FLORIDA DERBY WRAP-UP Winner Thunder Gulch (Gulch) will fly back to California Tuesday to await his next engagement, the Blue Grass S. at Keeneland April 15. "He came out of the race in good shape," said Todd Pletcher, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "He was on his toes as he marched around this morning. It doesn't appear to have knocked him down one bit." Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect) also came out of the race in good order and will point to the Blue Grass as well; trainer Nick Zito is looking forward to a rematch. "It was interesting to see the paper this morning," he said. "I was surprised to see what Wayne said. He said he would eventually break Suave Prospect's heart and that he has my colt's number. I'm sure Wayne will break a lot of hearts--Suave Prospect's will not be one of them." Longshot Mecke (Maudlin), third at 22-1 Saturday, will travel to Keeneland for another run at the top two. "This is the best shot I've ever had at the Kentucky Derby and the farther the better," said his trainer, Manny Tortora. "This is a nice horse. He has good breeding on both sides and he wants two turns. I don't know why people don't like him." Said John Ward, trainer of sixth-place finisher Jambalaya Jazz (Dixieland Band), "I think it was just too many races, too close together. We'll take five weeks off and look at the Blue Grass in our own backyard." Also continuing on the Triple Crown trail, Fritch (Demons Begone), fourth, will go in either the Blue Grass or the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct the same day; Oliver's Twist (Horatius), fifth, will head for the Federico Tesio S.; and Kresa (Blushing John) could start next in the Wood Memorial with blinkers added.

BEST PAL TO OAKLAWN Multi-millionaire Best Pal (*Habitony), who finished fast to be second in the GI Santa Anita H., could come back in the $750,000 Oaklawn H. April 15. The seven-year-old won the event in 1992. "He came out of the race real good," said trainer Richard Mandella. "Best Pal really ran great, I thought. But still, because this is the Handicap, it leaves you a little disappointed because you didn't win it. I have to be honest there, but I couldn't be more proud of my horse. We're looking at the Oaklawn H. next." Plans for Mandella's Dare and Go (Alydar), third in the Big 'Cap, are still undecided.

3--Mari's Sheba, 117, f, 3, Mari's Book--Sheba Little (GB), by Known Fact. O-Cooke Jack Kent; B-Elmendorf Farm, Inc. (KY); $30,000.

Margins: HD, 14, NO. Odds: 0.70, 1.80, 7.40.

Also Ran: Favored One, Jewel Princess.

With another gutsy performance for a Team Lukas runner, Serena's Song picked up her second Grade I win of the year. The classy filly shadowed Mari's Sheba to the far turn, moved to the lead as they straightened for home, and dug down deep to hold off the late charge of Urbane. "The track is real soft and deep today," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "I thought I was going to win the race by 10 or 15 lengths, then, all of a sudden, she started laboring on it. I thought my filly just ran a huge race considering the way the track is playing. When Urbane came up to her, my filly kicked again--that's just the class in her." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said the filly would probably race once more before the Kentucky Oaks, mentioning the Ashland at Keeneland April 22, the Fantasy S. at Oaklawn April 14, or even the Jim Beam S. at Turfway April 1. Said Lukas before the Santa Anita Oaks, "It depends on who shows up (in the Jim Beam), but I'm looking at a $600,000 purse, and how many times does a filly get to run for that much money?"

Shipping in from the West Coast after a troubled third-place finish in the GII Buena Vista H. February 25, Exchange went to the front at the start, was headed a half-mile from home, but came on again to retake the lead with enough left in reserve to hold off the late challenge of Market Booster in her first try at a mile and a half. "It was a long trip, but it was worthwhile," said winning trainer Bill Spawr. "I always wanted to run her this distance. You can't get her tired. If they ran a race two miles, I'd put her in it." As for the future, Spawr said, "I'll nominate her to the Santa Barbara at home, and long-term we will point for the Beverly D. and then the Matriarch."

Margins: 3, 1HF, 1. Odds: 0.80, 4.70, 1.70.

Also Ran: Adhocracy, Ask Amulio, Finder's Wish, Sticks and Bricks.

Making his first start since his Breeders' Cup victory four months ago, Concern was sent off the 4-5 choice and picked up just where he left off. With his customary lack of early speed, the four-year-old trailed early but moved through the pack at a steady pace to catch Fly Cry at the sixteenth pole and draw clear. The colt will make his next start in the GI Oaklawn H. April 15.

Allowed to set moderate fractions on a clear lead, Danzig's Dance, who tired to be fourth after setting the pace in the GIII Stymie H. in his last, went wire-to-wire to best the heavily favored three-horse entry, which finished 2-3-4. "My instructions from John (Parisella) were to go to the lead early, drive him hard and let everything go from there," said jockey Jorge Chavez. "He was getting tired down the stretch, but he had enough left to hold on at the end."

6th-AQU, $46,000, Alw, 4yo/up, a1m70yd, 1:42 2/5, ft.

Sacred Honour, winless since taking the Gil Sapling S. in August, '93, returned from a seven-month layoff last time and finished fifth at this level. Making his second start off the extended break, the Florida-bred was dismissed in the wagering but proved the handicappers wrong, stalking the pace to the top of the stretch, then moving to take the lead and holding it gamely to the wire to take the photo over Turf Star. The 8-5 choice PARTY MANNERS (Private Account), previously undefeated in four career starts, came back after more than seven months on the bench and made up some ground late to be fourth.
