BELMONT STAKES WRAP-UP "He came out of the race great," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas of Belmont winner Thunder Gulch (Gulch). "We hung around the barn until 9:30 or so last night, and he had pretty much cleaned up by then. He's held his weight and his hair coat really well. I honestly cannot see any difference in him since the Derby." Trainer Nick Zito, who picked up his fourth second-place finish in the Belmont this decade with Star Standard (Risen Star), said his colt would be given a break before getting ready for the Travers at Saratoga. Citadeed (Shadeed) was none the worse for the wear after his third-place finish. "He's a little tired, but overall he seems to be in good shape," said trainer Rick Violette. "I was very pleased with his performance. Now we want to get him back on his feet. We'll most likely wait for him to bounce back from this race and then lead him toward Saratoga." Knockadoon (Dixieland Band), fourth, left New York for Kentucky Sunday afternoon. "I was pleased with the way he ran," said trainer Tony Reinstedler. "I'm looking at the Mid-American Triple races, the turf races at Arlington, for his next starts."

UNFINISHED SYMPH HEADED FOR EAST

COAST CAMPAIGN Unfinished Symph (Aloha Prospector), winner of Saturday's Gill Shoemaker H., came out of the race in "perfect" condition according to trainer Wesley Ward; he will ship to New York next week for an East Coast campaign. Ward said the four-year-old would make his next start in the Gill Daryl's Joy H. at Saratoga July 24, then point for the Belmont Budweiser Breeders' Cup September 2 and the Kelso H. October 7 before another try at the Breeders' Cup Mile October 28. The colt was third in the race last year. "The whole schedule is subject to change, of course," said Ward. "The main thing is, we want to get the horse acclimated for the Breeders' Cup. If all goes well, he'll already have had two races over the course."

Carling, just off the pace to the straight, forged to the front a furlong from home and held off the late thrust of Matiara to avenge her defeat in the French 1000 Guineas. "She has proved she is the best of her generation; in my mind she should have won the 1000 Guineas and has proved a point here," said winning trainer Corinne Barbe. "I am not used to having a horse of this quality in the yard and I have not made any plans for her future--of course, I will consider the Arc." Trainer Criquelette Head, who saddled the runner-up, said, "I agree Carling was the best filly today but my filly lost nothing in defeat. Perhaps there was not enough pace early on in the race."

Concern, third behind Cigar in his last two starts, shipped to the West Coast for his first try at Hollywood. Content to settle in fifth early, last year's Breeders' Cup Classic winner picked up horses quickly to reach the front as they headed into the far turn and maintained his advantage through the stretch to win as the crowd's second choice. "I think the key to this horse is to let him run his own race," said trainer Richard Small. "We don't really place him in the race--he sort of places himself. I would certainly say he handled the track well. Broad Brush ran over 15 different tracks; this horse has run over 14. I think he could run over broken bottles." Small added that the colt would ship back to Pimlico Tuesday, but return to Hollywood for the Gold Cup July 2. Favored at 7-5, BEST PAL (Habitory) made a move at the top of the stretch but hung in the drive and finished fourth. STOLLER (El Gran Senor), in front early, broke down on the far turn. "It appeared to me that he snapped his cannon bone right below the knee," said jockey Gary Stevens. "It was bad. I was getting ready to pull him up--I didn't like the way he felt. I had just kind of raised up to pull him up and bam, he went. I'm a little sore--it pulled my back and shoulder muscles pretty good." Stoller fractured his left front cannon bone and had to be destroyed.
