REMINGTON REOPENS TODAY After cancelling racing Wednesday and Thursday, Remington Park in Oklahoma City will be open for racing today. The track cancelled racing the past two days out of respect for the victims who were injured or killed, and the rescue crews, law enforcement personnel and multitude of volunteers who worked so valiantly following the tragic explosion at the Federal Building in downtown Oklahoma City Wednesday. "We obviously sympathize with all the families who have been so tragically impacted by this awful event," said Remington Park Executive VP David Vance Thursday. "We realize we're in the entertainment business, and over the last few days nobody has felt like being entertained, but at some point we have to try to return to a normal routine. We'll start tomorrow, but realize it will be a long time before this community is back to normal." Remington Park has scheduled a blood drive for today and racing fans are encouraged to join with track employees in donating blood.

NYS RACING AND WAGERING BOARD CHANGES EQUINE DRUG POSITIVE POLICY Chairman Joseph P. Neglia of the New York State Racing and Wagering Board announced following Wednesday's board meeting that in order to protect the reputation and privacy rights of trainers, the Board will no longer make any public announcements of equine drug positives until trainers are given responsible opportunities to have independent tests of the split samples. If a trainer has a sample retested, no announcement of the equine drug positive will be made until such time as there is a confirmation of the initial drug positive. The Board also approved a contract between the Las Vegas Dissemination Company and the New York Racing Association under which the bets at Nevada race books would now be commingled with on-track pools. By encouraging wagering on New York races, the agreement helps New York tracks compete with other tracks for the burgeoning interstate market.

Friday, Oaklawn Park:

APPLE BLOSSOM H.-GI, $500,000, 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m

PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	Wt
1 Paseana (Arg)	McAnally	McCarron	122
2 Cinnamon Sugar (Ire)	Skiffington	Santos	114
3 Borodislew	Shirreffs	Borel	111
4 Halo America	Barnett	Cloninger	116
5 Heavenly Prize	McGaughey	Day	120
6 Klassy Kim	Stute	Garcia	114
7 Morning Meadow	Barnett	Cloninger	112

Halo America (Waquoit) and Morning Meadow (Meadowlake) will be coupled in the wagering as a John Franks-owned and Bobby Barnett-trained entry.

Two champions are featured in this year's Apple Blossom: '92 and '93 Champion Older Mare Paseana (Arg) (Ahmad) and '94 Champion Three-Year-Old Filly Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold). Eight-year-old Paseana, who comes into the race off a two-month rest, started off the year with a pair of second-place finishes in Feb. at Santa Anita in the GI Santa Maria H. and GI Santa Margarita H. Heavenly Prize has raced only once since her second-place effort in last November's Breeders' Cup Distaff, finishing second to Apple Blossom entrant Halo America in the Oaklawn Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup H. April 2. Heavenly Prize, who worked a bulled three furlongs in :34 at Oaklawn Wed., drops a pound off that effort, while Halo America picks up a pound.

Saturday, Oaklawn Park:

ARKANSAS DERBY-GII, $500,000, 3yo, 1 1/8m

PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	Wt
1 Celestial Star	Newcomb	Guillory	118
2 Beavers Nose	Hebert	Bourque	122
3 Mystery Storm	Robideaux	Perret	122
4a Flitch	Badgett	Sellers	118
5 Rich Man's Gold	Whiting	Day	118
6 Dazzling Falls	Turco	Gomez	122
7a Steprock	Bohannon	Lester	122
8 On Target	McAnally	Borel	122

Flitch (Demons Begone) and Steprock (Lively One) will be coupled in the wagering as a John Ed Anthony-owned entry.

Calumet Farm's Tampa Bay Derby runner-up Composer (Easy Goer), who had been pointing to the Arkansas Derby, was not entered in the race. "It is the right front ankle, but we think the injury is minor," said Calumet's Farm Manager Neil Howard Thursday. "The colt was doing great there. He galloped yesterday and appeared to come back fine. But later a small swelling developed." X-rays of the colt's ankle proved negative.

Triple Threats Notes:

Trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam, who saddled Dr. Devious in the 1992 Kentucky Derby, is making plans to bring Citadeed (Shadeed) to this year's Derby. Chapple-Hyam has been in contact with Horse America, an equine transporter based in New York, according to Mike Hargrave, stall superintendent at Churchill. Hargrave said the plans are in the developing stages. Citadeed, a Kentucky-bred colt who has raced only in England and France, finished third in the $43,746 European Free H. at Newmarket Wednesday in his first start since November.

Petionville (Seeking the Gold) worked a half-mile over Hollywood's fast main track yesterday in :47 3/5.

In Japan, Ski Captain (Storm Bird) worked a half-mile on his uphill training track in :54 4/5 Wed. at the Ritto Training Center. His next work is scheduled for Sunday, April 23. Wed., April 26, the colt will move to Japan Racing Association's Miho Training Center, where plans call for him to work Monday, May 1.

Trainer Nick Zito is expected to arrive at Churchill Downs 1 p.m. today with six horses, including Derby hopeful Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect).

News Continued.

SKY BEAUTY READY TO RACE Trainer Allen Jerkens reported yesterday that 1994 Champion Older Mare Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}) is getting ready for her five-year-old debut in the GIII Vagrancy H., to be run Belmont's opening day May 3. "She's doing pretty good," said Jerkens. "Her last work was about five-eighths and she went in a minute." Sky Beauty also made her '94 debut in the seven-furlong Vagrancy, winning by three lengths in 1:21 3/5.

AUSTRALIAN EASTER YEARLING SALES

RESULTS This year's Australian Easter yearling sales in Sydney, which ended Thursday, were the second best Easter sales on record. The 432 lots sold returned over $31.2 million for an overall average of $72,250. The only better sale was in 1989 when trainer Bart Cummings paid AUS$ 1.5 million for a Biscay colt and the average was over AUS$ 106,000. Top buyer was trainer Gai Waterhouse, who purchased 34 yearlings for a total outlay of AUS$ 3.1 million, while the Domeland Pty Ltd Syndicate (made up mainly of people from Hong Kong and Macau) bought 19 yearlings for more than AUS$ 2.45 million. Waterhouse purchased the sales topper when paying AUS$ 575,000 for a Danehill colt out of Quarantieme (Aus) (Bletchingly {Aus}) for Chinese clients. Danehill, now owned outright by Ireland's Coolmore Stud and sire of the recent AUS$ 2 million Golden Slipper winner Flying Spur, was the top stallion. His 21 lots averaged better than AUS$ 140,000. There was plenty of international interest in the sale and South African agent Robin Bruss, a frequent buyer at the Sydney sales, paid AUS$ 754,500 for 12 yearlings, which will go to race in South Africa.

AUTOTOTE TO OPEN SPORTS COMPLEX IN CONNECTICUT

Autotote Corporation announced yesterday that it will open a sports and entertainment complex in New Haven, Connecticut April 27 that will offer on-site pari-mutuel betting on virtually every horse racing event in North America. The four-story complex, called Sports Haven, will feature live and continuous coverage of Thoroughbred, harness and greyhound racing from over 40 tracks in the U.S. and Canada. Sports Haven's other unique features include the nation's biggest sports bar (capacity: 2,400 people), a 20-ton cylindrical aquarium stocked with exotic sharks, a 200-seat restaurant offering fine dining and an upscale game room featuring pool tables and the latest sports video games.

CRAVEN S.-G3, $57,313, Newmarket, England, 4-20, 3yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:37.08, gd/fm.

1--PAINTER'S ROW (IRE), 124, c, 3, Royal Academy--Road To The Top, by Shirley Heights (GB). O-Lord Weinstock & Hon. Simon Weinstock; B-Ballymacoll Stud Farm Ltd. (Ire); T-Peter Chapple-Hyam; J-J Reid; $34,983.

2--Montjoy, 121, c, 3, Manila--Wendy's Ten, by Tentam. ($9,000 wnl '92 KEENOV; $32,000 yrl '93 KEESEP). O-Sir George Meyrick; $12,789.

3--Nwaamis, 121, c, 3, Dayjur--Lady Cutlass, by Cutlass. O-Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum; $6,113. Margins: NK, HD, 5.

Also ran: Chilly Billy (GB), Denebola Way (Gr).

Denebola Way led from Painter's Row until the 2 1/2-furlong marker, when the latter went ahead, only to be strongly challenged first by Nwaamis and then by Montjoy, who came up the rail. Painter's Row fought on determinedly and ran on well to hold the two challengers comfortably enough at the end. He will now go for the 2000 Guineas on May 6, where he is currently being held at 12-1. Said trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam, "I had really been thinking of Painter's Row as more of a Derby type, but he'll probably have to come back for the Guineas after this. He'll certainly be sharper next time--he threw a splint 10 days ago, and hasn't done a great deal of work." Four of the last 10 Craven S. winners have gone to classic success.

FEILDEN S., $29,764, Newmarket, England, 4-20, 3yo, 9fT, 1:48.53, gd/fm.

1--#@MUNWAR (GB), 123, c, 3, Kalaglow (GB)--Oatfield (GB), by Great Nephew (GB). O-Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum; B-W & R Barnett Ltd. (GB); T-P Walwyn; J-W Carson; $17,980. *Full to Hateel (GB), SW-Ire, GISP-Ger, MSP-Eng, $205,649.

2--Flemesfirth, 123, c, 3, Alleged--Etherleda, by Diesis (GB). ($45,000 wnl '92 KEENOV; $290,000 yrl '93 KEESEP). $6,640.

3--Eltish, 131, c, 3, Cox's Ridge--Nimble Feet, by Danzig. $3,175. Margins: 2 1/2, 1 1/4, 3 1/2.

Eltish, making his first start since finishing second in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, held the lead early but lost his advantage to Munwar before the half-way mark and failed to show any pace at the end of the race, clearly being outrun by two improving colts. Said Eltish's trainer Henry Cecil, "He was trying to give two potentially useful colts eight pounds. Furthermore, he had been working lazily at home and he might just have needed the race. He was, after all, beaten first time out last season." Cecil added that a decision on the Kentucky Derby has not yet been reached. "We are going to put our feet up by the fire and mull the matter over, as there is no point rushing these things," he said. Added Grant Pritchard-Gordon, racing manager for the colt's owner, Prince Khalid Abdullah, "Time may show we were giving weight to two good horses, so Eltish may still go to Churchill Downs. Pat (Eddery) said we shouldn't be too discouraged by this defeat. But obviously, the final decision rests with Prince Khalid." The winner, Munwar, will be pointed for the Lingfield Derby Trial May 13.

$200,000 California Derby-G3.

Local News: Newmarket

Charnwood Forest (GB) (Warning {GB}) is on course for Group One races after breaking his maiden in Thursday's Granby Maiden S. at Newmarket. The Henry Cecil trainee came into the race with a big reputation, having worked with last year's Sussex S. winner Distant View at home. "This is potentially a nice horse," said Cecil. "The 2000 Guineas will come too soon for him. But he may go for the Irish equivalent. The alternative would be to find another little race and prepare him for the St. James Palace S. at Royal Ascot."

Hot Jaws, winner of his last 3 starts at Oaklawn against lesser company, stepped up to the stakes ranks and stalked the leaders down the backside, waiting until upper stretch to take command for his first graded stakes score. "He has trained so well and is so good right now," said winning trainer Jeff Jacobs. "I said that if he was ever going to beat these horses, it would be now." Demaloot Demashoot, who took a $60,000 alw at Santa Anita in his last start March 10, set the early fractions then held on for 2nd. Mr. Cooperative, 9th and last after the first 1/4-mile, displayed his customary late kick to gain the show spot. 9-5 favorite D'HALLEVANT (Ogygian), winner of the 6 furlong GIII Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita in his last outing Jan. 28, was 7th.
