Keeneland September Grad
ITSMYLUCKYDAY
Wins the GI Woodward S.
KEENELAND

'LUCKY', LOPEZ LOVING LIFE AT THE SPA

Trilogy Stable and Laurie Plesa's Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) nearly followed in the hoofprints of his talented late sire in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 2, dropping a 1 1/4-length decision to front-running Moreno

Itsmyluckyday Adam Coglianesse

(Ghostzapper). But the striking dark bay colt, equipped with blinkers for the first time, successfully turned the tables on the Southern Equine runner, grinding his way past his fellow 4-year-old in the final 50 yards to duplicate the feat of Lawyer Ron, who crushed the field by 8 1/4 lengths in 2007. It was the second career Grade I success for trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. (Three Ring, 1999 Acorn S.) and first for talented jockey Paco Lopez, who also took the GII Prioress S. with Monmouth raider Stonetastic (Mizzen Mast). "It's like when you have a child that does something out of the ordinary, exceptional, that you know he could do; that's what it felt like," Plesa Jr. enthused. "I mean, horses aren't your children, but we take great pride in our horses." Cont. p3

'PALACE' TREATS FOREGO FOES WITH MALICE

Antonino Miuccio's former $20,000 claimer Palace (City Zip) took advantage of a perfect inside trip over a track with a strong rail and turned on the afterburners in the stretch to take Saturday's GI Forego S. by 3 1/2 lengths. Big Business (Eddington) rallied from midfield and outfinished Vyjack (Into Mischief) for second. It was the second consecutive top-level success for the Palace, who arguably holds the inside track to a divisional championship. The Forego is a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Cont. p5

GLOW SHOWS NEW DIMENSION IN DEBUTANTE

Ten Broeck Farm's Sunset Glow (Exchange Rate) employed front-running tactics when defeating males in landing two of her three previous trips to the post. But the gray was held up off the pace this time around by jockey Victor Espinoza in Saturday's GI Del Mar Debutante S. and came through to best a stubborn Her Emmynency (Successful Appeal) by a neck. Conquest Eclipse (Malibu Moon), making her first start since graduating first time out at Churchill Downs June 29, looked a winner for a few strides in deep stretch and finished a solid third.

GOING 'COMMANDO' IN THE SPINAWAY

Michael Dubb, Bethlehem Stables and The Elkstone Group's Condo Commando (Tiz Wonderful) looks to 'build' on one of the more impressive debut successes this summer at Saratoga when she steps up to the top level in today's GI Spinaway S. at the Spa. The dark bay, a half-sister to the three-time graded stakes-placed sprinter/miler Checklist (Gone West) and produced by 2004 GII Delaware Oaks winner Yearly Report (General Meeting), was dangled for a $75,000 in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden Aug. 3 and was immediately doing the hustle for Joe Bravo from the gates. She turned it on down the stretch to report home a 12-length winner in 1:03.82, and she should argue the pace again this afternoon from the inside berth in the field of nine. The 'for sale' sign is unlikely to ever be seen again, and the filly has the full confidence of trainer Rudy Rodriguez. "She ran a very good race; she deserves a chance to run in [the Spinaway]," the conditioner commented. "We got a couple works into her; she looks like she's training good. The race comes up a little quick, but that's the way it has to be. She's a lot more comfortable now; she looks like she has it figured out." Cont. p13

'Dan' is Still the Man

Two-time reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) put in another championship performance yesterday in his highly anticipated return in Saratoga's GII Bernard Baruch H., just four months after undergoing emergency colic surgery.

A Pair of Stars on the 'Rise'

Two impressive colts earned the "TDN Rising Star" distinction yesterday, starting with 2-year-old El Kabeir (Scat Daddy) who bound home to a 10 3/4-length success at Saratoga. Just about three hours later, the regally bred sophomore Atreides (Medaglia d'Oro) romped by 17 1/2 lengths in Gulfstream's Monarchos S.

Scaling the Heights...

A dual stakes winner in a reasonably busy seven-race juvenile season in 2012, Itsmyluckyday aired by 6 3/4 lengths in the Gulfstream Park Derby, then handed champion Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) his first career defeat in the GIII Holy Bull S. Favored in the GI Florida Derby in his start, he took the lead into the final furlong, but could not resist the late bid of Orb (Malibu Moon) and settled for second. At $9.50-1 the fifth betting choice in the GI Kentucky Derby, Itsmyluckyday never got untracked over a sloppy Churchill main track and struggled in 15th behind Orb, but Plesa Jr. lost no confidence in his charge and continued on undaunted to the GI Preakness S. two weeks hence, and Itsmyluckyday validated the decision with an outstanding runner-up effort to the pacesetter Oxbow (Awesome Again). With an eye on the second half of the season, connections took a pass on the GI Belmont S. and instead headed back to Monmouth Park and an intriguing matchup with Verrazano (More Than Ready) in the GIII Pegasus S. But Mike Smith, in the irons that day, pulled up his mount on the backstretch, and Itsmyluckyday was done for the year, diagnosed with a pelvic fracture that required no surgical intervention, but plenty of TLC.

Itsmyluckyday

Adam Coglianesse

Gone nearly nine months, the colt had the unenviable task of facing Palace Malice (Curlin) in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 8, but turned in a solid fourth-place effort, then plundered overmatched rivals in the Apr. 26 Best of the Rest S. at Gulfstream and in the Majestic Light S. at Monmouth May 24. He proved a handy winner of the GIII Salvator Mile at the Jersey Shore oval July 6, and Plesa Jr. could have stayed at home for another potentially easy payday in the GII Monmouth Cup July 27. Instead, the conditioner reasoned that his charge was in career form and that it was time to re-engage Palace Malice and company in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 2. Allowed to sit a good trip in behind pacesetter Moreno, Itsmyluckyday slid up the fence and went to the attack entering the stretch. Somewhat curiously taken to the outside where an inside run was available, he came home three lengths better than champion Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) in second and would be equipped with blinkers for his return to the Spa. Cont. p4

Favored by slightly more than $6,000, Moreno was off a half-step slow, but Junior Alvarado was intent on the front and had the Whitney hero at the head of affairs entering the first turn. Paco Lopez was only too happy to let that one go, but never let him out of the crosshairs, and while the first quarter went in a moderate :24.01, the tempo increased in the middle and the half was in a more testing :47.41. Itsmyluckyday was poised and in with every chance as the two took their race-long duel into the far turn, but Moreno was unwavering on the engine and was the first to face the judge. Dour and determined on the lead, Moreno did everything a horse could do to withstand his progressive foe, and the two exchanged mutual bumps inside the final sixteenth of a mile, but Itsmyluckyday would go on to prevail in a thriller. Prayer for Relief raced in midpack and outstayed the rest of the field for third. The winner survived a somewhat frivolous claim of foul from Alvarado and the result was allowed to stand.

Plesa Jr. suggested that the equipment adjustment contributed to putting the colt over the top.

"I'm not going to say, 'Oh, it was the blinkers, I'm a genius.' That's not the case," he offered. "Paco [Lopez] rode an outstanding race, a perfect race. He did what we talked about. We didn't want to give Moreno a breather. We didn't want to have to depend on anybody else, and the outcome was Moreno ran a fantastic race. He just came up a little bit short today against us under different circumstances, and I think they're two great horses."

For his part, Alvarado wasn't convinced the bumping in deep stretch did not affect the outcome.

"I got bumped four or five times. My horse was running good and kept getting bumped," he said. I don't know if [Itsmyluckyday] would have beat me if he hadn't touched me because we were going head-to-head down the stretch until I started getting bumped, and [Moreno] lost his action."

Palace continued the recent purple patch of success for New York-breds with a second consecutive victory at the Grade I level. Claimed by these connections for $20,000 out of an 11 3/4-length maiden in in October 2012, Palace had finished either first or second in 14 of his 16 subsequent appearances--his worst efforts coming when fourth in a turf sprint over this track last summer and when favored in this year's GIII General George H. Feb. 17. Having made nine starts in the span of eight months between June 2013 and his Laurel effort, Palace got some well-deserved rest, but was ignored at 9-1 in his return to action in the GII True North S. on Belmont S. eve June 6. Never far from the pace that afternoon, he came calling late to best

One of eight rivals who was no match for Clearly Now (Horse Greeley) in that one's smashing victory in the GIII Belmont Sprint Championship S. July 5, he finished a distant runner-up, but pieced it all together last time, tracking the pace of Happy My Way (Wilko) before overhauling the favorite late en route to a one-length success as the 119-pound heavyweight in this track's Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. four Saturdays ago. Following a slight bobble as the gates flew, Zee Bros (Brother Derek) established the early pace with Weekend Hideaway (Speightstown) alongside, as Cornelio Velasquez found a comfort zone for Palace in third. Allowed to ride the golden rail around the turn and through a half in a strong :45.23, Palace got through at the fence when a weakening Zee Bros vacated that position, hit the front three-sixteenths down and raced away to a comprehensive victory. Big Business tracked Palace into the race down the backstretch and looked to be battling on the turn, but rallied nicely from behind to just touch Vyjack out of second and complete a New York-bred exacta.

"[Palace] is a really talented horse, and when he is good I need to use him because on several occasions I've needed to stop on him, turn him out, and give him a break," commented winning trainer Linda Rice. "When a horse is doing as well as he is, I don't know how long I can keep him that good."

Clearly Now, favored at 4-5, was never in the hunt. "I don't know what was going on, that's all I can say," Jose Lezcano said of the eighth-place finisher. "He never jumped today. He was never on the bridle. He just didn't do anything today."

hooking up with the main track. Sunset Glow raced well within the grasp of Espinoza and crept up onto the heels of the leading trio while covered by Her Emmynency to her outside. The latter got first run, but was committed to a three- or four-wide trip nearing the lane, while Sunset Glow was able to stay down near the inside. Her Emmynency lead into the lane, but Sunset Glow threaded the needle and the battle was joined. The two duelled into the final furlong, with Sunset Glow proving gamest in the finish.

Winner of her career debut at Monmouth by better than a dozen lengths last August, Stonetastic was the 8-5 favorite in the GII Pocahontas S. at Churchill the following month and led into the final furlong, only to be run down by a filly called Untapable (Tapit). A well-beaten and well-backed fourth to Stopchargingmaria (Tale of the Cat) in Aqueduct's GII Tempted S. over a one-turn mile Nov. 3, the well-made gray filly was third in the GII Golden Rod S. beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 30 and went missing off a third in the grassy Ginger Brew S. at Gulfstream Jan. 5. She returned from nearly seven months on the shelf with a spectacular front-running allowance victory on the Haskell undercard July 27 and another theft was on the agenda yesterday. Bounced away from the two hole by Paco Lopez, Stonetastic made the front with a minimum of fuss and covered the first couple of furlongs in :22.27, though she had some early company in the form of favored Miss Behaviour and Southern Honey a touch further back in third. With very little making any noise from behind, Stonetastic turned them in after a half-mile in :44.75, pinched an unassailable advantage entering the final panel and streaked home a tons-the-best winner. Miss Behaviour, exiting a runner-up effort in the GI Test S. Aug. 2, completed the exacta yet again, and Southern Honey rounded out a merry-go-round result. "She's fast," said trainer Kelly Breen, whose father passed away just a week ago. "[Jockey] Paco [Lopez] came back and said she did it easy. I'm happy for all the connections; she ran great. Paco said he didn't whip her. I don't know what else to say, she went in 1:08 and four, and did it the right way. We're happy to be here."

The consummate professional, two-time reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan was a bit ornery prior to the start of Saturday's Bernard Baruch, tossing John Velazquez in the gates and delaying the start momentarily. But the chestnut, having his first run in 119 days, was all business in the race, stuck his neck out in the waning strides and got his nose down just ahead of the upset-minded Optimizer. Morton Fink's homebred came into the event with victories in 12 of his last 13 races and 17 from his last 20. Winner of the 2012 and 2013 runnings of this track's GII Fourstardave H.--with a 129-impost last term, he landed a second consecutive renewal of the GI Woodbine Mile in track record-setting fashion Sept. 15. He suffered his lone defeat during this most recent stretch at the hands of Silver Max (Badge of Silver) in the rained-off GI Shadwell 'Turf' Mile over the Keeneland Poly Oct. 5, but atoned with a 3/4-length success in defense of his title in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 2. Given five months off, Wise Dan resumed by winning Keeneland's GI Maker's 46 Mile S. for a second straight season Apr. 11 and looked in deep trouble when last seen in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 3, as Seek Again (Speightstown) tried him up the rail, but the champ would not be denied and scored by a head. Cont. p9

Less than two weeks later, the 7-year-old found himself undergoing emergency colic surgery and was brought back slowly by Charlie LoPresti, who considered the Fourstardave as the comeback spot, but ultimately decided not to tempt fate and landed here. Spotting his rivals anywhere from eight to 13 pounds, Wise Dan jumped well enough after being reloaded and settled by his lonesome in fourth, as Five Iron scampered through seemingly unsustainable splits of :23.26 and :46.32 while pressed along by Sayaad (Street Sense) and Bio Pro (War Front) not far behind. Velazquez had his charge in the slipstream of checking the rear-view mirror and waiting for the right moment to pull his mount to the outside. That moment came at about the three-eighths marker, and Wise Dan rolled up three wide to bid at the head of the lane. He drove past Sayaad and Five Iron inside the final furlong, but soon had Optimizer, ground-saving for most of the trip, breathing down his neck. Wise Dan led narrowly into the final 100 yards and willed himself to the victory while spotting the runner-up 11 pounds. The final time was 0.17 seconds off the 23-year-old track record of Fourstardave. While duly pleased with the outcome, LoPresti was prepared for a loss. "I knew he was training good and I knew he was going to run good," the conditioner stated. "I wouldn't have been disappointed if he was beat today; it would have been something to build on. He showed today why he is the two-time Horse of the Year."

Avanzare scored in each of his first two career trips to the post last winter, but suffered a bout of seconditis in three tries at Tampa thereafter, missing by a nose Feb. 20, by a half-length Mar. 12 and by 2 1/2 lengths Apr. 4, each time at odds-on. The bay snapped that streak with a decisive second-level allowance score going a mile over the Matt Winn turf course at Churchill May 11, wired a field in a nine-furlong test June 20 and most recently set the majority of the pace in the GIII Arlington H. over these weeds July 12 before yielding grudgingly to be beaten under a length in fourth by Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}). With jockey Chris Emigh looking for career win number 3500, Avanzare was the first to make the turn and dropped down onto the fence, and with none of his five foes showing any initiative, got his opening quarter-mile in a pedestrian :24.94. Emigh enjoyed a rocking-chair ride and steadied the pace even further, racing past the five-furlong pole in :50.04. Avanzare still had things very much his own way through six furlongs in 1:15.63 and was clear into the final eighth of a mile. The leader began looking for the line and got there just ahead of Haataash, while Mister Marti Gras, winner of this race in 2011, rallied from an impossible position to just miss in third.

England for the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket Oct. 4. After winning on debut at Saint-Cloud in September, the bay was second to the subsequent G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up Veda (Fr) (Dansili {GB}) in a conditions event over this trip also at Longchamp Apr.

21 before going on to record a six-length success in the Listed Prix Volterra at Chantilly May 13. Returning to that venue for the Sandringham at the beginning of June, she was much the best on that occasion with Veda in arrears, but had been stricken with a virus in the interim and Andre Fabre had warned that she would need this re-introduction. Settled behind the leading trio early by Maxime Guyon, Fintry took over approaching the furlong pole and was able to be geared down late as Odeliz closed to deny Water Hole the silver medal. "That was very simple and she stopped a bit in front," her jockey commented. "I think she might win a Group 1." Lisa Jane Graffard, Godolphin's French representative, added, "She's a very good-moving filly and has a lot going for her, as she is very versatile and very relaxed--the traveling head lad said he couldn't believe how well she traveled over here--so she can go anywhere. We just wanted to see her have a good comeback having been off for three months, but we knew she had the quality. There were no suitable races in France and the timing of this race was right."

G2 Superlative S. trying this trip for the first time at Newmarket July 12, the bay was fitted with cheekpieces here as Hugo Palmer sought to cajole the stable star into more affirmative action. Settled in last early by Ryan Moore, he was left behind by the leader, Lexington Times, passing the quarter pole and despite taking more than a furlong to warm up stayed on to deny Future Empire in the shade of the post in a blanket between four of the five runners. "He got pinched coming out of the stalls and I was sitting five of five and we weren't going mad, but I didn't want to go all the way round them," his rider commented. "I got a nice split through and I thought 2 1/2 out I would win comfortably, but the leader quickened away and it didn't seem likely then. Hopefully, he is just a bit green and inexperienced still and this was the first time round a bend, so it was a new experience even though it's his fourth race and hopefully he'll come on for it." Trainer Hugo Palmer said, after basking in the glow of his first group winner, "He took so long to get into top gear and Ryan said he would be much better off a stronger gallop. He's wandered about a bit in a couple of his races and I've been very gentle on him because I think he could be special. I thought I'd put the cheekpieces on and let him learn rather than hammering him at home, and this was his first proper day of learning what it is to be a racehorse. He's in the G2 Champagne S., but we won't back him up in two weeks and although the owner would like to run in the G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 17], I'd like to see what the ground does. He would get his ground at Santa Anita, so the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf is a possibility as well but we've got weeks to talk about it. His dam won a listed race in September of her 3-year-old career, so he should be as good next year but he has blistering speed as well." Aktabantay's third dam is Leaping Water \(GB\) (Sure Blade), the dam of six-time Group 1 winner St Nicholas Abbey \(Ire\) (Montjeu {Ire}). Last season's G1 Randwick Guineas winner Dissident had disappointed in two outings since that Mar. 15 victory, checking in sixth and 12th, respectively, in the G1 Randwick Guineas and G1 Doncaster Mile, but the Peter Moody charge redeemed himself when comfortably besting elders in the G1 Memsie S.--the first Group 1 of the Australian spring--in his first start as a 4-year-old at Caulfield yesterday. Breaking on top, Dissident was rapidly overtaken by Sweet Idea and fellow Moody trainee Moment of Change, and raced keenly in third in the hands of Ben Melham through the opening furlongs. Tipping wide on the turn, Dissident drew even with Moment of Change at the top of the lane and quickly overtook that rival, as well as the front-running Sweet Idea. He widened his advantage passing the 100 meter mark to win cozily. "He's a high class colt--the world is his oyster," Moody told Racing Network.com.au. "That was a top class field and he put them to the sword, he really got the job done." While he is now considered amongst the favorites for the Oct. 25 G1 Cox Plate--Australia's most historic weight for age race--Dissident was not always a standout. He broke his maiden at first asking in the Listed Blue Diamond Preview, but it was more than a year until he would visit the winner's circle again, which he accomplished in the G2 Hobartville S. Mar. 1. His Randwick Guineas victory followed two weeks later. Moody noted that Dissident "deserved his place in any weight-for-age field anywhere in the country," after yesterday's victory, but that he would have to display his ability to handle 2000 meters before he would be considered a definite for the A$3-million 2040-meter event.

Trainer Todd Pletcher is a four-time winner of the Spinaway and he'll have a pair of live chances to increase that total this afternoon. Siena Farm's Angela Renee defeated next-out romper and subsequent P.G. Johnson S. runner-up Sunday Sonnet (Any Given Saturday) in a June 27 Belmont maiden, and had every chance last time in the Aug. 10 Gil Adirondack S., but was forced to settle for second behind "TDN Rising Star" Cavorting (Bernardini). She adds blinkers this afternoon and should sit up on the pace for John Velazquez. "I thought she ran very well [in the Adirondack], but just caught a buzzsaw with Cavorting," said Pletcher. "Johnny seemed to think she was a little bit shy of horses and intimidated, so we worked her back in some blinkers and liked what we saw. We'll stick with them." The barn is also represented by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' well-regarded Curalina, who exits a big-figure second to High Dollar Woman (Super Saver) July 27. Should the pace collapse, look for Jay Em Ess Stable's By the Moon to take advantage. The homebred daughter of nine-time stakes winner By the Light (Malibu Moon) came from off the speed to graduate by 3/4 of a length over 5 1/2 furlongs July 18.

ENTERPRISING SHOOTING FOR THE SWEEP

Glen Hill Farm's Enterprising (Elusive Quality) will look to become just the fourth horse to complete a sweep of Del Mar's 3-year-old turf series when he goes postward as the favorite in today's Gil Del Mar Derby. Winner of the Mar. 22 Pasadena S. at Santa Anita, the homebred son of Indy Blaze (A.P. Indy) was beaten into third by Flamboyant (Fr) (Peer Gynt {Jpn}) and Home Run Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in the Apr. 19 La Puente S. Rested up for this meet, Enterprising has produced a pair of barnstorming finishes in his two tries here, charging past all 10 of his rivals in the July 17 Oceanside S. (final quarter-mile in :22.40 per DRF Formulator) and coming from last (final 2 1/2 furlongs in :28.40) in the GIII La Jolla H. last time out Aug. 9. Trainer Tom Proctor sent out the ill-fated Banned (Kitten's Joy) to take the 2011 Derby. Since his defeat in the La Puente, Home Run Kitten has won his last two--a first-level Santa Anita allowance May 18 and a 3/4-length score in that track's Singletary S. June 21. Flamboyant shipped East for his two most recent trips to the post, a near-miss second in the May 26 Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont ahead of a good third to Mr Speaker (Pulpit) in the GI Belmont Derby July 5. Joel Rosario comes cross-country to ride for trainer Paddy Gallagher. Aventador (Fr) (Zafeen {Fr}) looms an interesting foreign raider and is not out of this off his French form. Runner-up to the classy Gailo Chop (Fr) (Deportivo {GB}) in the G3 Prix Noialles earlier this year, the ridgling was fifth in the G2 Prix Hocquart and seventh in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, but will face nothing here on the order of Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) or The Great Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). Christophe Soumillon saw fit to take the call for the Listed Prix Ridgway at Compiègne June 25 and the bay obliged by 1 3/4 lengths as the 8-5 pick.

JOJO GETS BACK TO WORK

Zayat Stables' Jojo Warrior (Pioneerof the Nile) returns to action as the 2-1 favorite for today's Torrey Pines S., which carries Grade III status for the first time. The homebred miss, who became the fourth "TDN Rising Star" for her dam Carson Jen (Carson City) when debuting successfully at this meeting last year, was twice placed in three tries at sprint distances earlier this term, finishing second in the Instant Racing S. at Oaklawn Apr. 12 and third in the May 16 Miss Preakness S. at Old Hilltop. She stretched out to a route of ground for the first time in the GII Summertime Oaks at Santa Anita June 21, leading throughout to score by 5 1/4 lengths, but might have some company up front this time around. Arnold Zetcher's Fashion Plate (Old Fashioned) dominated this division over the winter and early spring at Santa Anita, winning the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 1 and GI Santa Anita Oaks Apr. 5, both in wire-to-wire fashion. She missed the break in the May 2 GI Kentucky Oaks and was never involved and exits a distant ninth to Sweet Reason (Street Sense) in the GI Acorn S. June 7. Mike Smith takes over from the injured Gary Stevens. Arkansas-bred Delta Flower (A.P. Delta) figures to get sent by Rafael Bejarano from the inside stall. Winner of the restricted Rainbow Miss S. Mar. 29, the bay annexed the May 17 Angel Flight S., but faltered when fourth as the favorite in the Summertime Oaks. Thegirlinthat song (My Golden Song) has never run a race that would threaten here, but the Texas-bred was recently acquired by a partnership including trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, and that accords her immediate respect.

GRAND PLAN

As with so many of France's prestigious events, it is Andre Fabre who holds the record of most winners of today's G2 Grand Prix de Deauville Lucien Barriere, which he often uses as a stepping stone to the Arc. Of his nine winners, the last two 3-year-olds to prevail, Cherry Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) in 2004 and Masterstroke (Monsun {Ger}) two years ago, went on to be second and third, respectively, in the Longchamp showpiece, and the focus is on Godolphin's Rio Tigre (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) this time. Second to Gatewood (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Prix de Reux over this track and trip last time Aug. 10, the June 30 Listed Derby de l'Ouest winner has no obvious reason to turn that form around, but his trainer is a master at improving horses with the autumn in mind. Gatewood, who was second to Masterstroke here in 2012, has only just come back to that form following a spell in Australia, but has won three of his last four and revels in the soft. That also applies to Jeff Smith's homebred Cocktail Queen (Ire) (Motivator {GB}), who comes into this on the back of a career-best success in the Aug. 16 G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron over 10 furlongs here.

SHOWDOWN AT THE SPA

presented by SARATOGA twinspires.com
Where Players Win.

We've given Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack mythical $2,000 bankrolls and told them they must bet at least 1% and no more than 10% of their stake in each flat Grade I run at Saratoga. The player with the highest bankroll at the end of the meet wins.

Brian DiDonato

@BDiDonatoTDN

Wagers: 13 · Win: 0 · Place: 2 · Show: 2
Bankroll: $1160

Yesterday's Results: Big Business (-$140) certainly outran his 20-1 odds in the Forego to be second, but he was never beating Palace and wasn't smart enough to have that exacta. Last Gunfighter (-$100) was hard ridden early for position over a speed-friendly surface in the Woodward, but failed to make an impact after that. Time's running out here, and not sure we've got any chances for prices in these last two races, but I'd be happy to cash anything right now.

GI Spinaway S. - #7 Curalina (7-2)

She won't be much of a price, but Curalina seems poised for a huge effort here. Despite being dismissed at 6-1 for her July 27 debut in the slop, the Todd Pletcher pupil ran like a filly with a bright future. Forced in by the eventual winner shortly after the break, the chestnut didn't seem to be loving the wet going early and appeared to be dropping out of it into the bend. She came alive approaching the quarter pole, however, and came with a sweeping bid to range into contention at the head of the lane. Still on her wrong lead as she chipped away at the leader's advantage, Curalina came up 1 1/4 lengths short, but struck me as a horse with tons of talent once she figures it out. The fourth and fifth-place finishers from that heat came back to run one-two, so the race looks live, and it's just a matter of whether or not Curalina will prove better for the experience. Wager: $116 Win on #7 Curalina.

Steve Sherack

@SteveSherackTDN

Wagers: 12 · Win: 0 · Place: 2 · Show: 2

Yesterday's Results: Two complete no-shows Saturday (-$140 Confrontation in the Forego and -$40 Norumbega in the Woodward). Really running out of time here, but I do love my pick today if that means anything at this point.

GI Spinaway S. - #4 By the Moon (6-1)

By the Moon--a very promising maiden winner going 5 1/2 furlongs on opening day--should absolutely thrive with the added real estate here. The Jay Em Ess Stable homebred kicked on nicely down the lane to run down Ring Knocker (returned with a game runner-up effort Aug. 17), who enjoyed a clear lead in the stretch that day. By the Moon's dam By the Light (Malibu Moon) won the first five races of her career for trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. and Jay Em Ess, including the Delta Princess going a mile. The nine-time stakes winner suffered the first defeat of her career when second behind champion Indian Blessing in the 2008 GI Prioress S. at Belmont Park. By the Moon hasn't missed a beat since her unveiling, posting five subsequent works, and trainer Michelle Nevin has enjoyed a great meeting at the Spa this summer, finishing first or second with nine of 19 starters. By the Moon should offer plenty of value in what looks to be a completely loaded renewal of the Spinaway. Wager: $122 Win #4 By the Moon.

*Won via DQ of Mshawish.

Even-money choice Mshawish, winner of the G2 Zabeel Mile in February and looking to bounce back off a troubled sixth in his U.S. debut in the GIII Oceanport S., appeared to have successfully extricated himself from a tough pocket spot to get up the popular victory, but he was subsequently disqualified for interfering with third-place finisher Sinatra in the lane. Set the Sail, who stalked the pace early and appeared to have possibly had something to do with incident by herding Mshawish, was the beneficiary of the stewards' decision. Winless since last September, Set the Sail was sixth two back in Churchill Downs' Opening Verse S. May 31 and fifth last time in the 1 1/16-mile J. Kenneth Self Shelby County Boys and Girls Club S. at Indiana July 2. He was entered for the $80,000 claiming tag here. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Able to cut the corner into the straight, the 5-year-old got her nose down on the line over favored Ballerina Belle (First Defence) in a blanket finish. 1st Dam: Great Venue, by Unbridled's Song

2nd Dam: Rose Colored Lady, by Formal Dinner

3rd Dam: Pink Forest, by Green Forest

El Kabeir tipped his hand after a troubled debut going five furlongs here Aug. 14. Checked sharply at the break that day, the gray began to rally while riding the rail on the far turn and finished with interest to be a quality third behind smart first-timer Blofeld (Quality Road) and the GI Hopeful S. bound Signature Cat (Discreet Cat). Adding Lasix and stretching to seven furlongs here, the 5-2 second choice was hustled to the front from post five and never gave the others a chance. With Irad Ortiz Jr. in the irons, El Kabeir whistled through fractions of :22.74 and :44.98 as favored Royal Son (Tiznow) chased in second. Still going strong at the top of the lane, Ortiz shook the reins and it was all over. It was 10 3/4 lengths back to Royal Son in second. "He made me enter him, the horse did," winning trainer John Terranova revealed. "I kind of threw it out there to [Ahmed] Zayat and Justin [Zayat] earlier in the week. I said, 'This horse really is doing well. I don't know if we want to even wait until we get back to Belmont.'" Terranova continued, "He did everything right, perfect, even in that first race. He came out of it like he needed it. He had trouble at the break, and we knew he wasn't a five-furlong horse; he wanted more ground in front of him." As for what's next, Terranova concluded, "We'll see how he comes back and how he trains once we get back home to Belmont. Obviously, we have the [GI] Champagne [S. Oct. 4] in mind, and some other races." Ortiz added, "They're babies and last time he broke a little slow out of there. The trainer told me if he broke good to try to get a good trip and give the horse a chance, and he'll come running in the end. He was in front easy. He felt good. He's a nice horse. He did it easy." The winner's unraced dam is a half-sister to the fleet Too Much Bling (Rubiano), MGSW & GISP, $509,674. Sales history: $250,000 yrl '13 OBSAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $58,100. FIRESPIKE (c, 2, Flower Alley--Fairy Valley, by Dixieland Band) was on his way to a decisive victory before he ran into the rail and settled for second on debut at Ellis July 11. He was hung wide, and moved prematurely when third behind Strong Coffee (Warrior's Reward) and next-out winner Face the Music (Stormy Atlantic) Aug. 23, and was backed down to 8-5 favoritism to break through here. Drafting from the pocket early, the bay's trip went from perfect to problematic when a seam closed on him in upper stretch. Lady Serena (Bernardini) is a three-quarter sibling to GI Remsen S. winner and GI Champagne S. runner-up Honor Code (A.P. Indy), being by A.P. Indy-line stallion Bernardini. The bay has looked very good in the morning with a number of four-star works, and has worked with some good competition, including Lady Daphne (Harlan's Holiday), another Chad Brown filly, among others. She looks to be competitive, and should get the seven-furlong distance. Lady Serena is a horse you should put in your stable mail and FQLLQW as well.

Etiquette (Tapit) is a very good-looking Tapit for conditioner Jimmy Jerkens, who has a barn filled with superb animals. She looks speedy, but has the size and scope of a horse that should handle more than a mile and possibly Classic distances. The chestnut is very forward and willing in the morning. She responds to her rider when they don't want her to do too much, and she bounces back a very happy filly after her works. She looks like a runner to FQLLQW.

Kibble (Flatter) is bred for both speed and stamina. She is, however, a filly that may need time to get her feet under her. The bay caught our eye Aug. 17, and you can never count out Jimmy Jerkens, who also has the aforementioned Etiquette in the race. We wouldn't count on Kibble being in for just a run.

Fair Point (Smart Strike) worked from the gate under Jose Ortiz in company with Complicated (Blame) Aug. 9, and she broke a tad slow that day. She is bred to be better as she matures and the distances increase. Purchased by Niall Brennan for $310,000 as a Keeneland yearling in 2013, we expect a good learning experience Sunday. Fair Point is really worth following, much like Orb (Malibu Moon), during the late fall and winter of 2012.

Unbridled Sonya (Unbridled's Song) is not the biggest in stature, but has heart, and we expect her to be better going long over the turf. She has a quick action, but having said that, she has trained nicely over dirt. Trainer David Cannizzo has taken his time with her for All American Horses--the same group that campaigned Casiguapo (Sightseeing) to a runner-up finish here last year in the GI Hopeful S.

Feathered (Indian Charlie) is bred to be fast and mature early. Bought for $300K by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners as an OBS March 2-year-old, the bay has a long, steady line of works here, and ran well in her Aug. 3 effort when second by a head. The one work we can hang our hat on was way back July 1, when she worked heads up with Two Weeks Off (Harlan's Holiday), who won at the Spa Saturday for Pletcher. We expect Feathered to move forward at a very short price today.

Red Hot Heels (Tapit) is going to be very sneaky off her 6-1 morning line and outside post. She has trained well, but not at such a level where she will be touted. The grey chased Mozambique Gold (Northern Affleet) home breaking from the gate in her Aug. 6 work, and has improved since. The New York-bred has the pedigree to win early for owner/breeder Newtown Anner Stud and trainer George Weaver, whose confidence must be high to try her in open company. Red Hot Heels will be on my tickets, how about yours? See you at the windows.

Stonestreet homebred Atreides--produced by GI Prioress S. and GI Test S. heroine Dream Rush--stayed perfect while annexing his stakes debut in style here. Favored at 1-5, the half-brother to GI Frizette S. heroine and GI Mother Goose S. runner-up Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy) recovered nicely after getting pretty roughed up at the start. He raced in third through an opening quarter in :23.95 and began to turn up the heat on the far turn. Atreides took the lead shortly thereafter and opened daylight in the stretch to win by a pole. Atreides entered off a pair of facile wins versus older horses at Gulfstream Park. A runaway debut winner when coming within .57 of champion Big Drama's six-furlong track record July 12, Atreides added a 6 1/2-furlong optional claimer in Hallandale Aug. 10. "It's fun--I've never had a 3-year-old this good," trainer Marty Wolfson revealed. "Chaposa Springs [heroine of the 1995 GI Test S.], filly-wise, was great, but I never had a colt this good." Wolfson added, "He was easing him up at the sixteenth-pole, so it's hard to say how fast he would have run, but I'm really not concerned with time. I'm just concerned about the way he did it." Jockey Edgard Zayas has been aboard Atreides in all three of his career starts. "He's just a different class of horse," Zayas commented. "He has speed, but at the same time, you can rate him. That's pretty good, because he can go to the lead the same way he can come from behind." Wolfson said that no decision would be made about Atreides' next start until he talks with owner Barbara Banke. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. Sent off as the 7-5 favorite, the bay took command from the bell down the backstretch before drawing off in the lane under a hand ride. Coast Of La (Costa Rising) was 2 1/2 lengths back in second. Sheza Freak is a half-sister to Southern Dude (Lion Tamer), SW & GSP, $318,257. She is the fourth winner for her freshman sire (by Speightstown). The Amerman homebred broke alertly, but was reined in down the backside to track from third. Shuffled all the way back to last of a compact field on the home bend, Bureau de Change scraped paint into the lane, squeezed through a narrow gap in midstretch and kicked away impressively to justify her short odds by 4 3/4 lengths. Blue Tone, second in a Santa Anita optional claimer Oct. 3, closed last term with a fourth in an Arcadia allowance Oct. 27. Getting off on the right foot this year, the bay scored in his seasonal debut going a mile on the synthetic here Aug. 3 and was favored to go two-for-two in 2014.

Blue Tone

Pressing from second initially, Blue Tone briefly headed Timeless Indy (A.P. Indy) and the two continued to exchange blows through a half in :47.73. Finally getting the better of that rival turning for home, the chalk held off the late running Big Bane Theory for a narrow success. Pacesetter Timeless Indy faded to finish last of the six. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

The bay graduated back on his preferred surface at that venue Apr. 5, and went down by a nose over track and trip coming off a three-month plus layoff July 19. Favored at 6-5 to go one better Saturday, the sophomore pressed the pace while wide through the first turn and was still well off the rail for the backstretch run. Urged to quicken around the far turn, he took the overland route to reach contention at the head of the lane before gradually edging clear by 1 1/4 lengths over a closing Number Five (Point Given). Backed at odds of 9-2 while tackling two turns at first asking here, he held a narrow advantage over the 3-2 chalk One Lucky Dane (Lookin At Lucky) around the clubhouse turn through an opening quarter in :23.05. Head and head with that rival down the backstretch, One Lucky Dane gained the lead at the top of the lane and looked like he was on his way to a victory. Conquest Hiosilver wasn't done yet, however, and boxed his way back while racing on the inside to take it by a neck. Red Outlaw, a debut winner versus state-breds at Hollywood Park last June, took a Golden Gate optional claimer Jan. 20 before a narrow head-victory in the Baffle S. in Arcadia trying turf for the first time Feb. 16. Off until winning the restricted Real Good Deal S. here Aug. 1, the chestnut was the second choice in the field of seven. Red Outlaw rolled to the lead from his wide gate and soon had things his own way on the engine through an easy opening quarter. Token pressure was applied by Diamond Bachelor (War Front) around the bend, but the chestnut shook off his pursuers and won by daylight. Toowindytohaulrox closed well to take second over favored Conquest Two Step. "He's our poor man's Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) and I'd love to have a barnful of poor man's Shared Beliefs," commented winning trainer Peter Miller. "I felt good once he made the lead and he's just so competitive. He was just pricking his ears and every time the five horse [Diamond Bachelor] would get close, he'd just let out a notch. He's done everything we've asked, synthetic and grass. He trains good on the dirt and we'll sure try him on dirt at some point." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

OBSERVATIONS

on today's European racing scene

14.05 Curragh, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, c/g, 8fT

OL' MAN RIVER (IRE) (Montjeu {Ire}), who fetched €2.85 million at Goffs Orby last October, was scratched from his eagerly awaited debut in a Leopardstown maiden earlier this month, and gets another chance to shine in this intriguing affair. Ballydoyle's bay is out of the 2007 G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), and encounters 18 rivals here. Notable newcomers include fellow Aidan O'Brien trainee Hans Holbein (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), who is a half-brother to the 2010 G1 Irish St Leger winner Sans Frontieres (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}); and Kirsten Rausing and Jackie Bolger's Algonquin (GB) (Archipenko), who is a son of the dual G1 Champion S. victress Alborada (GB) (Alzao), and thus a sibling of three black-type performers, representing the Jim Bolger stable.
