NO DOUBLE FOR HARAYIR Ridgewood Pearl (GB) (Indian Ridge {GB}) sank Harayir's (Gulch) bid to become the first filly to complete an English/Irish 1000 Guineas double at the wet and windy Curragh racecourse yesterday. A seven-length winner of the listed Athasi S. on her only previous appearance this year, the winner moved up to challenge stablemate Khaytada (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), third, and favoured Harayir three furlongs from the line, and went on to win easily from the strong-finishing Warning Shadows (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). "Certainly the Coronation S. (at Royal Ascot) would be an obvious target for her," said trainer John Oxx, winning his first Irish 1000. "A mile is her distance. She would not want the ground too firm, but good would be all right and she obviously handles conditions as they were here." The conditions may have played a part in Harayir's defeat; the filly, looking a good deal lighter than on her earlier Classic appointment, was a well-beaten fifth, and her connections said the ground did not suit her at all. She will start in the Coronation S. "only if the going is right," said trainer Major Dick Hern. (Irish 1000 Guineas chart p5).

MONMOUTH PARK LAUNCHES 50TH SEASON
Monmouth Park opens for its 50th anniversary season today with the first of 20 stakes, the $35,000 John J. Reilly H. Opening day will also feature the inductions of Holy Bull and Dehere into the Monmouth Hall of Champions. The 1995 Monmouth Summer Meet will run through Sunday, September 3 with live racing every day but Mondays and Thursdays; first post is 1:00 p.m. The track will also offer full-card simulcasting for the first time during its live racing season, with a menu from New York, Philadelphia, Maryland, Arlington and/or Calder seven days a week. Monmouth will host a live card Monday, May 29, for a special Memorial Day program, with no live racing Wednesday, May 31.

BELMONT • BEAT

Earlybirds with an appetite can enjoy Breakfast at Belmont while watching the horses go through their morning routines on weekends and most holidays. From 7 to 9:30 a.m., fans can listen to a commentator explain the on-track goings-on, and take a 20-minute tram ride through the barn area to get a behind-the-scenes glimpse at a day in the life of a thoroughbred.

Our Emblem (Mr. Prospector), out of champion Personal Ensign, will try for his first stakes win after a solid second-place finish in the seven-furlong GI Carter H.; he teamed up with jockey Jose Santos for the first time in that event. "Santos seems to fit him," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "He can be a tough horse to ride." Added Santos, "He's a very difficult horse to rate. At the break, he wants to run off--but I don't think he really wants to run on the lead. I think he'd finish empty. You've got to wait on him and let him finish strong."

Vaudeville (Theatrical {Ire}) arrived safely at trainer Eddie Gregson's barn and galloped on the Hollywood main track Saturday. The four-year-old was second in the GII San Francisco Mile last time, his first start since seventh in the Breeders' Cup Turf. "He looks like a million bucks," said Gregson, who added that the colt's conditioner, Fordell Fierce, would arrive from Northern California today. Talloires (Tremolino) blew out for the race yesterday, going three furlongs in :34 4/5.

Rizzi set the early pace, pressed by Julie Krone aboard Vallata Lane, much to the winners' delight. "We got a lot of help from Julie, because she went with Rizzi and that's what we hoped for," said trainer Robert Reid, who said his well-raced five-year-old has earned a month's rest after his first graded win. Jockey Jose Santos, who picked up the mount, had his own theory on the victory. "Carlos Lopez told me that this horse likes it if you whistle at the top of the stretch. So I did it. He pinned his ears and took off. I think I'll have to keep whistling."

Local News: Illinois

The Illinois House of Representatives has passed the bill designed to pump an estimated $300 million into Illinois Thoroughbred and harness racing, and only the formality of Governor Jim Edgar's signature remains before the legislation becomes reality. Edgar is expected to sign off on the bill this week. However, the legislature's spring session closed without taking action on casino expansion, which could have given Arlington International Race Course owner Dick Duchossois his sought-after riverboat casino; consensus is that chances are slim for its approval at the fall veto session.
