TRIPLE CROWN DRAWS 317 A total of 317 three-year-olds, headed by Eclipse Award winner Timber Country (Woodman), have been nominated to the 1995 Chrysler Triple Crown Challenge. The early nominations, which closed January 21, include 10 Europeans entries, two from Japan and six American fillies. It is the first time a horse from the Far East has been nominated to the $5 million Challenge; Japan could be represented by Gaily Gold (Java Gold) or Ski Captain (Storm Bird). Undefeated MGISW Pennekamp (Bering {GB}) and Breeders' Cup Juvenile runner-up Eltish (Cox's Ridge) head the foreign contingent. The dates for the '95 Triple Crown are: the Kentucky Derby, May 6; Preakness, May 20; and Belmont Stakes, June 10.

WESTERN ECHO OUT OF TRIPLE CROWN

Western Echo (Eastern Echo), who breezed a disappointing five furlongs in 1:02 at Gulfstream yesterday, is still battling a bout with bronchitis and will be sent to the farm to recover. "The vets tell me that the sooner he gets back in the cold weather, the better he will be," said his trainer, Bud Delp. "We'll ship him back to Maryland and turn him out for a couple of months. When he is ready, we'll bring him back. He will be a nice horse this summer."

TABASCO CAT BACK ON TRACK Classic winner Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat) was back on the work tab at Santa Anita yesterday for the first time in more than a month, breezing an easy three furlongs in :39 4/5. "With all the rain we were getting, I just backed off on him," said his trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I'm just getting him into a regular work pattern again." The four-year-old had not breezed since grabbing his quarter in a five-furlong move January 2. Lukas added that he is considering the Met Mile Memorial Day at Belmont Park for the colt.

CALL NOW INJURED Three-year-old filly Call Now (Wild Again), third last time out as the favorite in the Santa Ynez Breeders' Cup S., suffered a knee injury in the race which will require surgery. The graded stakes winner is scheduled to go under the knife Tuesday; trainer Ron McAnally said he hopes to have her back in action for the summer meet at Del Mar.

Dare And Go, who began his career in France and had been the runner-up in three straight Grade I events on the grass since shipping to the U.S., tried the dirt for the first time in his last start and finished a good third after a troubled trip in the Gil San Fernando S. Staying out of trouble this time, the bay was allowed to set the pace uncontested and had plenty left in the tank when finally challenged at the top of the stretch, drawing clear once again to earn his first graded stakes triumph. "It looked like he wanted to go to the lead (in the San Fernando), and we reserved him maybe more than we should have," said trainer Dick Mandella. "We thought it was best to just take a shot at letting him run along like he wants to, and it turned out right." The first two finishers will start next in the $1,000,000 Santa Anita H. March 11. Jockey Kent Desormeaux, aboard favored Wekiva Springs, claimed foul against the runner-up for carrying him wide on both turns, but the claim was disallowed. "I was herded, period," said Desormeaux. "What was mind-boggling to me was that, if we were in the lane, (Dramatic Gold) comes down."

GULFSTREAM • GLIMPSE

The Palm Beach Pipes and Drums, an award-winning Scottish bagpipe band, will be an added attraction for Donn Day Festivities at Gulfstream Saturday, February 11. Under the direction of Pipe Major Bill Paul, the Pipes and Drums are among the leading pipe bands in the Sunshine State; they are one of just a handful of bands that perform with a color guard as part of their marching ensemble.

Hutcheson S. winner Valid Wager (Valid Appeal) breezed a solid half-mile in :47 3/5 at Gulfstream yesterday morning and will make his next start in the GII Fountain of Youth S. February 18. "He went great," said his trainer, Mike Mollica, in from California for the work. "He is not much of a work horse by himself. A horse broke off 20 lengths in front of him and I guess he zeroed in on him, because he closed the gap to about two lengths." Looking forward to the colt's first try at a mile and a sixteenth, Mollica said, "If the fractions are slow, he'll be tough to get by. The only way to beat him is to surprise him. If he sees you coming, he is very game."

BAY MEADOWS PLANS FOR CARD CLUB

According to Saturday's San Francisco Chronicle, Bay Meadows racetrack has announced plans to open a 50-table card club in its grandstand within two years. The card club could reportedly bring in 550 new jobs and $2 million in taxes, while earning $4 million for the San Mateo track. "The racetrack needs an added profit center, and that's what this will be," Bay Meadows President Jack Liebau told the Chronicle. The city of San Mateo is expected to vote on the proposed card club in May.

CHARLES TOWN SIMULCASTING RESUMES

FRIDAY? Charles Town Races officials have set Friday, February 10 as the tentative date for resumption of simulcast racing, but the opening could be delayed by the local Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association. Under federal law, a thoroughbred track must have approval of the horsemen's group representing the majority of the owners and trainers, but the presence of two competing groups--the newly formed Charles Town Horsemen's Association and the Charles Town HBPA--has created the question of which group has the authority to negotiate. The CTHA has already given its approval, pending a decision by the West Virginia Racing Commission as to which of the two groups is the official representative of the licensed horsemen, but CTHBPA President Randy Funkhouser has not yet responded to the proposal. "So far, we haven't heard from Mr. Funkhouser and that could force us to scrap our February 10 start date," said track president D. Keith Wagner. According to Wagner, if the start of simulcasting is pushed back, the track's scheduled March 3 resumption of live racing would be delayed as well. "We need about a month of simulcasting in order to build up the horsemen's purse fund and to allow time to reestablish our horse population," he said.

Also Ran: Corrazona, Desert Orchid.

Queens Court Queen, overlooked in the wagering despite an impressive victory in the GII San Gorgonio over the course last time she ran, stalked odds-on choice Key Phrase to the stretch, then launched a bid that carried her past the pacesetter and well clear of her late-running stablemate Paseana, who was taking down second in the race for the third straight year. "We knew Queens Court Queen liked an off track; little did we know that she would run this well on the dirt on a fast track," said trainer Ron McAnally, conditioner of the first two. "Most of the Lyphards get better with age. Paseana probably came up a little bit short. If everything goes well, both of them will run in the Santa Margarita (Feb. 26)." The favorite was making her first start around two turns. "It wasn't bad for her first route," said her jockey, Chris Antley. "I think she'll keep learning to relax as she matures."

Looking to pass the $1 million mark in career earnings, Educated Risk was the crowd's 1-5 choice and proved up to the task. Allowed to settle off the pace of GSW CALIPHA (Two Punch), who was making her first start in more than seven months, the favorite moved up to take control at the top of the lane and easily held runner-up Elizabeth Bay safe to take her fourth consecutive graded stakes win. "I think she is better than she ever has been," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I am proud of her. She'll go in the Rampart and then we'll breed her to Danzig. I don't feel too bad about losing her...it's not like the foal is going to Europe or to someone else. I am going to get to train whatever it is. That makes it all the more exciting."
