GO FOR GIN BREEZES; TO CLAIBORNE IN

'96 Last year's Kentucky Derby winner Go for Gin (Cormorant) breezed five furlongs in a bullet 1:00 yesterday morning at Gulfstream, but not before an unscheduled change of riders. The four-year-old, who is expected to make his '95 bow in early March, was originally sent to the track under jockey Jerry Bailey, but he refused to train and Bailey had to bring him back to the barn. Regular exercise rider Findley Bishop was then put aboard and the colt went about his business. "He is back to his old tricks of eight months ago," said his trainer, Nick Zito. Go for Gin will retire at the end of 1995; he will stand the 1996 breeding season at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Kentucky for a fee of $20,000, live foal.

TURFWAY CANCELS AGAIN In an eleventh-hour decision shortly before the first race Saturday, the racing surface at Turfway Park was deemed unsafe and racing was cancelled. It was the third time in the last four days that the Kentucky track had been forced to call off its live card; despite a 21-minute delay Friday, the evening's races were completed without incident. Friday night's eighth race was held up when the jockeys brought their mounts back to the paddock after warming up to request that the track be floated. The track superintendent declined to float the surface because it was drying and the sand-loam mixture was balling up under the float skids. The track was in good shape during morning training hours yesterday, but quickly thawed as temperatures rose into the mid-50s by post time. The horses reported to the paddock for the first race, but after a discussion between track management and the riders, the cancellation was announced. Turfway's track maintenance crew will work through the night and racing is expected to resume this afternoon.

WESTERN ECHO TRAINING IN FLORIDA

Western Echo (Eastern Echo), still fighting bronchitis, is in training at Gulfstream and did not go to the farm as originally planned. The colt breezed five furlongs in 1:01 2/5 Saturday. "We scoped him and he has still got (bronchitis)," said trainer Bud Delp. "He can't run until it clears up. I'll nominate him to the Florida Derby, but it is not likely that we'll make it." News cont. p2

Also Ran: Cinch, Oliver's Twist, Valid Wager, You're the One, Sea Emperor, Amos, Don Juan a, Ops Smile, Mighty Magee.

Thunder Gulch ended his two-year-old season with a second-place finish behind the brilliant Afternoon Deelites in the GI Hollywood Futurity. Making his first start in more than two months in this Grade II event, the chestnut rated in midpack down the backstretch, moved as a team with Suave Prospect to take the lead at the top of the stretch, then dug down deep and outfinished that rival to win the photo. "Wayne (Lukas) warned me that if I got to the front he might hang and wait for someone," said winning jockey Mike Smith. "That is exactly what he did. Once (Suave Prospect) came to him, he really dug in and ran a big race." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas indicated the colt would run next in the Florida Derby. The 9-5 favorite Jambalaya Jazz, well back early, made a run to reach contention as they straightened for home but did not threaten the top two.

CHARLES TOWN GRANTS PURCHASE

OPTION TO SHOWBOAT Charles Town Racing Limited Partnership, owner of Charles Town Races, Inc., has granted an option to Showboat Operating Company of New Jersey to purchase the track for $18 million. The option grants the company, which operates Atlantic City's Showboat casino, exclusive rights to buy the 250-acre facility through April 30, 1995. Under terms of the agreement, Showboat made what track owners described as a "substantial" non-refundable deposit and agreed to the continuation of live racing. Dr. George Yeatras, chairman of the Charles Town partnership who made the announcement, also revealed that the track had been offered to Virginia businessman Jim Young for $12.5 million, but Wilson declined. Charles Town Races President D. Keith Wagner said that Showboat's deposit would be used for the reopening, renovation and operation of the track, which is scheduled to open for simulcasting February 24, with live racing to resume March 10.

Also Ran: Flash Number Three, Lotts Talc, Devil's Glen, Part With Pride, Queen Suite, Z Rated, Triumph At Dawn.

Aiming for her fourth straight win in five starts since returning from a year layoff for knee surgery, Smart 'n Noble was rated in the second flight for a half-mile, launching a bid on the far turn that took her to the lead, then holding on with determination to best the late-running Dust Bucket at the wire for her first graded stakes win. Favored TRIUMPH AT DAWN (Alydar) was up with the leaders for a half but tired badly to finish 10th.

DOVE HUNT (c, 4, Danzig--Hunt's Lark, by Knightly Dawn) hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking the GIII Laurel Futurity in October, 1993. On the board in two-of-four since his return from a year lay-off, the four-year-old was made the favorite for the second time in a row but got the job done this time, battling INSIDE THE BELTWAY (Meadowlake) to the top of the lane, then pulling away to win by two lengths at 8-5. Inside The Beltway ended up in a dead-heat for second with TALB (Caro {Ire}). The winner is a 1/2 to Lieutenant's Lark (Lt. 8th-GPX, $26,000, Alw, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:44 3/5, ft. WILD SYN (c, 3, Wild Again--Synformer, by Sovereign Dancer) suffered through a horror trip in the GII Hutcheson S. last time out, finding himself in trouble at the start, down the backstretch and again on the far turn before tiring to finish seventh. Trying allowance foes and a distance for the first time after a maiden win sprinting just two starts back, the three-year-old jumped out to the lead early, dropped back slightly on the backstretch, then came again to win as he pleased, coasting under the line 6 1/2 lengths in front of the field at nearly 9-1. Running his record to a perfect three wins in three career starts--all stakes--over the Big A inner dirt, Mining Burrah bounced out to a clear lead early and held sway to the wire, holding the runner-up safe as the 7-5 choice for his third straight. "He is so quick, I don't think the other horses can keep up with him," said winning jockey John Velazquez. "I waited for the competition, then all I did was ask for a little and he responded at just the right time." Trainer Bobby Barbara said the five-year-old would be sent to Ocala for a break before returning for a summer campaign.

*Lit De Justice finished second, but was disqualified and placed sixth.

Phone Roberto stepped up off an $80,000 claiming victory and made it two in a row, sitting behind the leaders 'til the field turned for home, then driving to the lead and besting even-money LIT DE JUSTICE (El Gran Senor). "I think this is more a measure of the quality of the high-priced claiming races, rather than a knock on the stakes," said trainer Darrell Vienna, who added that his charge would not be returned to the claiming ranks. The runner-up forced his way between horses in midstretch to cross the line second, but was placed sixth for the bullish move.
