GULFSTREAM INCREASES OVERNIGHT

PURSES All Gulfstream Park overnight purses will be increased by approximately five percent, effective February 25, Track President and CEO Douglas Donn announced yesterday. "The additional money available for purses is due to the excellent response to our national simulcasting network," Donn said. Bob Umphrey, Gulfstream director of racing, stated the increase will run through closing day, March 16.

EXPLOSIVE RED BACK IN ACTION Trainer Danny Vella said Monday morning that five-year-old Explosive Red (Explodent) will miss the Feb. 25 Gulfstream Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup, but is nearing his 1995 debut at Gulfstream. The 1993 Grade I Hollywood Derby winner suffered a condylar fracture of his left front cannon bone early last year and hasn't raced since. His other graded stakes tallies include the GII American Derby at Arlington and the GIII Forerunner S. at Keeneland for earnings to date of $863,931. "He is 100 percent sound right now and he appears as willing as ever," said Vella. "There are a lot of intangibles that we won't find out about until we run. We were hoping to run (in the GII Gulfstream Budweiser BC), but he got a little more tired than we expected in his last couple of works. We are biding our time until he is 100 percent fit." Explosive Red is scheduled to breeze over the Gulfstream turf Wednesday.

Square Cut, winless since taking the San Jacinto H. wire-to-wire at Santa Anita last April, sat just off the flank of early pacesetter SILVER WIZARD (Silver Hawk) through the first six furlongs, then took command en route to a 1 3/4-length triumph. "He tries hard and gives you 100 percent every time he runs," said winning trainer Joe Devereux. Ianomami (IRE), victorious in a $100,000 claimer at Santa Anita Feb. 3, closed strongly for 2nd, while 6-5 favorite Silver Wizard faded to 6th. Square Cut is 1/2 to Baby Diamonds (MSW, $125,801, by Thirty Eight Paces).

- Also Ran: Alleged Impression, Key Contender, Marry Me Do, Don's Sho, Forest Wildcat.

General George Handicap, Continued.

Who Wouldn't, sent off the 4-1 third choice despite winning his last four starts, two of them stakes, stalked the early fractions set by FOREST WILDCAT (Storm Cat) and Storm Tower before wearing the latter down in the final strides for the victory. "He's tough, so tough," said winning trainer Donald Barr. "He's a hard runner. Right now, he's as good as he's ever been. But I'm not going to run him again for a while. I'm sure this race took a lot out of him." 4-5 chalk Powis Castle, coming off a victory in the Gill Malibu S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26, trailed the field through the first 1/4-mile then began to steadily close ground, but not in time to catch the winner.

HUFF APOLOGIZES TO CHARLES TOWN

TRACK PRESIDENT West Virginia Breeders' Classics President Sam Huff, who threatened to move the West Virginia Breeders' Classics to Mountaineer Park last week after Middleburg, Virginia businessman Jim Wilson lost out to Showboat Operating Company in a bid to buy the Charles Town Races, offered his apologies to track President D. Keith Wagner yesterday and pledged his continued support for racing at the Thoroughbred track. Huff criticized Wagner in a Friday press conference, claiming that the track owners rejected Wilson's $12.5 million purchase offer. As Huff was addressing members of the media, track officials were announcing that Showboat had purchased an option to buy the track for $18 million after Wilson declined to buy the track outright. "I'm afraid my emotions just got the best of me before I became aware of what they were trying to do," said Huff Monday. "I called Keith (Wagner) this morning and told him I was way out of line the other day and I wanted to be part of the solution at the track, not part of the problem. He said he could understand my disappointment and graciously accepted my apology." Huff indicated that any decision to move the Classics, West Virginia's richest night of racing, would require board approval. "I'm just one member of the board and I clearly overstepped my authority," said Huff.

 Pink Shoes, winner of the Gowell S. at Turfway Park in December, finished 2nd by 3/4-length to Cat Appeal in the Dixie Belle S. at Oaklawn in her last. Turning the tables on that rival here, Pink Shoes closed from off-the-pace for the win in the Martha Washington, which her dam Fun Flight took in 1988. Gill-winner Lilly Capote was 3rd, seven-lengths in front of stakes-winner FRANKS ROCKET GIRL (Irish Open). Finishing 5th and last was MGSP MORRIS CODE (Lost Code). The winner is 1/2 to Tour (SW, $227,061, by Forty Niner) and Flight Forty Nine (MSW, $123,088, by Forty Niner).

Marcie's Ensign, wire-to-wire winner of a turf allowance at Gulfstream Feb. 1, stepped off the green and closed from the middle of the 10-horse field to win his 1st stakes by a neck. "He's been training real well," said winning trainer Luis Olivares. "He has grown into himself and with every race he improves more and more. He broke his maiden in the slop, so I decided to take a shot against these horses. He has done everything I asked of him. We'll probably point him for the Florida Derby." Local News, Santa Anita:

Santa Catalina S. winner Larry The Legend (Local Talent) worked a half-mile in :48 1/5 handily at Santa Anita Sunday. Jockey Kent Desormeaux was aboard. Owner/trainer Craig Lewis said the three-year-old colt remains "60-40" to run in the March 4 San Rafael S. "The Florida Derby (March 11) is also a possibility," said Lewis, "but I'd like to have a little more seasoning before shipping to a race like that." Eclipse Award-winner Timber Country (Woodman), also pointing to the San Rafael, worked six furlongs in 1:13.

Trainer Mike Mollica reports that GII Hutcheson S. and GIII California Juvenile S. winner Valid Wager (Valid Appeal) came out of Saturday's GII Fountain of Youth in good shape. "Physically, the horse came back very well," said Mollica. "But the last week in Florida, the weather really changed and it got very hot; the humidity was in the high 80's. He just didn't train as well that last week as he had when he was training in cooler weather. He broke out around the shoulders and I just need to get him back. He's due here (at Santa Anita) tomorrow (Tuesday) about noon. I'm just going to regroup a little bit, freshen him up just a touch, get him feeling good again and take a look at a new schedule for him. He needs to go a little bit shorter right now."

Sidney Craig's Exchange (Explodent), scheduled to ship from Santa Anita to Gulfstream for Sunday's GII Rampart H., was instead retained in Southern California and will make her next start in the Buena Vista H. at Santa Anita Saturday. "We changed plans because she got a rash over her body the day we were going to ship her," trainer Bill Spawr explained.
