DEVIL HIS DUE MAY RETURN TO TRAINING

Devil His Due (Devil's Bag) could be back in training at Gulfstream as early as this month, according to trainer Allen Jerkens. The six-year-old horse had been due to stand stud at Buck Pond Farm in Versailles, Kentucky this year for a fee of $25,000. Owner Edith LiButti is scheduled to appear in court February 6 to settle a dispute with the Internal Revenue Service over the ownership of the horse. The trial date was originally scheduled for Dec. 27, but was postponed when the judge fell ill.

HOLY BULL TOPS GLOBEFORM RATINGS

Globeform, the international formbook which lists the top horses racing in England, Ireland, France, Germany, Italy and North America, has released its list of Champions for 1994. The Globeform Horse of the Year is Holy Bull (Great Above), rated at 133 pounds; divisional honorees are: two-year-old colt--Celtic Swing (GB) (Damister), 129; two-year-old filly--Flanders (Seeking the Gold), 120; three-year-old colt--Holy Bull; three-year-old filly--Balanchine (Storm Bird), 126; older male--Paradise Creek (Irish River {Fr}), 125; older female--Lochsong (GB) (Song {GB}), 125; sprinter--Lochsong; miler--Turtle Island (Ire) (Fairy King {Ire}), 125; middle-distance runner--Tikkanen (Cozzene), 127; and stayer--Bien Bien (Manila), 123. Six of the 10 divisional titles were won by U.S. graded stakes winners, and four by European Group winners.

GO FOR GIN BREEZES

Kentucky Derby winner Go For Gin (Cormorant) had his first breeze of the year yesterday morning, working three furlongs in :38 at Gulfstream. "He's doing great," said trainer Nick Zito. "I plan on running him before we leave Gulfstream. He gets himself ready pretty quick. He'll get right on the program now, so it won't be long." News cont. p2

3--Desert Stormer, 117, m, 5, Storm Cat--Breezy Stories, by Damascus. O/B-Joanne H Nor (KY); $22,500.

Margins: 6, 1, HF. Odds: 1.50, 22.60, 10.50.

Also Ran: Marina Park (GB), Malibu Light, Pirate's Revenge, Starolamo, Tricky Code, Arches of Gold.

Key Phrase had her unblemished record on the line, trying open company for the first time in a Grade I event. Well backed as part of the favored entry with Pirate's Revenge, the Cal-bred chestnut showed the way from the start and pulled away down the lane to win as she pleased. "She really has been one of my favorites from the start," said her trainer, Ron Ellis. "She's got so much natural ability, she can gallop along out there--but she's really ticking off some pretty good fractions. This filly is really special, and I don't think she has peaked yet." Ellis added that future plans for his undefeated filly have not yet been decided. Said winning jockey Chris Antley, "It was like she was the only horse in the race. How good is she? Well, she's six-for-six...I don't want to jinx anything."

HOLY BULL WORKS FOR '95 DEBUT Holy Bull (Great Above) worked five furlongs in a bullet :59 2/5 Monday morning at Gulfstream under regular exercise rider Bobby Perna in preparation for his four-year-old debut Sunday in the Olympic H. "Holy Bull knows something is up," said owner/trainer Jimmy Croll. "He is a little more alert. Right now, I think we are right where we should be. He has done everthing I have wanted him to do coming up to this race. I still think Patton (Lord At War) is the horse to beat. I was hoping Patton would pick up a couple of more pounds, but I understand why he didn't." Patton, second to Holy Bull in the Hutcheson last year, was assigned 115 to Holy Bull's 126. "If I need more than 11 pounds, I shouldn't be in the race," said his trainer, Sonny Hine. Also expected: Birdonthewire (Proud Birdie), who breezed a half-mile in :48 3/5 Monday, galloping out five furlongs in 1:01 2/5. "I couldn't help but be excited about running against a horse like Holy Bull," said trainer Phil Serpe. "We run to win, but let's be realistic. My horse is coming off a long disappointing year."

OCALA MIXED SALE POSTS GAINS The Ocala Breeders' Sales Co. 1995 Winter Mixed Sale, which began yesterday, showed increases in both gross and average for the opening session. A total of 161 horses went through the ring, bringing in a gross of $2,149,200, which was up nearly 30 percent over the '94 opener when 136 head sold for $1,654,600. The '95 average, $13,349, was up almost 10 percent over the '94 figure of $12,166. Glen Hill Farm sold the session topper, five-year-old Fast Asset (Shahrastani); unraced, the mare is a half-sister to four stakes winners, including Earn Your Stripes (Little Current), MSW, $395,058; Major Impact (Roberto), SW, $518,138; and Concept Win (Manila), GSW, $320,750. John Sikura purchased the Florida-bred for $75,000.

LAWRENCE ENSOR JR. DEAD AT 67 Lawrence E. Ensor, Jr., a senior officer and director of Fasig-Tipton, died suddenly in Petersburg, Virginia Sunday while traveling to Florida. A resident of Roslyn, New York, he had been with the Thoroughbred auction company since 1962. Ensor is survived by his wife Beverly; three sons, David, Stephen and Lawrence; and a daughter, Margaret. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested contributions be sent to the New Bolton Center at the University of Pennsylvania.

FOALING NEWS:

Margins: 5, 4, 4. Odds: 3.95, 5.00, 1.20.

Also Ran: Country Sky, Federal Funds, More to Tell, Jacksonport, Slaymaker.

Danzig's Dance started his current four-race winning streak in the claiming ranks at Aqueduct November 4. The gelding followed that victory with an allowance score, then finished second after being bumped in the stretch but was awarded the win in a money allowance last time out. The second choice in the eight-horse field sped to the lead out of the gate and pulled away through the stretch to record his first-ever stakes win. "There was only one place to be today, and that was the lead," said trainer John Parisella. "I remember Woody Stephens said to me when I was running against him one day, 'I'd rather be in front than president today'." Added jockey Jorge Chavez, "I was told to go to the lead no matter what and I would see what happened. I went to the lead and I saw that I was the winner." Danzig's Dance will start next in the Assault H. February 4.

9th-AQU, $34,000, Alw, 4yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:43 4/5, gd.

CALL ME ANYTIME (g, 4, Phone Trick--Ivor's Fire, by Sir Ivor) paid $16.80 as an 11-length winner for a $75,000 tag in his most recent start; bet down to 2-1 this time, the dark bay went up to challenge OCEAN SPLASH (Clever Trick) at the top of the lane, was bumped repeatedly through the stretch run, and crossed the line a length behind his rival after checking at the finish. The stewards disqualified Ocean Splash to give Call Me Anytime his second straight. Lifetime Record: 17-4-2-1, $87,060. O-LSI Gold Stable. B-Lindsay Semple (KY). T-P G Johnson.

Margins: NO, 1 3/4, NK. Odds: 15.60F, 5.40, 0.60.

Kings Fiction, whose lone previous win was a nose victory in a maiden claimer at Aqueduct in October, came back from a third-place finish in an allowance race over the turf at Calder and led the field from gate to wire, holding on to best Ops Smile in a close photo. The 3-5 choice Mecke finished well after racing at the back of the pack through the opening fractions, but had to settle for the show spot.
