RED CARNIVAL OUT OF GUINEAS Red Carnival (Mr. Prospector), third when conceding weight to all but one of her rivals in last week's G3 Shadwell Stud Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket, will miss the 1000 Guineas after suffering a setback. The Michael Stoute trainee had been a 10-1 shot for the Newmarket classic May 7, but was counted out of contention yesterday when a veterinary examination revealed a knee injury. Stoute, who will saddle Gay Gallanta (Woodman) for the Guineas, said he hopes to have Red Carnival racing again by the summer. This latest defection has led to the shortening of odds on other Guineas contenders. Harayir (Gulch), runner-up in the European Free Handicap, now heads the ante-post market at 7-2.

HORSEMEN'S CHOICE SALES RESULTS The first day of the Horsemen's Bloodstock inaugural Horsemen's Choice Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, held April 22 in Ocala, Florida, saw a total of 32 hips sold for $401,100, an average of $12,534. There were 26 two-year-olds who did not reach their reserves during the first session of the two-day sale. Copper Burns, a bay colt by Vicksburg--Copper Tears (SW), by Nose For Money, consigned by Crystal Eclipse Stable, agent, brought the day's high bid of $30,000. The half-brother to stakes winners Copper Med (Medieval Man) and Copper Man (Medieval Man) was purchased by Steve Dwoskin, agent.

TRIPLE THREAT NOTES Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect), runner-up in the Blue Grass S., worked an easy five furlongs in 1:04 1/5 at Churchill yesterday. Wood Memorial winner Talkin Man (With Approval) breezed five furlongs at Keeneland in 1:02; the colt is tentatively scheduled to van to Churchill Friday and work over the Louisville strip next Sunday or Monday. Trainer John Ward will wait 'til Tuesday to ship Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore) from Keeneland to Churchill. As for stablemate Jambalaya Jazz (Dixieland Band), Ward said, "We're going to train and see how everything is. Then we'll make up our minds. If we decide not to run him in the Derby, the Preakness is the next goal." Mecke (Maudlin), second in yesterday's Citation S. at Hialeah, will make his next start in the Derby. "We leave for Kentucky April 30," said trainer Manny Tortora.

Margins: HD, 1, 2. Odds: 2.60, 13.30, 26.90. Also Ran: Sandpit (Br), River Rhythm, Square Cut, Ofuscador (Brz), Bataillon (Fr). Making his first appearance in California after racing in the United Arab Emirates, England, France, New York and Hong Kong in his last 10 starts, jetsetter Red Bishop proved once again that he is at home on any racetrack. Sent off the second choice in the eight-horse field, the bay Kentucky-bred rated kindly under jockey Mike Smith 'til they were a half-mile from home, then kicked it into gear, first heading the odds-on choice SANDPIT (BRZ) (Baynoun {Ire}), then holding off the determined late run of longshot Special Price to take the photo. The win is Red Bishop's third straight after ending '94 with a victory in the Hong Kong International Vase, then taking Hong Kong's Queen Elizabeth II Cup to start '95. The favorite Sandpit, looking for his third in a row, shadowed the speedy SQUARE CUT (Assert {Ire}) to the top of the stretch, moved to the lead as they headed for home, but tired in the drive and had to settle for fourth.

Despite an authoritative win over 4-5 choice Royal Mitch, Star Standard will not be heading to Louisville to join stablemate Suave Prospect in the Kentucky Derby. "I think it's too close," said trainer Nick Zito. "He's a strong horse, but he's not very big and he really likes his time between races. You could never rule out the Preakness." Despite the easy margin in this short field, Star Standard's trip was not uneventful. "He was kind of goofing in the stretch," said jockey Pat Day. "He came down there looking at the tracks from the starting gate and jumped the tracks and changed leads. He wasn't 100% in the game the last sixteenth of a mile, but he certainly got the job done." The runner-up ducked in at the start, hitting the gate, and did not care for the sloppy going, according rider Robbie Davis.

Local News: Illinois

The inquiry sign is flashing following the photo finish in the Arlington Heights' non-binding casino gambling referendum. The April 4 referendum was passed in favor of the casinos by a vote of 9,475 to 9,437, with approximately 42 percent of those eligible casting ballots. However, Phil Crusius, coordinator for the anti-casino Concerned Citizens for Self Determination, and four other village residents have requested a recount of votes in 21 of the 84 precincts. "We're not suggesting any foul play," said Crusius. "But with the pro-track side getting just 38 more votes, it is a tie vote."

Local News: Hollywood

Hollywood Park, which opens for its 1995 Spring/Summer meet this Friday, April 28, will offer racing fans the chance to "own" a stable with its Dream Stable Contest. For an entry fee of $20, contestants will be able to build a fantasy 10-horse stable of claiming horses; they will "own" their runners for 49 days from the date of their fictitious claim, and all money and races won will be added to the stable's account. Cash prizes ranging from $500 to $10,000 will be given in the categories of Net Purse Earnings and Total Stable Victories. Fans must be in attendance at Hollywood to enter the contest and to make claims; entries and claims will be accepted April 28 through May 20.

Local News: Hialeah

For the first time, the Amateur Riders Club of America will hold a leg of its Fegentri World Championship Series in Florida. Ten riders from eight countries will compete at Hialeah April 29; topping the list of amateur jockeys expected to compete is last year's world champion Christophe Mosse, a 31-year-old teacher from France. Last year, ARCA members competed in 63 races in 10 countries and at 46 different racetracks. All riders in the Hialeah event will tack between 132 and 140 pounds, and horses will be assigned by a random draw at the time of entry.

Margins: 1 1/2, 2, NK.

Also ran: Pinfloron (Fr), Shockadelica (GB).

The French 2000 Guineas (Poule d'Essai des Poulains) May 14 will be next for Atticus, who shadowed the pacesetter SHOCKADELICA (Machiavellian) and then took over on the turn for home. He was briefly challenged by Petit Poucet, but the latter failed to quicken and Atticus ran out a comfortable winner.

PRIX DE LA GROTTTE-G3, $75,243, Longchamp, France, 4-23, 3yo, f, 8fT, 1:48.40, vy sf/hld.

Margins: NK, 1, 2.

Also ran: Ghostly (Ire), Collecta (Fr), Fairy Path, Tirolling (Ire), Vadlamixa (Fr), Desert Mixa (Fr).

Matiara will go next for the French 1000 Guineas (Poule d'Essai de Pouliches) May 14 after this battling victory over Shaanzi, who had taken the lead on the turn and looked the probable winner. Matiara fought well for the win, but it already looks like she will be better over a longer trip and the French Oaks (Prix de Diane) is likely for her as well.
