BRITISH JOCKEY CLUB GETS TOUGH ON

NON-TRIERS Britain's Jockey Club looks set to introduce stringent new rules in an attempt to crack down on the problem of horses not being asked to run to the best of their ability. Under the proposals, which are expected to be given the go-ahead next month and introduced March 1, jockeys found guilty of not trying to gain the best possible placing could be suspended for up to a fortnight, and their mounts prevented from running back for as long as 30 days. Trainers who are implicated in such offenses would be subject to fines. Similar rules have applied in Ireland for more than 10 years, although bans are relatively infrequent.

MAISONS-LAFFITTE ALIVE FOR '95? Maisons-Laffitte racecourse, which seemed doomed only a few months ago, could still stage racing in 1995. The French course was officially closed at the end of last season, however, following an application by residents of the town led by Maisons-Laffitte Mayor Jacques Myard, it is now possible that fixtures could be run there in July and September. Louis Romanet, director of international relations for GIE-Galop, the sport's ruling body in France, said, "As far as we are concerned, racing can take place at Maisons-Laffitte as long as it is at no extra cost to us--and as long as we have overall control. We would not want it run by a local association."

CALIFORNIANS ON THE COME-BACK TRAIL

Two Eclipse Award winners are close to returning to competition at Santa Anita. Two-time champion Older Mare Paseana (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}) breezed a mile in 1:42 2/5 Thursday. "It was her first mile work and we didn't ask her to do too much," trainer Ron McAnally said. "We'll get one more mile work into her and then we'll start looking for a race." The seven-year-old could make her '95 debut in the GI Santa Maria H. February 5; she started her '94 campaign in the race and finished second by a nose. Last year's top Older Male, The Wicked North (Far North), went a half-mile in :47 3/5 Friday, galloping out five furlongs in 1:00 3/5. "We're still hoping to make the Big 'Cap (Santa Anita H., March 11), but we'd probably have to get some kind of allowance race into him first," said his trainer, David Bernstein.

GULFSTREAM • GLIMPSE

Racing fans enamored with champion Holy Bull will have a new way to "watch" their favorite Sunday, January 22. All Gulfstream patrons will receive a free professional timer and stopwatch so they can clock Jimmy Croll's superstar when the big gray colt makes his debut as a four-year-old in the $100,000 Olympic Handicap. To help fans use their timers properly, Gulfstream officials have enlisted the aid Richard Rosen--veteran clocker for the Daily Racing Form. Rosen will conduct a briefing on how to operate the timer's various stop-watch functions after the fifth race.

Today's Preview: Gulfstream

Gill $75,000 Preview S., 3yo, 8.5f

The field will be: Sea Emperor (Naked Sky), Boulanger, 119; Dixie Dynasty (Dynaformer), Fires, 112; Bullet Trained (World Appeal), Douglas, 114; Mighty Magee (Cormorant), Smith, 112; Akiba (Tejano), Santos, 114; Rush Dancer (Woodman), Davis, 112; Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect), Bailey, 119; and Casperoo (Silver Buck), Perret, 112.

BRIS ANALYSIS: Preview S.

Runners with early speed are winning most of the mile-and-a-sixteenth races at the meet, and there is no reason to believe things will change in the Preview. With six speedsters entered, expect an honest pace and a winner who comes from just off of it.

Sea Emperor starts from the rail, which has provided some golden trips since the Florida rains have diminished. He has the tactical speed to take advantage of the post, but his form has dropped off since he won the In Reality S. at Calder in mid-October and he would need a dream trip to get the job done.

The Preview shapes up as a two-horse race between Suave Dancer and Mighty Magee.

Suave Dancer is coming off a 101 BRIS Speed Rating and tops all four speed and class categories according to Pacegraph. His jockey, Jerry Bailey, has won three of the precious five running of this race, and new trainer Nick Zito took it last year with Go for Gin.

Mighty Magee is likely to improve off his third in the Gill Remsen S., in which he weakened late after pressing the pace. With all the speed in this race, look for him to rate off the pace.

Selections: Suave Dancer, Mighty Magee, Casperoo

Cabo Queen, a winner on the turf in a state-bred allowance in her most recent start, showed her ability on the dirt as well. Allowed to trail for three-quarters, the Cal-bred miss staged a rally that carried her to the lead and her second consecutive victory.
