HOLY BULL DRILLS MILE AT GULFSTREAM

Horse of the Year Holy Bull (Great Above), prepping for next Saturday's GI Donn H., worked a mile in 1:40 3/5 over the Gulfstream main track yesterday.

"When you've got a good horse, you can't be easy on them," said owner/trainer Jimmy Croll. "You've got to go ahead and train. He got a hair tired, but that is as far as he has been this year. I think we're in good shape." Kissin Kris (Kris S.), who will challenge the champ in the Donn, also worked Saturday, going five furlongs in 1:01 2/5 with blinkers on. "We're just trying something different," said trainer David Bell. "He wore them once, in the Oaklawn H., and didn't run well, but he had a lot of other things going on at the time and wound up taking time off after that race. He seemed a little more aggressive with them this morning. That is what we are looking for in the afternoon."

WINTER STORM CURTAILS SATURDAY

RACING A major snow storm, the first of the season for the Northeastern United States, put a halt to racing from Kentucky to Massachusetts yesterday, as the live cards at Aqueduct, Garden State Park, Laurel, Philadelphia Park, Suffolk Downs and Turfway Park were cancelled. As much as 16 inches of snow fell in some areas; a changeover to sleet and freezing rain also caused hazardous driving conditions in New York and New Jersey. Racing is expected to resume today at all tracks except Philadelphia, which called off its Sunday card as well, and Garden State, which is normally dark on Sundays. Aqueduct's GIII Assault H. has been rescheduled for Wednesday; it will be open to all original nominees and redrawn. Laurel's feature, the Hoover S., has been carded as the 11th race on today's program. News cont. p2

Holy Bull will go for his seventh straight stakes victory in next Saturday's GI Donn H. at Gulfstream, and the track will mark the occasion with a full-color poster of the great grey and his owner/trainer Jimmy Croll. The 20x24-inch poster, from an original oil painting by renowned equine artist Charles Manley Tyler, will be given away free to each patron visiting Gulfstream for the Donn H., February 11. The finely detailed work depicts Holy Bull and Croll at their barn at Gulfstream.

BRIS ANALYSIS

This year's first Grade I test for males features four of the outstanding four-year-olds in training at Santa Anita; the first four finishers from the second leg of the Strub Series, the San Fernando, return for a re-match.

There are no real speed horses entered, but Dramatic Gold (Slew o'Gold) has the best BRIS Pace Ratings with two wire-to-wire stakes wins, and is likely to set the pace. Dramatic Gold has a couple of advantages here. He may be able to dictate the pace, and he has a strong past performance at a mile and a quarter--his 1 3/4-length defeat in the Breeders' Cup Classic earned him a BRIS Speed Rating of 108.

A winner of six straight, Wekiva Springs (Runaway Groom) has been nothing less than spectacular in his last two starts, defeating one-time champion sprinter Cardmania at seven furlongs, then drawing clear under a hand-ride in the San Fernando. The grey has excellent tactical speed, with several BRIS Pace Ratings over 100, and demonstrated a tremendous finishing kick last time out.

Strodes Creek (Halo) has yet to live up to his reputation, and the lack of pace here could put him at a disadvantage. He had earned BRIS Speed Ratings over 100 in every two-turn start until a poor performance in the San Fernando. He labored through the final stages of that race; according to jockey Eddie Delahoussaye, "Every other stride, he would bobble." Expect improvement from that effort because Strodes Creek has gained some fitness from his last two starts; the colt was lightly raced last summer and makes his third start after six months on the shelf. He should be challenging late. Bloodstock Research Information Services, Inc., is America's No. 1 source for Thoroughbred information. AQUEDUCT • ACTION

A field of six three-year-olds go postward in Sunday's featured $50,000a Fred Capossela S. at the Big A. Trainer John Kimmel, who has suffered through serious setbacks recently with his top colt Cryptic Bid, will send out another promising runner is Angle Of Pursuit. The gelding has just one previous start, breaking his maiden by nearly nine lengths in an impressive score December 31. "He is a big, strong grand-looking gelding," said Kimmel of his charge, who will move up to stakes competition for his second career start. "If he runs like he did in his first start, that may be enough."

AFTERNOON DEELITES PREPS FOR '95

DEBUT Undefeated GISW Afternoon Deelites (Private Terms), set to make his three-year-old bow in the San Vicente Breeders' Cup S. at Santa Anita next Sunday, worked seven furlongs in 1:27 1/5 Saturday with Kent Desormeaux in the saddle. The West Virginia-bred galloped out the mile in 1:41 1/5. "It was a little easier than I wanted," said trainer Richard Mandella. "But I threatened (Desormeaux) not to go too fast, and I guess he took my threat seriously. I'm trying not to grind the horse up too early, because everyone knows there's bigger objectives later in the year."

THE WICKED NORTH '50-50' FOR BIG CAP

Last year's champion Older Horse The Wicked North (Far North), who worked a solid six furlongs in 1:12 3/5 yesterday morning at Santa Anita, is "50-50" to make the March 11 Santa Anita H., according to his trainer, David Bernstein. "If the weather remains good and we're able to get a race into him, then we have a chance to make the Big Cap," he said. "But the long-term forecast for next week doesn't look too good. We'll just see what happens."

DEVIL HIS DUE BACK AT WORK Trainer Allen Jerkens sent out MGISW Devil His Due (Devil's Bag) for his first breeze of the year yesterday, an easy quarter in :26 at Gulfstream Park. Looking ahead to the six-year-old's '95 campaign, Jerkens remarked, "There is no way to predict how good he will be this year. I don't see anything different in his attitude. There have been some horses who have run very well at age six. To be as good as he was last year, he would have to stay sound and keep his zest. He has given me no indication that he won't."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners and a + will denote winners who are first-time starters.

Another top three-year-old was also on the tab; De Niro (Gulch) worked the same distance in the exact same time, and his trainer, Allen Jerkens, reported that the colt is about two weeks from his return.

Happy Wife made up some ground late to be sixth, beaten less than five lengths, in her first start in more than six months December 30. Given another month between races, the veteran racemare was up with the leaders from the start and outgamed pacesetter Rotten Row in the stretch drive to earn her first victory over the Santa Anita grass.
