SERENA'S SONG TO OAKS? While trainer D. Wayne Lukas said yesterday that an announcement concerning Serena's Song (Rahy) would be made this weekend, jockey agent Bob Meldahl believes the top three-year-old filly will make her next start in the Kentucky Oaks and not in the Derby. Meldahl, who books mounts for the filly's regular rider, Corey Nakatani, said Friday, "Lukas told me he was running in the Oaks. I'm riding In Character (GB) (Never So Bold {GB}) in the Derby." Not making a commitment either way to reporters, Lukas said yesterday, "You do leave something out there if you run in the Derby, but you also dare to be great."

NEW PARTNER JOINS TALKIN MAN TEAM
David Willmot, president of Kinghaven Farms, announced Friday that Kinghaven and Mrs. Helen Stollery have sold a one-third interest in Kentucky Derby hopeful Talkin Man (With Approval) to financier Peter Wall of Vancouver, British Columbia for an undisclosed sum. The agreement provides that Kinghaven will continue as managing partner but does not determine or limit where the colt will stand at stud. Willmot said that, should the Canadian champ race in all three legs of the Triple Crown, he will carry Kinghaven's silks in the Derby, Mrs. Stollery's silks in the Preakness, and Mr. Wall's silks in the Belmont.

TIKKANEN READY FOR RETURN Tikkanen (Cozzene), winner of last year's Breeders' Cup Turf, will begin his 1995 campaign in next Friday's G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket. Jonathan Pease, the colt's trainer, was hoping to reintroduce his four-year-old in Sunday's G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp, but said, "The going is too heavy in France, so he will go to Newmarket." Possibles for the Jockey Club S. are Overbury (Caerleon), Broadway Flyer (Theatrical {Ire}), Further Flight (*Pharly {Fr}) and Only Royale (Caerleon).

Margins: NK, HD, 2. Odds: 1.60a, 2.30, 6.20.
Also Ran: Class O Lad, Flashing River, Mahogany Hall, Fight for Love.

Wildly Joyous, off since a 4th-place allowance finish at Santa Anita March 9, swerved out slightly at the start lightly bumping Danville, gained a slim lead, then led the rest of the way through soft fractions to notch his first stakes victory by a neck. "I wasn't planning to go all that slow," said winning jockey Mickey Walls. "I was hoping to let him roll a little faster, but he was giving me problems in the first turn--looking and gawking. I never got him really under control till halfway down the backstretch. By that time, we had already gone a half-mile and we weren't going that fast, so he had something left." Powerful Punch, who trailed the 7-horse field through most of the running, rallied late for the show spot. "He made a gallant run," said his rider, Mike Smith. "When we got up to (the leaders), I just couldn't get by them. Another couple of jumps and I might have."

SUCCESSFUL OBS SALE CONCLUDES There were 538 juveniles sold during the four sessions of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Annual Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training, which concluded Thursday. The sale grossed $7,575,900 for an average of $14,082, up a healthy 24 percent from last year's average of $11,322. The highest price of Thursday's final session was brought by Leesto, a gray or roan colt by With Approval--Loren's Baby (Czaravich). Consigned by Marta Meyers, agent, the colt, who had been previously sold as a Keeneland November weanling for $27,000, was purchased by Scott Savin for $85,000.

GARY STEVENS BACK FROM HONG KONG

Jockey Gary Stevens will return from Hong Kong to America this week, a month before his contract with trainer Steve Leung was to expire. Stevens will ride Thunder Gulch (Gulch) in the Kentucky Derby, then return to Hollywood Park next Sunday on a permanent basis. Said his agent, Ron Anderson, "(Hong Kong) was a great experience. It provided a whole different outlook on the business, because they only race two days a week. The people look forward to every day of racing and it's on the front page of the sports section every day. But the two days a week left just a little too much down time. There wasn't that much to do, and you're 15 hours from home. You can't just jump on a plane and come home."

OJC AID DELAYED The Ontario Jockey Club will have to wait a little longer for financial assistance from its Thoroughbred horsemen. The OJC is asking the group for $2.2 million to help cover the cost of its teletheater operations, and an additional $2.4 million for ongoing costs at Fort Erie racetrack. Members of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association met Thursday night but could not agree on a plan to aid the troubled organization, which is carrying a better than $71 million debt load. "Some felt we should lend the OJC the money. All felt we should help. The question is--what form of help?" said HBPA President Carmen Di Paola. The HBPA's Executive Committee will meet to work out a proposal, which must then be approved by the members; the date of the next HBPA meeting was not announced. There was also no announcement yesterday regarding the imminent sale of Greenwood Racetrack. It had been expected that the OJC would enter into an agreement with Toronto-area developers Marco Muzzo and Fred DeGasperis to sell the track, which was closed for live racing in 1993 but is still maintained as a teletheater, for a price believed to be about $25 million.

SHOWBOAT SELLS CHARLES TOWN OPTION

Showboat Operating Company, a New Jersey-based casino operation which acquired an option to purchase Charles Town Races Inc. last February 17, informed track president D. Keith Wagner yesterday that the option to buy the assets of the Thoroughbred facility has been sold to Bryant Development Company of Virginia. Bryant Development paid Showboat an undisclosed amount for the option, then paid Charles Town owners $250,000 to extend the option through March 31, 1996. Plans for the financially troubled racetrack were not immediately announced, but William L. Bryant, president of the Bryant Development Company, said yesterday, "My company is currently going through a period of due diligence in the process of selecting a first class track operator and formulating detailed plans for development of the property. It has always been my feeling that the Charles Town, West Virginia area has great potential for economic growth and prosperity. My goal is to be a part of the future of this dynamic region."

NEW YORK POLICIES UNDER REVIEW

Joseph P. Neglia, chairman of the New York State Racing and Wagering Board, has announced that he and board member Bennett Liebman have directed "an intensive review of the Board's current policies and procedures" with the aim of making significant changes in the near future. New York's schedule of penalties for drug positives involving "medications that the industry regards as therapeutic and non-performance enhancing," which has come under fire recently as being too harsh, will be a focus of the review. The study could also prompt the implementation of reciprocal licensing arrangements with other racing jurisdictions.

KENTUCKY DERBY NOTES

Flitch (Demons Begone), runner-up in the Arkansas Derby last time out, is on the grounds at Churchill and will "train as if he is running" in the Derby, according to Scotty Everett, assistant to trainer Bill Badgett. Everett said Badgett is scheduled to arrive in Louisville Sunday or Monday, but that a decision on the colt's Derby status would not be reached until entries are drawn Thursday.

Local News: Pimlico

Concern (Broad Brush), third in the GI Oaklawn H. last time out, worked a half-mile in :48 3/5 at Pimlico yesterday. The four-year-old is expected to make his next start in the GI Pimlico Special.

Saturday marks the debut of full-card commingled simulcast wagering on Hollywood Park and Churchill Downs at Pimlico.

Local News: Garden State Park

Taking advantage of the door recently opened by the New Jersey Racing Commission, Garden State will offer full-card simulcasting of the races from Belmont Park beginning May 3. Freehold Raceway became the first New Jersey track to take the signal from New York when it simulcast the racing from Aqueduct Friday. The New Jersey Racing Commission will re-examine the status of the New York simulcasts May 18.

Four of the last 15 winners of this race have gone on to success in the Epsom Derby. Trainer John Gosden, looking for his fourth straight win in this event, sends out the undefeated Torrential. Henry Cecil will saddle Balliol Boy, winner of his lone start at two and making his '95 bow. "He has matured over the winter and we have been pleased with the work he has done this spring," said Cecil of the half-brother to Arc winner Saumarez.

Local News: Sandown, England

Spectrum (Rainbow Quest) was installed 16-1 fourth favourite for the Epsom Derby after his easy victory in yesterday's Tudor Condition S. at Sandown. The Peter Chapple-Hyam colt, last until turning into the straight, showed an electrifying change of pace to go a length and a half clear of his rivals at the finish. Said Chapple-Hyam, "I had thought about running him in one of the Guineas races, but he wants further. However, I couldn't be more pleased with this and will discuss where he goes for his Derby trial with his owner, Lord Weinstock."
