JACK PRICE DIES Jack Price, the owner of 1961 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Carry Back, died of congestive heart failure Wednesday night. He was 87 years old. Price was born in Cleveland, Ohio in 1907, where he worked as a candy butcher. He went into business with his brothers during World War II manufacturing vital equipment for the government. He retired in 1955 to devote his life to Thoroughbreds. The breeder, owner and trainer of Carry Back, Price retired when his Derby winner did, building a farm in Ocala. Price resumed his training career at age 64.

CASINO GROUNDBREAKING TODAY Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Ladbroke's Casino San Pablo, which will be the premiere card club in Northern California, will be held at 10 a.m. today at the site located on San Pablo Dam Road and San Pablo Avenue. San Pablo City Council members, City staff and Steve E. Kuypers, CEO and general manager of Ladbroke's Casino San Pablo, will participate in the ceremony and be available to answer questions from the media, San Pablo citizens and all interested parties. Ladbroke's Casino in San Pablo, California will feature up to 100 gaming tables in a 65,000 square foot building. This first class facility is being constructed by a subsidiary of Ladbroke Racing Corporation, Pittsburgh, Pa., the owners of Golden Gate Fields in Albany, Calif. The facility will include a full-service restaurant as well as banquet facilities and is expected to be completed before Jan. 1, 1996. "The Ladbroke's Casino will be one of a kind in California," said Kuypers, "with a unique Casa Blanca inspired Moroccan theme throughout."

SOVIET PROBLEM PREPARES FOR RETURN

Last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint runner-up Soviet Problem (Moscow Ballet), off since her seventh-place effort in the Sprinters S. in Japan Dec. 18, worked six furlongs over the Golden Gate turf course Wednesday in preparation for her five-year-old debut in the $100,000-added Valkyr H. at Hollywood Park next Sunday. "She worked three-quarters in 1:12 1/5 on the turf around the cones," trainer Greg Gilchrist said. "It was pretty good. She got a little tired, which we wanted." Soviet Problem won last year's Valkyr H. at five and a half furlongs over the Hollywood turf by 1 1/2-lengths.

Saturday, Belmont Park:

BELMONT S.-GI, $697,400, 3yo, 1 1/2m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Citadeed	Violette	Maple	8-1
2	Off'n'Away	Weld	Smith	12-1

10	Thunder Gulch	Lukas	Stevens	2-1
11	Timber Country	Lukas	Day	6-5
12	Star Standard	Zito	Krone	6-1

The three favorites drew the three extreme outside post positions, leaving trainer D. Wayne Lukas in the position of having to attempt his record-breaking 5th consecutive Triple Crown race from what he considers a disadvantageous start. "We didn't draw particularly well," said Lukas. "There will be some traffic--some horses will be stopping. But it's a mile-and-a-half track. I hate to put pressure on the riders, but they should be able to stay out of trouble going a mile and a half." Trainer Nick Zito, whose Star Standard (Risen Star) will break from the far outside, knew what his plan would be. "I'd like Julie (Krone) to break out of the gate, stick out her left hand and make a left turn. We're going to have to try to get in front; I don't think we can match strides with Timber Country and Thunder Gulch. They're both in great shape. We're going to have to try to steal it." All starters carry 126 pounds.
