MISTER BAILEYS TO VINERY Mister Baileys (Robellino), who won last year's English 2,000 Guineas in course-record time, will begin his stud career in 1996 at Vinery in Midway, Kentucky. "Mister Baileys overwhelmed me with his physical and mental quality which combine to give him a special charisma," said Vinery owner Ben Walden Jr., who traveled to England's National Stud to inspect, and purchase, the four-year-old colt. "This talented miler is the perfect horse to be Vinery's first import from Europe." The winner of the G2 Royal Lodge and G3 Champagne S. at two, Mister Baileys was unable to stand the 1995 season due to grass sickness. "(He) is 75 percent through the recovery phase," said veterinarian Nick Mills. "By late summer he should be back to normal health."

PASEANA RETURNS NEXT SUNDAY Champion Paseana (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}), third in the GI Apple Blossom last time out April 21, will make her next start in the $100,000a Hawthorne H. at Hollywood May 28, trainer Ron McAnally confirmed Thursday. Regular rider Chris McCarron will be in the irons for the GI event at a mile and a sixteenth. The eight-year-old mare, with career earnings of $3,070,403, is $193,433 shy of the all-time North American distaff money title, currently held by Dance Smartly.

NEW MARYLAND RACING COMMISSIONER Paige T. Davis has been named commissioner of the Maryland Racing Commission, effective immediately. The appointment was made by Governor Paris Glendening. Davis replaces John McDaniel, whose term has ended after a four-year run. Davis, an Ellicott City, Maryland resident, is a businessman and a horse owner.

2	Our Gatsby	Von Hemel	Desormeaux	10-1
3	Mystery Storm	Robideaux	Perret	20-1

9	Mecke	Tortora	Davis	15-1
10	Oliver's Twist	Boniface	Delgado	12-1
11	Thunder Gulch	Lukas	Stevens	2-1

All starters carry 126.

Trainer D. Wayne Lukas bids for a fourth consecutive Triple Crown race victory. "I don't think about those things," said Lukas. "I think if we are lucky enough--and that's a big if--to win four, that's significant. I'm not focused on that, but it's a nice thought." A Lukas win Saturday would match Lucien Laurin's feat of saddling Riva Ridge to win the '72 Belmont and Secretariat to take the '73 Triple Crown. As for his runners, Lukas remains high on last year's top two-year-old. "If he gets an opportunity to see daylight, you'll see the real Timber Country (Woodman)," he said of the colt, who ran a troubled third in the Derby. "He's getting sharper. If he gets a chance to run, he'll be tough."

PEAKS AND VALLEYS POSSIBLE FOR BELMONT

Illinois Derby winner Peaks And Valleys (Mt. Livermore) is a "real possibility" to join the field for the Belmont S. June 10, according to his trainer, Jimmy Day. "He came out of the race very well," said Day, adding that the colt will be based in Toronto until his next start. "If we run in the Belmont, he'll ship in a day or two before the race."

PETER PAN FIELD TAKES SHAPE

Four colts have been named as probable starters for the May 28 Peter Pan S. at Belmont: Withers winner Blu Tusmani (Afleet), who was the highweight two-year-old colt in Italy last year; Wood Memorial third Is Sveikatas (L'Enjoleur); Shug McGaughey trainee Hunting Hard (Seeking the Gold), a full brother to champion Heavenly Prize making his stakes debut; and New York-bred stakes winner Ave's Flag (Personal Flag).

3 Post It	R. Allen	Allen Jr.	12-1

7 Serena's Song	Lukas	Stevens	4-5
8 Forever Cherokee	Medrano	Desorm'x	6-1

Originally slated for a rest, Serena's Song (Rahy) instead comes right back in the Black-Eyed Susan just two weeks after her Derby pacesetting effort. "We're not shrinking violets," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas, in keeping with the floral theme. "She bounced back great--the sharpest of my three (Derby runners). She's really started to get into it in the mornings since then. I thought this wasn't a bad spot for her. If you think she's knocked out, go ahead and bet on someone else. You've got a top filly and a $200,000 Grade II race. That's nothing to sneeze at."

Saturday, Belmont Park

SHUVEE H.-GI, $125,000a, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m	PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	WT.

5 Restored Hope	Levine	Luzzi	115
6b Sky Beauty	Jerkens	Krone	126

The winner of last year's Shuvee by 9 ½ lengths, Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}), 1994's Eclipse Award-winning older filly or mare, tries to extend her perfect 12-for-12 record over the Belmont Park strip. One-for-one this year, Sky Beauty picks up the temporary services of Julie Krone, replacing Mike Smith, who is out of town to ride Talkin Man in the Preakness. Challengers include Inside Information (Private Account), sporting an 8-for-10 career record, and Restored Hope (He's Bad), a perfect 6-for-6 against winter competition. "If you don't step up to the plate, you can't get a hit," said her trainer, Bruce Levine. "I don't think she's much below these other fillies, if at all."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners and a + will denote winners who are first-time starters.

Local News: Golden Gate Fields

Screaming Don (Lyphard's Ridge), who scored a 50-1 shocker in the 1994 California Derby, will miss Saturday's $125,000 All-American H. at Golden Gate due to a fractured left front cannon bone. The four-year-old, injured in a workout at Hollywood earlier this week, was scheduled for surgery yesterday; according to trainer Lanny Sharp, he will be out for at least six months.

Off the board after being bumped in the Gil Fantasy S. at Oaklawn a month ago, Lilli Capote returned from the short break with new rider Gary Stevens up. Local News: York

The Sheikh Mohammed-owned Tamure (Sadler's Wells) was confirmed an Epsom Derby starter after winning his third straight race in Thursday's Michael Seely Memorial Glasgow S. over 10f 85yds at York. The undefeated three-year-old colt, who was not campaigned as a two-year-old, was held up in the early stages, but got clear at the quarter pole and quickened to win by a neck. "Tamure is a bit green, but improving all the time," said trainer John Gosden. "I would like to run him in the Derby." Bookmakers were unanimous in offering Tamura at 20-1 for Epsom, where he will be bidding to become only the fifth horse this century to win the classic without the benefit of juvenile experience.
