CIGAR MAY SKIP PACIFIC CLASSIC Cigar (Palace Music) may not make his next start in the Aug. 13 Pacific Classic at Del Mar despite speculation that the five-year-old horse would ship to California for the $1 million race, according to trainer Bill Mott. "If you ask me today, I'm not inclined to go," said Mott Friday. "He's just not dragging me around the racetrack right now. I guess that's why you try to pay attention to these horses and know how they're doing every day. He's galloping every day, eating fine and his hair looks good. He's just not on the bridle, or prancing and dancing as you would like to see going into a $1 million race. He's also never been particularly fond of warm weather." Mott said that whether or not Cigar ships west for the race, he will still be pointed to the Sept. 16 Woodward at Belmont, which could be his last prep before the Breeders' Cup Classic.

RMB DEADLINE APPROACHES All Reports of Mares Bred (RMBs) should be mailed to the Jockey Club on or before Tuesday, August 1. RMBs filed after August 1 must be accompanied by a notarized letter explaining why the report has been submitted later than the published deadline. Reports should be mailed to The Jockey Club, 821 Corporate Drive, Lexington, KY, 40503-2794.

AUSTIN DELANEY NAMED '94 NEW YORK BREEDER OF THE YEAR The New York Thoroughbred Breeders Board of Directors has named Austin P. Delaney as the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association's 1994 "Breeder of the Year" for New York State. Last year, Delaney raced a pair of veteran homebred stakes winners, the seven-year-old Irish Linnet (Seattle Song), who was also last year's New York-bred Champion Older Female and Champion Turf Female; and eight-year-old mare Irish Actress (Seattle Song). The TOBA Annual Awards Dinner will be held Friday, September 8 at Lane's End Farm in Lexington.

"She's a real professional," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I had a hunch we should go right to the lead, and that's what happened. As they were coming down the stretch, I could see all the trailers pumping hard on their horses and then I knew we were in good shape." An impressive winner in his debut at Belmont July 4, Maria's Mon made the jump into graded stakes company with ease. Sent off the even-money choice, the grey battled on the lead from the start, shaking off longshot DEVOTED RUNNER (Mining) and the filly ROSIE O'GRETA (Fight Over) on the far turn, then drawing off to a clear victory. "This horse shows class mentally as well as physically," said trainer Rick Schosberg. "He didn't really get a breather in the race, maybe half a breather on the far turn." Schosberg said the GI Hopeful August 27 would probably be next for his colt.

The three-year-old will be trying to pick up her third Oaks after taking the Kentucky Oaks in May and the Canadian Oaks last time.

Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) shoulders highweight in quest of a third straight GI victory. Last year's champion three-year-old filly rallied to take the mile-and-a-sixteenth Hempstead H. in her most recent start. Describing that race, trainer Shug McGaughey said, "Pat Day told me she was really lethargic until he got into her. I think we'll see a different situation this time. I've sharpened her a little more and she's been galloping as good as I've seen her gallop in a long time."

DIPLOMATIC JET (c, 3, Roman Diplomat--Precious Jet, by Tri Jet), making his first start since February, was ignored at the windows despite a 12-length win in the grassy Gill Pilgrim S. at two. The longest shot on the board at 29-1, the chestnut was rated well off the opening fractions but closed steadily to catch 16-1 frontrunner SIR WOLLASTON (Wollaston) in the final yards and edge clear for a 1 3/4-length triumph. The 4-5 favorite LOWER EGYPT (Silver Hawk) was pinched back at the start and found himself in tight quarters on the far turn; he made a run at the leaders at the top of the stretch but could not sustain the rally and ended up third. Local News: Calder

Calder Race Course, the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association have united to seek approval from the Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering for full-card simulcasting on a trial basis. If approved by the Division, Calder has agreed that during the trial it will offer no less than eight live races, five days a week; furnish the Division, the FHBPA and the FTBOA with appropriate financial information; and guarantee that the purses and Florida Owners' Awards generated by the handle on full-card simulcasting will be proportionately the same as on the live and ITW handle. "This agreement will make up the basics of our 1996 legislative proposals regarding full-card simulcasting if the trial period proves successful," said Irv Cowan, Chairman of the FHBPA Executive Board.

Bint Shadayid (Nashwan), a two-year-old daughter of 1000 Guineas winner Shadayid, was quoted as low as 14-1 for next year's edition of that Classic following an impressive maiden win at Ascot yesterday. The John Dunlop trainee set a slow pace in the short field of four, then pulled away from her rivals in the final 300 yards to win by 3 1/2 lengths. The filly was originally scheduled for a June debut but, explained Dunlop, "She developed a bit of a dirty throat."
