GO FOR GIN READY FOR RETURN Kentucky Derby winner Go for Gin (Cormorant), who was reluctant to breeze last week, showed no hesitation yesterday morning at Gulfstream as he worked a sharp five furlongs out of the gate in :59. Regular exercise rider Findley Bishop was in the saddle, but jockey Jerry Bailey will be aboard when the colt makes his four-year-old debut. Trainer Nick Zito, pleased by the workout, said, "The afterburners were roaring. He galloped out three-quarters in 1:12 and seven-eighths in 1:25. He was incredible. You'll see him in the entries within the week."

TURFWAY BOOSTS PURSES AGAIN For the second time in two weeks, Turfway Park officials have announced a five percent increase in the track's overnight purses. The latest increase, the third of the 1994-95 season, took effect immediately, beginning with last Friday night's card. Turfway's daily average purse distribution now exceeds $200,000. "We have been able to raise purses again despite the problems that a very bizarre winter have created for our live racing program," said Turfway President Mark Simendinger. "Even during this difficult period, we have been able to continue to build purses for our horsemen through the outstanding success of The Race Book...and through our program of full-card simulcasting."

SLEW OF DAMASCUS PREPS FOR BIG 'CAP Slew Of Damascus (Slewacide), second in the San Antonio H. last out, worked a solid seven furlongs in 1:28 at Bay Meadows yesterday as he prepares for his next engagement, the GI $1,000,000 Santa Anita H. March 11. "We thought it was spectacular," said trainer Craig Roberts. "The track has been slow here." Jockey Kent Desormeaux will be aboard the seven-year-old in the Big 'Cap, becoming the millionaire gelding's fifth rider in his last five starts.

SUAVE PROSPECT ON TRACK FOR FLORIDA DERBY Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect), runner-up in the Fountain of Youth S., breezed five furlongs in 1:02 yesterday at Gulfstream and remains on schedule for the March 11 Florida Derby. "I think we have a good chance of turning the tables (on Thunder Gulch)," said trainer Nick Zito.

A champion in Italy, Misil picked up his first U.S. win in the Super Bowl H. at this distance last time he ran. Bet down to 7-5 bidding for two in a row, the Kentucky-bred overcame a bumpy start and rallied to prove best in a cavalry-charge finish; there were just three necks and two noses separating the first six finishers. "I really had to get into him in this race," said jockey Jose Santos. "He loafed early; it was not like last time when it was just all so easy. I had to hit him a couple of times to get him interested but once he started to run, he really took off. He is a very good horse when he wants to be." The roan will make his next start in the GII Pan American H. at Gulfstream March 16. "He has shown me that he rates the opportunity," said winning trainer Chris Clement.
