CELTIC SWING SHARP IN RETURN

Celtic Swing (GB) (Damister) maintained his unbeaten record with a workmanlike victory in yesterday's G3 Tripleprint Greenham S. at Newbury, England, winning eased up in a time just a half-second off the seven-furlong course record over the rain-softened ground. "Celtic Swing did it well and I'm sure he'll improve for the run," said owner Peter Savill. "But this is only the first step on a long road. Things will get a lot more difficult from now on." Willie Carson aboard runner-up Bahri, who had won only a modest race at Nottingham in four prior starts, thought his colt might have beaten the champ with a better trip. "If Bahri had settled, I think he might have won," said Carson. But winning jockey Kevin Darley disagreed. "My horse was only dosing once he took (the lead), and I think Willie will change his mind once he watches the race-recording." The two will meet again in the 2000 Guineas May 6; Celtic Swing is currently being held at even-money for that race.

Also Ran: Niner's Home, Minister Wife, Mia's Hope.

Second in the GI Santa Anita Oaks in her last start, Urbane was making her first start in five weeks and her first outside of California but was sent off the overwhelming choice in the six-horse field. She took the lead soon after the start, was headed briefly by Post It midway on the turn, but regained the lead at will when asked and drew rapidly clear. "Down the backstretch, she was very relaxed," said jockey Eddie Delahoussaye. "When I called on her, she just rebroke and I said, 'well, it should be all over with.' She's a nice filly." Urbane is expected to point next for the May 5 Kentucky Oaks which her trainer, Brian Mayberry, won last year with Sardula (Storm Cat).

The winner of the Remington Park Derby in his last start, Dazzling Falls made a 3-wide move on the turn to collar the leaders and drew clear through the stretch to go two-for-two with blinkers on. Trainer Chuck Turco said that if the colt came out of the race in good shape, he would be pointed for the Kentucky Derby. "If the horse stays sound, doesn't show a lot of fatigue or any kind of swelling, we'll be there." Dazzling Falls is the only Arkansas Derby starter considering Kentucky.

Margins: NK, 4HF, 2 1/4. Odds: 3.20, 1.70, 22.10.

Oliver's Twist opened 1995 with three straight 5th-place finishes at Gulfstream facing the likes of Thunder Gulch and Suave Prospect before returning to Maryland with a 2nd-place effort in the Private Terms S. Coming from off the pace here, he edged past Western Echo in a tough stretch drive and will now be pointed to the Preakness S., according to trainer Bill Boniface. "I think we have a real shot in the Preakness with him. But we'll wait and see how he comes out of this race first."

LEXINGTON S.-GII, $150,000a, 3yo, 8.5f

PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1 Guadalcanal	Hess Jr.	Bailey	7-2
2 Star Standard	Zito	Day	2-1
3 Royal Mitch	Ebert	Davis	9-5
4 Hidden Source	Frankel	Sellers	5-1
5 Bick	Nafzger	Perret	4-1

Jockey Jerry Bailey, aboard Guadalcanal (Copelan), is a perfect four-for-four in this race, winning it in 1982 (when it was called the Calumet Purse), 1990, '91 and '92. Royal Mitch (Homebuilder), second in the GIII Flamingo S. last time, stretched his legs down the Keeneland stretch yesterday. "I just two-minute licked him down the lane," said his trainer, Dennis Ebert. "He went three-eighths in about :45. That's really all I wanted--just a strong gallop, that's all. He's probably better than he's ever been."

TRIPLE THREAT NOTES

In Character (GB) (Never So Bold {GB}), scheduled to leave for Louisville today, worked five furlongs in a bullet :58 3/5 at Santa Anita yesterday.

Mecke (Maudlin), third in the Jim Beam S. in his most recent start, could use today's $50,000 Citation S. at Hialeah as his Derby prep. The colt would earn a ticket to Churchill with a win in the nine-furlong turf event.

Billed as a showdown between the even-money favorite, DEVIL HIS DUE (Devil's Bag) and 3-2 PARTY MANNERS (Private Account), the Excelsior instead featured a one-two finish for trainer Gasper Moschera. Iron Gavel, coming off two allowance wins, controlled the pace from the start and surprised even his trainer. "I didn't see him really hanging on," said Moschera. "I really saw Iron Gavel as kind of a rabbit." But no one ran with the pacesetter; the two favorites didn't challenge at any stage of the race. "I thought we had good position," said Jose Santos of Devil His Due, "but at the 1/2-mile pole he switched leads and when I tapped his shoulders he didn't respond the way he should have. He looked great and all last week, he trained real good, he just didn't have it in him today."

Claimed two starts back for $50,000 after winning a one-mile event, Farmonthefreeway was third in his first start for his new connections and was sent off the 9-5 choice here on the strength of that effort. Sitting close early, he took the lead on the turn, opened up daylight in the stretch, but was all out to hold off Dibbs N' Dubbs in the final strides.

Wolf Prince made just two starts in 1994 after an unsuccessful journey to the Epsom Derby at 3, where he finished 8th in a 16-horse field. Raced just once thus far in '95, in an allowance at Aiken, he nonetheless made easy work of this company, dueling for the lead for the first seven furlongs before pulling away to win under a Julie Krone hand ride. The 2-1 favorite, SENTIMENTAL MOI (Maudlin), was last in the 8-horse field.

ADAIYKA (IRE) (f, 4, Doyoun--Adarika, by Kings Lake), originally campaigned in France and the winner of the G3 Prix Chloe at Evry two back, made her first U.S. start count here after a winter spent at Payson Park.

Off a step slow, she raced six wide down the back stretch, came out further on the turn to collar the leaders and went on to win by a head as the 6-5 choice. Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-0, $75,794.

GAL IN A RUCKUS (f, 3, Bold Ruckus--Quillummo, by Gummo), unraced since a 5th-place finish in the GIII Golden Rod at Churchill last November, trained at Palm Beach Downs over the winter and returned to Keeneland this spring with a bullet five-furlong workout in preparation for this race. In trouble at the start, she chased the pacesetter until the eighth pole, then held on to win by a neck at 3-1. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $34,560.

SEVEN N SEVEN (c, 3, Septieme Ciel--Heat Spell (SP), by Cyane) had managed no better than two 4th-place finishes in three lifetime starts coming into the race, but found this field to his liking as he pressed the early pace, took a short lead at the top of the stretch and held on to win by 1 3/4. The 2-5 favorite, CAYELI (Seattle Slew), broke through the gate prior to the start but was off slowly once the gates officially opened, rushing up and then weakening into the stretch to finish 5th. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, $22,006.
