LARRY THE LEGEND UNDERGOES SURGERY

Larry the Legend (Local Talent) underwent successful arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip from his left front knee at the Santa Anita Equine Hospital in Arcadia, Ca. At 7:30 a.m. PDT Tuesday, according to owner/trainer Craig Lewis. "The surgery was performed by Dr. Greg Ferraro and the prognosis is good," Lewis said. "We're disappointed to miss the Kentucky Derby, but we're appreciative we have such a nice colt and we look forward to his return with great anticipation." Lewis said the surgical procedure lasted approximately 90 minutes and the colt was back in his stall before 10 a.m. PDT and would probably remain there for at least two weeks while recuperating. Lewis indicated that if the colt's recovery went well, his next major race would be either the Molson Export Million at Woodbine Sept. 17 or the Sept. 30 Super Derby.

KEENELAND 2YO SALE SET RECORD

Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's Shadwell Farm paid a top price of $700,000 for a colt by Dayjur during Keeneland's April Two-Year-Olds-in-Training Sale Tuesday. Shadwell's bid established a sale record, topping the $400,000 Richard W. Mulhall, as agent, paid for Supremo last year. Kirkwood Stables, as agent, sold the Dayjur colt out of stakes winner Aishah, by Alydar. He worked an eighth of a mile twice prior to the sale in :10 1/5, equalling the fastest time at that distance. Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum raced Dayjur, England's Horse of the Year and runnerup in the 1990 Breeders' Cup Sprint to Safely Kept (Horatius). His first foals are 3-year-olds of 1995. Second high price of the day was $380,000 paid by John Oxley of Tulsa, Oklahoma for a colt by Gone West out of Tabolian, by Gregorian. Denali Stud, as agent, sold the colt. The one-day sale grossed $11,865,000 for 115 horses. The average was $103,174. Last year, Keeneland sold 158 horses over two days for $11,571,500, an average of $73,237.

Myself turned the betting on next month's 1000 Guineas upside down with a win here. The daughter of 1989 2000 Guineas hero Nashwan had spent all winter languishing among the 33-1 outsiders for this year's Classics. But, after making her challenge with two furlongs to run and then cruising home ahead of the better-fancied duo Epargris and Red Carnival, she shot in to 7-1 second favouritism for the May 7 1000 Guineas. "She has improved quite a lot since last year," said Chapple-Hyam. "We were going only six furlongs then, though, and having to use up her speed just to stay with the pace. We decided to change tactics with her for this and it has paid off. She hasn't done a great deal of work and will come on for today's run, but so will the others." Connections of the 2nd and 3rd finishers confirmed they would both point for the Guineas as well. Moonshell (Sadler's Wells), trained last season by Henry Cecil but now part of Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin operation based in Dubai, is still favourite for the race at 4-1.

Lotts Talc and Lilly's Moment renew their rivalry in today's $50,000-added Broadway H. Lotts Talc, trained by Tim Kelly, jumped out to a 3-0 lead over the David Smith-trained Lilly's Moment, but the latter broke the schneid in the Hyde Park H. last out. "There's some kind of rivalry between Lilly's Moment and Lotts Talc," said Richard Migliore, Lilly's Moment's jockey. "I'm always aware of her presence and I have a lot of respect for her out there."

NYC EXAMINES FOOTBALL PLAN FOR

AQUEDUCT According to a report in yesterday's New York Daily News, a proposal to use Aqueduct Racetrack for football or soccer games during its off-season is being examined by New York City officials. The paper quotes Forrest Taylor, a mayoral spokesman, as saying the city had received an interesting but "skeletal" proposal from a group he declined to name. NYRA General Manager Kenny Noe confirmed that a NYRA trustee was contacted two months ago by an individual interested in using the property for such a use, and identified Nick Lyras, deputy executive director of the New York City Sports Commission, as one of the parties interested in placing a Canadian football team in Queens.

GENUINE IS SUNDAY STAR Sunday Silence (Halo), sire of both the 2nd and 3rd-placed finishers in the GI One Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) 10 days ago, made that feat seem ordinary Sunday as the sire of both the winner and runner-up in the Satsuki Sho (GI 2000 Guineas) at Nakayama Racecourse. The one-mile event, worth more than $1,332,477 to the winner, went to Genuine (a bay colt out of Croupier Layd, by What Luck), who won by a neck from Tayasu Tsuyoshi (bay colt out of Magaro by Caro).
