TALKIN MAN TO UNDERGO SURGERY Talkin Man (With Approval), who returned to the racetrack just nine days ago after a post-Triple Crown break, is again out of training and will undergo surgery to remove a fractured splint bone in his right front leg. Trainer Roger Attfield said that the colt would be sent to Dr. Robert McMartin's clinic for surgery Tuesday. "It's not major surgery, but it'll be at least six weeks before he can return to even light training." Attfield added that he has been aware of the problem since the Preakness. "We've been watching it closely," he said. "It's bothering him by irritating the suspensories on that leg. If it happened to split further, it could really cause damage by rubbing against the suspensory ligaments. It's best that we take it out." Talkin Man had been pointing for the Queen's Plate; tentative plans call for him to aim for the September 17 GI Molson Export Million at Woodbine.

DEVIL HIS DUE OUT OF BROOKLYN Devil His Due (Devil's Bag) was scratched from yesterday's Brooklyn H. after trainer Allen Jerkens discovered filling in the six-year-old's right front leg. "It might be something serious; we don't know," said Jerkens. "We'll try to get him to Saratoga and see what happens."

SANDPIT TO CAESARS Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}) is scheduled to arrive in New Jersey Wednesday afternoon to prepare for a start in next Sunday's GI $500,000 Caesars International. A champion in Brazil and a 2xGISW since shipping to the U.S. in 1994, he was most recently second in the Hollywood Turf H. Joining him on the flight will be Celtic Arms (Fr) (Comrade in Arms {GB}) a 2xGI winner in France who has yet to find the winner's circle in the U.S. Opera Score (Nureyev), winner of the Miramontes H. at Santa Anita this spring, may also make the trip. Drawn by the Caesars East-West Challenge, the Californians will attempt to capture the Caesars and return home for the $250,000a Caesars Palace Turf Championship at Hollywood July 22. A winner of both races would receive a bonus bringing his total earnings in the Challenge to $750,000. Expected Eastern-based runners include The Vid (World Appeal), a three-length winner of the Early Times Dixie in his last start, and Alice Springs (Val de l'Orne {Fr}), a five-year-old mare with a win over the course in last year's Matchmaker H.; she brings a three-race winning streak into the event.

Margins: HD, 2 3/4, 3. Odds: 2.60, 2.00, 39.20.
Also: I Still Believe. DNF: Oliver's Twist, Wishful Song.
Bouncing back from back-to-back off the board finishes in the Santa Anita and Illinois Derbies, Petionville teamed up with jockey Pat Day for the first time and rallied from midfield to take command at the eighth pole, then had enough left to hold off Dazzling Falls in the photo. "I had some anxious moments to the wire," said Day. "My horse lost momentum--he was jumping shadows and, quite frankly, I wasn't too sure we got there first. I was more than a bit pleased when they made it official. He ran a great race to be able to overcome his late antics." Trainer Randy Bradshaw said the colt would be pointed for the Swaps S. at Hollywood July 23. The 6-5 favorite OLIVER'S TWIST (Horatius) shadowed pacesetter I STILL BELIEVE (Believe It) for three-quarters but stopped abruptly and was eased. "He had good position down the backstretch but he bobbed at the half-mile pole," said his rider, Alberto Delgado. "I don't know if he stepped in a hole, or what. But he wasn't responding; he just stopped running at the three-eighths pole." Thistledown track veterinarian Dr. Kent Vasco said that a preliminary examination indicated the colt had injured his right stifle, but that the injury did not appear to be career-threatening.

 Fresh from his frontrunning triumph in the GI Met Mile, You And I tried a mile and an eighth for the first time and ran his record at Belmont Park to four-for-five. Dueling with Slick Horn early, the dark bay colt shook off that rival in the stretch and had plenty left in reserve to hold off a late threat from longshot Key Contender. The 6-5 bettors' choice SECRET SAVINGS (Seeking the Gold), seeking his first stakes win, ran evenly to be fourth.

 Gabr, runner-up in the Gill Jaipur S. eight days ago, wheeled right back as the even-money chalk. Bidding for his third straight as the crowd's 2-5 choice, the chestnut stretched out to a mile for the first time and once again wired the field, crossing the line four lengths in front to give jockey Robbie Davis his third straight victory on the card. ### Local News: Dueling Grounds

Joe King, former track superintendent for the New York Racing Association, has been retained by Dueling Grounds to ready the turf course for their September meeting. King will also submit preliminary drawings for an all-weather turf course. "The idea is to put in a second track that could better handle a variety of adverse weather conditions," said King.

Second for three-quarters, the campaigner took the lead on the far turn and proved the crowd right, galloping away from the field to win as much the best.
