic fractional wager) for each Triple Crown race. (I am confident that each ADW site would contribute to this promo.)
- 3) Beyond the Triple Crown, bundle large guaranteed wagering pool opportunities for other Grade 1 races leading up to the Breeders' Cup. Also create similar racing bonus structures to attract the top runners and maintain fan interest.

Fashion Alert, looking to become the first Todd Pletcher firster to take a stakes race since Sensational Slam (Grand Slam) won the 2010 Clarendon S. at Woodbine, was pushed along for speed by pilot John Velazquez from the outside gate. Putting a head in front three deep midway on the turn after a :22.37 opening quarter, the bay began to edge away from Lindy at the head of the lane as far-back Liatris started to mount a bid. Liatris continued to gain ground in the stretch, but nobody was catching Fashion Alert, and she kept on straight and strong along the rail to win like a good thing. "I thought she did everything we hoped she would do," offered Pletcher, who had unveiled just two other newcomers in stakes races over the past five years, according to DRF Formulator. "She got away pretty alertly and put herself in good position. It was an advantage to have the outside post, which we were happy about when the draw came out. She's a very talented filly that ran to her training. I think timing-wise, this sets her up very well for the [Gill] Schuylerville [S. July 18 at Saratoga]." The winner's dam, who is a half to Grade II winner Big Band Sound (Bernstein), was purchased by Katsumi Yoshida for $575,000 in foal to Regal Ransom at last year's Fasig-Tipton February sale. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. Proud Azteca was promoted to a debut victory against $35,000 maiden claimers over this course Jan. 5 before posting back-to-back runner-up finishes in starter/optional claiming tests Feb. 21 and Mar. 14. The chestnut added blinkers for a decent fifth in Keeneland allowance company Apr. 24 and took plenty of pari-mutuel action for this black-type debut. Abdiel Jaen was able to get Proud Azteca down onto the rail before the first turn despite a high draw and settled one from the tail entering the backstretch. He inched into midfield rounding the final bend, but found some traffic and was forced to wait for a stride or two nearing the stretch. But he accelerated nicely once he saw daylight, split rivals at the eighth pole and pulled clear. Proud Azteca is the fifth stakes winner for his sire produced by a granddaughter of Gone West. Trainer Mark Casse went to $700,000 to secure MAKE THE SUN SHINE (Malibu Moon) on behalf of John Oxley at this year's OBS March sale. The chestnut, who commanded the top price of any filly at the sale, breezed in :10 1/5. This is the first foal out of Sunshine for Life (Giant's Causeway), who took five starts to break her maiden and upended the 2008 GIII Athenia H. on the Belmont turf. Brisnet.com PPs

Emory Hamilton homebred DIVINE RULE (Empire Maker) makes her debut for Shug McGaughey and is an inviting 20-1 on the morning line. The bay is a full-sister to Grade III-winning dirt miler Soaring Empire and a half to the McGaughey-trained Hungry Island (More Than Ready), a two-time graded stakes winner who was thrice Grade I-placed on the lawn. This is the loaded female family of Grade I winners Verrazano (More Than Ready), Chic Shirine (Mr. Prospector), Serra Lake (Seattle Slew), Too Chic (Blushing Groom {Fr}), Queena (Mr. Prospector) and Brahms (Danzig). Another filly with a serious pedigree is Besilu Stables's Crown Queen (Smart Strike), who hasn't been out since a second third-place run here Oct. 3. The Bill Mott trainee was a $1.6-million purchase as a weanling at the 2011 Keeneland November sale, but that was nothing compared to $8.5 million Ben Leon paid for Crown Queen's half-sister Royal Delta (Empire Maker) at the same sale shortly after she took her first of two GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classics. Trained last year by Steve Asmussen, Carve kicked off this season for new trainer Brad Cox with an optional claiming win at Oaklawn Park Mar. 9 and was third next out behind champion Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) and Revolutionary (War Pass) in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 12. A far-back seventh behind Revolutionary last time in the GIII Pimlico Special May 16, the dark bay kept tabs on the leaders from a close up third and took control rounding the turn for home. Under a confident hand ride from Hall of Famer Mike Smith, the favorite glided home a solid winner. Winchell Thoroughbreds' 2011 GIII Delta Downs Jackpot winner Sabercat (Bluegrass Cat) went down on the turn, dumping jockey Ricardo Santana Jr. and was vanned off. SEAL SIX (c, 3, Tiznow--Sweet Damsel, by Turkoman) was third on debut behind GSP Myositis Dan (Istan) on debut at Keeneland last October, but settled for sixth routing over the Churchill Downs main track in November. He resurfaced to be third back in Lexington Apr. 19, and was second as the 3-5 choice going a sixteenth shorter here May 23. The homebred, who again raced without Lasix, broke through this time at 6-5. Seal Six settled off the leader's flank while in the two-path hitting the first turn. He inched closer down the backstretch before taking command after the first half-mile. The bay cruised through the home stretch an impressive 7 1/4 lengths clear of his foes, with Large Scale (Perfect Soul {Ire}) the best of the rest. Flashy Margarita's victory here marks the second time a foal out of Ritta has captured the Bold Ruckus S., with Citius (Old Forester) having taken the 2011 edition. While racing exclusively at Woodbine, Flashy Margaritta graduated by nine lengths at second asking in an Ontario-bred maiden special weight last August, and took the restricted Bull Page S. last October. He made it three in a row with a victory in the restricted Frost King S. Nov. 9. The sophomore reappeared with a fourth in a 5 1/2-furlong open allowance May 23 and was second-favorite for his first turf try. On the muscle from the break, the hooded gelding took the field gate to wire with a rail-skimming trip and just outlasted the late surge of Spin the King. Unhindered, campaigned in partnership by longtime Chicago news anchor Ron Magers, put together a strong worktab, both on the farm and over this track, where she drilled a best-of-17 three furlongs from the gate in :35 flat May 29. Sent off right at her morning-line odds of 5-2, the grey filly was hustled away from the gate and led after the opening sixteenth of a mile before being taken well in hand by Eurico Rosa da Silva. Cruising under a long hold on the turn, she skimmed the rail into the lane, widened without ever being encouraged and scampered away to score by five very promising lengths. Elsie's Song (Tale of the Cat), adding Lasix off a debut third over this track and distance May 31, was a strong second without menacing the winner. The winner's GSW second dam, herself a half to GI Travers S. winner Willow Hour (Bold Hour), also produced GSW Traverse City (Halo). Sales history: $50,000 yrl '13 FTKOCT. Wind Fire was one of the leading sprinting juvenile fillies in 2013, taking the Listed St. Hugh's S. at Newbury in August as well as placing second in the G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster and third in both the G2 Lowther S. at York and G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot. Not surprisingly, a seventh furlong proved beyond her in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. on her seasonal bow at Newmarket Apr. 16 before she filled fourth spot in the Listed Carnarvon S. over six panels at Newbury last time May 16. Blasting from her wide stall to race just behind the early leaders, the bay joined Hay Chewed up front passing the eighth pole. That rival carried her left up the final incline, apparently opening the door to challengers down the centre of the track, but when the pair straightened up, Wind Fire finished strongly under a drive to lead close home. The winner is out of a full-sister to GISW and sire Majestic Warrior.

Highly tried since his ready score in the Listed Royal Windsor S. at the Berkshire track last May, Guest of Honour managed a third in the G2 Summer Mile at Ascot in July but came into this on the back of a lackluster fourth in the Listed Doncaster Mile on his seasonal return Mar. 29. Held up throughout the early stages here, the bay--who sported cheekpieces--moved smoothly approaching the furlong marker, took the initiative soon after and outgunned Fencing in the run to the line. "We didn't go very quick and he's a horse that likes plenty of cover," commented winning jockey Martin Harley, who recently returned from a severe back injury. "I probably got there a bit soon, but he picked up really well." Trainer Marco Botti added, "He ran a couple of races below his best last year and when he was fourth at Doncaster, the ground was too soft. This is what he wants--a mile on fast ground. He has a good turn of foot, so we said wait as long as you can. He idles when he hits the front, but he got the job done." Click for the Racing Post result. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.
