NEW JOCKEYS FOR DERBY COLTS There will be a new twist to the Thunder Gulch (Gulch)/Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect) rivalry when it resumes in the April 15 Blue Grass S.: two new jockeys. Steve Adika, agent for Thunder Gulch's regular rider Mike Smith, confirmed yesterday he has chosen to ride Concern (Broad Brush) in the Oaklawn H. the same day. Suave Prospect's trainer Nick Zito is under the impression that his jockey, Jerry Bailey, will also be at Oaklawn to ride Cigar (Palace Music). According to Adika, Pat Day will be aboard Thunder Gulch in the Blue Grass, but Smith will be back in the saddle for the Kentucky Derby. Zito says he has yet to commit to a new jockey. "I am assuming that Jerry is riding Cigar). My first choice (to replace him) is Chris Antley, and my second choice is Julie Krone. We need somebody like that on our side." Zito added that he is likely to stick with his Blue Grass jockey for the Derby. Antley, who rode Petionville (Seeking the Gold) to victory in the Louisiana Derby Sunday, may not be available as that colt is scheduled to run in either the Blue Grass or the Wood Memorial the same day. Neither Jerry Bailey or his agent, Bob Frieze, could be reached for comment.

WIDENER WORKS Warm Wayne (Affirmed), winner of the GIII Creme Fraiche H. last out, worked five furlongs in 1:00 at Palm Beach Downs yesterday in preparation for Saturday's $200,000 Widener H. at Hialeah. The four-year-old is three-for-four since being gelded last fall. Also breezing for the Widener, Alybro (Danzig Connection) went five furlongs in 1:05 at Payson Park. The colt makes his second start since an eight-month layoff following surgery to remove chips from his left front ankle. Also expected for the race are Northern Trend (Sunny North), Key Contender (Fit to Fight), Mighty Avanti (Big Spruce), Fight For Love (Fit to Fight), Primitive Hall (Dixieland Band) and Signal Tap (Fappiano).

LAST WEEK ON THE TRIPLE CROWN TRAIL

The first meeting of Afternoon Deelites (Private Terms) and Timber Country (Woodman), first and second, respectively, in the GII San Felipe Sunday, set up a showdown in the Santa Anita Derby April 8. The heavy favorite, Afternoon Deelites prevailed by a length, but the champ was gaining ground at the finish and gave three pounds to the winner. The colts will race at equal weights in their next match. "More than people realize, it's a long road from here to the Kentucky Derby, and (the winner) is which one does the best from here to there," said Afternoon Deelites' trainer Richard Mandella. Kent Desormeaux, jockey of the winner, feels his colt has improved mentally. "Everything in the past used to scare him," he said. "If you said 'boo!', he'd be gone. But I felt like I could have roped calves off him (Sunday). He wasn't concerned about anything."

Petionville (Seeking the Gold) also remained unbeaten over the weekend, holding off the late charge of In Character (GB) (Never So Bold) to win the Louisiana Derby in his first graded stakes try. The winner will point for either the Blue Grass or the Wood Memorial. While no plans for the runner-up have been announced, his jockey, Corey Nakatani, said just after the race, "I believe you'll see this colt in Kentucky."

In Kentucky, Car Dealer (Carborundum) stretched out to two turns and picked up his third straight win and his first stakes victory in the John Battaglia Memorial. It is expected that the winner and the third-place finisher, favored Devil's Brew (Devil's Bag), will be back for the Jim Beam S. April 1; runner-up Sikkim (Nepal), who is not a Triple Crown nominee, may head to Florida for the Flamingo S., also on April 1.

THIS WEEK'S TRIPLE CROWN PREPSSaturday, Aqueduct*GOHAM S.-GII, $250,000, 8f

The New York horses get on the road to the Triple Crown this Saturday; the prospective field for the Gotham is: Ave's Flag (Personal Flag), Da Hoss (Gone West), Devious Course (Crafty Prospector), El Alpino (Cognizant), Guadalcanal (Copelan), Onto Luck (Lucky North) and Talkin Man (With Approval). Talkin Man, last year's champion two-year-old colt in Canada, makes his first start of '95. Da Hoss, who started his career at Turf Paradise, is unbeaten in four starts. He tried graded stakes company in New York for the first time in the GIII Best Turn last out and came away with a decisive three-length score; he stretches out to a mile for the first time in the Gotham. El Alpino, a Canadian-bred, ships in from Panama.

Saturday, Golden Gate FieldsGOLDEN STATE DERBY, $150,000, 8.5f

The race makes its debut, headed by Jumron (GB) (Sharpo {GB}), who scratched from Sunday's San Felipe to wait for this spot. The British-bred makes his first start since galloping to a nine-length win in the GIII El Camino Real Derby January 14. Also expected is the Ron McAnally trainee Mr Purple (Deputy Minister), who was second to Afternoon Deelites in the GIII San Vicente Breeders' Cup to start the year, but finished off the board in the GII San Rafael S. last time out. Acquitted (Defense Verdict), third to Peticionville in the Gold Rush S. at Golden Gate in his most recent effort, tops the list of local runners.

Local News: Hialeah

Jockey Mike Gonzalez, the leading rider at Calder in 1987 and at Hialeah in 1988, returned to the saddle Monday at Hialeah after a two-year absence. "My dad got sick; he lost both kidneys and had to be put on dialysis. That really put my life in perspective," said the 33-year-old New Jersey native. "I took some time off and worked in my family's business." Gonzalez had a third in two mounts on his first day back.

News cont.

VELASQUEZ OUT OF ACTION According to Alan Marcus, agent for jockey Jorge Velasquez, the Hall of Famer suffered a hairline fracture in one of his vertebrae in a spill at Hialeah Saturday and will miss at least three weeks. Velasquez was injured when his mount, Maddy's Waquoit, went over the inside hedge soon after the start of the Everglades S.
