ARTS AND LETTERS PENSIONED Gainesway Farm announced yesterday the retirement from stud duty of 1969 Horse of the Year Arts and Letters (*Ribot), at the age of 29. Arts and Letters, who raced for Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stables, won the 1969 Belmont S., Travers S., Woodward S., Metropolitan H., Jockey Club Gold Cup, Blue Grass S., Everglades S. and Jim Dandy S. In addition to being named Horse of the Year, he was crowned Champion Three-Year-Old Colt and Champion Handicap Horse. During his career, the Virginia-bred chestnut won 11 of 23 starts for earnings of $632,404. Arts and Letters has sired 57 stakes performers and the earners of over $13,000,000 including Grade I winners Winter's Tale, Codex, Lord Darnley and Tonzarun.

SANTA ANITA HANDICAP NOTES Rodney Rash-trainee Urgent Request (IRE) (Rainbow Quest) will run in the $1-million Santa Anita H. Saturday, March 11. "He will be on the lead (in the Big 'Cap)," said Rash, "and anyone that goes with him will burn themselves out." Five-year-old Urgent Request, a Group 3 winner in England last year, worked a mile in 1:40 2/5 at Santa Anita Thursday. In his only North American start, the gray horse finished fifth in the GI Rothmans International over the Woodbine turf last October 16. In another Big 'Cap development Thursday, Dramatic Gold (Slew o' Gold) drilled six panels in 1:12 2/5, galloping out the seven furlongs in 1:25 4/5. "A couple of more works and hopefully we'll be ready," said trainer David Hofmans. Del Mar Dennis (Dixieland Band) breezed an easy five furlongs in 1:01 2/5. Trainer Paco Gonzalez said next week's work might decide if the Dixieland Band gelding runs. "We'll ask him for more speed in his next work, and then we'll scope him to check for bleeding." Del Mar Dennis bled slightly while finishing fourth in the San Antonio H. Feb. 12. Blumin Affair (Dynaformer) is out of the Big 'Cap picture, according to Tom Van Berg, son and assistant to trainer Jack Van Berg.

Saturday, Santa Anita:

BUENA VISTA H.-GII, $100,000a, 4yo/up, f/m, 1mT Trainer Bill Spawr plans on entering Exchange (Exploident) in both Saturday's GII Buena Vista H. and Sunday's GI Santa Margarita H. "It just allows us to keep our options open in case something were to happen," said the trainer. Exchange and Santa Margarita probable Paseana are both owned by Sidney Craig, who has opted to keep the mares apart most of their racing careers. Spawr has also entered Lunar Spook (Silver Ghost) in the Buena Vista, but will run only Exchange or Lunar Spook--not both. GI Ashland S. winner Lunar Spook drilled a half-mile over Santa Anita's fast main track yesterday in a bullet :46 2/5. The field for the Buena Vista, in post position order, is as follows: Sh Bang (Dixieland Band), 113 pounds; Exchange, 120; Dance For Vanny (Sovereign Dancer), 113; Lyin to the Moon (Kris S.), 116; Lunar Spook, 115; Wende (Herat), 115; Jacodra's Devil (Devil's Bag), 114.

Saturday, Aqueduct:

CORRECTION H., $75,000a, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f Five-year-old Lottsia Talc (Talc), winner of the GIII Interborough Breeders' Cup H. and Berlo H. already in '95, has been assigned highweight of 120 pounds. The Tim Kelly-trainee will run in the Correction on only seven days rest; she finished fifth, beaten 3 3/4-lengths, in the GII Barbara Fritchie at Laurel last Saturday. Regular rider Diane Nelson has the mount. Trying stakes company for the first time will be Cynthia Phipps' For Sport (Forty Niner). The four-year-old broke through the gate before taking a six-furlong allowance at Aqueduct in her last start Feb. 9. "It's a big step up, no doubt about that," said Buzzy Tenney, assistant to trainer Shug McGaughey. "But all of her races here this winter have been good. There'll be some heavy heads coming back here soon, so this is a good time to try and get her a stakes win or a stakes placing." Also entered in the Correction are stakes-winners Merri Tales (Castle Guard), Lilly's Moment (Timeless Moment), Stars Knockout (Two Punch), Lena's Angel (Encino) and Tensie's Pro (Distinctive Pro), as well as stakes-placed The Bink (Seeking the Gold), Cherokee Wonder (Cherokee Colony) and Runaway Fling (Imperial Fling).

News Continued.

TURFWAY BACK ON TRACK Racing resumed at Turfway Park Wednesday night with a racing surface that had been reconditioned by the track's maintenance staff in less than three days. In a race against time, the Turfway crew of Track Superintendent Daniel Chapman laid down the last of the track's top surface only minutes before Wednesday's first race at 7 p.m. The revamped surface immediately drew high praise from the track's trainers and jockeys, who had missed a holiday weekend of racing because the winter's unusual cycle of freezes and thaws had weakened the track's foundation. "This is a remarkable accomplishment," said Turfway Park Chairman Jerry L. Carroll. "I have always said that, with this region's work ethic, we have the best staff of any racetrack in the country, and this monumental effort certainly proves that."

CBS "SUNDAY MORNING" TO PROFILE OPS

SMILE "Sunday Morning," the CBS News show hosted by Charles Osgood, will profile the three-year-old colt Ops Smile (Caveat) and the humanitarian work being funded with his purse earnings when it airs Sunday, Feb. 26 on CBS affiliates throughout the country. The roan colt, bred by Maryland homebuilder/philanthropist Jim Ryan, has run four times this year. He broke his maiden Jan. 4 at Gulfstream then posted two close second-place finishes before placing 11th in the Fountain of Youth Feb. 18. His career earnings to date are $28,690. In recent months, Ryan has sold partial ownership of the colt and used the money to fund facial surgery for deformed children in the Gaza Strip by American surgeons affiliated with the Norfolk, Va.-based organization Operation Smile. The segment was produced by Bud Lamoreaux. "Sunday Morning" won Eclipse Awards in the national television achievement category in 1991 and 1993 for profiles on Thoroughbred racing personalities.

 4-5 favorite Talloires, a SW in France and GSP in Italy, missed by only 3/4-length in his North American debut at Santa Anita Feb. 2. Making amends here, the chestnut was bumped at the start then lingered toward the back of the 6-horse field, waiting until the drive to kick in gear and sprint between rivals for the victory. 17-1 longshot Dive For Cover, also well back early, rallied for 2nd.

 Undefeated Triple Crown nominee French Deputy broke his maiden by 5 lengths at Hollywood Nov. 20, then returned 2 1/2-months later to take a $42,000 allowance at Santa Anita Feb. 4. Sent off the overwhelming 1-5 chalk here, he was rated off the early pace by regular jockey Eddie Delahoussaye, then after six furlongs was sent to the lead, where he exploded to cross the wire 11 lengths the best. "I always felt he was a good colt, but he had never run around two turns," said Delahoussaye. "Today he proved he can go a mile, and I'm hoping he can go farther. As far as class and ability, he has all of that, there's no doubt in my mind. The way he does things makes me think that he will go on and that he will handle anything." According to winning trainer Neil Drysdale, "The San Felipe (March 19) is a possibility. It's a matter of sitting down with (owner) Mr. Cowan, discussing it and deciding what to do next." SP Awesome Thought, at the back of the short 4-horse field for most of the running, closed ground late for 2nd, while GSP Sierra Diablo, off since his 11th-place finish in the Nov. 5 Breeders' Cup Juvenile, raced on the lead early then faded to 3rd. French Deputy is 1/2 to Princess Mitterand (SW, $153,250, by Seattle Slew).

 MSP Ballerina Gal had been away from the races since finishing 2nd in the Santa Paula S. at Santa Anita in April '94. Making her 4-year-old debut as the 5-2 second choice, she pressed the pace early, moved up inside on the turn, gained a slim lead in midstretch along the rail and proved best under Eddie Delahoussaye. Bettors' choice Choice Claim, going from turf to dirt, finished 2nd for the 3rd straight time.

His duties will include hosting Retama Park's in-house handicapping show, serving as backup track announcer and coordinating Retama Park's extensive fan education program. Vair, who is bilingual, will also provide announcements in Spanish to accommodate the track's Spanish-speaking market. "I'm very happy to be coming home to Texas," Vair said. "It's very exciting to be a part of Retama Park in its inaugural year and to use my talents in the industry I love the most, horse racing."
