HISHI AMAZON TO AMERICA Masaichiro Abe has submitted a proposal to the Japan Racing Association which would allow his champion filly Hishi Amazon (Theatrical {Ire}) to race at Santa Anita. Claudia Canouse, North American representative of Abe's stable, said that plans call for the filly to arrive in California in early March; she will be nominated to both the Santa Ana H., to be run March 18, and the Santa Barbara H., set for April 9. Hishi Amazon is the world's all-time leading distaff money winner with more than $4.8 million in career earnings.

MIGHTY MAGEE WORKS FOR PREVIEW

Mighty Magee (Cormorant), second in the Nashua S. and third in the Remsen S. at Aqueduct last year, worked five furlongs in :59 2/5 at Gulfstream yesterday, prepping for Saturday's $75,000 Preview S. at the Florida oval. "He did it easy," said his trainer, Leon Blusiewicz, who enlisted Hall of Famer Angel Cordero Jr. to ride work on his colt. "Angel only let him run the last eighth. He was life and death to pull him up. Angel loved him." The three-year-old will make his seasonal bow Saturday; last year's Preview launched the three-year-old campaign of another son of Cormorant, Derby winner Go for Gin.

TEAXAS HORSEMAN HAROLD GOODMAN

PASSES AWAY Houston owner and breeder Harold Goodman died Friday of cancer. He was 68. Goodman, who became involved in racing in 1971, enjoyed great success last year with his homebred filly Two Altazano, who captured six stakes, including the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. The leading money-winning Texas-bred filly with $664,485 in earnings, she was honored as champion three-year-old Texas-bred filly at the Texas Thoroughbred Breeders' Association's awards dinner Saturday.

GULFSTREAM • GLIMPSE

Monday's Mac Diamida S. is set for a mile on the grass, but recent rains could move the race to the main track. Trainer Manny Tortora is ready in either event. The horseman has entered both Mecke, winner of a division of the Tropical Park Derby on the grass at Calder, and Sea Emperor, who was second to his stablemate in the Affirmed S. on the dirt and third in the Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream opening day.

Allowed to post moderate fractions, the Cal-bred miss had plenty left for the stretch drive, shaking off Crissy Aya at the top of the lane and holding 3-5 favorite Twice The Vice safe at the wire. "I was hoping we'd set a slower pace, and we did," said trainer Mel Stute. "We got lucky in the way the race came up. I thought the mud would help her...she threw a lot of mud on the rest of them." The first two finishers will start next in the La Canada February 4.

Mistress S. never finished the race in her turf debut last time out. Trying grass for the first time in the Tropical Park Oaks, the filly hit the gate at the break, causing her jockey, Jose Santos, to break a stirrup, and was pulled up. Keeping out of trouble this time, she broke on top, raced close to the leaders to the stretch, then made her move on the outside to wear down Mia's Hope for the victory. The 7-5 choice SNEAKY QUIET (Seeking the Gold), making her first start on the grass, was well back early but made up some ground in the drive to be fifth.
