GO FOR GIN INJURED, RETIRED According to a story in Thursday's Daily Racing Form, 1994 Kentucky Derby winner Go For Gin (Cormorant) has been retired due to a strained tendon injury. The injury was discovered after the four-year-old colt breezed five furlongs in 1:02 at Belmont Park Monday. "It's really a shame," trainer Nick Zito told the Form, "because he was just getting good and his best races were ahead of him. We've been sprinting him this year with the Met Mile in mind, and he last race set him up perfect for the race." In Go For Gin's final career start May 6, he finished third in the GIII Churchill Downs H. at seven furlongs. In addition to the Kentucky Derby, Go For Gin won the GII Remsen S. and Chief's Crown S. at Aqueduct and the Preview S. at Gulfstream. He retires with a record of 19-5-7-2 and earnings of $1,380,866. Owned by William Condren and Joseph Cornacchia, the Kentucky-bred colt will begin his career at stud in 1996 at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Kentucky.

AVERAGE JUMPS 29% AT BARRETT'S Barretts' Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training in Pomona, California concluded Wednesday with 205 two-year-olds selling for a gross of $3,945,500 and an average of $19,246, up 28.7 percent from the 1994 average of $14,951. The median price for the two-day sale was $13,000, which represented a 53 percent increase over last year's median of $8,500. There were 59 two-year-olds reported as not sold. The highest price of Wednesday's second and final session was brought by Devil's Troikas, a dark bay or brown colt by Devil's Bag--Three Secrets (Secretariat). Consigned by Clear View Bloodstock, agent, the colt, who had previously sold for $25,000 as a Keeneland September yearling, went for $120,000 to Mr. Sid Craig.

PREAKNESS CANDIDATES ARRIVE FROM CHURCHILL DOWNS The Air Tex charter flight carrying Preakness hopefuls Thunder Gulch (Gulch), Timber Country (Woodman), Mecke (Maudlin), Talkin Man (With Approval), Our Gatsby (Strike Gold) and Black-Eyed Susan entrant Serena's Song (Rahy) arrived at Baltimore-Washington International Airport Wednesday morning. The horses were then vanned to Pimlico Race Course, where they arrived shortly before noon. The plane's takeoff was delayed for about an hour due to storms in the Louisville area.

ZITO EXPECTS STAR STANDARD TO SET PREAKNESS PACE Trainer Nick Zito expects to see Star Standard (Risen Star), winner of the GII Lexington S. at Keeneland April 23, on the lead again in the Preakness. "He's gonna be wingin'. I don't care how much speed there is, he's going. I don't care if he goes in :21, he'll be going," Zito said. "I think we've got quality speed, class speed. He showed that this winter, and he gets better and better. He's an improving horse." Zito added that Chris McCarron will ride Star Standard Saturday. "He's the ultimate professional," the trainer said of McCarron. "He'll do a good job for us."

PANA BRASS VANNED TO PIMLICO Robert Perez's Pana Brass (Dixieland Brass) jogged at Belmont Park Wednesday morning. The colt was then scheduled to get on a van about noon and arrive in Baltimore about 5 p.m.

CITADEED'S CONDITION IMPROVES Trainer Rick Violette walked injured Citadeed (Shadeed) around the shedrow of Pimlico's stakes barn for about an hour yesterday morning. Violette reported that an ankle infection, which had caused Citadeed to be withdrawn from the Preakness field Tuesday, was "90 percent" better. "It's remarkable how much the inflammation is down," he said. "If this had happened earlier in the week, we probably could have run him here. But he missed an important breeze (Tuesday), so we have to go to plan B." Plan B may entail the colt shipping to Belmont today to point to either the Peter Pan S. or the Belmont S.

IRISH 2000 GUINEAS FIELD TAKES SHAPE

Bahri (Riverman), third behind Pennekamp and Celtic Swing in the British 2000 Guineas, has been supplemented to run in Sunday's Irish equivalent at The Curragh. Willie Carson is expected to partner the John Dunlop-trained colt. Fifteen colts accepted for the Irish Classic. In addition to early 6-4 favorite Bahri, they were: Adjareli (Ire) (Nishapour {Fr}), Burden of Proof (Ire) (Fairy King), Celladonia (Ire) (Green Desert), Charillus (GB) (Be My Chief), Definite Article (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), Fill the Bill (Ire) (Bob Back), I'm Supposin (Ire) (Posen), Louviers (Steinlen {GB}), Nautical Pet (Ire) (Petorius {Ire}), Nwaamis (Dayjur), Oscar Schindler (Ire) (Royal Academy), Prince Arthur (Ire) (Fairy King), Shemaran (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) and Spectrum (Ire) (Rainbow Quest).

ROMARIN TO MISS EARLY TIMES DIXIE H.

Romarin (Braz) (Itajara {Braz}), 1 1/4-length winner of the GII Early Times Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs May 6, will miss the next race in the series, the GII Early Times Dixie H. at Pimlico this Saturday, due to a cough. Trainer Richard Mandella will now take the five-year-old off the turf and point him to the $500,000 Metropolitan H. at Belmont Park Memorial Day.

JUYUSH (Silver Hawk) led early but after 2 furlongs PIPE MAJOR (IRE) (TIROL {Ire}) took over and led into the straight. With 1/4-mile to run, Classic Cliche made good progress and took the lead with a furlong to run, with Annus Mirabilis kicking in from the rear and Presenting, the favorite, making his move on the wide outside. Presenting failed to handle the soft ground, but Classic Cliche had a battle with Annus Mirabilis to the line and proved superior by a comfortable half-length. Classic Cliche, who was not entered in the Epsom Derby, may now be supplemented to the June 4 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. Godolphin racing manager Simon Crisford said, "Classic Cliche really thrived in Dubai during the winter and he had been working really well recently. We knew he had improved." Presenting's trainer John Gosden blamed the soft ground for the defeat of his 11/8 favorite and made a plea to the Epsom management to continue watering the course for the June 10 Epsom Derby. Annus Mirabilis's connections have doubts about the colt's stamina and are unlikely to run him at Epsom.
