SERENA'S SONG KO'S FIELD IN

BLACK-EYED SUSAN Delivering a knockout punch in the stretch, top three-year-old filly Serena's Song (Rahy) erased the memory of her Kentucky Derby defeat with a stunning victory in yesterday's GII Black-Eyed Susan at Pimlico. Content to let Rare Opportunity (Danzig Connection) set the pace, the 2-5 favorite flexed her muscles in midstretch and galloped away from her overmatched rivals without a challenge. "This beats the hell out of working for a living," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. As to his decision to run the filly instead of giving her a rest, Lukas remarked, "She just had a marvelous 10 or 12 days. There was no sign of her not being good. I'm glad we were able to show the people of this area a very special filly. I didn't think we were risking anything. She's so special." Lukas said Serena's Song would now return to California to point for the Princess S. (June 18) and the Hollywood Oaks (July 9); she could make her first New York appearance at Saratoga. (Black-Eyed Susan chart, p2).

PREAKNESS ANALYSIS

By Bill Finley

It may be that the masses are overanalyzing the Preakness Stakes. Thunder Gulch (Gulch) easily defeated the best three-year-olds in the country in the Kentucky Derby, many of whom he faces again today. The Derby was a cleanly run race, and few horses had any serious excuses. That includes Timber Country (Woodman) and Tejano Run (Tejano), but their band-wagons still have plenty of passengers despite the fact that neither has won a race this year and both were soundly beaten by Thunder Gulch in the Derby.

There are six newcomers to the Triple Crown chase, but each seems to be badly outclassed and no non-Derby starter has won this race since 1983.

The only question becomes: can Thunder Gulch run back to his Kentucky Derby? At what should be an overlay price of 5-2 or better, it's well worth the bet that he will. He's had one sharp work since the Derby and appears to be right on track. Dismissing his Derby win as a Gato-del-Sol-like fluke would be a bad mistake. He won the Fountain of Youth and Florida Derby before an uncharacteristically lukewarm performance in the Bluegrass. He's simply a good horse--maybe the best three-year-old in the country.

The Bet: $40 exacta Thunder Gulch--Tejano Run; $20 exacta Thunder Gulch--Timber Country; $10 exacta Thunder Gulch-Our Gatsby (Strike Gold).

The Preakness will be televised live on ABC Sports from 4:30-6:00 p.m. EDT; post time is set for 5:31 p.m. EDT.

Proving that the Derby took nothing out of her, Serena's Song bided her time behind the frontrunning Rare Opportunity, powering to the lead a furlong from home and drawing clear with authority to silence any doubters. The consistent Conquistadoress, in receipt of 7 pounds from the winner, rallied but was second best.

Also Ran: Tee Kay, Mz. Zill Bear, Bold and Gorgeous. It's Personal came back off a six-month break to take a grassy Garden State allowance May 4, but she had also shown ability on the main track, hitting the board in five of seven dirt tries. The New York-bred didn't miss a beat when this race was moved off the turf, shadowing pacesetter TEE KAY (Gold Meridian) for three-quarters before assuming the lead and drawing clear. The 6-5 favorite MZ. ZILL BEAR (Salutely) had nothing for the drive and finished fifth.
