LONG BRANCH STAKES NEXT FOR TIMBER

COUNTRY? Preakness winner Timber Country (Woodman), forced to miss the Belmont S. after he developed a fever, may make his next start in the Long Branch S. at Monmouth Park July 8. "We're leaning towards running him in the Long Branch," said Todd Pletcher, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "We are pointing him towards the Haskell, and running him in the Long Branch accomplishes several things. First of all, he needs a race...and then, it will be a race over the track." Pletcher, who added that the Dwyer S. at Belmont would be the alternative for the Eclipse winner, said Timber Country appears to be completely recovered from his brief illness. "He lost about five days of training, but now he's training smoothly. He's been breezing real good."

CHRB ESTABLISHES INTEGRITY OF RACING PROGRAM

The California Horse Racing Board Friday approved several rules and policies which will fully implement its Integrity of Racing Program, designed to protect the welfare of all racing participants through a variety of programs to bolster security, improve drug testing, standardize penalties and sanction the use of therapeutic medications. A rule approved yesterday which acknowledges levels for specific therapeutic medications deemed necessary for the maintenance of the health and welfare of the horse is the first of its kind for any U.S. racing jurisdiction. The Board also updated the classification of drugs and established penalty guidelines corresponding to the new classifications. These approvals bring the Integrity of Racing Program to full force; other aspects of the program, including the establishment of continuing education for stewards and investigators, had already been started.

Trainer Rodney Rash, who will send out the '94 French Derby winner Celtic Arms (Fr) (Comrade In Arms {GB}), is happy with the continuing rain but not thrilled with his post position draw. "When we drew post nine last time (in the Hollywood Turf H.), I thought 'no big deal' and it turned out to be a disaster," said Rash. "We were out of the gate and just about over the outside fence. This is about the same distance, the gate's in about the same place and here we go all over again, except for one thing--Patrick (Valenzuela). You just can't give Eddie (Delahoussaye) instructions, but Pat will listen to me, so I think the post really doesn't matter. I'm just tickled to death it's still raining." With Delahoussaye in the irons, Celtic Arms was ninth after his eventful start in the GI Hollywood Turf H.; he started the year with a second-place finish in Hollywood allowance company.

Canadian shipper Scotzanna (Silver Deputy) has lost just once in five career starts and totes top weight. The Michael Wright trainee wired the field in Woodbine stakes company her last two.

◆ NEW YORK ◆

Local News: Belmont

Trainer Allen Jerkens said yesterday that MGISW Devil His Due (Devil's Bag), scratched from the Brooklyn H. due to a leg ailment, is on the mend and could race again this summer. "He's got an infection coming out of one leg, and we also found out what was wrong with his other leg," said Jerkens. "We hope he can run at Saratoga."

Margins: 5, 3, 12HF. Odds: 1.60, 0.70, 17.10.

Looking for her fifth straight win and undefeated since switching to the turf in March, Perfect Arc took on the talented favorite Miss Union Avenue but kept her skein unbroken with an impressive wire-to-wire score. The winner will make her next start in the GIII Nijana S. at Saratoga August 2. The runner-up, whose four-race winning streak ended here, raced in second throughout; she had finished a well-beaten fourth over a soft Belmont course in last year's GIII Miss Grillo S.

Party Manners, off since finishing sixth in the GIII Excelsior H. in April, returned as the 3-5 chalk under jockey Mike Smith. Content to follow the leaders early, the crowd's choice moved up quickly to take the lead at the top of the lane and cruised home to a handy victory.

5th-BEL, $32,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m (off the turf), 1:38 1/5, wf.

GARDEN SECRETS (f, 3, Time for a Change--Rokeby Rose {GSW, $250,480}, by Tom Rolfe), second on the grass in her second start off a seven-month layoff last time out, was bet down to 2-5 in this off-the-turf event and proved worthy, closing to take command on the far turn and pulling away down the lane for a five-length tally. Lifetime Record: 7-1-2-2, $37,400.

Margins: HD, 4, 6HF. Odds: 0.40, 2.70, 17.80.

Bidding for his third straight in this field reduced to four, Canaveral followed a pair of wire-to-wire allowance scores with a slight change in strategy, allowing Repletion to set the pace on a clear lead but wearing down the pacesetter in a long drive to take the photo.

A comfortable victory for Beauchamp Hero, who had taken up the running from determined pacesetter Midnight Legend a quarter-mile out. There was a long steward's enquiry, as it looked that the winner interfered with the runner-up in the final yards, but the placings remained unaltered. "Beauchamp Hero had only been a handicapper until now, but this was not a strong Hardwicke S. and the owner and my secretary conspired together to put him in the race," said winning trainer John Dunlop.
