TURFWAY CANCELS FOR THIRD STRAIGHT DAY

For the sixth time this year, Turfway Park in Florence, Kentucky has been forced to cancel races because of the weather. Friday night's card was called off due to the heavy snow that was predicted to hit the region late Friday. Turfway also cancelled Wednesday's card; Thursday's card was scrapped after the second race when the track was deemed unsafe. The Race Book was open Friday for simulcasting; racing is scheduled to resume this afternoon, but if the snowfall is as heavy as anticipated, the situation will be assessed and a decision made this morning regarding Saturday's live racing card.

CASTANEDA RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL

Jockey Marco Castaneda, hospitalized since suffering severe head injuries in a spill at Bay Meadows December 26, was to be released from Mills Hospital in San Mateo, California yesterday. Castaneda sustained multiple skull fractures, a broken left ankle and broken left clavicle in the accident. "I feel great," said the 44-year-old rider. "In two weeks I've gone from going to therapy in a wheelchair, to going on crutches, to going with only a cane. The doctors are very happy with how I've come along." Castaneda plans to return to the saddle as soon as he is cleared to ride again. "After another month of therapy, (the doctors) will evaluate me. Hopefully, it won't be long after that."

STRUB STAKES LIVE ON ESPN Sunday's GI $500,000 Strub S. will be televised live on ESPN. Santa Anita will feature a special first post of 12 noon, and the Strub will be run as the day's fifth race, with post time set for 2:10 p.m. PST.

GULFSTREAM • GLIMPSE

Jambalaya Jazz, who finished first in yesterday's ninth race but was disqualified and placed second by the stewards, could make his next start in graded stakes company. Said trainer John T. Ward before the race, "If he runs well, he'll be a dead-fit horse and will run next in the GII Fountain of Youth S. (Feb. 18)." The three-year-old, winner of last year's GIII Kentucky Jockey Club S., was rated at 115 pounds on the Experimental Handicap after taking three of four starts last year.

"It was sensational--I was very pleased," said trainer Mel Stute. Colonel Collins (El Gran Senor) was not entered. "I simply decided he wasn't fit enough for a mile and a quarter," said trainer Rodney Rash. "We'll wait and look for another race."

Today's Preview: Aqueduct

GIII $75,000a Assault H., 3yo/up, 9f

The field of nine is headed by Danzig's Dance (Hold Your Peace), who wired the field in the GIII Aqueduct H. over a track labelled good last time out. "The fact that speed did well that day does concern me," said trainer John Parisella. "I don't know how significant a factor (track bias) was in his win, but when he goes three-quarters in 'nine and change' and the rider doesn't have to pump on him for him to draw off in the stretch, I'd say it negates at least some of the advantage the track may have given him." The six-year-old gelding goes for his fifth straight win. Veteran Jacksonport (Vigors) makes his 96th career start after winning an Aqueduct allowance in his latest. Electrojet (Gate Dancer) has been first or second his last eight starts, five of them against New York allowance or handicap company.

today where she will go to the court of A.P. Indy.
The six-year-old Team Valor mare, a graded stakes winner of 10 races and $296,407, could also return to the track after she has been bred. "Depending on how early she gets in foal and how she is doing, we may run her at Churchill Downs and Keeneland with (trainer) Mark Hennig," reported Team Valor spokeswoman Anne Watson.
