KENTUCKY DERBY PURSE INCREASED TO MINIMUM OF $1 MILLION The Churchill Downs Board of Directors yesterday voted to increase the minimum purse for the Kentucky Derby to $1 million, and raise the minimum purse for the Kentucky Oaks to $500,000 guaranteed. Entry and starter fees for the Derby were increased to $15,000 each, up from $10,000. Depending on how many starters go to the post, the total purse could top the million dollar mark. This year's Derby purse was worth $500,000-added, with nomination and starting fees bringing the total to $957,400. The Oaks purse was $300,000-added in 1995, with a total value of $361,600. "The Committee members felt strongly that purses for both the Derby and Oaks should be increased," said Tom Meeker, Churchill's president and C.E.O., "and they were especially interested in providing a more lucrative financial reward for the first four finishers of the Kentucky Derby. The Committee members believed the Oaks purse deserved a boost because it is the premier three-year-old filly race in the nation, and Oaks Day has grown into one of Churchill Downs' biggest days in terms of attendance and handle."

TIMBER COUNTRY BACK ON TRACK Preakness winner Timber Country (Woodman) returned to the track yesterday morning at Belmont Park for the first time since a fever kept him out of last Saturday's Belmont S. He had missed five days of training. "It was just a light jog," said Todd Pletcher, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas, "but his temperature remains good, his blood count is good and he is off all medications. Everything is going as well as expected." Pletcher said that Lukas is still considering the July 2 Dwyer for the colt's next start, but has not made any final decisions. "We'll decide that after watching him train for a few days," Pletcher added. Timber Country is expected to make the July 30 Haskell, with or without a prep in the Dwyer.

GI Metropolitan H. winner You and I (Kris S.) is back in New York and ready for Saturday's Brooklyn H. "He arrived here from California (Wednesday) afternoon," said Sarah Lundy, who is taking care of You and I for trainer Bobby Frankel. "He breezed at Hollywood Park Tuesday, an easy seven furlongs. Now he'll just gallop into the race." Devil His Due (Devil's Bag), who took last year's Brooklyn by 8 1/4-lengths, finished second to Cigar in the May 13 Pimlico Special in his last outing.

Saturday, Churchill Downs:

STEPHEN FOSTER S.-GII, $150,000a, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	WT

Recoup the Cash (Copelan), assigned highweight of 119 pounds, took last year's running of the Stephen Foster in wire-to-wire fashion. The five-year-old comes into Saturday's race off a victory in a one-mile allowance at Sportsman's Park May 29. Polar Expedition (Kodiack), winner of last year's GII Jim Beam S., will try for his third straight victory Saturday. The four-year-old gelding won the Chicago Loop H. and the Chicagoland H., both at Sportsman's Park, in his last two starts.

ELTISH AND BALANCHINE CLASH Eltish (Cox's Ridge), sixth in this year's Kentucky Derby, will clash with Balanchine (Storm Bird), successful in last year's Epsom Oaks and Irish Derby, in next Tuesday's G2 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot. Connections of both horses have already declared their intention to run. Eltish will have the assistance of Britain's former champion jockey Pat Eddery, while reigning title holder Frankie Dettori is set to continue his double Classic-winning partnership with Balanchine.

BLUES TRAVELLER TO STUD? Blues Traveller (Ire) (Bluebird), a MGSW of $742,132, may have made his swan song as a racehorse in last Saturday's $200,000 Early Times Manhattan S. at Belmont. The five-year-old, who was beaten a nose by Awad in the Grade I event, is being considered for a stud career in New Zealand, trainer Rodney Rash said. "The syndicate that bought half of the horse (from Gary Tanaka) early this year is going to meet in the next few days and make a decision," Rash said. "I can't say for sure, but my guess is that he's headed to New Zealand."

CHURCHILL DOWNS CONDUCTS ANNUAL STOCKHOLDER MEETING At their annual meeting yesterday, Churchill Downs' stockholders were given an update by track President and CEO Thomas H. Meeker on the Company's activities. Meeker revealed that work continues on $3.6 million in capital improvements to ready Hoosier Park in Anderson, Indiana for the state's first Thoroughbred race meet, slated to begin Sept. 1. In other action, stockholders elected three new members to Churchill Downs' Board of Directors. Elected to the Board were G. Watts Humphrey Jr., W. Bruce Lunsford and Thomas H. Meeker. Four directors, Catesby W. Clay, J. David Grissom, Seth W. Hancock and Frank B. Hower Jr. were reelected as Class II directors to serve terms of three years.

BANDERA DOWNS REQUESTS SHORTENED MEETING

Bandera Downs Chairman of the Board William Allan and CEO Stan Scruby announced yesterday that a letter requesting that Bandera Downs be allowed to shorten its 1995 live race season is on its way to the Texas Racing Commission. According to the letter, the closing date for live racing would be July 9, to accommodate the trials and finals of the Bandera Six Flags Futurity and Derby. Track officials believe the commission will approve the request. Poor attendance and handle figures were cited for the reason the request was made. At a horsemen's meeting Wednesday at Bandera Downs, Scruby confirmed that track management wanted to cut the live meet short (the previous ending date was August 20) and drop purses 30 percent; the horsemen indicated they would accept the plan. Scruby stated, "We are doing the best we can and we will get everything worked out as soon as possible."

AGA KHAN'S BRITISH BOYCOTT TO END

Adjareli (Nishapour), runner-up in last month's Irish 2000 Guineas, is set to break the Aha Khan's long-running boycott of British racing in next Tuesday's G1 St. James's Palace Stakes at Royal Ascot. The Aga withdrew his 90-strong team of horses from Britain as a result of Aliysa's disqualification from the 1989 Epsom Oaks. But trainer John Oxx has said that Adjareli has done well since finishing second to Spectrum at the Curragh and is now "on course" for Epsom. Other entries for the race, run over a mile on the first afternoon of the Royal meeting, are: Annus Mirabilis (Warning), Atticus (Nureyev), Bahri (Riverman), Charnwood Forest (Warning), Desert Courier (Naevus), Muhab (Lyphard), Options Open (Then Again), Petit Poucet (Fairy King), Star of Zilzal (Zilzal) and Vettori (Machiavellian).

WEIGHTS RELEASED FOR CAESARS INT'L A pair of Grade I winning California invaders, Red Bishop (Silver Hawk) and Sandpit (Braz) (Baynoun {Ire}), have been assigned co-highweight of 122 pounds for the G1 $500,000 Caesars International H., to be run next Sunday, June 25 at Atlantic City Race Course. With the connections of Red Bishop expected to pass the 1 3/16-mile turf fixture, Richard Mandella-trainee Sandpit is likely to be the top-weighted horse to go postward. Next at 120 pounds is The Vid (World Appeal), winner of the GII Early Times Dixie H. at Pimlico May 20.

Weekend Preview Continued.*Sunday, Belmont Park:*HEMPSTEAD H.-GI, $150,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m

The Hempstead will feature a pair of 1994 champions in Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) (Champion 3yo Filly) and Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}) (Champion Older Mare). Heavenly Prize comes into the Hempstead off a one-length tally in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn April 21. "She's coming off a good race," said Buzz Tenney, assistant to trainer Shug McGaughey, yesterday. "She's had some time in between races now so she's had some good solid works in her and seems to be in good order. She'll blow out three eighths either tomorrow or the next day." Thirteen-time stakes winner Sky Beauty, the defending Hempstead heroine, finished second in the GI Shuvee H. in her last outing May 20. "She's doing very well," said trainer Allen Jerkens. "She's had very good works lately and I'm very pleased. Today (Thursday) she worked a half-mile in :46 1/5 and now we'll just let her gallop and jog the rest of the way."

Local News, Hollywood Park:

Mike Rutherford's Lakeway (Seattle Slew) had her first breeze Thursday morning since returning to trainer Gary Jones' barn last month after several months off recovering from lung problems. "She's doing good," Jones said. "She took the work like nothing. She never broke a sweat." Clockers caught the four-year-old filly in :36 1/5 handily for three furlongs. Lakeway won four Grade I stakes last year--the Santa Anita Oaks, Hollywood Oaks, Mother Goose S. and Las Virgenes S. In her last start August 13, she finished second in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga. Her current earnings total $594,520.

Soviet Problem (Moscow Ballet) worked a half-mile over the Hollywood turf Wednesday in :47 1/5. Chris McCarron was up. Soviet Problem is the 127-pound highweight for Saturday's $100,000-added Valkyr H. at 5 1/2 furlongs on the Hollywood turf.
