CRYPTIC BID INJURED Cryptic Bid

(Cryptoclearance), the second choice in the Las Vegas winterbook for the '95 Kentucky Derby, has developed a chip in his right ankle and will miss the entire Triple Crown series, trainer John Kimmel reported yesterday. The colt, who was preparing for Saturday's Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream, came up sore after a work Monday, and x-rays taken Wednesday revealed the chip. Surgery will be performed by Dr. Larry Bramlage sometime this week. Kimmel said the injury is not serious; he is confident Cryptic Bid, undefeated in two career starts, will run again. "If I had to rate the injury on a 1-to-10 scale, it would be a one," he said. "There is a very good prognosis for a complete recovery. He could race again by the end of April or early May. Our target now is the Travers."

MARCO CASTANEDA ON THE IMPROVE

Jockey Marco Castaneda, who suffered severe head injuries in a spill at Bay Meadows December 26, is on his way to recovery at Mills Hospital in San Mateo, California. "Right now is the best I've felt (since the accident)," Castaneda said yesterday. "Before, I had headaches and fever, but the last three or four days I haven't had hardly any of that and I feel great. I'm doing a lot of walking and I go to therapy every day. I still have the cast on my left ankle, but I think it will come off in a week, and then I can do more." Castaneda suffered multiple skull fractures in the spill; he has had some swelling of the brain, but that has decreased markedly in the last two days. "Everybody is surprised and happy about how much it has come down," said Castaneda. "I wish I could go home today and go back to work, but until they tell me it's okay to leave, I'm just going to keep following what the doctors say because I'm feeling better all the time." News cont. p2

Holy Bull takes center stage not only in today's Olympic H. at Gulfstream, but also in today's Post Parade, NYRA's past performance magazine. The champion will be featured in a four-page color insert, which includes a color poster of the Holy Bull and his rider, Mike Smith, a story by turf writer Jack Will, and the colt's vital statistics. The special issue will sell for the regular price of $1.50 on-track and $1.75 off-track.

River Flyer put together four straight victories, culminating with a win in the GI Hollywood Derby, before weakening when trying a mile and a half for the first time in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup last time out. Dropping back for his first try at a mile and a quarter, the four-year-old moved up from fourth to take over the lead on the far turn, and had enough left in reserve to hold off Silver Wizard in the drive. "He hasn't been beaten on this turf course," said his trainer, David Hofmans. "I like what I see. When he makes his move, he's awesome. When he kicks, I don't know if there are many horses who can stay with him." The 7-5 favorite ROMARIN (BRZ) (Itajara) held the lead for almost a mile but tired and finished last.

BRIS ANALYSIS

The weather could dramatically alter the field for the San Pasqual, with Slew of Damascus, Best Pal and College Town (Snow Chief) unlikely to run on an off track.

If all go, the BRIS sections are Best Pal, Slew of Damascus and Tossofthecoin.

Best Pal (*Habitony) is one of the best handicap horses in the nation and has earned BRIS Late Pace numbers of over 110 several times in his career. His victory in the Gill Native Diver H. last time out only earned him a Speed rating of 101, but it was easily accomplished. He has prepped solidly for this the last two weeks.

Bloodstock Research's track bias stats show that 54 percent of Santa Anita's 1 1/16-mile dirt races have been won wire-to-wire; horses with early speed have won over 70 percent of the total races. With little pressure up front, Slew of Damascus (Slewacide) could go all the way against this talented field.

Tossofthecoin (Magesterial) has finished in the money in every start at this distance. His form is sharp now, and with BRIS Speed ratings of 100, 96, and 106 in his last three starts, he can compete at this level.

Bloodstock Research Information Services, Inc., is America's No. 1 source for Thoroughbred information. For information about the Handicapper's Database, BRIS' Speed, Pace and Class ratings, Pacegraph, or any other products referred to in the above analysis, contact BRIS at (800) 354-9206.

BERTRANDO BACK AT STUD--FOR NOW

Eclipse Award winner Bertrando (Skywalker) was vanned Friday from Hollywood Park to River Edge Farm in Buellton, California where he will soon begin his second season at stud. Co-owner Ed Nahem said that the six-year-old has been booked to 65 mares this year, with the stud fee negotiated on a private basis. The champion Older Male of 1993 finished off the board his last four starts; his record stands at nine wins from 24 starts and $3,182,765 in career earnings--but he could be back at the track to try and add to that score. "He has left for stud duty, but there's always a chance," said Nahem.

TRA CONVENTION TO HIGHLIGHT

TECHNOLOGY The Thoroughbred Racing Associations' 1995 convention, set for January 25-27 in Washington, D.C., will feature seminars related to new technologies and television, and culminates with Friday night's live ESPN broadcast of the Horse of the Year announcement. Sessions during the three-day convention will discuss utilization of on-line computer services, simulcasting, satellite technology and expanding racing's coverage through the media. The final hour of Friday's Eclipse Award dinner, with John Forsythe serving as Master of Ceremonies and hosted by Chris Lincoln and Dave Johnson, will be aired live on ESPN from 8-9:00 p.m. EST.

Local News: Aqueduct

Bill Nader, who joined the New York Racing Association in September, 1994 as director of marketing, has been named the new director of simulcasting and television systems, succeeding Phil Dunn, who will retire at the end of the week. Nader had previously spent 10 years at Rockingham Park, serving as director of media relations, marketing and simulcasting. The current vice-president at large of the Turf Publicists of America, Nader was honored last year by the New England Turf Writers Association with the Sam McCracken Award, given for lifetime achievement in New England racing.

Today's Preview: Gulfstream Park
$100,000 Olympic H., 3yo/up, 7f

The field, in post position order, will be: Hudson Bay (Ven) (Accentor), Velasquez, 111; Lynn's Notebook (Notebook), Bravo, 110; Birdonthewire (Proud Birdie), Perret, 119; Patton (Lord At War), Santos, 115; Holy Bull (Great Above), Smith, 126; and Dusty Screen (Silent Screen), McCauley, 115. Holy Bull's last sprint start came nearly a year ago, when he began his campaign for Horse of the Year honors with a victory in Gulfstream's GII seven-furlong Hutcheson S. and scored a 3/4-length victory over Olympic rival Patton. Since that race, the champ has notched five Grade I wins, while the challenger was well-beaten in both attempts at that level. One-time top sprinter Birdonthewire returned to his winning ways last time out, taking the seven-furlong Kenny Noe Jr. H. by a decisive 5 1/4 lengths; if he is back to his best, the six-year-old Florida-bred could make a race of it in the stretch drive.
