URBANE INJURED Urbane (Citidancer), second as the odds-on choice in the Kentucky Oaks, was injured in the race and is still in Kentucky under the care of Dr. Alex Harthill. "She was banged around in the race and was hurt," said her trainer, Brian Mayberry. "How badly she is injured, we don't know right now. It might not be anything serious. Dr. Harthill is reporting to us every day."

FOURSTARDAVE RETURNS SUNDAY Veteran New York-bred Fourstardave (Compliance), the 10-year-old millionaire who has won at least one race at Saratoga for each of the past eight years, will make his return to action Sunday in Belmont's restricted Kingston H. The gelding hasn't raced since suffering a condylar fracture of the left front ankle when third to Lure and Paradise Creek in the GII Bernard Baruch H. last August 12. "They put two screws in the ankle," said his trainer, Leo O'Brien, who was injured himself last Sunday when a horse he was saddling at Belmont knocked him to the ground, breaking his right shoulder. "Once they do that, he's supposed to be as good as ever. We gave him a nice, long vacation in Florida and he went back into training two months ago. He's been very enthusiastic about his training. He gives you everything he's got in the mornings just like he does in the afternoons, and those kind of horses are rare." As for his own mishap, O'Brien said, "It's okay--I'm a lefty." Fourstardave will be making his 94th career start in the Kingston; the chestnut has won 21 races, including 13 stakes, and earned $1,626,641.

OJC ANNOUNCES PURSE HIKE Pat Keenan, President and CEO of The Ontario Jockey Club, yesterday announced a five percent increase in purses for both harness and Thoroughbred races. The raise will become effective Wednesday, May 17 for Thoroughbred racing and Friday, May 19 for harness racing. Said Keenan, "This increase...is a direct result of the growth of our Champions off-track wagering network and the aggressive marketing of our simulcast product in Canada and the United States. When we started Champions we had one outlet. Now we have 24 in the greater Metro Toronto area and they are contributing greatly to revenues."

Western Echo (Eastern Echo) battled bronchitis all winter in Florida; forced to the sidelines for two months, he came back to miss by a neck going five furlongs, then stretched out to a mile and an eighth with Kent Desormeaux in the irons for the first time and lost another photo in the GIII Federico Tesio. The colt showed his class at two when he finished second by neck to Thunder Gulch in the GII Remsen; he has worked sharply for trainer Bud Delp since the Tesio, and should improve in his second two-turn start off the layoff. He gets seven pounds from the two favorites.

Petionville (Seeking the Gold) disappointed in the Santa Anita Derby, pressing the pace before tiring to finish seventh. The colt picks up two pounds off that effort, and he is sure to be challenged early by Da Hoss (Gone West); suspect at the distance.

The Bet: Western Echo to win, and in exactas over Royal Mitch (Homebuilder) and Peaks And Valleys (Mt. Livermore).

HICKEY SUSPENSION UPHELD Citing the "wide discretionary powers" of the Illinois Racing Board, Cook County Circuit Court Judge Thomas Durkin yesterday upheld owner/trainer Noel Hickey's one-year suspension, imposed last year after six of his horses tested positive for Albuterol. Arlington International Racecourse stewards originally suspended Hickey for six months, but increased the penalty to a year after he lodged an appeal. Hickey, who has won three trainer titles and four owner titles since Arlington reopened in 1989, said he will appeal Judge Durkin's decision in the First District Appellate Court of Illinois.

ST. LOUIS RIVERBOAT FOR DUCHOSSOIS It remains to be seen if the Illinois legislature will give Arlington International Racecourse owner Dick Duchossois the "racing industry" riverboat casino that he covets for his track. However, it appears that he is going to get a riverboat casino on the Missouri side of the Mississippi River, off St. Louis. The St. Louis City Commission has chosen the $80 million complex proposed by Duchossois and his son, Craig, and two other Chicago-based investors, the Hyatt Corporation and Levy Restaurants. The next steps in the process are winning the approval of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen and the Missouri Gaming Commission. Although the St. Louis riverboat will be located 350 miles southwest of Arlington International, it is expected to have a negative impact on Illinois racing. Duchossois' boat will be competing for gambling dollars with Fairmount Park, just across the Mississippi River in Collinsville, Illinois.

PREAKNESS NOTES

Jockey Kent Desormeaux has picked up the mount aboard Our Gatsby (Strike Gold) in the second jewel in the Triple Crown. The colt, runner-up in the Derby Trial last out, will join Thunder Gulch (Gulch) and Timber Country (Woodman) on the plane from Churchill to Pimlico Wednesday. Two Preakness runners are expected to report to the Pimlico Stakes Barn Saturday: Itron (Quick Style) will arrive from Retama Park in Texas; Tejano Run (Tejano) ships in from Keeneland.

Margins: NK, 8, 4. Odds: 9.30, 6.40, 10.70.

Island Of Silver, making her U.S. debut after winning five of nine in England and Dubai, pressed the pace from the start, took a clear lead at the top of the stretch and held on gamely to best Starry Val at the wire. The 3-5 choice HADEE MAE (Goldlust), looking for her third straight after winning in the slop at Gulfstream and Pimlico, was up with the leaders early but weakened in the drive to finish fourth.

7th-BEL, $36,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:15 4/5, my. KINGS FICTION (c, 3, Believe the Queen--I'm a Storyteller, by I'ma Hell Raiser), fifth after showing brief speed in the GIII Bay Shore S. last out, had taken an Aqueduct allowance two starts back. Showing a fondness for the muddy going here, the grey was sent up to the lead after a half and widened his advantage through the lane to win by 6 1/2 lengths at 5-2. Lifetime Record: SW, 12-4-0-1, $95,494. O-Hardwicke Stable. B-Elisabeth Jerkens (NJ). T-H Allen Jerkens.

LOVE TUNNEL (f, 3, Mining--Leveraged Buyout, by Spectacular Bid), entered for the race 'main track only', got a break in the weather and drew in as the odds-on favorite in a field reduced to five by late scratches.

Ridden by Mike Smith, the roan filly jumped out to a clear lead early and never looked back, coasting to an 11-length romp and paying $3.80. The winner is a ½ to Rosa Eterna (Eternal Prince), GSW-Peru. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $45,300.

SARANAC S.-GIII, $75,000a, 3yo, 8fT

The field, in post position order, will be: Crimson Guard (Danzig), Perez; Endsaseeket (Ends Well), Migliore; Treasurer (GB) (Darshaan), Santos; Robby Two (Kris S.), Santagata; Hail Orphan (Tasso), Velazquez; Claramount Hill (Claramount), Samyn; Larchmont (Horatius), Alvarado; Debonair Dan (Danzatore), Chavez; Fidgetyfeet (Dixieland Band), Luzzi; and Candy Cone (Chas Conerly), Wynter. Treasurer, once considered for the Kentucky Derby, won three of four in Dubai this year and drops 18 pounds off his last victory; his trainer, one-time Team Lukas assistant Kieran McLaughlin, sent out Dubai invader Island Of Silver to victory in yesterday's feature race at Belmont.

Local News: Belmont Park

New York State Racing and Wagering Board Chairman Jerry Bilinski yesterday announced that the rule which allows horses trained by the same trainer but owned by different individuals to run uncoupled in stake, allowance and maiden special weight races, enacted on an experimental basis in February, will continue to be in effect through the Belmont Fall Meet, which ends October 31, 1995.

Local News: Hollywood Park

Bridge of Royalty (Slew's Royalty), who set a Hollywood track record of :50 2/5 for four-and-a-half furlongs in his career debut Thursday, has been purchased by Sid and Jenny Craig. The two-year-old Cal-bred is now in the barn of trainer Bill Spawr, who said the colt will be pointed for the Westchester S. June 4.

Sassy O (Ten Gold Pots), winner of Thursday's first simulcast race from Woodbine, set a Hollywood record for $2 simulcast win bet when she paid $252.40; the three-year-old filly did not pay anything to place, as there was not a single place ticket purchased in California on the outsider; she returned $16.20 to show.
