STORM TOWER'S DEATH A MYSTERY Storm Tower (Irish Tower), G1SW of more than $800,000, collapsed and died while pulling up from a five-furlong workout at Monmouth Park Thursday. "He worked really well and then, just past the wire, when the exercise rider Ron Tanner went to stand up on him, he just fell face-first to the ground," said trainer Ben Perkins, Jr., who added that the five-year-old was sent to New Bolton for an autopsy. "There's no sign of a heart attack, but he did fracture his neck when he fell," said Perkins. "The pathologist feels it may have been a neurological reaction in his brain, but so far the autopsy results have proven inconclusive." Tanner suffered a broken collarbone in the spill.

TOSSEDTHECOIN PREPS FOR GOLD CUP Tossofthecoin (Magesterial), second in the Californian last time, blew out for the Hollywood Gold Cup Friday, going four furlongs in :48 1/5. "It was a nice, easy half-mile," said trainer Ron McAnally. "He's set to go."

TIMBER COUNTRY ON LASIX? Preakness winner Timber Country (Woodman), who arrived at Monmouth Park Thursday morning to get ready for the GI Haskell Invitational July 30, bled in a workout at Belmont Park June 19 and may race on Lasix in his next start. "We are not too concerned about it," said Dallas Stewart, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "If he needs to run on Lasix, that's what we'll do. And now we almost have Lasix in New York, so it's not a problem. He's doing great." The colt's connections are still on the fence about a start in the Long Branch S. "Our main goal is the Haskell," said Stewart.

RIDERS OBSERVE "JOCKEYS ACROSS AMERICA DAY VII" Jockeys Across America Day VII, the annual national fund-raiser for the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund, will be held today at approximately 80 racetracks across the country. Participating racetracks will raise money through autograph sessions, bake sales, cap and T-shirt sales, golf tournaments, fashion shows and donations from both riders and racing fans. Since it was established in 1987, the Don MacBeth Fund has distributed more than $2 million to injured and disabled exercise riders and jockeys.

Today, Belmont Park

Awad (Caveat), who swept from last to first to take the GI Early Times Manhattan by a nose, will try the same tactics going a furlong farther as the highweight. "Things have got to work out in his favor," said his trainer, Dave Donk. "He's got to get some pace up front...but he gives 110 percent every time he goes out there and he usually can work out a clean trip because he circles horses. I know that causes him to lose some ground, but almost any horse who comes from that far out of it can't expect to get through on the fence."

Today's Preview: Churchill Downs

BASHFORD MANOR S.-GIII, $100,000, 2yo, 6f

Both Grindstone, a colt from Unbridled's first crop running at Belmont, and Aggie Southpaw, making his debut at Churchill, were impressive winning their only starts, both by five lengths. A.V. 2--Unreal Cupcake, 112, m, 5, Unreal Zeal--Crackers, by Singular.

3--Regal Solution, 112, m, 5, Mr. Prospector--Royal Solution, by Sir Ivor.

Margins: NO, 3, 2 1/4. Odds: 0.35, 3.80, 10.20.

Away since winning the Gil First Flight H. at Aqueduct November 6, GISW Twist Afleet was sent off the prohibitive favorite but gave her backers some anxious moments, stalking Unreal Cupcake to the stretch, then running down the game pacesetter to take the tight photo.

8th-BEL, $36,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:24 3/5, ft.

MINE'SPRO (c, 3, Distinctive Pro--Mine Tonight {MSW, $254,844}, by Upper Nile), a winner against state-breds in his last, stepped up against open company for the first time and made it two straight, dueling with PERFECT SPIRAL (Notebook) from the far turn and prevailing in the drive for a hard-fought neck decision at 9-2. Favored WILD ESCAPE (Wild Again) rallied late to be third. Lifetime Record: SP, 6-4-2-0, $94,060.

O-Jimtim Stables. B-James P. O'Brien (NY). T-Dennis J Manning.

3rd-BEL, $30,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:12 2/5, ft.

RIVER BOOGIE (f, 3, Houston--River Chant, by Upper Nile), runner-up in her debut nearly a year ago, came back off the extended layoff as the even-money chalk and wired the field for a 4 1/2-length victory. The winner is a 1/2 to Common Threads (Key to the Kingdom), MSP, $252,223. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $23,500.

O/B-Totier Creek Farm (VA). T-Bruce N Levine.

2nd-BEL, $30,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:10 4/5, fm.

CASANOVA STORM (f, 2, Storm Cat--Casanova Junction, by Pleasant Colony) drew in off the also-eligible list for her second start after finishing well back in her debut in the slop at Belmont May 26. Ignored in the wagering at 17-1, the dark bay battled on the lead through the early fractions, put a head in front as they straightened for home, then dug down deep to hold off 3-1 favorite LIZZY'S PLEASURE (Pentelicus) and win by a neck under jockey Robbie Davis. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $18,000.

O/B-Edward P. Evans (VA). T-Mark Hennig.

Local News: Calder

Trainer Marty Wolfson reported yesterday that The Vid (World Appeal), who finished seventh as the favorite after a terrible trip in last Sunday's GI Caesar's International, came out of the race in good order, but plans for his future have not yet been decided. "He never got a chance to run his race," said Wolfson. "When he had to check so sharply at the quarter pole, he grabbed himself and lost a front shoe. He did come back with some superficial nicks and cuts; fortunately, other than being a little tired from the trip, he's okay."
