HOLY BULL TO STUD IN '95 Holy Bull

(Great Above) will be shipped to Jonabell Farm in Lexington, Kentucky in as few as three weeks and will be booked to as many as 50 mares this spring, according to farm president Jimmy Bell. "As far as the breeding season, he's not missed as much time as you might think," said Bell. "There were a lot of people who said 'just let us know where and when.' There has been as much interest in breeding to this horse as there have been people wanting to watch him run. There are a lot of horses who are regally bred and do not display the courage and the class and the charisma that this horse exudes." Holy Bull walked briefly and was hosed Sunday morning. "I'm just so relieved that he's no worse than he is," said owner/trainer Jimmy Croll. "It was a terrible thing to happen, but I was so happy he was standing on all fours." An ultrasound Sunday morning revealed no major tears in the superficial flexor tendon, which Dr. Peter Hall said was merely strained. "I can't demonstrate any ruptures," said Hall. "The ultrasound shows lesions starting at the knee and going to the ankle where the tendon attaches to the pastern bone. It is a repairable type of lesion. Some horses with this exact injury could go back to racing. He's going to be healthy and sound in 30 days. He'll be out in the field, running around."

DONN WRAP-UP Donn H. winner Cigar (Palace Music) came out of the race in good order and will be pointed for another start at Gulfstream Park. "We'll find out if he can handle a mile and a quarter in the GI Gulfstream Park H. (March 5) and that will determine our plans for later in the year," said his trainer, Bill Mott. "He has a chance to go on and be a lot of fun." Runner-up Primitive Hall (Dixieland Band) also is doing well, and could make his next start in the Gulfstream Park H., the Gill Creme Fraiche H. (March 11), or the Ft. Lauderdale H. (March 11). Virginia Rapids (Riverman), seventh in the race, was found to have bled and will run on Lasix in his next start, which has not yet been determined.

Margins: 3, 1 3/4, 2. Odds: 0.20, 4.80, 19.80.

Also Ran: On Target, A.J. Jett.

Making his three-year-old debut as the 1-5 favorite, Afternoon Deelites again made it look easy, stalking the speedster A.J. JETT (Jett Sett Joe) for a half, then taking complete control and cruising home to win as much the best. "He's just scary, that's all," said his jockey, Kent Desormeaux. "I asked him for a little bit turning for home...really, I just niggled at him and boom, he cut away. He is something special in the makings. We'll let him strut his stuff and see if he takes us all the way." Owner Burt Bacharach remarked, "I felt a lot of pressure with this race. So much is expected from him. There were a couple of people connected with the Triple Crown in the paddock saying, 'Listen, you've got to take over the mantle now. We need a star to come in after what happened (to Holy Bull).' That's an awful lot of heat to feel." According to trainer Richard Mandella, the colt is possible for the San Rafael S. (March 4), but is more likely to await the San Felipe S. (March 19). "He's had his little rest and now we're in a building process to get to the Derby," he said.

Also Ran: Del Mar Dennis, Nancys French Fry, Cardmania, Marvin's Faith (Ire), Nonproductiveasset, Screaming Don. Eased: Kingdom Found.

Best Pal ran evenly in his first start of '95, finishing fourth off moderate fractions in the GII San Pasqual H. Jan. 22. Rated off a more realistic pace this time, the veteran was seventh after a half but came running up the rail on the final turn, catching pacesetter Slew of Damascus at the top of the lane and drawing off to a decisive victory. "I know he's supposed to like running outside of horses, but I had to make up my mind going into the turn," said winning jockey Chris McCarron. The gelding gave trainer Richard Mandella his second graded stakes win of the afternoon, and will come back in the GI Santa Anita H.

TIMBER COUNTRY SHARP AT SANTA ANITA

Timber Country (Woodman), prepping for his three-year-old debut in the GII San Rafael S. at Santa Anita March 4, worked six furlongs in 1:11 4/5 from the starting gate Sunday morning. "It was within a fifth of a second of what we wanted," said his trainer, D.Wayne Lukas. "We were just trying to sharpen him up a little bit. He's where we want him to be."

Also Ran: Chaposa Springs, Mistress S., Clever Thing.

Mia's Hope, the rank outsider in the field of six despite finishing a good second in the Sweetest Chant S. last time out, raced at the back of the pack for a half, then launched a bid that carried her to victory over odds-on Minister Wife. "I knew all week she was going to win, she was doing so well," said jockey Kristi Chapman, who dropped her whip at the three-sixteenths pole. Chapman was notching her first $100,000 stakes win. The favorite, a graded stakes winner at two making her three-year-old debut, bobbled at the break, moved up to take the lead at the top of the stretch, but could not hold off the top one. "That dip at the break when she almost went on her nose didn't help her any, but she righted herself quickly," said her jockey, Jerry Bailey. "She ran well and we'll be tougher next time." The top two will meet again in the Bonnie Miss S. March 4.

Weekend Madness, who had defeated colts in the GIII Keeneland Budweiser Breeders' Cup S. last October, was sent off the 8-5 choice against nine male rivals and proved narrowly best, rallying from the middle of the pack to take the lead in the stretch and outgaming French import Solenzano in the drive to take the photo. The winner was making her first start in more than three months.

RETURN OF MOM (f, 4, Deputy Minister--Counting Rainbows, by Halo), making her first start since an aborted effort at Belmont last September when she wheeled at the start from the inside post and dropped her rider, nearly repeated that performance in her '95 debut. Again breaking from the rail, the filly ducked in sharply at the start and almost unseated jockey Robbie Davis, but Davis stayed in the saddle and guided his mount from worst to first, outgaming GONE TO VENUS (Gone West) by a neck at the wire to pay $14.80.
