WESTERN ECHO TO EQUINE HOSPITAL

Western Echo (Eastern Echo), who has been battling bronchitis for nearly two months, was shipped to the Equine Center Hospital in Gainesville, Florida yesterday morning to undergo complete analysis and treatment of the ailment. The three-year-old breezed five furlongs in 1:00 2/5 at Gulfstream Sunday. "We had him scoped after the work and found that he still has the bronchitis," said trainer Bud Delp. "He has had it for eight weeks, but he has never run a temperature. He is fit and ready to run but unable to perform to his potential. Hopefully, in two or three days, his tests will reveal the exact nature of the bronchitis."

GULFSTREAM ANNOUNCES PURSE HIKE All Gulfstream Park overnight purses will be increased by five percent effective Thursday, March 2, track President and CEO Doug Donn announced yesterday. The increases will run through closing day, March 16; it is the second purse increase at the meet.

HOLY BULL AND DEHERE TO MONMOUTH HALL OF CHAMPIONS Holy Bull (Great Above), the 1994 Horse of the Year, and Dehere (Deputy Minister), champion two-year-old colt of 1993, will be inducted into the Monmouth Park Hall of Champions in ceremonies Memorial Day weekend. The Hall of Champions was introduced in 1986; a total of 40 horses have been inducted including the most recent honorees, Safely Kept, Black Tie Affair and Hansel.

JAPANESE IMPORT TO THE BIG A Japanese shipper Korufune Mystery (Clever Trick), a Kentucky-bred mare, will travel to Aqueduct for the March 19 Distaff H. Trained by Kazuo Fujisawa, she is expected to stay in the U.S. for either the Bed o' Roses H. April 8 or the Garden State Budweiser Breeders' Cup April 18; Japan's top jockey, Yukio Okabe, will ride. Five-for-five on the dirt in Japan, the five-year-old is just one-for-12 on the grass. Yasuhiko Haruto, a representative of the Japan Racing Association's New York office, said the mare is at a disadvantage in Japan because there are so few dirt races. "She is not a stakes winner in Japan, but she is very good on the dirt," he said. "There are not many opportunities for older fillies and mares there, even on the grass. I believe that is the reason they want to come here."

Saturday, Santa Anita

GII $150,000 San Rafael S., 3yo, 8f

A field of seven is expected, headed by last year's two-year-old champ Timber Country (Woodman) in his three-year-old debut. Two probables worked at Santa Anita Sunday: Mr Purple (Deputy Minister), runner-up to Afternoon Deelites in the GIII San Vicente Breeders' Cup S. last out, breezed six furlongs in 1:12 2/5, while Best Pal's half-brother American Day (Nureyev) went five furlongs in :59 3/5. Also pointing for the race are Fandarel Dancer (Marshua's Dancer), third in the San Vicente; El Camino Real Derby winner Jumron (GB) (Sharpo {GB}); Santa Catalina victor Larry The Legend (Local Talent); and El Camino Real runner-up Snow Kidd'n (Snow Chief).

Sunday, Gulfstream Park

GI $500,000 Gulfstream Park H., 3yo/up, 10f

Donn H. winner Cigar (Palace Music), the highweight at 118 pounds looking for his fifth straight win, would give trainer Bill Mott his second consecutive victory in the event. Mott took the race last year with 7-1 shot Scuffleburg. The runner-up in the Donn, Primitive Hall (Dixieland Band) is also expected back despite breaking out of his stall at Gulfstream and running loose Saturday night. "Something must have scared him," said his trainer, Wilfred Lewis. "He broke the snaps to his webbing. Seven people tried to catch him--he was having a ball. When anyone got near him, he would try to strike and kick them. It is unbelievable he didn't get hurt." The six-year-old gelding suffered only minor scratches in the incident. He will get the services of jockey Mike Smith Sunday. Rounding out the probable field are Bonus Money (GB) (Chief's Crown), Serious Spender (Seattle Slew), Fight For Love (Fit to Fight), Mahogany Hall (Woodman), Conveyor (Sharpen Up {GB}), Proud Shot (Proud Birdie), Pride Of Burkaan (Burkaan), Dusty Screen (Silent Screen), and Northern Trend (Sunny North).

The 3-5 chalk, POLISH TREATY (Danzig), bidding for her third win in a row, got caught in a traffic jam as they headed into the final turn but closed ground late to be third. ### Local News: Santa Anita

Johann Quatz (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), who was off the board in his lone dirt start, the 1994 San Pasqual H., is a possible starter for the GI Santa Anita H. March 11. The six-year-old worked a mile and an eighth in 1:51 2/5 on the main track Sunday.

Pirate's Revenge (Pirate's Bounty) and her full brother Echo Of Yesterday (Pirate's Bounty), who captured races on the same card at Santa Anita March 26, 1994, came back 11 months later to repeat the feat this past Saturday. Six-year-old Echo Of Yesterday, winner of the Crystal Water H. last March, captured a $62,500 claiming event, and four-year-old Pirate's Revenge took the Winter Solstice S. for California-breds two races later.

The speedy A.J. Jett (Jett Sett Joe), third in last year's GI Hollywood Futurity, has undergone knee surgery and is sidelined indefinitely, according to trainer Frank Olivares. The Canadian-bred, a four-time stakes winner, set the pace but tired to be fifth in the GIII San Vicente Breeders' Cup S. last time out February 12.
