TEAM LUKAS COLTS TOP HASKELL

WEIGHTS Timber Country (Woodman), winner of the Preakness, and stablemate Thunder Gulch (Gulch), victorious in the Derby and Belmont, were each assigned 126 pounds for the GI Haskell Invitational H., set for July 30 at Monmouth Park. A total of 33 three-year-olds have been invited to the race. "We've invited the top three-year-olds in training, and it looks like we'll have a competitive race," said Monmouth's Director of Racing and Racing Secretary, Mike Dempsey. "The Haskell is the start of the second season for these horses, and they usually come in rested and in top form. Timber Country is on the grounds training for the race. Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore) (120) won the Long Branch...and trainer John Ward has indicated that he will return for the Haskell. Suave Prospect (Fortunate Prospect) (120) was second in the same race, and (trainer) Nick Zito said he is definitely coming back. Rick Violette has Citadeed (Shadeed) (118)--he said he's training well and is being pointed toward the Haskell." Expected highweight Timber Country missed a scheduled work yesterday due to the extreme heat, but he is expected to breeze this morning.

MINOR FIRE AT CALDER A small fire was discovered in the uniform room located between the third and fourth floors at Calder Race Course shortly after the last race yesterday. As a precaution, Calder President Ken Dunn had all remaining guests and employees evacuate the facility. Metro-Dade Fire and Rescue was immediately called to the scene and the flames were contained to the area and extinguished quickly. Racing will resume this afternoon.

Overwhelming 3-5 favorite Lite The Fuse, winner of the GI Carter H. at Belmont in May and the Gil Tom Fool H. in his last start June 25, made his first start outside New York a winning one. Under regular rider Julie Krone, the bay colt hit the side of his starting gate stall when breaking to the right, raced off the pacesetters down the backside and around the turn, took command at the top of the stretch and drew off for the victory. "He ran like a machine," said Krone. "I chirped to him at the three-eighths pole and he ran like a dream." Richard Dutrow added, "He was away a little slow, but he never breaks well. He overcame a lot of things today and ran a fast time over a track that was a little slow. To be the owner, breeder and trainer is all a matter of luck. It's just been fantastic." When asked what's next for his colt, Dutrow responded, "My plans right now are to run him in the Forego, Vosburgh and the Breeders' Cup Sprint." Lite The Fuse became the third favorite to capture the De Francis Dash.

On the turn Waldoboro gained rapidly between horses, altered course to the outside in upper stretch, then unleashed a strong late run to win going away. Said winning trainer Shug McGaughey, "I was surprised to see how far he dropped out of it, but then when I saw the :21 and change, I knew they'd come back. Now I'll look for a race for him in Saratoga." Even-money favorite ABAGINONE (Devil's Bag), making his stakes debut and racing for the first time outside California, broke slowly, rushed up to contest the pace inside, then gave way.
