NYRA MULLING SIX-DAY RACE WEEK AT BELMONT FALL MEETING New York Racing Association officials are considering a return to a six-day race week this fall when racing returns to Belmont Park Sept. 1, according to NYRA President Kenny Noe. "Some of the horsemen were talking to Terry (Director of Racing Terry Meyocks) and myself and felt that some of their horses have been set back," said Noe. "If we feel that there are enough horses and it is important for the horsemen to have a chance to run more often, we may go back to a nine-races-a-day, six-days-a-week schedule. We don't want to have short fields, but if we feel there are enough horses available, we may do this. I'm not saying the decision has been made, but we might take a look at it." Noe said if the decision were made, the likely dark day would be Monday.

WEKIVA SPRINGS TO NEW YORK Wekiva Springs (Runaway Groom), who capped off a six-race winning streak with a victory in the GII San Fernando S. at Santa Anita in January, has been jogging at Donald Disney's Double Diamond Farm in Florida and will be sent to trainer Bill Mott shortly for a fall campaign in New York, with the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup the ultimate goal, trainer Bob Hess Jr. reported Tuesday. "Mr. Disney (who owns the four-year-old gray along with Jim English) and I talked it over and decided it was best to go that route," said Hess, who had trained Wekiva Springs at his Southern California base. "He's a bad shipper and we felt it was best to keep him in New York to prepare for the Breeders' Cup (at Belmont). After the Breeders' Cup, the plan is to have him come back to the West Coast." Wekiva Springs, who has won six of nine career starts for earnings of $389,135, has been sidelined with a minor ailment to his right front foot since early May. He last raced in the seven-furlong Commonwealth Breeders' Cup at Keeneland April 14, in which he finished fifth.

 Purchased out of a horses-of-racing-age sale at Belmont for $170,000 last November, Key Contender rewards new owner Carl Lizza with a GI victory in winning his first lifetime stakes. Second in the June 17 Brooklyn last out, Key Contender was sent off the 7-2 2nd choice here. "He never ran at 1 1/4-miles before, so a lot of people thought he would struggle with the distance," said trainer Jose Martin. "When you win a GI race with a horse that has never won a stakes race in his life, it's like making history." Among the doubters was jockey Jerry Bailey. "Going into the race, I wasn't too sure he would want to go the 1 1/4-miles, but he proved me wrong today," Bailey said. Martin added that Key Contender would be pointed to the August 5 Whitney at Saratoga. Sire Fit to Fight won the '84 Suburban during his sweep of the Handicap Triple Crown.

Inside Information, winner of her last 4 starts including the GI Shuvee H. and Gill Monmouth Budweiser Breeders' Cup H. in her 2 most recent outings, was sent off the overwhelming 1-5 favorite and did not disappoint. Under regular rider Mike Smith, the bay filly tracked early pacesetter and MSW Halo America early, took the lead after six furlongs and drew off to record her 6th graded stakes victory. She is ½ to Educated Risk (MGI, $1,163,717, by Mr. Prospector).

Also Ran: Eagle Eyed, Cocooning.

Silver Wizard, off since his 6th-place finish in the GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita Feb. 20, closed from off the pace under jockey Gary Stevens for his first graded stakes victory. "He came out of that 1 1/2-mile race (San Luis Obispo) quite stiff, so we just had to give him some time off until he was back in form again," said trainer Neil Drysdale. "He's run some of his best races off layoffs, and that was one of the reasons we ran today." Drysdale said he would look at the August 6 GI Eddie Read at Del Mar for Silver Wizard's next start. GII Early Times Turf Classic winner Romarin set all the pace then held on gamely for 2nd, while race favorite Savinio, 5th and last early, rallied late for the show spot. Silver Wizard is ½ to Ammy Hils (GIII, $98,640, by Bounding Basque).

DAVE PENNA INJURED Dave Penna, the leading stakes-winning rider at Woodbine in 1995, will be sidelined for a minimum of six weeks with a broken right collarbone suffered during Woodbine's Colin Stakes Monday. Penna was riding Intrepid Son (Castle Guard), the 3-5 favorite in the GIIIC event for two-year-olds, when his mount clipped heels heading to the quarter pole, sending Penna to the ground. The horse was uninjured. Penna had just completed a successful weekend at Woodbine winning the Dominion Day H. with Alybro Saturday and the Victoria Park S. aboard favorite Fritz Sunday. The jockey was taken to Etobicoke General Hospital after the spill and was released later that day. Penna had been scheduled to ride Regal Discovery (Regal Classic) in the Queens Plate this Sunday, July 9.
